FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

COVID-19 (CORONAVIRUS) UPDATE:
OFFICE CLOSURES/ PUBLIC ACCESS-STAFF TELECOMMUTING

As a result of the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) Pandemic, the Nevada Commission on Ethics' Office in Carson City will be closed to the public until future notice.

However, the Commission will maintain its regular staff office hours from Monday-Thursday, 7:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m., via virtual office hours and staff telecommuting.

For all public inquiries, please email the Commission at: NCOE@ethics.nv.gov. Staff will monitor this email account throughout each business day and respond in a timely manner during virtual office hours.

For all other updates, and continued access to the Commission for the filing and submission of Advisory Requests, Ethics Complaints, Ethical Acknowledgment Forms, Public Records Requests, and any other matters, please see the Commission's Website at: <http://ethics.nv.gov>.

For emergencies or other media inquiries, please contact the Commission's Executive Director, Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson, at: 775-687-4312 or ynevarez@ethics.nv.gov.

NOTE: The Commission's Meeting scheduled for Wednesday, March 18, 2020 at 9:30 a.m. at the Commission's Carson City Office will be conducted as publicly noticed. Under Nevada's Open Meeting Law, the public is invited to attend the meeting. All Commissioners and the majority of staff will attend the meeting telephonically. Social distancing will be enforced for any members of the public who attend the meeting. If there is too large of a public turn-out to enforce social distancing and other directives for limitations on public gatherings, the meeting will be cancelled and rescheduled.
