ANNUAL REPORT TO THE COMMISSION ON ETHICS REGARDING FISCAL YEAR 2015

Pursuant to Nevada Administrative Code 281A.180(2), the Executive Director must report to the Commission on Ethics (“Commission”) annually regarding the fiscal, legislative, regulatory and other business undertaken by and on behalf of the Commission in the past fiscal year and the goals for new fiscal year. This Report recognizes the Commission's business, activities and accomplishments between July 1, 2014 and June 30, 2015. The Annual Report further contains various statistical information evaluating certain trends and patterns.

The information contained herein is based upon public records of the Commission which are available upon request for review at the Commission’s office during business hours. Additionally, the Commission maintains a public website at <https://ethics.nv.gov/> on which the public may search the Commission's database of opinions, review minutes and agendas, find instructions and forms for filing requests for the Commission's opinion and access other public information. The Commission also posts its agendas on the Nevada Public Notice statewide website at <https://notice.nv.gov/>.

July 1, 2015

Commissioners:

As required by Nevada Administrative Code 281A.180(2), submitted for your consideration is this annual report of the fiscal, legislative, regulatory and other business undertaken by and on behalf of the Commission during the past fiscal year (“FY15”) and the Commission’s goals for the new fiscal year.

The Commission confronted and embraced considerable change and growth in the past fiscal year, including changes to the Commission’s personnel, employment policies and overall goals to provide outreach and education to Nevada’s public officers and employees. Most notably, FY15 brought the Commission new staff leadership and revitalized staff energy. In Fall 2014, the Commission appointed me as its new Executive Director, having served the prior 5 years as its Commission Counsel. I’m honored to represent the Commission in this capacity and proud to embrace this position and serve as the face of the Commission for all of our outreach and education in the State. Moreover, I will continue to provide my legal knowledge and experience to the Commission.

The vacancy left open by my transfer brought the significant and well-respected legal talents and experience of Ms. Tracy L. Chase, Esq. as the new Commission Counsel. Ms. Chase brings a diverse legal background to the Commission, including, among various private sector and other government-related experience, having represented the City of Reno and its local government public officers and employees. As the newly appointed professionals charged to lead the Commission’s mission, Ms. Chase and I have created and fostered a professional and dedicated team to maintain the integrity of this Commission.

Continuing to serve the Commission in the past fiscal year and provide outstanding public service include the Associate Counsel, Jill C. Davis, Esq., Executive Assistant, Valerie Carter, CPM, Senior Legal Researcher, Darci Hayden, and Senior Investigator, Anthony Freiberg. As true growth develops from challenges and successes, the past fiscal year presented the Commission with a climate study performed by the State Division of Human Resource Management of the Department of Administration regarding the Commission’s team and internal personnel governance. The depth of information learned from these evaluations has put in place an environment rich in renewed staff resources and energies and a revitalized relationship between the Commission and its staff. It's a pleasure to report a few of these journeys and successes in this Report and expectations for the coming fiscal year.

Ms. Davis has remained vigilant and dedicated to investigating and negotiating settlements in all of our Third-Party Requests for Opinions and providing quality legal information to the Commission in contested cases. She also travels throughout the State to benefit the Commission's outreach efforts. Her contributions are likewise commendable in her assistance with the legal team's case load, including requests for advisory opinions. Ms. Carter had both professional and personal growth in the last fiscal year with her graduation and certification from the Nevada Certified Public Manager's Program. Her leadership and innovative ideas streamlined Commission practices, resulting in significant savings to staff resources, and provided smooth transition for administrative and budgetary matters during the 2015 Legislative Session.

Ms. Hayden has broadened her paralegal and legal researching skills and contributions by taking on various administrative and legislative tasks and continuing her educational training through her participation in and leadership as the Treasurer of the Douglas-Carson Legal Professionals, a Nevada chapter affiliate of NALS, the Association for Legal Professionals. She has also adapted responsively and efficiently to support the needs of our new Commission Counsel while maintaining the Commission's case management systems. Though Anthony Freiberg is by now a familiar face, he joined the Commission staff during the first quarter of the last fiscal year as our new Senior Investigator. He has worked cooperatively with the Commission's Executive Director and Associate Counsel to investigate the Commission's Third-Party RFOs and has fostered respect and trust in the Commission's investigatory processes and outreach efforts throughout the State. I'm proud of these accomplishments and teamwork, and I look forward to our ability to achieve much more together in the coming year, continuing to turn our climate into one of respect and collaboration.

Looking forward into the next fiscal year, the Commission will again be confronted with personnel changes. In the Fall 2015, we expect to miss fondly the dedicated commitment and talents of the Commission's Chair, Paul H. Lamboley, Esq., and Vice-Chair, Gregory J. Gale, CPA, both having served two terms. The Commission can stand proud of their legacy and unwavering pledge to promote the integrity and importance of Ethics in Government Law in all government forums, executive, legislative and judicial, as well as the public. Among the many accomplishments achieved under their watch include the precedent-setting legal decisions in Carrigan before the Supreme Court of the United States (Nev. Comm'n on Ethics v. Carrigan, 562 U.S. 1127, 131 S. Ct. 857 (2001)) and the Nevada Supreme Court (Carrigan v. Comm'n on Ethics of Nev., 313 p. 3d 880, 129 Nev. Adv. Rep. 95 (2013)); Senate Bill 228 of the 2013 Legislative Session; Assembly Bill 60 of the 2015 Legislative Session; and approximately 300 Commission decisions. The Commission and staff will openly welcome the new Commissioners to be appointed, one each by the Governor and Legislative Commission, bringing new ideas and perspectives.

