STATEMENT REGARDING SMALL BUSINESS IMPACT
(NRS 233B.0608 and 233B.0609)

I, Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson, being the duly appointed Executive Director of the Nevada Commission on Ethics, do hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge or belief:

1. The proposed temporary regulations reflect amendments to NRS Chapter 281A made pursuant to Assembly Bill 60 of the 2015 Legislative Session (Chapter 186, 2015 Statutes of Nevada), which include provisions relating to Commission procedures for jurisdiction, notice and investigations of third-party requests for opinion, confidentiality of certain information and documents, and other matters related thereto. The proposed temporary regulations will also amend various provisions of NAC Chapter 281A to streamline case management and investigatory processes, including without limitation, jurisdictional reviews, motion practice before the Commission and requirements for withdrawing, reconsidering or rehearing matters.

2. The proposed temporary regulations are not likely to: (a) impose a direct or significant economic burden upon a small business, or (b) directly restrict the formation, operation or expansion of a small business. (NRS 233B.0608(1)).

3. Commission staff analyzed whether the proposed temporary regulations could cause small business any economic burden, and none of the proposals were found to directly or significantly affect business in Nevada.

4. The Nevada Ethics in Government Law in NRS and NAC Chapters 281A does not directly govern or affect any small business in Nevada. Rather, the Commission and the Ethics Law govern only the conduct of public officers and employees to ensure that they commit themselves to avoid conflicts between their private interests and those of the general public whom they serve. Based on the foregoing, Commission staff concluded that the proposed temporary regulations will have no effect on small business. (NRS 233B.0608(3)).

5. Comment by small business has not been solicited or summarized. Because small businesses generally are not likely to be affected by the adoption of these proposed temporary regulations, no assessment of the burden or economic impact can be completed. (NRS 233B.0608(2)(a)).

Respectfully submitted,

DATED: 4/28/16

/s/ Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson
