Wednesday, April 19, 2017, at 8:30 a.m.
at the following location:

Nevada Commission on Tourism
Laxalt Building - Second Floor Chambers
401 North Carson Street
Carson City, NV 89701

These minutes constitute a summary of the above proceedings of the Nevada Commission on Ethics. Verbatim transcripts are available for public inspection at the Commission's office located in Carson City.

1. Call to Order, Roll Call and Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Chair Cheryl A. Lau, Esq. called the meeting to order at 8:30 a.m. in Carson City, Nevada. Also present in Carson City were Vice-Chair Keith Weaver, Esq. and Commissioners Brian Duffrin, Barbara Gruenewald, Esq., Philip "P.K." O'Neill and Lynn Stewart. Present for Commission staff in Carson City were Executive Director Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson, Esq., Commission Counsel Tracy L. Chase, Esq., Associate Counsel Judy A. Prutzman, Esq. and Executive Assistant Valerie M. Carter, CPM.

The pledge of allegiance was conducted.

2. Public Comment.

No public comment.

3. Approval of Minutes of the February 15, 2017 Commission Meeting.

Commissioner Gruenewald moved to approve the February 15, 2017 Meeting Minutes. Commissioner Stewart seconded the Motion. The Motion was put to a vote and carried unanimously.

4. Legislative update regarding the Commission's Biennial Budget (FY18-FY19), including review of Commission staff salaries.

Executive Director Yvonne Nevarez-Goodson provided an update regarding the Commission's FY18-FY19 Biennial Budget Request, which was closed before the Assembly Ways & Means and Senate Finance Committees on March 28, 2017. She explained that the Committees approved the Governor's Recommended Commission Budget, which included the change in methodology for calculating the State and local government contributions to the Commission's budget. She explained the new methodology takes into account DETR's Labor Market Statistics, which detail the number of public officers and employees who derive from the State versus the local governments and splits the share of the Commission's budget accordingly. Director Nevarez-Goodson reported that this new approved methodology will allow for more consistent fiscal planning for both the State and local governments, and the split of 28%-State and 72%-local governments should remain consistent over future biennia.

Director Nevarez-Goodson reported the Legislative Committees also considered and approved the funding for a customized Case Management System and an Opinions & Forms Database. The Committees approved $7,200/fiscal year for the ongoing costs of the hosted systems. She stated that savings from FY17 will be used to build and customize the systems which will allow for the agency to make the transition to purely electronic recordkeeping, as well as create a searchable opinion database for use by the public, Commission staff and government and private attorneys.

Director Nevarez-Goodson reminded the Commission that the salary enhancements and title change requests did not make it into the Governor's Recommended Budget, but nevertheless, as an independent agency, the Commission saw fit to approach the Legislature with those requests. She stated that she responded to Committee questions regarding the Commission on Ethics' similarity to the Commission on Judicial Discipline, including the workload and staff responsibilities.

Commissioner O'Neill questioned what other commissions the Legislature wanted to compare to the Commission on Ethics. Director Nevarez-Goodson stated she was unaware of any specific agency or commission the legislative bodies had compared to the Commission on Ethics, but she reported that she provided the title and salary comparisons to both the Governor and the Legislature for several similar positions throughout the Unclassified Pay Bill that were equivalent to positions within the Commission.

Director Nevarez-Goodson reported there are currently two Concurrent Resolutions, both in the Assembly and Senate, which request interim studies on various salaries and positions, including within the Unclassified Pay Bill. She stated that the Commission on Ethics is specifically listed in the Senate Concurrent Resolution 6. She stated that with the Concurrent Resolutions being introduced, it signals to her that the salary enhancements will not be approved this Session. However, Director Nevarez-Goodson indicated she will still pursue changes to the Unclassified Pay Bill and hopes, at minimum, to get the requested title changes for the Commission's Executive Assistant and Associate Counsel, and salary increase for the Commission's Senior Legal Researcher in line with non-senior level "Legal Researchers" throughout the Pay Bill.

5. 79th Legislative Session (2017) update regarding proposed legislation effecting the Nevada Commission on Ethics including, without limitation SB 30, SB 36, SB 84 and ACR/SCR 6.

Executive Director Yvonne Nevarez-Goodson discussed the status of SB 30, which was a measure put forward by the Nevada Attorney General, which intended to define the types of gifts that would be appropriate for the Attorney General to accept. She reported there was an amendment to the bill on the day of the hearing which expanded that definition to all constitutional officers; however, the bill failed to pass out of the Senate Committee by the deadline, effectively killing the measure.

Director Nevarez-Goodson reported that Senate Bill 36, which was the Governor's Bill that intended to exempt State Legislators from the jurisdiction of the Commission on Ethics and change the appointments of Commissioners, also failed to make it out of the Senate Committee by the deadline and also will not survive. Commissioner O'Neill questioned why the bill did not make it out of Committee, why Legislators were not supportive of the measure, and why, after the Nevada Supreme Court's Hardy decision, the Commission still has jurisdiction over Legislators. Director Nevarez-Goodson explained that the Commission does have concurrent jurisdiction regarding legislators when they are not engaging in core legislative functions or conduct that is protected by legislative privilege and immunity, and that is where the line is slightly blurred. She reported that some legislators were not comfortable with the idea of having to police themselves. Commissioner O'Neill expressed his disappointment with the failed bill.

Director Nevarez-Goodson reported that the Commission's Bill, SB 84 as amended, made it out of the Senate Committee on Legislative Operations and Elections by the deadline, and expects it to be heard on the Floor within the next couple of days. She reported that, in part, the Commission's initial request eliminated investigatory panels, but the bill was amended to address certain concerns regarding due process by revising the 2-member "Investigatory Panel" to a 3-member "Review Panel" that will have the authority to dismiss a case or move the matter forward to a full Commission Hearing as is authorized for the current investigatory panel process. However, the new Review Panels will also have the authority to approve deferral agreements which set forth terms and conditions between the Executive Director and Subject of an ethics complaint.

6. Discussion and consideration of Motion for Summary Judgment and Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment concerning Third-Party Request for Opinion No. 16-54C regarding Gerald Antinoro, Sheriff, Storey County, submitted pursuant to NRS 281A.440(2).

Commissioner Gruenewald was excused from participating in this agenda item as she served on the Panel regarding this matter.

Appearing before the Commission in this matter was Katherine F. Parks, Esq., attorney for Gerald Antinoro. Appearing on behalf of the Executive Director was Associate Counsel Judy A. Prutzman, Esq.

Commissioner O'Neill disclosed that he had known Sheriff Antinoro for several years, including during his time with the State Division of Investigation and the State Legislature. He stated they are also both members of the Nevada Sheriff's and Chief's Association. However, after consulting the Commission Counsel, the provisions of NRS 281A.420 and the judicial canons, Commissioner O'Neill stated he did not believe abstention was required because his professional relationship with the Sheriff and his membership with the Association do not establish personal interests or relationships that required abstention. Commissioner O'Neill further stated he could be fair and impartial in participating in the matter.

Chair Lau asked Ms. Parks if she had any objection to Commissioner O'Neill's participation in the matter. Ms. Parks stated she had no concerns.

Associate Counsel Prutzman gave an overview of the Third Party Request for Opinion (RFO) No. 16-54C, stating that the RFO alleged that Mr. Antinoro violated the Ethics Law when he prepared a letter endorsing Michelle Fiore, a candidate for United States Congress, using the official letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff's Office. The RFO alleged that Mr. Antinoro violated NRS 281A.400(2) and (7) and NRS 281A.520; however, the two-member investigatory panel found there was only sufficient credible evidence for the Commission to consider the alleged violation of NRS 281A.400(7).

Associate Counsel Prutzman stated that material facts in this case were not disputed and the parties had submitted stipulated facts for the Commission's consideration. She then summarized the arguments set forth in the Executive Director's Motion for Summary Judgment (MSJ).

Associate Counsel Prutzman asked the Commission to carefully consider NRS 281A.020, which states that the Ethics Law promotes the separation between public and private interests, and NRS 281A.400(7) which prohibits a public officer from using governmental time, property, equipment or other facility to benefit a significant personal or pecuniary interest of the public officer. She stated it was the Executive Director's position that the official letterhead of the public office or agency is, as a matter of law, governmental property. She stated the Executive Director was also concerned that this was the second ethics case involving Mr. Antinoro's use of government resources for a political purpose (RFO 14-59C).

Ms. Parks stated that she and Associate Counsel Prutzman briefed this matter in depth and acknowledged that her brief/argument was diametrically opposed to that of Associate Counsel and the Executive Director, and offered to focus on answering any questions of the Commission.

The Commission asked various questions of Ms. Parks and Associate Counsel Prutzman regarding the legal arguments presented in the Motions, and Associate Counsel Prutzman and Ms. Parks provided closing remarks regarding the Motion for Summary Judgment and Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment.

Chair Lau called for a brief recess. The meeting reconvened in closed session deliberations regarding RFO 16-54C.

Chair Lau called the meeting back into open session and tabled Agenda Item 6.

7. Report by Executive Director on agency status and operations.

Executive Director Yvonne Nevarez-Goodson acknowledged the hard work of Commission staff, stating that each member of the staff has fulfilled his/her duties with respect to processing first-party and third-party cases. She stated that staff and the Commission have been meeting the agency's performance measures for the last two years and she is very pleased to be able to report that to the Legislature.

Director Nevarez-Goodson stated the Commission will likely have an entirely new approach on education and outreach if SB 84 passes, as there will be several new procedural issues that will need to be undertaken. She reported that with some of the Commission's FY17 travel savings, she expects to reach out to the rural communities like she did two years ago, to provide ethics training to the rural communities throughout the State. She stated that Churchill County and Fallon are also scheduled for training in the next couple of months. She will be sure to invite Commissioners to trainings that are located within reasonable travel distance.

Director Nevarez-Goodson stated one Commission vacancy remains and it is a legislative appointment. She has been in touch with the Director of LCB, Rick Combs, but does not expect any appointment to be made prior to the end of the Legislative Session. Director Nevarez-

Goodson urged Commissioners to notify Rick Combs of any individuals who may be interested in the appointment.

Director Nevarez-Goodson discussed the Commission's current FY17 budget, stating there will be significant cost savings in the court reporting budget and some in the travel budget as well. She reported that these cost savings will likely not be recognized in future biennia as the Commission's Budget Request for the FY18-FY19 biennia included reduced funding in court reporting.

Director Nevarez-Goodson stated that staff remains consistently on track with the processing of all current cases. She stated it is her intention to have most matters received in FY16 completed by the end of the fiscal year.

Director Nevarez-Goodson polled the Commissioners for their availability for a May 15th or 16th Commission meeting. All members stated they were available on May 15 or would try to make themselves available. Director Nevarez-Goodson stated she will keep Commissioners informed as the agenda for that meeting takes shape.

Director Nevarez-Goodson asked Commissioners to provide her with feedback regarding legislative measures they wished to discuss or any direction they wanted to provide her going forward.

Commissioner O'Neill asked for his fellow Commissioners' opinion with regard to SB 36, the Governor's bill which would exclude Legislators from the Commission's jurisdiction and whether any Commissioners had an appetite to try to resurrect the bill. Commissioner Gruenewald stated that she respects the Senate Committee's decision not to go forward with the bill.

6. Discussion and consideration of Motion for Summary Judgment and Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment concerning Third-Party Request for Opinion No. 16-54C regarding Gerald Antinoro, Sheriff, Storey County, submitted pursuant to NRS 281A.440(2).

Chair Lau called this agenda item back to order.

Commissioner Gruenewald was excused from participating in this agenda item as she served on the Panel regarding this matter.

Appearing again before the Commission in this matter was Katherine F. Parks, Esq., attorney for Gerald Antinoro, and Associate Counsel Judy A. Prutzman, Esq., on behalf of the Executive Director.

Commissioner Duffrin commended Associate Counsel Prutzman and Ms. Parks for their excellent briefs. He then moved the Commission to grant Summary Judgment in favor of the Executive Director and deny the relief requested by Subject Antinoro, and direct Commission Counsel to prepare an Order issuing the determination of the Commission. Commissioner Duffrin further moved that the Commission direct the Commission Counsel to issue a Notice that the Commission will consider further briefs by the parties regarding whether the violation was willful under the factors set forth in NRS 281A.475, and whether any associated fines will be imposed pursuant to NRS 281A.480, at the Commission's next regular meeting - May 15, 2017. Commissioner Stewart seconded the Motion. The Motion was put to a vote and carried unanimously.

8. Commissioner Comment on matters including, without limitation, future agenda items, upcoming meeting dates and meeting procedures.

No Commissioner comments.

9. Open Session for Public Comment.

No public comment.

10. Adjournment.

Commissioner Stewart moved to adjourn the meeting. Commissioner Duffrin seconded the Motion. The Motion was put to a vote and carried unanimously. The meeting adjourned at 11:05 a.m.

16 EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S BRIEF REGARDING
17 DETERMINATION OF WILLFULNESS AND SANCTIONS

18 Date of Hearing: May 15, 2017

19 Time of Hearing: 10:30 a.m.

20 Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson, Esq., Executive Director of the Nevada
21 Commission on Ethics ("Commission"), through the Commission's Associate Counsel, 22 Judy A. Prutzman, Esq., hereby submits this Brief Regarding Determination of 23 Willfulness and Sanctions.

24 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

25 I. INTRODUCTION

26 Third-Party Request for Opinion ("RFO") No. 16-54C alleged that Gerald 27 Antinoro ("Antinoro"), Sheriff of Storey County, Nevada, violated various provisions of 28 the Ethics Law when he produced a letter of endorsement for Michelle Fiore, a candidate for United States Congress, on the official letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff's Office. The Commission's Investigatory Panel found just and sufficient cause for the Commission to hold a hearing and render an opinion regarding the allegations pertaining NRS 281A.400(7). After the Commission's issuance of the Panel Determination and a Notice of Hearing and Scheduling Order to consider this matter, the Executive Director and Antinoro, through their respective attorneys, submitted

1 Stipulated Facts and filed cross-motions for summary judgment to resolve the RFO as 2 a matter of law.

3 During its April 19, 2017 Meeting, the Commission, after reviewing the entire 4 record of the RFO and considering the motions and oral arguments of counsel, the 5 Commission granted summary judgment in favor of the Executive Director, concluding 6 that Antinoro's use of the official letterhead of the Sheriff's Office for a personal 7 political endorsement violated NRS 281A.400(7) as a matter of law. However, the 8 Commission ordered further briefing by the parties for its determination of whether 9 Antinoro's violation was willful and subject to any penalties under NRS 281A.480.
10 Accordingly, the Executive Director files this brief in support of her recommendation
11 that Antinoro's violation of NRS 281A.400(7) was willful and should be subject to civil 12 sanctions under NRS 281A.480.

13 The Commission should take notice of a prior Stipulated Agreement involving 14 Antinoro's improper use of his public position in In re Antinoro, Comm'n Op. No. 14-15 59C (2015). In that case, Antinoro used his position as Sheriff to instruct his 16 subordinate to draft a Cease and Desist Order prohibiting his political opponent from 17 attending any activities involving seniors or any other demographic group without the 18 Sheriff's permission. In that Stipulation, the Commission found that Antinoro's conduct 19 created an appearance of impropriety, resulting in a single violation of the Ethics Law,
20 implicating NRS 281A.400(2), NRS 281A.400(9) and NRS 281A.020. See Exhibit 1, 21 Stipulated Agreement for In re Antinoro, Comm'n Op. No. 14-59C. Less than one year
22 after the Commission's approval of the Stipulated Agreement in In re Antinoro, the 23 Commission received the current RFO. The Commission should also consider that 24 Antinoro has not taken any steps to correct the violation. Moreover, the nature and 25 circumstances of the conduct directly conflict with the Commission's strong public
26 policy to ensure the public's trust that government resources belonging to the public 27 are not utilized for private political purposes.

28 In granting the Executive Director's Motion for Summary Judgment, the Commission has determined that Antinoro's conduct violated NRS 281A400(7). For the reasons set forth in this Brief, the violation should be deemed willful and the Commission should impose a civil penalty.

1 II. STANDARDS OF LAW

2 Having already determined that Antinoro violated NRS 281A.400(7), the 3 Commission must now determine whether his conduct in violation of the Ethics Law
4 was willful and therefore subject to a civil (monetary) penalty. The Ethics Law
5 specifically defines the standard for willfulness, outlines a number of factors that must 6 be considered for a determination of willfulness and authorizes the Commission to 7 impose a civil penalty up to $5,000 for a first willful violation.

8 A. Standard for Willful Violations

9 NRS 281A.170 “Willful violation” defined. “Willful violation” means a violation where:

10 1. The public officer or employee:

11 (a) Acted intentionally and knowingly; or

12 (b) Was in a situation where this chapter imposed a 13 duty to act and the public officer or employee intentionally and 14 knowingly failed to act in the manner required by this chapter;
and

15 2. The Commission determines, after applying the 16 factors set forth in NRS 281A.475, that the public officer’s or 17 employee’s act or failure to act resulted in a sanctionable
18 violation of this chapter.

19 (Emphasis added).

20 NRS 281A.105 “Intentionally” defined. “Intentionally”
21 means voluntarily or deliberately, rather than accidentally or 22 inadvertently. The term does not require proof of bad faith, ill will, evil intent or malice.

23 (Emphasis added).

24 NRS 281A.115 “Knowingly” defined. “Knowingly”
25 imports a knowledge that the facts exist which constitute the 26 act or omission, and does not require knowledge of the prohibition against the act or omission. Knowledge of any 27 particular fact may be inferred from the knowledge of such 28 other facts as should put an ordinarily prudent person upon inquiry.

(Emphasis added).

1                   NRS 281A.475 Standards for determining whether violation is
2                   willful violation and amount of civil penalty imposed

3                   1. In determining whether a violation of this chapter is 4                   a willful violation and, if so, the amount of any civil penalty to 5                   be imposed on a public officer or employee or former public
6                   officer or employee pursuant to NRS 281A.480, the 7                   Commission shall consider, without limitation:

8                   (a) The seriousness of the violation, including, without 9                   limitation, the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the 10                  violation;

11                 (b) The number and history of previous warnings issued 12                 to or violations of the provisions of this chapter by the public
13                 officer or employee;

14                 (c) The cost to the Commission to conduct the 15                 investigation and any hearing relating to the violation;

16                 (d) Any mitigating factors, including, without limitation, 17                 any self-reporting, prompt correction of the violation, any 18                 attempts to rectify the violation before any complaint is filed 19                 and any cooperation by the public officer or employee in 20                 resolving the complaint;

21                 (e) Any restitution or reimbursement paid to parties
22                 affected by the violation;

23                 (f) The extent of any financial gain resulting from the 24                 violation; and

25                 (g) Any other matter justice may require.

26                 2. The factors set forth in this section are not 27                 exclusive or exhaustive, and the Commission may consider 28                 other factors in the disposition of the matter if they bear a reasonable relationship to the Commission's determination of the severity of the violation.

                    3. In applying the factors set forth in this section, the Commission shall treat comparable situations in a comparable manner and shall ensure that the disposition of the matter bears a reasonable relationship to the severity of the violation.

(Emphasis added).

B. Sanctions

NRS 281A.480 Commission authorized to impose civil penalties; duties of Commission upon finding willful violation; circumstances in which violation not deemed willful; effect of chapter upon criminal law; judicial review; burden of proof.

1           1. In addition to any other penalties provided by law and in 2 accordance with the provisions of NRS 281A.475, the Commission may 3 impose on a public officer or employee or former public officer or 4 employee civil penalties:

5           (a) Not to exceed $5,000 for a first willful violation of this chapter;

6           (b) Not to exceed $10,000 for a separate act or event that
7 constitutes a second willful violation of this chapter; and

8           (c) Not to exceed $25,000 for a separate act or event that
9 constitutes a third willful violation of this chapter.

10           ...

11           4. In addition to any other penalties provided by law, if a 12 proceeding results in an opinion that:

13           ...

14           (c) One or more willful violations of this chapter have been 15 committed by a public officer other than a public officer described in 16 paragraphs (a) and (b), the willful violations shall be deemed to be 17 malfeasance in office for the purposes of NRS 283.440 and the 18 Commission:

19           (1) May file a complaint in the appropriate court for removal of 20 the public officer pursuant to NRS 283.440 when the public officer is 21 found in the opinion to have committed fewer than three willful violations 22 of this chapter.

23           (2) Shall file a complaint in the appropriate court for removal of 24 the public officer pursuant to NRS 283.440 when the public officer is 25 found in the opinion to have committed three or more willful violations of 26 this chapter.

27 - This paragraph grants an exclusive right to the Commission, and no 28 other person may file a complaint against the public officer pursuant to NRS 283.440 based on any violation found in the opinion.

          5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any act or failure to act by a public officer or employee or former public officer or employee relating to this chapter is not a willful violation of this chapter if the public officer or employee establishes by sufficient evidence that:

          (a) The public officer or employee relied in good faith upon the advice of the legal counsel retained by his or her public body, agency or employer; and

          (b) The advice of the legal counsel was:

          (1) Provided to the public officer or employee before the public officer or employee acted or failed to act; and

          (2) Based on a reasonable legal determination by the legal counsel under the circumstances when the advice was given that the act or failure to act by the public officer or employee ~~was~~ would not be contrary to any prior published opinion issued by the Commission which was publicly available on the Internet website of the Commission.

1           8. The imposition of a civil penalty pursuant to subsection 1, 2
2 or 3 is a final decision for the purposes of judicial review pursuant to
3 NRS 233B.130.

4           9. A finding by the Commission that a public officer or employee
5 has violated any provision of this chapter must be supported by a 6 preponderance of the evidence unless a greater burden is otherwise
7 prescribed by law.

8 III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

9           In granting the Executive Director's Motion for Summary Judgment, the 10 Commission has concluded that Antinoro's conduct violated NRS 281A.400(7). Given 11 the nature of the conduct, combined with Antinoro's history of violating the Ethics Law, 12 this violation should be declared willful and subject to a civil penalty.

13 A. Antinoro's conduct constitutes one willful violation of NRS 14 281A.400(7)

15           Under the Ethics Law, a willful violation is based upon conduct that is 16 intentional and knowing. However, to find that Antinoro's violation was willful, it is not 17 necessary to conclude that he intended to violate the Ethics Law or that he knew his 18 conduct was unlawful. Therefore, the necessary inquiry is whether Antinoro 19 intentionally and knowingly used the official letterhead of the Sheriff's Office for the 20 endorsement letter.

21 1) Antinoro Acted Intentionally

22           To find that Antinoro acted intentionally, NRS 281A.105 requires the 23 Commission to conclude only that Antinoro acted "voluntarily" or "deliberately," rather 24 than accidentally or inadvertently. The definition of "intentionally" does not require 25 proof that the intentional behavior was done in bad faith or with malicious motive to be 26 deemed willful.

27           The Stipulated Facts presented to the Commission in this matter indicate that 28 Antinoro deliberately and voluntarily used the official letterhead of the Sheriff's Office when he produced the political endorsement letter for Michelle Fiore. His use of the official letterhead was not accidental or inadvertent. In fact, because Antinoro produced the endorsement letter on his private computer at his home, his decision to use the official letterhead template from the Sheriff's Office required him to take

1 deliberate steps to copy or transmit the official letterhead template from his Sheriff's
2 Office computer to his personal computer at home.

3 2) Antinoro Acted Knowingly

4 The Ethics Law also requires that Antinoro had knowledge of his actions. NRS 5 281A.115 defines "knowingly" as "import[ing] a knowledge that the facts exist which 6 constitute the act or omission, and does not require knowledge of the prohibition
7 against the act or omission." Accordingly, it is not necessary that Antinoro had actual
8 knowledge that his conduct would violate NRS 281A.400(7). See State v. Rhodig, 101
9 Nev. 608 (1985) (" . . . the law does not require knowledge that such an act or 10 omissions unlawful."). Antinoro knew he was using the official letterhead of the 11 Sheriff's Office for a private purposed when he produced the endorsement letter for 12 Fiore.

13 3) Mitigating Factors Do Not Support a Determination That 14 Antinoro's Violation Was Not Willful

15 Although Antinoro's conduct was intentional and knowing, the Commission 16 nevertheless considers whether the mitigating factors set forth in NRS 281A.475 and 17 NRS 281A.480(5)(a) and (b) support a determination that the violation was not willful
18 and whether a civil penalty should be imposed pursuant to NRS 281A.480. However, 19 the Commission may consider the totality of the circumstances in its determination of 20 willfulness even where certain mitigating factors may be present. In fact, the Nevada 21 Legislature acknowledged this discretion by enacting NRS 281A.475(2), which 22 expressly states that the factors outlined in NRS 281A.475(1) are not exclusive or 23 exhaustive such that the Commission may consider the severity of the violation.

24 With respect to the mitigating factors outlined in NRS 281A.475, Antinoro 25 cooperated in resolving this matter and did not receive any financial gain as a result of 26 his conduct. However, these mitigating factors are offset by several considerations.
27 First, the seriousness of the conduct is significant when measured against the public's 28 trust that government resources will not be inappropriately squandered for private political purposes. Second Antinoro has recently committed an ethics violation for which the Commission expressed significant concerns about the conduct of a public officer in a political/election environment and the need for appropriate separation of 1 government property and influence in such circumstances. Finally, Antinoro has not

2 taken any steps to correct the violation after he was put on notice that his conduct
3 may have violated the Ethics Law. Antinoro emailed a digital copy of his endorsement
4 letter to Fiore, who included the letter in a video that was posted on her Twitter and 5 Facebook sites. As of May 2, 2017, even after the Commission determined that 6 Antinoro's conducted violated NRS 281A.400(7), Antinoro's endorsement letter is still 7 viewable on Fiore's Twitter site (@VoteFiore), which has over 5,000 followers. See
8 Exhibit 2, @VoteFiore Twitter page. Although Antinoro did not cause his endorsement
9 letter to be posted on Fiore's social media sites, he knew that the digital copy of his 10 letter was in fact posted and viewable by members of the public and he should have 11 requested Fiore to remove the letter.

12 The seriousness of the conduct, combined with Antinoro's recent ethics 13 violations and failure to correct the violation, provide significant support for the 14 Commission's finding of willfulness in this matter.

15 B. A Significant Civil Penalty Should be Imposed

16 For a first willful violation of the Ethics Law, the Commission may impose a civil 17 penalty up to but not exceeding $5,000. The Executive Director requests that the 18 Commission impose a significant civil penalty for this violation in the amount of 19 $1,000. The Commission has previously imposed significant monetary penalties for 20 the willful use of government property that does not include an element of bad faith or 21 reckless disregard for the Ethics Law. For example, the Commission imposed a civil 22 penalty of $1,000 in In re Breslow, Comm'n Op. No. 98-21C (2000) when the 23 Commission found that Mr. Breslow violated former NRS 281.481(7) (the predecessor 24 statute to NRS 281A.400(7)) by using the cell phone issued for his use as Mayor by 25 the City of Sparks for personal business. The $1,000 penalty was imposed even 26 though Mr. Breslow agreed to reimburse the City of Sparks for his personal calls.

27 Here, we have disregard for the Ethics Law given Antinoro's separate, recent 28 violation of the law. The proposed penalty of $1,000 strikes an appropriate balance between the seriousness of the conduct and the fact that Antinoro did not recognize any financial gain as a result of this conduct.

1 V. CONCLUSION

2 Antinoro willfully violated NRS 281A.400(7) when he created the endorsement
3 letter on the official government letterhead of the Sheriff's Office. The Ethics Law 4 exists to confront conduct such as this that interferes with a public officer's duty to 5 protect the public trust and separate his private interests from those of the public he 6 serves. The use of a government resource not otherwise available to private citizens
7 for a political endorsement is the type of harm to the public that the Ethics Law is 8 designed to prohibit, as it creates a conflict of interest and an appearance of impropriety.

9 Consistent with the Commission's decision that Antinoro violated NRS
10 281A.400(7) as a matter of law, the Executive Director recommends and requests that 11 the Commission conclude that Antinoro's actions constituted one willful violation of the 12 Ethics Law. As Antinoro's second Ethics violation and first willful violation, the 13 Executive Director urges the Commission to impose a civil penalty of $1,000.
14 Consistent with past practice, the Commission may authorize the Executive Director
15 and Subject to enter into a payment schedule not to exceed one year after the 16 Commission's final decision in this matter.

STATE OF NEVADA

BEFORE THE NEVADA COMMISSION ON ETHICS

In the Matter of the Third-Party Request
for Opinion Concerning the Conduct of
Gerald Antinoro, Sheriff, Storey County,
State of Nevada,

Request for Opinion No. 14-59C

_____ Public Officer. /

STIPULATED AGREEMENT

1. PURPOSE: This Stipulated Agreement resolves Third-Party Request for Opinion (“RFO”) No. 14-59C before the Nevada Commission on Ethics (“Commission”) concerning Gerald Antinoro (“Antinoro”), Sheriff, Storey County, State of Nevada, and serves as the final opinion in this matter (“Sheriff’s Office”).

2. JURISDICTION: At all material times, Antinoro served as a Sheriff of Storey County. As such, Antinoro is an elected public officer, as defined in NRS 281A.160. The Ethics in Government Law (“Ethics Law”) set forth in NRS Chapter 281A provides the Commission jurisdiction over elected and appointed public officers and public employees whose conduct is alleged to have violated the provisions of NRS Chapter 281A. See NRS 281A.280. Accordingly, the Commission has jurisdiction over Antinoro in this matter.

3. PROCEDURAL HISTORY BEFORE COMMISSION

a. On or about July 30, 2014, the Commission received this RFO from Shawn Mahan, alleging that Antinoro violated the provisions of NRS 281A.020(1) and 281A.400(1), (2), (7) and (9) by: (1) using governmental time and resources in his capacity as Sheriff to further his own campaign interests; and (2) using his position as Sheriff to harass and intimidate his subordinate employees who are also running for Sheriff.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>The RFO also alleged violations of NRS 281A.400(8) and 281A.500. Pursuant to NAC 281A.405, the Commission Counsel and Executive Director rejected jurisdiction regarding these allegations because NRS 281A.400(8) applies only to state legislators, and no evidence was provided to support the allegations of NRS 281A.500 as required by NAC 281A.400.

- b. As required by NAC 281A.410, the Commission gave Antinoro notice of this RFO by mail. Pursuant to NRS 281A.440(3), Antinoro was provided an opportunity to respond to the allegations.
- c. On August 18, 2014, Antinoro submitted his response to the RFO.
- d. A panel was held February 18, 2015 pursuant to NRS 281A.440, finding that credible evidence establishes just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion regarding the allegations implicating NRS 281A.400(2) and (9), and 281A.020(1).
- e. Antinoro challenged the findings of the panel by filing a motion to dismiss which was denied by the Commission. The Commission requested that additional facts be presented at a hearing on the allegations.
- f. In lieu of a hearing, Antinoro now enters into this Stipulated Agreement acknowledging his duty as a public officer to commit himself to protect the public trust and conform his conduct to NRS Chapter 281A.

4. STIPULATED FACTS: At all material times, the following Stipulated Facts are relevant to this matter:

Parties

- a. Antinoro is the elected Sheriff of Storey County, a public officer as defined in NRS 281A.160.
- b. Antinoro won re-election as Sheriff of Storey County in 2014.
- c. Shawn Mahan, Requester, was a Deputy Sheriff for Storey County who was also running for the office of Sheriff in 2014 and was an employee of Sheriff Antinoro.
- d. The Storey County Sheriff's Office is a local agency, as defined in NRS 281A.119, and part of a political subdivision, as defined in NRS 281A.145.
- e. John Michael Mendoza was a Deputy Sheriff in Storey County, a public employee as defined in NRS 281A.150. He was the Senior Outreach Coordinator for the Sheriff's Office, and Officer of We Care.
- f. Melanie Keener was the Acting Undersheriff in Storey County, a public employee as defined in NRS 281A.150.