As a unique, self-governing agency within State Government, the Commission has significant independence from various State systems, including certain administrative, budget and personnel requirements. Although the flexibility is a great resource, it also has its limitations, and the human resources climate study presented an opportunity to clarify certain administrative responsibilities and personnel/employment policies. In collaboration with the Division of Human Resource Management, the next fiscal year will introduce certain employment policies and procedures to ensure clarity and consistency for Commissioners and its Staff.

In addition to the personnel-related matters, the Commission achieved important success and met certain challenges with various legislative efforts before the 2015 Nevada Legislature, including passage of the Commission's Budget and Assembly Bill 60, and reinforced its goals to engage in outreach and education to Nevada's public officers and employees. This Report will highlight those achievements, challenges and continued goals for the next fiscal year.

As you review the information in this Annual Report, I hope you will be as proud as I am about the Commission's growth and diversity, and the direction in which the agency is headed.

Thank you for the opportunity to be of service to the Commission, its staff and the public for these last 6 years, and I look forward to continuing in this important role to implement the Commission's goals for the next fiscal year.

Sincerely,

Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson, Esq.
Executive Director

I. Background/Requests for Opinion

Nevada Commission on Ethics - Ethics in Government Law:

The Nevada Commission on Ethics is an independent public body appointed equally by the Governor and Legislative Commission to enforce and interpret the provisions of Nevada's Ethics in Government Law, NRS Chapter 281A ("Ethics Law"). In Nevada's citizen-based representative government, the primary mission of the Ethics in Government Law is to preserve the public trust and to ensure that the public officers and employees avoid conflicts between their private interests and the interests of the public whom they serve. The Ethics Law sets forth various standards of conduct to guide public officers and employees to avoid such conflicts.

The Commission's primary goals include providing outreach and education to Nevada's public officers and employees regarding the provisions of the Ethics Law and understanding potential conflicts of interest. In addition to its educational efforts, the Commission provides advisory opinions to public officers and employees regarding their own circumstances ("First-Party Requests for Advisory Opinions") and investigates and opines on conduct of public officers and employees alleged to be in violation of the Ethics Law ("Third-Party Requests for Opinion"), hereafter collectively referred to as "Requests for Opinion" or "RFOs".

Requests for Opinion:

The majority of the Commission's work is undertaken by staff at the agency's office in Carson City, in addition to that accomplished by Commissioners in the scheduled public meetings of the Commission. The primary work of the Commission and its staff involves acting upon the requests for opinion the Commission receives. The Commission's mission to provide outreach and education is consistent with its desire and ability to provide advisory opinions in hopes of forestalling or preventing third-party complaints.

Over a 7-year period ending June 30, 2015, the Commission received an annual average of 75 Third-Party RFOs. However, the Commission only accepted jurisdiction, investigated and adjudicated an annual average of 23 Third-Party RFOs.

The Commission received an average of 18 First-Party RFOs in which hearings were held and advisory opinions were issued.

<sup>1</sup>The reduction in the volume of First-Party RFOs in FY 15 may be attributable to the Commission's renewed efforts to promote education and outreach to the State's public officers and employees and the public attorneys who represent them and Commission staff's ability to refer potential requesters to existing Commission Opinions as precedent.

<sup>2</sup> All RFOs accepted in FY 14 have been resolved except for 2 which are presently the subject of litigation before the First Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada (Carson City).

<sup>3</sup> As of the date of this Annual Report, 15 out of the 17 RFOs investigated in FY15 remain pending resolution; 1 was dismissed by the Investigatory Panel and 1 was resolved by stipulation. Of the remaining 15 RFOs: 5 are pending resolution by stipulation during the Commission's July 2015 Meeting; 1 is pending a Panel Determination during the Commission's July 2015 Meeting; 2 are pending stipulations during the Commission's August/September 2015 Meeting; 1 is pending a Hearing during the Commission's August/September 2015 Meeting; 1 is pending a legal motion for the Commission's October/November 2015 Meeting; and 5 continue to be investigated.

The Commission has had a slight decrease in the number of Third-Party RFOs accepted during this fiscal year as compared to prior years. However, the majority of these RFOs have continued to involve complex analysis and increased adversarial administrative proceedings before the Commission, including legal challenges to jurisdiction, the scope and nature of investigations and other legal challenges. These legal motions have increased the volume of matters requiring consideration and resolution by the Commission during its proceedings. However, it is expected again that most, if not all, Third-Party RFOs the Commission considers from this fiscal year will result in stipulated resolutions. This denotes the role of the Executive Director and Commission’s Associate Counsel and the lawyering efforts of Subjects’ counsel to resolve matters in a timely fashion and mitigate the strain on Commission resources. Consistent with the 2013 amendments to the Ethics Law, the Commission continues to consider various mitigating factors in its determination of willful violations. The Commission’s consideration of these factors in each case continues to favor stipulated outcomes by Subjects.

Commission Opinions:

The Commission resolved its backlog of written opinions during FY14. During FY15, the Commission complied with the budgetary performance measure to complete all written opinions within 60 days of its hearings. Many changes have contributed to the Commission’s ability to satisfy this objective, including the Commission’s outreach and education efforts, the Associate Counsel’s contribution to the legal demands on Commission staff, the continued efforts of dedicated staff, the increased involvement of the Executive Director in Commission investigations and case proceedings and fewer Commission meetings.

Sanctions Imposed:

In FY15, the Commission imposed $1,500 in civil penalties. Pursuant to State law, the entirety of any financial sanctions the Commission collects is deposited into the State General Fund.