- g. Jeff Bowers was a Sergeant in Storey County, a public employee as defined in NRS 281A.150.
- h. We Care, a volunteer organization for senior outreach, was an organization managed out of the Storey County Sheriff's Office and founded by the Sheriff's Office.
- i. Marilee Miller was a We Care volunteer.
- j. Infinity Hospice Care is a private organization which provided services relating to senior health issues.

Infinity Hospice Event

- k. Heather McCutcheon was a representative of Infinity Hospice Care.
- l. McCutcheon contacted Mahan and asked if he would act as a liaison for her in Storey County since she was new to Infinity Health Care and the County.
- m. Mahan accepted the invitation and flyers were produced by Infinity Hospice with Mahan's name on the flyer.
- n. The Infinity event was intended as both a campaign event for Shawn Mahan and an informational event for Infinity Hospice.
- o. The Infinity Flyers had a picture of Mahan in civilian dress with a caption stating "Commitment to Community."
- p. The Infinity Flyer stated that Infinity Hospice Care and Shawn Mahan present Senior Services in Storey County.
- q. The flyers did not reference Mahan's status as a deputy sheriff nor did the flyer clarify that Infinity was not affiliated in any way with the Storey County Sheriff's Office.
- r. The outreach event was scheduled to take place on July 22, 2014. Mahan requested time off of work as a Deputy in advance of the event, and such time off was granted.
- s. Sheriff Antinoro directed Sgt. Bowers, Mahan's immediate supervisor, to inform Mahan that his participation in the Infinity Event was in violation of Sheriff's Office policy and that he was prohibited from continuing to engage in such activities. Sgt. Bowers then issued a Cease and Desist Order forbidding Mahan to attend the event.

t. The Cease and Desist Order, dated July 15, 2014, stated:

Deputy Mahan.

Pursuant to our telephone conversation this afternoon I am providing this e-mail with serves as a direct order to cease and desist any planned event regarding Infinity Hospice Care. The reason for this action is, but is not limited to, the following reasons:

1) You are both on and off duty, a representative of the Storey County Sheriff's Office. I will refer you to existing policy if you are confused as to expected behavior. All conduct that directly or indirectly affects the Storey County Sheriff's Office falls under the purview of existing Policy & Procedure.

2) The Storey County Sheriff's Office already has in place a senior awareness program. Any and all activity which involves the seniors or any other demographic group in this county where you, as a representative of the Sheriff's office, present yourself as a member of this office, whether explicit or implied, is directly governed by the Sheriff or his designee. The Sheriff has given no authorization to present yourself in this event nor has he sanctioned this event

3) You have presented no assurance that Infinity Hospice Care is an appropriate entity to conduct business in this county. Further, you are expressly prohibited by policy to advocate for any for-profit business within this county. The fact that you announce only your name on the flyer announcing this event does not diminish the fact that you are in fact an employee of the Sheriff's office. Even were you allowed to seek such advocacy of a for-profit business from the Sheriff, you have presented no evidence that this company is competitive or offers superior service to county residents versus other, competing hospice care businesses. This is an egregious violation of your oath of office and ethical codes of conduct.

4) SCSO Policy & Procedure 340.3.4 (ab) states: "you are prohibited from ... Any other on-duty or off-duty conduct which any employee knows or reasonably should know is unbecoming a member of the Office or which is contrary to good order, efficiency or morale .... " Your event only serves to confuse citizens of Storey County as to which program to trust (Infinity Hospice versus the existing Senior Program). As such, this event breaks down the order you are expected to maintain.

Lastly, the Sheriff, as your employer, has a duty to present to our citizens consistent and cohesive service. Your planned event is directly contrary to his intent due, among other things, a conflict with an existing sanctioned program. As your Sheriff, he has the right, and has exercised that right, to demand you seek his approval before any such event can be planned.

Participation in this program by you will result in severe disciplinary action being taken against you. I encourage you to seek approval from the Sheriff before any such event is planned in the future.

Sergeant Jeff Bowers
Storey County Sheriff's Office
(775) 847-1146

- u. Mahan did not attend event; however, he sat in the parking lot and greeted attendees at the event, and he gave an interview to the local press.
- v. On August 19, 2014, Sheriff Antinoro placed Deputy Mahan on administrative leave for issues arising from the alleged harassment of the Infinity Hospice event and alleged abuse of sick time.

5. TERMS / CONCLUSIONS OF LAW: Based on the foregoing, Antinoro and the Commission agree as follows:

- a. For purposes of this settlement only, each of the stipulated facts enumerated in section 4 of this Stipulated Agreement are agreed to by the parties.<sup>2</sup> For purposes of Conclusions of Law, the Commission accepts each of the stipulated facts as true and correct.
- b. Antinoro holds a public office which constitutes a public trust to be held for the sole benefit of the people of the State of Nevada (in particular, the people of Storey County). Public officers have a duty to avoid conflicts between public and private interests. NRS 281A.020(1).
- c. A public officer must not use his position as Sheriff of Storey County to secure unwarranted privileges, preferences or advantages for himself. See NRS 281A.400(2).
- d. A public officer must not attempt to influence a subordinate to benefit his personal or financial interests. NRS 281A.400(9).
- e. Whether an action is unwarranted, pursuant to NRS 281A.400(2) can turn upon whether the action was legal, or in this instance, constitutional. (See In re Kirkland, Comm'n Opinion 98-41 (1998)).
- f. The Cease and Desist Order was drafted to prevent Mahan from attending the Infinity Hospice event in violation of the Sheriff's Office policy; however, the language in the Order was vague and in the panel's opinion raises First Amendment concerns.
- g. Based upon the investigation, any infringement upon Mahan's First Amendment rights was inadvertent and has some support in relevant case law.

<sup>2</sup> Stipulated Facts do not constitute part of the "Investigative File" as that term is defined by NRS 281A.440(17), as amended by Assembly Bill 60, 78th Session of the Nevada State Legislature, effective May 27, 2015. All statutory and common law protections afforded to the Investigative File shall remain and are not affected by this Stipulated Agreement.

- h. As the Cease and Desist Order could be interpreted to infringe upon Mahan's First Amendment rights, and impede Mahan's ability to campaign for office, Antinoro obtained an unwarranted benefit from the Order violating NRS 281A.400(2), (9) and NRS 281A.020.
- i. Antinoro agrees to clarify the Storey County Sheriff's Office policies pertaining to sheriff deputies and their associations with outside entities and is willing to provide the Commission with a courtesy copy of the new policies after completion.
- j. It is arguable that the actions of Antinoro might rise to a violation of Mahan's First Amendment rights, or at least an appearance of impropriety, implicating NRS 281A.400(2), NRS 281A.400(9) and NRS 281A.020, which is contested by the subject.
- k. However, even if the actions did rise to a violation of Mahan's First Amendment rights implicating NRS 281A.400(2), NRS 281A.400(9) and NRS 281A.020, based upon the consideration and application of the statutory criteria set forth in NRS 281A.475, the Commission concludes that such violation in this case would not be deemed a "willful violation" pursuant to NRS 281A.170 and the imposition of a civil penalty pursuant to NRS 281A.480 would not be appropriate for reasons that follow:
  - 1) Antinoro has not previously been the subject of any violation of the Ethics Law.
  - 2) Antinoro has not received any personal financial gain as the result of his conduct in this matter.
  - 3) Antinoro has been diligent to cooperate with and to participate in the Commission's investigation and analysis, as well as the resolution process.
- l. This Stipulated Agreement depends on and applies only to the stipulated facts, circumstances and law related to this RFO now before the Commission. Any facts or circumstances that may come to light after its entry that are in addition to or differ from those contained herein may create a different resolution of this matter.

m. This Stipulated Agreement is intended to apply to and resolve only this specific proceeding before the Commission and is not intended to be applicable to or create any admission of liability for any other proceeding, including administrative, civil, or criminal regarding the Subject.

6. WAIVER:

- a. Antinoro knowingly and voluntarily waives a full hearing before the Commission on the allegations in this RFO (No. 14-59C) and of any and all rights he may be accorded pursuant to NRS Chapter 281A, the regulations of the Commission (NAC Chapter 281A), the Nevada Administrative Procedure Act (NRS Chapter 233B), and the laws of the State of Nevada.
- b. Antinoro knowingly and voluntarily waives his right to any judicial review of this matter as provided in NRS Chapter 281A, NRS Chapter 233B or any other provision of Nevada law.

7. ACCEPTANCE: We, the undersigned parties, have read this Stipulated Agreement, understand each and every provision therein, and agree to be bound thereby. The parties orally agreed to be bound by the terms of this Stipulated Agreement during the regular meeting of Commission on July 15, 2015.

May 27, 2016

I am proud to endorse Michele Fiore for Congress. Michele Fiore sponsored and supported any legislation our law enforcement community needed in both of her terms in Carson City. Michele Fiore supports law enforcement, and peace officers across the state support and endorse her.

I have gotten to know Assemblywoman Fiore through her work in Carson City and I have nothing but respect for her. I know she does not advocate armed conflict with peace officers and that she has always been very supportive of law enforcement in our state. I also know from personal experience that NAPS0, who recently came out against Michele Fiore, do not always present factual information and do not speak for their entire membership, but in the interest of their leaders.

Nevada needs Michele Fiore in Congress. I know she is not afraid to take the fight to Washington D.C. I have watched her ask the tough questions in Carson City and fight for what is right for the people of Nevada. I have no doubt that she will continue to do so in Congress. I know she will continue to support all our first responders in Washington D.C. Michele's record of fighting for our second amendment rights and our law enforcement speaks for itself. I encourage everyone in Congress District 3 to vote for Michele Fiore!

16 HEARING BRIEF

17 COMES NOW, Gerald Antinoro, by and through his attorneys of record, Thorndal
18 Armstrong Delk Balkenbush & Eisinger, and hereby submits his post-hearing brief on the issue
19 of willfulness of the alleged violation by Sheriff Antinoro of NRS 281A.400(7). As shall be 20 discussed herein, the standards set forth in NRS 281A.475 do not support a finding that the 21 violation of NRS 281A.400(7) by Sheriff Antinoro was willful. As such, Sheriff Antinoro 22 submits that no civil, or other, penalty may be imposed in this matter.

24 INTRODUCTION

25 As the Commission is well aware, this matter arises out of the actions of Sheriff Gerald 26 Antinoro in preparing a three paragraph written endorsement of Michele Fiori in her 27 unsuccessful bid for Clark County's Third Congressional District seat.<sup>1</sup> The Executive Director
28

<sup>1</sup>The version of the endorsement letter forwarded to Ms. Fiori was that attached to the Subject's Response to RFP 16-54C as pointed out by Commissioner O'Neill at the hearing of April 19, 2017. The undersigned apologizes to

1 and Sheriff Antinoro agreed to proceed under Stipulated Facts and to brief the legal questions at 2 issue pursuant to NAC 281A.265, rather than to proceed with an evidentiary hearing in this case.
3 A hearing was held before the Commission at which both parties presented their positions to the 4 Commission. Following the hearing, the Commission granted the Executive Director's Motion
5 for Summary Judgment upon a finding that Sheriff Antinoro's actions constituted a violation of 6 NRS 281A.400(7).

8 II

9 LEGAL ISSUES

10 NRS 281A.475 provides that, in determining whether a violation of Chapter 281A is 11 willful and, if so, the amount of any civil penalty which should be imposed on a public officer, 12 the Commission shall consider, without limitation, all of the following factors:

14 (a) The seriousness of the violation, including, without limitation, the nature,
15 circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation;

16 (b) The number and history of previous warnings issued to or violations of the provisions
17 of this chapter by the public officer or employee;

18 (c) The cost to the Commission to conduct the investigation and any hearings relating to 19 the violation;

20 (d) Any mitigating factors, including, without limitation, any self-reporting, prompt 21 correction of the violation, any attempts to rectify the violation before any complaint is filed and 22 any cooperation by the public officer or employee in resolving the complaint;

23 (e) Any restitution or reimbursement paid to the parties affected by the violation;

24 (f) The extent of any financial gain resulting from the violation; and

25 (g) Any other matter justice may require.
28

the Commission and the Executive Director for any confusion created by the fact that the version of the endorsement letter which became part of the Stipulated Facts was different than that originally sent to Ms. Fiori. This was an oversight by undersigned counsel and not the result of any actions on the part of Sheriff Antinoro.

1 See, NRS 281A.475.

2 NRS 281A.475(3) also cautions that, in applying the factors discussed above, the 3 Commission “shall treat comparable situations in a comparable manner and shall ensure that the 4 disposition of the matter bears a reasonable relationship to the severity of the violation.”

5 The Commission may find that a public officer’s conduct is a willful violation if he or she 6 is found to have acted voluntarily and with the specific intent and purpose either to (i) disobey or 7 disregard what Chapter 281A requires or (ii) do something which Chapter 281A forbids. See, In 8 re: McDonald, Comm’n Op. No. 00-41 (2000). The Commission may also find that a public 9 officer willfully violated a provision of Chapter 281A if it determines that he or she “knew or 10 reasonably should have known” what Chapter 281A forbids or requires and he or she is found to 11 have acted voluntarily and with “intention, knowledge, and purpose, without justifiable excuse”
12 in violation of a provision of Chapter 281A. Id. A violation of Chapter 281A is not “willful” if 13 it occurs as the result of carelessness, thoughtlessness, heedlessness, or inadvertence. Id.

14 The evidence presented to the Commission in this matter compels the conclusion that 15 Sheriff Antinoro did not willfully violate NRS 281A.400(7) by sending the endorsement letter at 16 issue to Fiori. As discussed at length in the Subject’s briefing, neither the language of Chapter
17 281A itself, nor the prior opinions of this Commission, would serve to adequately place Sheriff
18 Antinoro on notice that the conduct at issue is prohibited. It is without question that the language 19 of Chapter 281A itself does not expressly prohibit such conduct. Rather, the Commission has 20 relied upon what Sheriff Antinoro believes to be vague language in NRS 281A.400(7), including 21 the terms “significant personal interest” and “appearance of impropriety,” to find a violation in 22 this case. Such terms are no different in kind from those which were previously found to be 23 vague from a constitutional standpoint by the United States District Court in Dehne v. Avaino, 24 219 F. Supp.2d 1096, 1102 (D. Nev. 2001). In her Report and Recommendation which was
26
27
28

1 adopted by Judge David Hagen on this issue, United States Magistrate Judge Valerie Cooke
2 pointed out that terms in NRS 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(2) such as “false, deceptive,
3 misleading and bad faith” were constitutionally vague. In so doing, she stated as follows: “[i]f
4 the Legislature wishes to trod on First Amendment ground and regulate speech, it must do so
5 with the utmost specificity and clarity.”<sup>2</sup> See, Exhibit “D,” to Gerald Antinoro’s Reply in 6 Support of his Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment.

8 Here, the language of NRS 281A.400(7) as it relates to the type of conduct at issue is 9 vague and did not place Sheriff Antinoro in a position where he either knew, or should have 10 known, that his conduct was in violation of Chapter 281A.400(7). Certainly, given the 11 ambiguity of the language in Chapter 281A, Sheriff Antinoro cannot be found to have acted
12 voluntarily and with the specific intent and purpose to disobey or disregard what Chapter 281A
13 requires or forbids with respect to the single act at issue here. As such, there should be no 14 finding of willfulness under NRS 281A.475(3).

16 As for the prior opinions of the Commission, Sheriff Antinoro disagrees with the 17 conclusion that such opinions should have put him on notice that his endorsement of Fiori was in 18 violation of NRS 281A.400(7). The opinions cited by the Commission, including In re
19 Hammargren, Comm’n Op. No. 95-35A (1996), In re Hettrick, Comm’n Op. No. 01-10 (2001), 20 and In re Tiffany, Comm’n Op. No. 05-21C (2007) are simply not similar to the circumstances in 21 the case at bar. As has been fully briefed to the Commission, these opinions involve conduct far
22 more egregious than anything at issue here. That these prior opinions are not clear is readily

26 <sup>2</sup>The decisions of the Nevada Supreme Court and United States Supreme Court involving Sparks City Councilman
27 Michael Carrigan are not particularly instructive in this matter, as the United States Supreme Court, in addressing a 28 constitutional issue related to a different part of Chapter 281A, expressly held that a public officer’s actions of voting do not constitute protected speech. Because of this fact, the section of Chapter 281A at issue in those cases (conflict-of-interest restrictions) was analyzed under a much less stringent standard of review. See, Carrigan v.
Comm’n on Ethics of Nev., 129 Nev. Adv. Op. 95, 313 P.3d 880, 884 (2013). The constitutional issue is much different under the circumstances presented to the Commission here, as there is no question that core First Amendment political speech is at the center of this dispute.

1 apparent from a reading of the Executive Director's briefs in this matter wherein she urged the 2 Commission to "clarify" the issue of the use of letterhead under similar circumstances.

3 As such, these decisions do not, and did not, operate to put Sheriff Antinoro on notice
4 that his actions were in violation of NRS 281A.400(7) and the purported violation here should 5 not be held to have been willful.

7 Nor is the February 29, 2012, opinion of the Office of Special Counsel immaterial on the 8 issue of willfulness in this case. While the Commission attempts to distinguish this opinion from 9 the circumstances in the case at bar by noting that the OSC was speaking of "partisan" sheriffs,
10 this opinion is certainly relevant on the issue of whether a willful violation of NRS 281A.400(7)
11 occurred here. Irrespective of hair splitting on the issue of partisan versus non-partisan sheriffs,
12 the Office of Special Counsel, the agency responsible for interpreting the Hatch Act, concluded 13 that an elected sheriff has the right to participate in the political process not only in-person at 14 campaign events but with respect to campaign advertisements and political correspondence, as 15 well. This opinion is further evidence that Sheriff Antinoro did not know, nor should he have 16 known, that his actions in sending the endorsement to Fiori was in violation of NRS
18 281A.400(7).
19

20 To the extent Sheriff Antinoro's actions might be considered by the Commission to have 21 been careless, or taken without proper forethought, such conduct does not rise to the level of that 22 required to find a willful violation of Chapter 281A. See, In re: McDonald, Comm'n Op. No.
23 00-41.

25 (a) Seriousness of the Violation at Issue

26 Sheriff Antinoro would submit that the violation at issue in this matter is not serious and 27 that the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the alleged violation do not support a finding 28 of a willful violation here. While the Requestor claimed that Sheriff Antinoro committed a

1 number of violations of Chapter 281A, the Panel which reviewed this matter determined that
2 there was no credible evidence to substantiate a number of the allegations, including that Sheriff
3 Antinoro violated NRS 281A.400(2), NRS 281A.400(7) regarding an alleged improper use of his
4 badge and/or uniform, and NRS 281A.520. The Panel determined that there was no credible
5 evidence to find that Sheriff Antinoro acted in such a way as to grant an advantage to himself in 6 violation of NRS 281A.400(2) or that he otherwise acted in such a way as to have a commitment
7 in a private capacity to the interests of a candidate in violation of NRS 281A.400(2). The Panel
8 also concluded that there was no credible evidence that Sheriff Antinoro used government
9 resources or caused a governmental entity to incur any expense to support Fiori with respect to 10 the video or photograph of Sheriff Antinoro which the Panel found were used without Sheriff
11 Antinoro's permission. Thus, the majority of the allegations levied against Sheriff Antinoro by 12 the Requestor were dismissed.<sup>3</sup>

15 Given the limited scope of the violation before the Commission, Sheriff Antinoro submits 16 that this factor does not support the finding of a willful violation of NRS 281A.400(7) here.

18 (b) Number and History of Previous Violations

19 Sheriff Antinoro was the subject of another Third Party Request for Opinion in 2014, 20 specifically, RFO 14-59C. The Requestor in that particular RFO was Shawn Mahan, a political 21 opponent of Sheriff Antinoro during the campaign for Storey County Sheriff in 2014, and the 22 purported violation in that matter was an allegation that Sheriff Antinoro attempted to use his 23 position as Sheriff of Storey County to secure an unwanted advantage to himself in the 2014
24

25 <sup>3</sup>The undersigned has used the term "levied" intentionally. The Requestor here, Kris Thompson, appears to be 26 attempting to use this Commission to further his own private interests. Not only did Thompson file the RFO at 27 issue, but he also filed another RFO (RFO 16-63N), the subject of which were allegations of workplace harassment
28 which had nothing whatsoever to do with Thompson. The Commission rightfully determined that it had no jurisdiction over such allegations. Not to be deterred, Thompson filed a petition for judicial review with the First Judicial District Court which was summarily rejected by the Court. Thompson was also the spokesperson for the "Committee to Recall Gerald Antinoro" from office. The stated purpose of the Commission is to enhance the people's faith in the integrity and impartiality of public officers and employees, not to be used to assist persons with their own private agendas against a public officer.