II. Fiscal Matters

Commission Budget:

Albeit an Executive/Legislative agency of State Government, the Nevada Commission on Ethics proposes a biennial budget to the Governor for consideration to be presented to the Legislature as part of the Executive Budget. The Commission has had limited to no success in achieving legislative approval of requests outside of the Executive Budget, yet has consistently attempted consideration of various budgetary issues affecting the Commission, including salary disparities for certain personnel.

The Commission's legislatively approved budget for fiscal year 2014-15 was $760,983, including personnel (salaries/benefits), travel, operating expenses, court reporting, information technology equipment and services and other State-related cost allocations and assessments. Continuing for the last fiscal year, the Governor ordered all State employees to undertake mandatory unpaid furloughs for 48 hours each fiscal year, and maintained the freeze on salaries of State employees imposed in 2009. However, furlough requirements have been eliminated for future years.

Other than personnel and operating costs, the Commission's primary mission to provide outreach and education regarding Ethics in Government Law and respond to requests for opinions establish the largest fiscal impacts on the Commission's budget. The 2013 Legislature approved a biennial budget which increased the Commission's travel and court reporting budget categories to provide the Commission and its staff with sufficient funding to hold Commission meetings and hearings and to provide outreach and education to Nevada's public officers and employees. The Commission made consistent efforts during the last fiscal year to spend responsibly from those categories. On average, the Commission met in person as a body every other month and engaged in various other meetings via video-teleconference and/or teleconference. Commission staff has travelled frequently throughout Nevada, and primarily to Las Vegas, Nevada, to attend meetings, provide outreach and education and conduct investigations of Third-Party RFOs.

Although the last fiscal year did not establish the Commission's base budget year for purposes of the 2015-17 biennial budget planning, the amount allotted for costs associated with Commission meetings is fairly consistent with the amounts projected for the next biennium in hopes to continue the same meeting, training and investigatory trends. Notably, the biennial budgets in the past (including the next biennial budget) have not included funding for investigatory travel costs. The sophistication of Third-Party RFOs and other matters being filed with the Commission necessitate significant travel and related resources to conduct investigations throughout the State by the Commission's Executive Director, Associate Counsel and Senior Investigator, including witness interviews. Accordingly, the Commission will require additional funding in the future for its investigatory purposes. Commission staff has documented all travel-related costs for investigations during the past fiscal year and will continue to track these expenses to provide proper budget projections for the next budget cycle, for inclusion in the 2017-2019 Biennial Budget Proposal.

The Commission's proposed biennial budget for 2015-2017 requested increased salaries for Commission staff, primarily the Executive Director and Commission Counsel. During the 2013 Legislative Session, the Commission requested an additional staff position, the Associate Counsel. The position was proposed to be appointed by the Executive Director, and provide support to the Commission's Executive Director in Third-Party RFOs and support to the Commission Counsel in all other legal matters. The proposed budget listed the Associate Counsel salary at the current salary for the Executive Director and Commission Counsel, as the lowest level salary range for an attorney in State government. The proposed budget also requested salary enhancements for the Executive Director and Commission Counsel in line with equivalent positions in State government and to address the salary disparity with the new position. The Legislature approved the new position at the proposed salary range, but did not approve the increased salary ranges for the Executive Director and Commission Counsel due to confusion and/or inconsistent information and oversight in salary adjustments. The Commission again sought enhancements during the 2015 Legislative Session to address these disparities and was not successful. The Commission will attempt to draw attention to the significant salary disparity of the Commission's Executive Director and Commission Counsel in the next biennial budget, along with appropriate salary adjustments for other staff positions. Notably, similar staff positions are funded at significantly higher rates in the Commission’s sister agency in the Judicial Branch, the Judicial Discipline Commission.

The Commission derives the majority of its funding from financial participation of Nevada's Local Governments (cities and counties). The remaining portion is provided from the State General Fund. The number of requests for opinion the Commission receives regarding public officers or public employees in the various jurisdictions in the prior two fiscal years forms the basis for each entity's proportional contribution. In the 2011-13 biennium (FY12 & FY13), the distribution of requests was 24% State and 76% local governments. In the 2013-15 biennium (FY14 & FY15), the agency's financial support was derived 31% from the State General Fund and 69% from local government contribution. The Fiscal Year 2013 and Fiscal Year 2014 caseload forms the basis for the distribution of resources for the 2015-17 biennium, based upon the information in the chart that follows.

| FY 13 &amp; FY 14Basis for FY 16 -FY 17 State/LocalshareTotal RFOs filed | STATE(State officer or employeewas the subject) | LOCAL(Local government officer oremployee was the subject) |
|   | 21%   | 79%  |

The Commission presented this proportion to the 2015 Legislature to be allocated to the State and local governments to participate in funding the legislatively-approved budget for the 2016-17 biennium (FY16 and FY17) and the Legislature approved this funding allocation.

(See Appendix A – Commission’s Legislatively Approved 2015-2017 Biennial Budget)

III. Legislative Matters

The Commission submitted a limited and focused legislative measure for consideration during the 2015 Legislative Session, sponsored by the Governor and carried by the Commission. Assembly Bill 60 sought various revisions based on the Commission's practices and procedures relating to requests for opinions and its interpretations of the statutory standards of ethical conduct, and its desire to promote the overall mission to protect and preserve the public trust against conflicts of interest. The bill became effective upon passage and approval, May 27, 2015.

In particular, AB 60 clarified statutory timelines for Commission investigations and hearings, authorized additional confidentiality of certain information, proceedings and investigatory files related to requests for opinions, revised factors for consideration of mitigating factors related to willful violations of the Ethics in Government Law, and clarified requirements related to "safe-harbors" from willful violations for appropriate reliance on legal counsel. The statutory timelines related to Third-Party RFOs were revised to provide appropriate timing for jurisdictional analysis and review of matters before the commencement of investigatory timelines. The Bill also confirmed the confidentiality of the Commission's investigatory file, including information related to the Investigatory Panel, subject to certain discovery and due process requirements. For First-Party RFOs, the Bill authorized the Requesters to report the Commission's decision to certain employers and certain other individuals without waiving confidentiality. Finally, the Commission clarified the mitigating factors to be considered in determinations of willful violations, including the timing of good faith reliance on legal counsel as a "safe harbor" from a willful violation in advance of the conduct.

The Commission proposed a suggestion to the Legislature regarding anonymous complaints to confront, in part, a few distinct concerns. First, the Commission has been concerned that members of the public are reluctant to file legitimate Third-Party RFOs regarding alleged conduct of public officers and employees because the Requesters must publicly identify themselves. In certain cases, the public disclosure creates fear of retribution and/or retaliation, particularly if the requesters are filing complaints against persons within their own government agency. Furthermore, the Commission has been concerned that while it is statutorily required to maintain the confidentiality of any complaint to protect the integrity of the investigations prior to a determination of credible evidence by an Investigatory Panel, the Requesters are not prohibited from disclosing the Commission's jurisdiction and investigation of such matters. While the Legislature did not approve of anonymous complaints in A.B. 60, it did enact a compromise allowing government personnel to file complaints against individuals within their agencies without disclosing the requestor's name. This protection exists in the law with the continued requirements for evidence in support of any such allegations and potential disclosure if the matter results in a hearing. The Commission will be able to track any trends in this area in the coming fiscal year to determine whether it results in more Third-Party RFOs filed.

In addition to the Commission's legislative measures, the Commission also sought legislative approval to increase the respective salaries of the Commission staff, in particular the Commission's Executive Director and Commission Counsel, which were not included in the Governor's Recommended Budget to the Legislature. (See Fiscal Matters). (See Appendix B – A.B. 60, Effective May 27, 2015.)

IV. Regulatory Matters

In 2014, the Commission adopted permanent regulations in the Nevada Administrative Code which were approved by the Legislative Commission on October 24, 2014. These regulations implemented various changes from the 2013 Legislation (S.B. 228) and provided for appellate review by the Commission of staff's jurisdictional determinations of Third-Party Requests for Opinion. Under the new regulatory procedures, the Requester may appeal staff's denial of jurisdiction and the Subject may appeal staff's acceptance of jurisdiction. (See Appendix C - Agency Adopted Regulations, LCB File No. R048-14.)

As a result of these regulatory changes, the Commission received 9 jurisdictional appeals of the 60 Third-Party RFOs received. One of the appeals was submitted by the Subject of an RFO challenging staff's acceptance of jurisdiction, and the Commission upheld staff's determination and confirmed jurisdiction. The other 8 appeals were filed by the Requesters of RFOs challenging staff's denial of jurisdiction. The Commission overturned staff's determinations in 2 of the 8 appeals and accepted jurisdiction of those matters. Five of the 8 appeals were denied such that staff’s determinations were upheld and one remains pending a determination from the Commission.

Having the last fiscal year to create this appellate process, including development of the forms, timelines and practices to implement the appellate process, the Commission will be in a good position in the next year to evaluate the effectiveness and appropriateness of the regulation and refine its forms and processes.

Looking forward to the next fiscal year, the Executive Director expects to recommend various regulatory changes to NAC 281A in response to 2015 legislative changes and revised internal processes and procedures for case management and filings of requests for opinion, particularly with regard to the nature of Third-Party RFO proceedings.

V. Administrative Matters

Outreach and Education:

In FY15, the Commission revitalized and strengthened its efforts to provide outreach and education to Nevada’s public officers and employees. In particular, the Commission promoted outreach to the publicly appointed attorneys representing public officers and employees. Outreach and education regarding the Commission’s substance and procedure enhanced the awareness of, and compliance with, the Ethics in Government Laws and have resulted in increased public trust. These efforts assist the agency in promoting and fulfilling its core mission.

The Executive Director has sought and obtained significant opportunities throughout the State to provide this outreach and education in the last fiscal year, with tremendous outreach planned in the next fiscal year. Consistent with its efforts to reach public attorneys, the fiscal year began with a presentation by the Executive Director and Commission Counsel of an administrative law seminar with an emphasis on Ethics in Government at the State Bar Conference in Newport Beach, CA.

Progressing from the State Bar training, the Executive Director provided training sessions throughout Nevada, reaching hundreds of public officers, public employees and members of the public, with special invitations to the public attorneys. Of particular note for the last fiscal year included training and outreach to most of Northern and Eastern Nevada's rural communities, including the various publicly elected and appointed officials and employees throughout Douglas County (Minden/Gardnerville), Eureka County, White Pine County (including City of Ely), Elko County, Lander County (Battle Mountain) and Humboldt County (City of Winnemucca). With our staff located in Northern Nevada, the Executive Director has also ably reached the Cities of Reno, Carson City, and Fernley and will continue to reach other geographically close jurisdictions in the next year. The Executive Director has also initiated outreach with the greater urban jurisdictions throughout Clark County and some of the smaller jurisdictions in Southern Nevada, including Nye County, early in FY 16.

Training also was provided at meetings and conferences of entities such as Nevada Association of Counties' and Nevada League of Cities and Municipalities' P.O.W.E.R. conference, PoolPACT, and Southern Nevada Workforce Connections. The Commission also continues to offer Ethics in Government Law training as a portion of the coursework for the Certified Public Manager programs in Nevada.