1 election or to influence a subordinate (Mahan) to benefit his own personal or financial interest.
2 That matter revolved around events that occurred in July of 2014, when Mahan, then a deputy 3 sheriff, contacted a for-profit senior hospice care company, Infinity Hospice Care, and agreed to 4 act as a liaison for that company in Storey County. Mahan did not inform or request permission
5 of the Sheriff or any other of his superiors at the Storey County Sheriff's Office prior to taking 6 action in this regard. Infinity Hospice Care had planned an outreach event on July 22, 2014, and,
7 in advertising for the event, fliers were prepared with Mahan's picture on them. The picture of 8 Mahan on the flier was the same picture he had been using on his political signs in his campaign
9 for Sheriff. The Sheriff's Office then received a number of inquiries from senior citizens within 10 the community regarding the event. This confusion stemmed from the fact that Storey County 11 already had a relationship with "We Care," an independent organization affiliated with the 12 Sheriff's Office. In fact, the Storey County Sheriff's Office founded We Care and it was 13 managed out of the Storey County Sheriff's Office. Thus, confusion ensued as to which 14 organization, We Care or Infinity Health Care, was endorsed by the Sheriff's Office. Due to this 15 confusion, and due to the fact that Mahan did not request permission from anyone at the Sheriff's 16 Office prior to taking the actions described above, a cease and desist letter was prepared by 17 Sergeant Jeff Bowers which instructed Mahan to forego participation in the Infinity Hospice
18 Care event. Mahan did not attend the event. However, he greeted event-goers in the parking lot 19 and gave an interview while there to the local newspaper.

22
23
24 Ultimately, the parties to RFO 14-59C entered into a stipulated agreement regarding the 25 circumstances at issue there. In same, it was noted that the cease and desist order referenced 26 above could have been interpreted as infringing upon Mahan's First Amendment rights or 27 impeding his ability to campaign for office and, as such, that Sheriff Antinoro obtained an 28 unwarranted benefit from the order in violation of Chapter 281A.

1           However, any such violation was not deemed to be willful and no civil penalty was 2 deemed appropriate.

3           The circumstances at issue in RFO 14-59C are not similar in any way to those present
4 and before the Commission in this matter. RFO 14-59C had nothing whatsoever to do with the 5 alleged improper use of letterhead by a public officer and nothing associated with that RFO did
6 or should have placed Sheriff Antinoro in a position where he knew or should have known that 7 his conduct in sending the endorsement letter to Fiori was a violation of Chapter 281A. In fact,
8 the stipulated agreement in that matter recognized the importance of the First Amendment rights
9 of public officers and employees.

11           Given the very different circumstances present in the case at bar, the use RFO 14-59C to 12 assess a willful violation in this matter would be wholly inappropriate. Given that the subject
13 matter in that case was substantially different than that presented here, RFO 14-59C should be 14 given no weight with respect to the assessment of whether Sheriff Antinoro's actions constituted
15 a willful violation of NRS 281A.400(7).

18           (c) Cost to Commission in RFO 16-54C

19           The cost to the Commission with respect to this matter is minimal. Sheriff Antinoro at all 20 times cooperated with the Executive Director's investigation, including presenting himself for an 21 interview with Commission Counsel and its investigator on September 15, 2016, at the Executive 22 Director's offices. Sheriff Antinoro agreed to submit this matter to the Commission based on 23 Stipulated Facts, thereby avoiding the costs of an evidentiary hearing. Accordingly, this factor 24 weighs against a finding of a willful violation.
25

26           (d) Mitigating Factors

27           As noted above, Sheriff Antinoro cooperated at all times with the Executive Director
28 during the pendency of this matter. Sheriff Antinoro, through his legal counsel, provided the

1 Executive Director with those documents in his possession related to this matter when requested
2 to do so by Commission Counsel and agreed to be interviewed by Commission Counsel and the 3 Commission's investigator.

4 (e) Restitution or Reimbursement Paid to the Parties Affected by the Violation

5 With respect to this factor, there was no financial detriment to any party associated with 6 this matter nor any restitution or reimbursement to be paid. The Commission has already 7 concluded that there was no use, in a monetary sense, by Sheriff Antinoro of any resources of 8 Storey County. See, Panel Determination. As such, this factor also weighs against a finding of a 9 willful violation of NRS 281A.400(7).

11 (f) Extent of Any Financial Gain Resulting from the Violation

12 There was no measure of financial gain associated with Sheriff Antinoro's actions in 13 sending the endorsement letter to Ms. Fiori and, again, the analysis of this factor weighs against 14 a finding of a willful violation of NRS 281A.400(7).

16 (g) Any other Factors Justice May Require

17 Perhaps of all of the mitigating factors in this matter, the magnitude of the restriction on 18 the First Amendment rights of Sheriff Antinoro here strongly weighs against a finding of a 19 willful violation of NRS 281A.400(7). While the Commission dealt with the Subject's 20 constitutional arguments by stating that it must "assume" that NRS 281A.400(7) is 21 constitutional, given the significance of the First Amendment right at issue, Sheriff Antinoro
22 would submit that justice compels a finding that there was no willful violation here. NRS
23 281A.400(7) does not expressly prohibit the conduct at issue. The language of NRS
24 281A.400(7), when balanced against the First Amendment right at issue, is vague and does not,
25 and did not, put Sheriff Antinoro on notice that his conduct was in violation of same. The prior 26 opinions of the Commission are not clear in terms of providing adequate notice that conduct such

1 as that at issue is in violation of NRS 281A.400(7). In fact, the Executive Director invited the 2 Commission to "clarify" its position in this regard. Given the Executive Director's admission
3 that the issue of the use of letterhead under the circumstances at bar should be clarified by the 4 Commission, the undersigned respectfully submits that no willful violation of Chapter 281A
5 should be found. While clarification of this type of very limited use of government letterhead
6 will certainly assist public officers in the future, Sheriff Antinoro should not be subject to a
7 willful violation under NRS 281A where the legal precedent is not clear. This is especially true
8 when First Amendment core political speech is implicated.

10 CONCLUSION

11 Based upon all of the foregoing, Sheriff Antinoro respectfully submits that there was no
12 willful violation of NRS 281A.400(7) under the circumstances and that no civil or other penalty 13 should be imposed.

BEFORE THE NEVADA COMMISSION ON ETHICS

In the Matter of the Third-Party Request
for Opinion Concerning the Conduct of
Gerald Antinoro, Sheriff, County of Storey, State of Nevada,

Request for Opinion No. 16-54C

Subject. /

ORDER ON MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

On June 2, 2016, the Nevada Commission on Ethics (“Commission”) received Third-Party Request for Opinion No. 16-54C (“RFO”) from a member of the public pursuant to NRS 281A.440(2) concerning the conduct of Storey County Sheriff Gerald Antinoro (“Subject” or “Antinoro”) alleging violations of certain provisions of the Nevada Ethics in Government Law (“Ethics Law”) set forth in NRS Chapter 281A.

INTRODUCTION AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On October 27, 2016, a Panel Determination was issued, finding just and sufficient cause for the Commission to conduct a public hearing and render an opinion regarding whether Antinoro’s conduct in using official letterhead to endorse a political candidate violated the provisions of NRS 281A.400(7), associated with a use of governmental time, property, equipment or other facility to benefit a significant personal or pecuniary interest.

On November 3, 2016, the Commission issued a Notice of Hearing and Scheduling Order, setting an evidentiary hearing for February 15, 2017. On December 15, 2017, the parties filed an executed Stipulated Facts and requested the Commission to set aside the noticed evidentiary hearing and instead hold a hearing in April to consider Motions for Summary Judgment to be filed by the parties. A First-Amended Notice of Hearing and Scheduling Order was issued on January 5, 2017 to reschedule the hearing to April 19, 2017. Thereafter, each party filed a Motion for Summary Judgment (collectively the “Motions”) which were fully briefed and submitted for consideration of the Commission.

HEARING ON THE MOTIONS AND STANDARD OF REVIEW

On April 19, 2017, the Commission duly called the matter to order and considered the Motions, the Stipulated Facts, the record of proceedings and oral arguments presented by the parties. Consistent with the definition of a “party” set forth in NAC 281A.060, Ms. Judy A. Prutzman, Esq. appeared in representation of Ms. Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson, Esq. and Ms. Katherine F. Parks, Esq. appeared in representation of Subject Antinoro.

The rules governing practice before the Commission are set forth in NRS Chapter 281A and NAC 281A.250 to NAC 281A.310. A Motion for Summary Judgment is a dispositive motion which is permitted to be made after the issuance of a Panel Determination. See NAC 281A.265. NRS 281A.480(9) establishes the burden of proof for finding a violation of NRS Chapter 281A as a preponderance of the evidence unless a greater burden is otherwise prescribed by law. See also NRS 233B.121. In prior opinions, the Commission has granted a motion for summary judgment based upon the preponderance of evidence standard. See In re Gammick, Comm’n Op. No. 10-71C (2010) and in In re Matson, Comm’n Op. No. 14-70C (2016).

The Commission is not required to follow the standards applicable to a Motion for Summary Judgment contained in the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure (“NRCP”), but it is not prejudicial error for the Commission to do so. The Nevada Supreme Court has opined that such rules “are not binding on a state agency in an adjudicatory proceeding, unless expressly adopted by the agency.” Dutchess Bus. Servs. v. Nev. State Bd. of Pharm, 124 Nev. 701, 710, 191 P.3d. 1159 (2008). The Commission has not expressly adopted the provisions of NRCP 56(c), which establish the standard for granting a Motion for Summary Judgment in a judicial proceeding as “[t]he judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.” Accordingly, the Commission bases its determination on a preponderance of evidence standard and confirms that the provisions of NRCP 56 are instructive, but not mandatory.

DISCUSSION AND ORDER

The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to NRS 281A.280. Subject Antinoro is the elected Sheriff of Storey County, a public officer as defined in NRS 281A.160. The issue presented is whether Subject violated the provisions of NRS 281A.400(7) by using public time, property, equipment or other facilities when he used the official letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff’s Office to endorse a political candidate. In application of the Ethics Law, the Commission recognizes, that as a public officer, Antinoro must commit himself to avoid both actual and perceived conflicts between his private interests and those of the public he serves, including a duty to avoid using his public office or position for personal benefit. NRS 281A.020(1).

Antinoro contends he did not use government time, staff or resources as prohibited by NRS 281A.400(7) when he made a private endorsement of a political candidate since the endorsement, even though issued on official letterhead, was sent on his private computer during his lunch hour. Further, he asserts that the Executive Director has not produced evidence of a pecuniary interest or significant personal interest, a required element of NRS 281A.400(7).