One of the more recent attempts at Ethics in Government Law outreach and education has involved the training of State employees and various State Boards such as the Public Employees' Benefits Program Board. The Commission continues its participation with the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation's outreach titled "The Ethics of Excellence." Moreover, larger State departments such as the Department of Taxation and the Gaming Control Board have also been reached in FY 15. The Commission also participated in outreach after the 2014 election to newly elected Sheriffs and officers that are second- or next-in-command to the Sheriff. These entities have shown great recognition of Ethics Law and have encouraged and assisted the promotion of training to similar agencies throughout State and local government.

Prior legislation adopted in 2013 revised provisions in NRS 281A.500 and imposed the requirement that certain state and local government administrators provide new state and local government employees with information about NRS 281A, the Ethics in Government Law. Although significant efforts were made by various jurisdictions to become compliant and initiate efforts to solicit training from the Executive Director, the Commission will need to be certain to provide continued outreach to the administrative personnel responsible for informing public officers and employees of the Ethics requirements.

As we attempt to reach more public employees throughout the State, the Commission's outreach efforts may increase in the coming fiscal year. Certainly the Commission's efforts and resources are better spent with this proactive approach, and will continue to serve as one of the Commission's primary goals.

Offices:

The Commission operates a statewide office located in Carson City. The agency maintains a small non-public workspace in Las Vegas located in the Grant Sawyer State Office Building from which traveling staff may work, prepare meeting materials or meet with others while conducting an investigation or otherwise working in southern Nevada. As the sophistication and geographic diversity of the Commission expands, the Commission may consider re-opening a more visible and accessible Las Vegas office, to be included in the proposed budget for the 2017-19 biennium. Further, the Commission may consider the necessity for a Northern and Southern office with video-teleconference capabilities as office space to hold public meetings is becoming limited. These resources will ensure continued outreach and education throughout the State, and appropriate office and work station in Southern Nevada and Commissioner access to attend various meetings via video-teleconference.

Documents Filed:

Pursuant to NRS 281A.500, public officers filed 888 Acknowledgment of Ethical Standards forms with the Commission for calendar year 2014. The Commission received 1,075 such Acknowledgments for 2013, 423 for 2012, 667 for 2011 and 725 for 2010. Most public officers must file these forms at the beginning of a term of office, so the number of forms filed from year to year does not indicate a rise or fall in overall compliance. The number of Acknowledgements generally increases as the awareness of this requirement is implemented throughout State and local jurisdictions.

NRS 281A.410 requires certain public officers to disclose their paid representation or counseling of private persons before a state agency of the Executive branch. The Commission received 24 disclosures of agency representation for 2014, 18 filings for 2013 and 12 filings for 2012. For 2011, 11 such disclosures were filed, and for 2010, the Commission received 14. Again, the Commission is unable to determine whether the change in the number of filings is indicative of compliance, as it is impossible to determine how many representations requiring disclosure took place.

Litigation:

The Commission had two Third-Party RFOs subject to litigation during the last fiscal year, both of which were consolidated and continue into the current fiscal year. The Commission's proceedings are identified as: (1) In the Matter of the Third-Party Request for Opinion Concerning the Conduct of Public Officer Ira Hansen, Assemblyman, State of Nevada (RFO 14-21C); and (2) In the Matter of the Third-Party Request for Opinion Concerning the Conduct of Public Officer Jim Wheeler, Assemblyman, State of Nevada (RFO 14-22C). After the Commission's acceptance of jurisdiction of these matters, Subjects Hansen and Wheeler filed a joint Petition for Judicial Review and/or Petition and Application for Writ of Certiorari, Review or Prohibition entitled "Hansen and Wheeler v. Nevada Commission on Ethics" in the First Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada in and for Carson City, Case No.150C000761B, to prevent the Commission's review of these matters alleging a lack of subject matter jurisdiction. The Subjects assert protection from the Commission's jurisdiction based upon certain principles of legislative privilege and immunity. However, in part, the Commission objects to these assertions on the basis that they are premature and the Commission must have an opportunity to investigate the facts and determine whether the alleged conduct constitutes legislative acts subject to the privileged immunity. The matters are currently pending resolution in the District Court.

Nevada Certified Public Manager Program Participation:

Although it is a two-year program, during the last fiscal year the Commission's Executive Assistant, Valerie M. Carter, was awarded a certificate as a Certified Public Manager from the prestigious Nevada Certified Public Manager Program (CPM Program), a state-sponsored, nationally recognized and nationally accredited leadership and management development program designed for public administrators to develop management theory and techniques in public service. After months of devoted study in various management and professional development courses, the CPM Program culminates in a Capstone Quality Improvement Project that must involve an agency-related project developed and implemented by each of the participants with a focus on improving agency efficiency and effectiveness related to its mission and result in a high organizational impact and a realized cost savings to the State.

Ms. Carter's Capstone Project implemented new Commission practices to improve the efficiency of written opinions and reduce costs to the State by reducing the number of Commission meetings necessary to resolve the business of the Commission, including the costs associated with travel, court reporting and staff resources. During the Project's implementation, the Commission began meeting bi-monthly, as appropriate, to provide staff sufficient time between meetings to address old and new Commission business, including completion of the Commission's backlog of opinions while new matters remained current. These practices will serve to provide the backdrop for the estimated cost-savings in travel, court reporting and meeting-related costs during the development of the Commissions 2015-2017 biennial budget.

This past fiscal year also included the Executive Director's acceptance to the Nevada Certified Public Manager Program with an anticipated graduation date in February 2017.

2015 Nevada Legislature

Appendix B

Assembly Bill No. 60–Committee on Legislative Operations and Elections

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to ethics in government; revising provisions relating to ethics in government; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Under the Nevada Ethics in Government Law, the Commission on Ethics is required to determine whether it has jurisdiction over a request for an opinion. (NRS 281A.280; NAC 281A.360, 281A.405) The Ethics Law also imposes time limits on the Commission to carry out certain duties. With respect to a request for an opinion regarding the conduct of a public officer or employee which is made by a third party and is more commonly known as a third-party request, the Executive Director of the Commission is required to complete an investigation and make a recommendation regarding the third-party request within 70 days after receipt of the request, unless the public officer or employee waives the time limit. (NRS 281A.440)

To accommodate the time required for the Commission to determine whether it has jurisdiction concerning a third-party request, section 3 of this bill provides that within 45 days after receiving the request, the Commission shall determine whether it has jurisdiction concerning the request, unless the public officer or employee waives the time limit. If the Commission determines that it has jurisdiction concerning the request, the Executive Director must complete the investigation and make a recommendation regarding the request within 70 days after the jurisdictional determination, unless the public officer or employee waives the time limit.

Under the Ethics Law, the investigative file relating to a request for an opinion, which includes any information obtained by the Commission during the course of an investigation related to the request, is confidential. (NRS 281A.440) Section 3 clarifies that the investigative file includes any information provided to or obtained by an investigatory panel consisting of Commission members or by the staff of the Commission.

The Ethics Law further provides that all information that is not included in the investigative file relating to a request is confidential for a limited time until an investigatory panel determines whether there is just and sufficient cause to render an opinion in the matter or until the public officer or employee authorizes disclosure, whichever occurs first. (NRS 281A.440) Section 3 authorizes additional confidentiality which allows a person who makes a third-party request to ask for the person’s name to be kept confidential under certain limited circumstances. In particular, section 3 states that the Commission: (1) shall keep the person’s name confidential if the person is a public officer or employee who works for the same public body, agency or employer as the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request; and (2) may keep the person’s name confidential if the person offers sufficient facts and circumstances showing a reasonable likelihood that disclosure of the person’s name will subject the person or a member of the person’s household to a bona fide threat of physical force or violence. However, if the Commission keeps the person’s name confidential, the Commission may not render an opinion in the matter unless there is sufficient evidence without the person’s testimony to consider the request. Additionally, if the Commission intends to present the person's testimony as evidence, the Commission must disclose the person's name within a reasonable time before the Commission's hearing on the matter.

Under the Ethics Law, the Commission is required to consider various aggravating and mitigating factors when determining whether a violation of the Ethics Law is a willful violation and, if so, the amount of any civil penalty to be imposed for such a willful violation of the Ethics Law. (NRS 281A.170, 281A.475) Sections 1 and 4 of this bill clarify that the factors listed in the Ethics Law which must be considered by the Commission are not exclusive or exhaustive, and the Commission may consider other factors in the disposition of the matter if they bear a reasonable relationship to the determination of the severity of the violation.

The Ethics Law includes a "safe harbor" provision, whereby any act or failure to act by a current or former public officer or employee is deemed to not be a willful violation if the public officer or employee establishes by sufficient evidence that: (1) the public officer or employee relied in good faith upon the advice of the legal counsel retained by his or her public body, agency or employer; and (2) the act or failure to act by the public officer or employee was not contrary to a prior published opinion issued by the Commission. (NRS 281A.480) Section 5 of this bill clarifies that to qualify for protection under the "safe harbor" provision, the advice of the legal counsel must have been: (1) provided to the public officer or employee before he or she acted or failed to act; and (2) based on a reasonable legal determination by the legal counsel under the circumstances when the advice was given that the act or failure to act would not be contrary to any prior published opinion issued by the Commission which was publicly available on the Internet website of the Commission.

With certain exceptions, the Ethics Law imposes a 1-year "cooling off" period on former public officers and employees during which they are prohibited from soliciting or accepting employment from a business or industry over which they had regulatory authority in some capacity. However, the Ethics Law authorizes a current or former public officer or employee to request an opinion from the Commission to obtain relief from the strict application of the prohibition. The Ethics Law also authorizes a current public officer or employee to request the Commission to render an opinion providing guidance regarding his or her past, present or future conduct as a public officer or employee, which is known as a first-party request for an opinion. Under the Ethics Law, a request for an opinion regarding the application of the "cooling-off" prohibition or a first-party request for an opinion, as well as any opinion rendered by the Commission in response to such a request and any motion, determination, evidence or record of a hearing relating to such a request, are confidential unless, in part, the public officer or employee discloses the request for an opinion, opinion or related motion, evidence or record. (NRS 281A.440, 281A.550) Sections 3 and 6 of this bill allow a public officer or employee who made such a request to disclose the request for the opinion, the opinion and any motion, evidence or record related to the opinion to certain persons without waiving the confidentiality of the request for the opinion, opinion and any related motion, evidence or record.

Sec. 3. NRS 281A.440 is hereby amended to read as follows:

281A.440 1. The Commission shall render an opinion interpreting the statutory ethical standards and apply the standards to a given set of facts and circumstances within 45 days after receiving a request, on a form prescribed by the Commission, from a public officer or employee who is seeking guidance on questions which directly relate to the propriety of the requester’s own past, present or future conduct as a public officer or employee, unless the public officer or employee waives the time limit. The public officer or employee may also request the Commission to hold a public hearing regarding the requested opinion. If a requested opinion relates to the propriety of the requester’s own present or future conduct, the opinion of the Commission is:

(a) Binding upon the requester as to the requester’s future conduct; and

(b) Final and subject to judicial review pursuant to NRS 233B.130, except that a proceeding regarding this review must be held in closed court without admittance of persons other than those necessary to the proceeding, unless this right to confidential proceedings is waived by the requester.