1. Use of Official Government Letterhead for Private Purpose

Antinoro seeks to distinguish his circumstances from precedential opinions issued by the Commission.<sup>1</sup> Among other assertions, Antinoro indicates that the version of the endorsement letter published on social media by the candidate was done without his assistance or knowledge.<sup>2</sup> Also, he indicates that the image posted on social media did not contain certain attributes of an official letterhead such as address, phone and other contact information of the Storey County Sheriff’s Office. The version posted on social media had the Sheriff’s office logo and Antinoro’s name and title of Sheriff at the top of the page.<sup>3</sup> Antinoro asserts his circumstances are similar to and requests the Commission follow an advisory opinion dated February 29, 2012, issued by the U.S. Office of Special Counsel (“OSC”) discussing the application of the Federal Hatch Act to an incumbent partisan sheriff opining that the sheriff’s use of a title and uniform in political correspondence, even if the correspondence is in support of another partisan office, would not violate the Hatch Act.

<sup>2</sup> The Stipulated Facts confirm that Antinoro did not produce or otherwise assist with the YouTube Video. Antinoro did not supply any of the other images used in the video and candidate Michelle Fiore did not contact the Sheriff to inform him about the endorsement video.

<sup>3</sup> Although the endorsement posted on social media was not a full reproduction, Antinoro provided the Commission with an endorsement on full letterhead containing attributes of official address and contact information. See Antinoro’s July 26, 2016, response to the RFO allegations, which attached the complete letter as an exhibit. Consequently, any distinctions asserted based upon a lack of address or contact information are not supported by the full record.

The Commission does not find the OSC letter or the Federal Hatch Act to be direct precedent, instructive or determinative of the matter before the Commission. The guidance issued by the U.S. Office of Special Counsel applies to an incumbent “partisan” sheriff. NRS 293.195 designates the office of sheriff in Nevada as a nonpartisan rather than a partisan office. Particularly, the OSC guidance did not relate to the use of official letterhead for a private political endorsement and did not discuss whether or not the use of an official letterhead would be restricted by the Hatch Act or established governmental policy.

The Commission has and continues to view the use of official letterhead of a government office or agency as use of governmental property. See In re Hammargren, Comm’n Op. No. 95-35A (1996); In re Hettrick, Comm’n Op. No. 01-10 (2001); and In re Tiffany, Comm’n Op. No. 05-21C (2007). The use of official letterhead demonstrates a wielding or exertion of the official authority of public office. It also creates the impression that the Sheriff’s Office, as a law enforcement department, endorses the contents of the letter. An endorsement on private letterhead does not carry the same weight as one issued on official letterhead. Certainly, “all individuals enjoy a constitutional right to speak out on political concerns.” Hettrick at p. 2. However, the Ethics Law prohibits the use of governmental property, including its official letterhead, for a significant personal interest, especially when such use creates an appearance of impropriety or the impression that the government sanctions the activity. Id.

The record establishes that Antinoro used the official letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff to provide a private political endorsement and such use was not permitted by established policy of the affected agencies, nor was it permitted under the limited use exception set forth in NRS 281A.400(7)(a). Furthermore, the right of a private citizen to endorse a candidate of his selection is of such significance as to be provided constitutional protection under the First Amendment. See Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1, 14, 96 S.Ct. 612, 632 (1976). Consequently, the private endorsement of a candidate is a significant personal interest for purposes of application of the Ethics Law. Therefore, based upon a preponderance of evidence standard, the Commission determines that Antinoro improperly used the Storey County official letterhead to provide a private endorsement for a political candidate in violation of NRS 281A.400(7).

2. Constitutionality of NRS 281A.400(7) is Presumed

Antinoro contends that NRS 281A.400(7) is unconstitutional under the void-for-vagueness doctrine. Antinoro’s position is that the terms “appearance of impropriety,” “significant” and “personal,” all applied under the provisions of NRS 281A.400(7), are not specifically defined in NRS Chapter 281A and therefore are vague.

However, the Commission, as an administrative agency, must presume the statute to be valid, especially since there has not been a sufficient showing that the statute is unconstitutional. Although fact finding is left to the administrative agency, determination of constitutionality is for the courts. See Malecon Tobacco, LLC v. State ex rel. Dep’t of Taxation, 118 Nev. 837, 59 P.3d. 474 (2002). Also, in application of statutory directives, “[a] statute should be given [its] plain meaning and must be construed as a whole and not read in any way that would render words or phrases superfluous or make a provision nugatory,” Managarella v. State, 117 Nev. 130, 133, 17 P.3d 989, 991 (2001) (internal quotations omitted).

No court has determined the provisions of NRS 281A.400(7) to be unconstitutional under the void-for-vagueness doctrine or other constitutional challenge. The challenged statute is content-neutral, applies to all public officers and employees and does not preclude or chill the private support of any political candidate. There is no evidence supporting that NRS 281A.400(7) has been or is discriminatorily applied, especially given the prior opinions rendered by the Commission. Further supporting the constitutionality of NRS 281A.400(7) are two notable opinions issued by the Supreme Court of the United States and the Nevada Supreme Court holding comparable provisions of the Ethics Law to be constitutional in the context of the First Amendment. See Nev. Comm’n on Ethics v. Carrigan, 564 U.S. 117, 131 S. Ct. 2343 (2011)

("Carrigan I") and Carrigan v. Comm'n on Ethics of Nev., 129 Nev. Adv. Op. 95, 313 P.3d 880 (2013) ("Carrigan II").

These opinions are direct precedent for the administrative proceedings conducted by the Commission. The U.S. Supreme Court's decision in Carrigan I "...rejected the notion that the First Amendment confers a right to use governmental mechanics to convey a message." Carrigan I, 564 U.S. 117, 127. Further, in Carrigan II, the Nevada Supreme Court validated the conflict of interest standards as established under civil statutes, including the Ethics Law's utilization of an "appearance of impropriety" utilized with regard to a conflict of interest, stating that such "rules have been commonplace for over 200 years." Carrigan II, 313 P.3d 880, 885. The Nevada Supreme Court further instructed that "...where the conduct gives an 'appearance of impropriety' it may be prohibited." Id.

The Court recognized the important public interest implications that the State of Nevada has in regulating governmental ethics when it determined that the restraints placed by the Ethics Law on public officials and employees relating to private conflicts of interest and recusal statutes is "scant when compared to the state's important interest in avoiding conflicts of interest and self-dealing by public officials entrusted with making decisions affecting our citizens." Carrigan II, 313 P.3d 880, 887, citing Clingman v. Beaver, 544 U.S. 581, 586-87, 125 S. Ct. 2029, 161 L.Ed 2d 920 (2005) (a reasonable, nondiscriminatory regulation that imposes an incidental burden on associational rights is acceptable when justified by a state's important regulatory concerns). Accordingly, given the precedential Carrigan decisions, the Commission does not perceive the term "appearance of impropriety" to be vague or its use to establish a conflict of interest to be inappropriate.

In addition, the terms "significant" and "personal" are common qualifying terms found in numerous statutes and the words have plain meanings. Both terms are defined in the latest on-line version of the Merriam-Webster Dictionary. "Personal" is defined to be a matter "pertaining to or relating to the person." "Significant" is defined as "having or likely to have influence or effect" such as "a significant piece of legislation" or a matter having "a noticeably or measurably large amount such as a significant number of layoffs or producing significant profits." With respect to this RFO, the private endorsement of a candidate is a significant right belonging to the person (Antinoro) and endorsements are sought because they are likely to have an influence or effect on getting the candidate elected.

Moreover, in Carrigan II, the Nevada Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of the considered provisions of the Ethics Law because a public officer/employee "in doubt of the validity of a proposed conduct [under the Ethics Law] may obtain advice from the Commission and thereby remove any doubt there may be as to the meaning of the law..." Id., 313 P.3d at 886. Here, Antinoro did not comply with the requirements of NRS 281A.400(7) or opinions issued by the Commission and did not utilize the Commission's advisory opinion process for guidance. If Antinoro had any doubt or question about the application of NRS 281A.400(7) to his circumstances, NRS 281A.440(1) provided him the ability to seek an advisory opinion from the Commission.

Accordingly, based upon the entire record and the Commission's consideration of the Motions, Stipulated Facts, and presentations of the parties, the Commission finds good cause to enter following order:

1. The Executive Director's Motion for Summary Judgment is granted, in that, it is determined by a preponderance of evidence that Antinoro's conduct violates the provisions of NRS 281A.400(7).<sup>4</sup>
2. Subject Antinoro's Motion for Summary Judgment is denied.
3. In order to issue a final decision in this matter, the Commission directs Commission Counsel to issue a Notice and Scheduling Order for purposes of scheduling a hearing on May 15, 2017, for the Commission to consider briefs submitted by the parties addressing the willfulness of the violation of NRS 281A.400(7) under the requirements of NRS 281A.475 and whether any penalties or fines should be imposed by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of NRS 281A.480.

NOTICE OF HEARING AND SCHEDULING ORDER
REGARDING BRIEFING

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that the Commission will consider Hearing Briefs regarding whether the conduct found to be in violation of the Ethics Law constitutes a willful violation, including any associated mitigating factors and penalties (See NRS 281A.475 and 281A.480) and hold a hearing thereon, in the matter of Third-Party Request for Opinion No.16-54C.

The Hearing Will Take Place:

Monday, May 15, 2017 at 10:30 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the Commission is able to hear the matter, at the following a location:

The Office of Economic Development
808 West Nye Lane
Carson City, NV 89703

The hearing will assist the Commission to determine whether the violation of NRS Chapter 281A, the Ethics in Government Law ("Ethics Law"), set forth in the Executive Director's Motion for Summary Judgment granted by the Commission on April 19, 2017, should be deemed willful under NRS 281A.475 and whether any penalties and related fines should be imposed by the Commission pursuant to NRS 281A.480.

The parties have stipulated that the Commission may issue its determination based upon submitted Briefs and RFO record, without presentation of oral argument. Accordingly, the Commission will consider the Briefs without oral argument and hold a hearing to issue its decision on the record. NRS 281A.440(16) directs that the deliberations of the Commission are not subject to the provisions of NRS Chapter 241, Nevada's Open Meeting Law. Accordingly, the deliberations of the Commission will not be held in an open public meeting.

1. HEARING BRIEFS

On or before Thursday, May 4, 2017, not later than 12:00 noon,<sup>1</sup> the Parties shall each submit and serve on the other Party, written Briefs addressing the willfulness of the violations set forth in the Motion for Summary Judgment and associated penalty, if any, in accordance with NRS 281A.475, NRS 281A.480, relevant provisions of the Ethics Law and precedential opinions of the Commission. Briefs shall be limited to ten (10) pages in length.