2. The Commission may render an opinion interpreting the statutory ethical standards and apply the standards to a given set of facts and circumstances:

(a) Upon request from a specialized or local ethics committee.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, upon request from a person, if the requester submits:

(1) The request on a form prescribed by the Commission; and

(2) All related evidence deemed necessary by the Executive Director and the investigatory panel to make a determination of whether there is just and sufficient cause to render an opinion in the matter.

↳ The Commission shall not render an opinion interpreting the statutory ethical standards or apply those standards to a given set of facts and circumstances if the request is submitted by a person who is incarcerated in a correctional facility in this State.

3. Within 45 days after receiving a request for an opinion pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 2, the Commission shall determine whether it has jurisdiction concerning the request, unless the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request waives this time limit. Upon ~~receipt of~~ a determination by the Commission that it has jurisdiction concerning a request for an opinion ~~[by the Commission]~~ pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 2, or upon the motion of the Commission initiating a request for an opinion pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection 2, as applicable, the Executive Director shall investigate the facts and circumstances relating to the request to determine whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter. The Executive Director shall notify the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request and provide the public officer or employee an opportunity to submit to the Executive Director a response to the allegations against the public officer or employee within 30 days after the date on which the public officer or employee received the notice of the request. The purpose of the response is to provide the Executive Director with any information relevant to the request which the public officer or employee believes may assist the Executive Director and the investigatory panel in conducting the investigation. The public officer or employee is not required in the response or in any proceeding before the investigatory panel to assert, claim or raise any objection or defense, in law or fact, to the allegations against the public officer or employee and no objection or defense, in law or fact, is waived,

4. The Executive Director shall complete the investigation and present a written recommendation relating to just and sufficient cause, including, without limitation, the specific evidence or reasons that support the recommendation, to the investigatory panel within 70 days after the ~~receipt of~~ determination by the Commission that it has jurisdiction concerning the request or after the motion of the Commission ~~for~~ initiating the request, as applicable, unless the public officer or employee waives this time limit.

5. Within 15 days after the Executive Director has provided the written recommendation in the matter to the investigatory panel pursuant to subsection 4, the investigatory panel shall conclude the investigation and make a final determination regarding whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter, unless the public officer or employee waives this time limit. The investigatory panel shall not determine that there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter unless the Executive Director has provided the public officer or employee an opportunity to respond to the allegations against the public officer or employee as required by subsection 3. The investigatory panel shall cause a record of its proceedings in each matter to be kept.

6. If the investigatory panel determines that there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter, the Commission shall hold a hearing and render an opinion in the matter within 60 days after the determination of just and sufficient cause by the investigatory panel, unless the public officer or employee waives this time limit.

(b) The public officer or employee who is the subject of a request for an opinion submitted or initiated pursuant to subsection 2 authorizes the Commission in writing to make its information, communications, records, documents or other material which are related to the request publicly available,

9. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if a person who submits a request for an opinion pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 2 asks for the person's name to be kept confidential, the Commission:

(b) May keep the person's name confidential if the person offers sufficient facts and circumstances showing a reasonable likelihood that disclosure of the person's name will subject the person or a member of the person's household to a bona fide threat of physical force or violence.

↳ If the Commission keeps the person's name confidential, the Commission shall not render an opinion in the matter unless there is sufficient evidence without the person's testimony to consider the propriety of the conduct of the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request. If the Commission intends to present the person's testimony for consideration as evidence in rendering an opinion in the matter, the Commission shall disclose the person's name within a reasonable time before the Commission's hearing on the matter.

Any portion of the investigative file which the Commission presents as evidence in rendering an opinion in the matter becomes a public record as provided in chapter 239 of NRS.

3. In applying the factors set forth in this section, the Commission shall treat comparable situations in a comparable manner and shall ensure that the disposition of the matter bears a reasonable relationship to the severity of the violation.

Sec. 5. NRS 281A.480 is hereby amended to read as follows:

3. If the Commission finds that a violation of a provision of this chapter by a public officer or employee or former public officer or employee has resulted in the realization of a financial benefit by the current or former public officer or employee or another person, the Commission may, in addition to any other penalties provided by law, require the current or former public officer or employee to pay a civil penalty of not more than twice the amount so realized.

If the Commission finds that a public officer or employee has committed a willful violation of this chapter which it believes may also constitute a criminal offense, the Commission shall refer the matter to the Attorney General or the district attorney, as appropriate, for a determination of whether a crime has been committed that warrants prosecution.

8. The imposition of a civil penalty pursuant to subsection 1, 2 or 3 is a final decision for the purposes of judicial review pursuant to NRS 233B.130.

9. A finding by the Commission that a public officer or employee has violated any provision of this chapter must be supported by a preponderance of the evidence unless a greater burden is otherwise prescribed by law.

ADOPTED REGULATION
OF THE COMMISSION ON ETHICS

LCB File No. R048-14

Effective October 24, 2014

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §§1-23, NRS 281A.290.

A REGULATION relating to ethics in government; revising provisions relating to the procedures of the Commission on Ethics and the staff of the Commission; revising provisions relating to the confidentiality of certain information and documents which are used by the Commission and the staff of the Commission; revising provisions relating to the determination of a commitment in a private capacity of a public officer or employee; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law provides a code of ethical standards which prohibits a public officer or employee from using the public officer’s or employee’s position in government to secure or grant unwarranted privileges, preferences, exemptions or advantages for any person to whom the public officer or employee has a commitment in a private capacity to the interests of that person. (NRS 281A.400) Senate Bill No. 228 of the 77th Session of the Nevada Legislature revised the definition of the term “commitment in a private capacity” to include, with respect to the interests of another person, a commitment, interest or relationship of a public officer or employee to: (1) a person who is the domestic partner of the public officer or employee; and (2) a person who is related to the domestic partner of the public officer or employee, by blood, adoption, marriage or domestic partnership within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity. (NRS 281A.065)

Section 9 of this regulation revises a chart used by the Commission on Ethics to determine relationships within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity to include relationships based on domestic partnership and adoption. (NAC 281A.310)

Under existing law, the Commission is required to render an opinion interpreting the statutory ethical standards and apply the standards to a given set of facts and circumstances upon its own motion or upon receiving a request for such an opinion from certain persons and entities. Upon receipt of such a request for an opinion, the Executive Director of the Commission is required to first investigate the facts and circumstances relating to the request to determine whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter. (NRS 281A.440) Under existing regulations, when the request for an opinion is from a person making a third-party request relating to a public officer or employee, the Executive Director must confer with the Commission Counsel to determine whether the Commission has jurisdiction concerning the request and whether the third-party request was properly filed. (NAC 281A.400, 281A.403, 281A.405) If the Executive Director and the Commission Counsel determine that the Commission has jurisdiction concerning the request and the third-party request was properly filed, the Executive Director is required to begin an investigation. If the Executive Director and the Commission Counsel determine that the Commission does not have jurisdiction concerning the request or that the third-party request was not properly filed, the Executive Director must notify the requester of that determination. The requester may appeal the determination by requesting a review of the determination by an investigatory panel appointed by the Chair of the Commission. (NAC 281A.405) Section 13 of this regulation revises this procedure. First, section 13 provides that the Executive Director and Commission Counsel must notify: (1) both the requester and the subject of the request if a determination is made that the Commission has jurisdiction and the request was properly filed; and (2) only the requester if a determination is made that the Commission does not have jurisdiction or that the request was not properly filed. Second, section 13 allows a person who receives such a notification to request a review of the determination by the entire Commission instead of an investigatory panel of the Commission. Third, section 13 prescribes a list of documents which must be provided to a person who requests such a review and provides that the Commission may, based on the findings of the Commission after conducting the review, dismiss the matter with or without prejudice or accept jurisdiction of the matter.

Existing law provides for the confidentiality of certain proceedings, information, documents and other materials related to an investigation of certain requests for an opinion of the Commission. (NRS 281A.440) Senate Bill No. 228 revised those provisions to provide that the investigative file of the Commission is confidential and generally defined the term “investigative file” to include any information obtained by the Commission during the course of an investigation and any records, documents or other materials created or maintained during the course of an investigation which relate to the public officer or employee who is the subject of the investigation. Section 15 of this regulation revises a provision relating to the confidentiality of information relating to a third-party request for an opinion to reflect the confidentiality in statute of the investigative file. (NAC 281A.420)

Existing regulations provide that the proceedings of an investigatory panel to determine whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion on a third-party request for an opinion are closed to all persons except the parties to the third-party request for an opinion and any other person the investigatory panel deems necessary to the proceedings. (NAC 281A.425) Section 16 of this regulation revises that provision to make such proceedings closed to all persons except the staff of the Commission.

Existing law prohibits the Commission Counsel from issuing written opinions concerning the applicability of the statutory ethical standards to a given set of facts and circumstances except as directed by the Commission. (NRS 281A.260) Existing law also provides that each opinion rendered by the Commission in response to a request for an opinion from a public officer or employee is confidential unless the public officer or employee: (1) acts in contravention of the opinion; (2) discloses the contents of the opinion; or (3) requests the Commission to disclose the contents of the opinion. (NRS 281A.440, 281A.550) Existing regulations require the Commission Counsel to prepare a written opinion for requests for an opinion that are heard by the Commission. (NAC 281A.185) Section 23 of this regulation repeals that requirement, and section 20 of this regulation authorizes the Commission to direct the Commission Counsel to prepare written opinions of requests for an opinion that are heard by the Commission. Existing regulations provide requirements for the contents of any written opinion of the Commission and requirements for the provision of copies of the written opinion to each person who is a party to the matter, the posting of the written opinion on the Internet website of the Commission and the delivery of a copy of the written opinion to any person who requests such a copy. (NAC 281A.550) Section 20 authorizes the Commission to direct the Commission Counsel to prepare an abstract for a written opinion which is confidential under the applicable statute. The abstract is defined as a version of a confidential written opinion that has been redacted or amended to keep the identity of the requester of the opinion confidential. Section 20 also revises the requirements for the posting of written opinions on the Commission’s Internet website to include the posting of abstracts and to prohibit the posting of a written opinion which is confidential.

Section 1. NAC 281A.060 is hereby amended to read as follows:

BY NEVADA ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT, NRS 233B.066
LCB FILE NO. R048-14

The Nevada Commission on Ethics (“Commission”) submits the following informational statement for its adopted amendments to Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) 281A.

1. A clear and concise explanation of the need for the adopted regulation.

The need for and purpose of the proposed permanent regulation is to reflect amendments to NRS Chapter 281A enacted by Senate Bill 228 of the 77th Legislative Session (Chapter 551, 2013 Statutes of Nevada) and staffing changes authorized by the Commission’s Legislatively Approved FY14-15 Biennial Budget for budget account 1343, decision unit E 250, including provisions relating to Commission procedures regarding jurisdiction, notice and investigations of third-party requests for opinion, confidentiality of certain information and documents which are used by the Commission and staff of the Commission, the applicability of certain relationships as those within the third degree of consanguinity, and other matters related thereto. (NRS 233B.0603(1)(a)(1))

2. A description of how public comment was solicited, a summary of public response, and an explanation how other interested persons may obtain a copy of the summary.

public comment on the proposed permanent regulation via written comment in advance of the respective hearings and/or personal appearance during the hearings. The Commission received no public comment.