The Parties have agreed to electronic service in this matter and will submit any filings to Commission Counsel, Tracy L. Chase, Esq., at tchase@ethics.nv.gov, with a copy to dhayden@ethics.nv.gov, and serve the Parties as follows:

16 MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

17 Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson, Esq., Executive Director of the Nevada
18 Commission on Ethics (“Commission”), through the Commission’s Associate Counsel,
19 Judy A. Prutzman, Esq., submits this Motion for Summary Judgment pursuant to NAC
20 281A.265.

21 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

22 I. INTRODUCTION

23 This Third-Party Request for Opinion (“RFO”) involves the alleged conduct of 24 Gerald Antinoro (“Antinoro”), Sheriff of Storey County, Nevada. The RFO alleges that 25 Antinoro violated the Ethics in Government Law set forth in NRS Chapter 281A
26 (“Ethics Law”) when he provided a letter to endorse former State Assemblywoman
27 Michelle Fiore (“Fiore”) as a candidate for United States Congress. Antinoro printed
28 and signed the endorsement letter on the official letterhead of the Storey County
Sheriff’s Office, which includes an accurate depiction of the Storey County Sheriff’s Office badge and Antinoro’s official title as Sheriff. See Exhibit 6, Exhibit 1 to 1 Stipulated Facts. Antinoro's endorsement letter was included in a YouTube video

2 entitled "Sheriff Gerald Antinoro Endorsement" that was posted to Fiore's campaign
3 Facebook page and Twitter account (@VoteFiore) on May 27, 2016.

4 Antinoro used government resources to benefit his personal interest in 5 supporting a candidate in a political campaign. While Antinoro's conduct did not cause 6 the sheriff's office to incur any costs, his use of official government letterhead for 7 personal purposes unrelated to official business of the sheriff's office created an 8 appearance of impropriety that implicates NRS 281A.400(7). The Ethics Law exists to 9 confront circumstances such as this that interfere with Antinoro's duty to protect the 10 public trust and separate his private interests from those of the public he serves as the 11 Sheriff of Storey County. The use of a government resource not otherwise available to 12 private citizens for a political endorsement is the type of harm to the public that the 13 Ethics Law is designed to prohibit, as it creates a conflict of interest and an 14 appearance of impropriety.

15 The relevant facts in this matter are not disputed and the parties have 16 submitted Stipulated Facts to the Commission. The Commission should grant
17 summary judgment in favor of the Executive Director because the undisputed facts
18 show that Antinoro's use of the Storey County Sheriff's Office letterhead violated NRS
19 281A.400(7).

20 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND STIPULATED FACTS

21 A. Procedural History

22 On or about June 2, 2016, the Commission received the RFO from Requester
23 Kris Thompson ("Requester"), by and through his legal representative Rick R. Hsu,
24 Esq. with Maupin, Cox & Legoy. See Exhibit 1, RFO. The RFO alleges that Antinoro
25 violated NRS Chapter 281A by engaging in the following conduct:

26 ///

27 ///

- 1 • Using his position in government to secure or grant unwarranted
2 privileges, preferences, exemptions or advantages for himself or 3 any person to whom he has a commitment in a private capacity to 4 the interests of that person. (NRS 281A.400(2));
- 5 • Using governmental time, property, equipment or other facility to 6 benefit his personal or financial interest (NRS 281A.400(7)); and
- 7 • Causing a governmental entity to incur an expense or make an 8 expenditure to support or oppose a ballot question or candidate.
9 (NRS 281A.520)).

10 On or about June 17, 2016, the Commission served Antinoro via certified mail
11 with a Notice to Subject advising him of the alleged violations set forth in the RFO.
12 Antinoro was provided an opportunity to respond to the RFO and requested an 13 extension of time to submit a response through his attorney, Katherine F. Parks, Esq.
14 (“Parks”) of Thorndal, Armstrong, Delk, Balkenbush & Eisinger, which response was 15 filed on or about July 26, 2016. See Exhibit 2, Response to RFO. On or about August
16 2, 2016, a Notice of Additional Issues and Facts was served on Antinoro. See Exhibit 17 3, Notice of Additional Issues and Facts. Antinoro, through Parks, filed a response to 18 the Notice of Additional Issues and Facts on September 6, 2016.<sup>1</sup> See Exhibit 4, 19 Response to Notice of Additional Issues/Facts.

20 On or about October 27, 2016, a Panel Determination was issued, finding just 21 and sufficient cause for the Commission to conduct a public hearing and render an 22 opinion regarding whether Antinoro violated NRS 281A.400(7). See Exhibit 5, Panel
23 Determination.<sup>2</sup> Thereafter, the Commission issued a Notice of Hearing and

25
26 <sup>1</sup> The Notice of Additional Facts and Issues was issued regarding Antinoro’s appearance in Fiore’s
YouTube endorsement video wearing his Sheriff’s uniform.

27 <sup>2</sup> The Panel Determination found that credible evidence did not substantiate just and sufficient cause for 28 the Commission to conduct a public hearing and render an opinion regarding the alleged violations of NRS 281A.400(2), NRS 281A.400(7) (regarding Antinoro’s use of his badge and uniform) and NRS
281A.520. Accordingly, these allegations were dismissed.

1 Scheduling Order, setting this matter for a hearing on February 15, 2017. The parties
2 filed an executed Stipulated Facts (Exhibit 6) on December 15, 2016 and requested
3 the Commission set aside the February 15, 2017 evidentiary hearing and instead hold 4 a hearing to consider dispositive motions or stipulations. A First-Amended Notice of 5 Hearing and Scheduling Order was issued on January 5, 2017 to reschedule the 6 hearing to April 19, 2017.

7 B. STIPULATED FACTS

8 Pursuant to the Stipulated Facts submitted to the Commission, the parties have 9 agreed to submit as evidence in this matter the following facts:

- 10 1. Gerald Antinoro (“Antinoro”) is the elected Sheriff of Storey County, a public 11 officer as defined in NRS 281A.160.
- 12 2. Storey County is a political subdivision as defined in NRS 281A.145.
- 13 3. The Storey County Sheriff’s Office is a local agency as defined in NRS
14 281A.119.
- 15 4. During the relevant time period, Nevada State Assemblywoman Michelle Fiore
16 (“Fiore”) was a United States Congressional candidate for Nevada’s Third 17 Congressional District in Clark County.
- 18 5. On May 27, 2016, Fiore contacted Sheriff Antinoro by phone to request his 19 endorsement of her candidacy for U.S. Congress.
- 20 6. Sheriff Antinoro prepared a three-paragraph statement endorsing Fiore’s
21 candidacy (Exhibit 1), dated May 27, 2016, on his personal computer at his 22 home during his lunch hour.
- 23 7. The statement was typed on the official Storey County Sheriff’s Office
24 letterhead and emailed to Fiore from Sheriff Antinoro’s personal computer and 25 email account.
- 26 8. On May 27, 2016, Sheriff Antinoro’s statement appeared in a YouTube video
27 that was tweeted on Fiore’s Twitter account, @VoteFiore.
- 28 9. The YouTube video containing Sheriff Antinoro’s statement was also posted on Fiore’s Facebook page on May 27, 2016.

1 10. Sheriff Antinoro did not produce the YouTube video or supply any of the other
2 images used in the video. Fiore did not contact Sheriff Antinoro to inform him
3 about the endorsement video.

4 11. Fiore was defeated in her campaign for U.S. Congress in the primary election
5 held on June 15, 2016.

6 12. Policy Number 213 of the Storey County Administrative Policies and 7 Procedures (“Storey County Policies”) addresses political activity by 8 employees:

9 213: Political Activity

10 Employees shall not engage in political activity of any kind during 11 working hours. This includes, but is not limited to: soliciting money,
12 influence, service, or any other valuable thing to aid, promote, or 13 defeat any political committee or the nomination or election of any 14 person to public office. Wearing or displaying of apparel, buttons,
15 insignia, or other items which advocate for or against a political 16 candidate or a political cause is also an example of prohibited
17 activity during working hours. Furthermore, no person shall attempt 18 to coerce, commence, or require a person holding or applying for 19 any position, office, or employment, including a citizen requesting
20 service supplied by employer, to influence or to give money,
21 service, or other valuable thing to aid, promote, or defeat any 22 political committee, or to aid, promote, or defeat the nomination or 23 election of any person to public office.

24 .....

25 Employees are expressly forbidden to use any employer
26 resources, including but not limited to: interoffice mail, email,
27 telephone, fax machines, the Internet, or copy machines to engage 28 in any political activity outside the approved scope of the employees’ official duties.

Employees who are seeking, or who have been elected or appointed to public office, shall not conduct any business related to these activities while on duty. This includes all the items listed in the previous section, (i.e., political activity).

1 13. The Storey County Policies contain the following definition of “employee:”

2 Employee: A person employed in a budgeted position on a full- or 3 part-time basis. For purposes of those sections of these policies
4 covering discipline, layoff, and dispute resolution, the term
5 employee excludes elected officials, department heads and casual
6 workers.

7 14. The Storey County Sheriff’s Office has a policy regarding Employee
8 Speech, Expression and Social Networking that addresses
9 endorsements:

10 1060.4.1 UNAUTHORIZED ENDORSEMENTS,
11 ADVERTISEMENTS, AND ACTIVITIES

12 While employees are not restricted from engaging in the following
13 activities as private citizens or as authorized members of a
14 recognized bargaining unit or deputy associations, employees may 15 not represent the Storey County Sheriff’s Office or identify 16 themselves in any way that could be reasonably perceived as 17 representing the Storey County Sheriff’s Office in order to do any 18 of the following, unless specifically authorized by the Sheriff:

- 19 (a) Endorse, support, oppose or contradict any political 20 campaign or initiative.

22 Additionally, when it can reasonably be construed that an
23 employee, acting in his/her individual capacity or through an 24 outside group or organization (e.g., bargaining group), is affiliated
25 with this office, the employee shall give a specific disclaiming
26 statement that any such speech or expression is not
27 representative of the Storey County Sheriff’s Office.

28 Employees retain their right to vote as they choose, to support candidates of their choice and to express their opinions as private citizens, including as authorized members of a recognized bargaining unit or deputy associations, on political subjects and candidates at all times while off-duty. Employees may not use their official authority or influence to interfere with or affect the result of an election or a nomination for office. Employees are also prohibited from directly or indirectly using their official authority to coerce, command or advise another employee to pay, lend or contribute anything of value to a party, committee, organization,
agency or person for political purposes (5 USC § 1502).

1 III. APPLICABLE LAW

2 A. Summary Judgment Standard of Review

3 Summary judgment is appropriate when the record shows there is no genuine 4 issue of material fact remaining and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a
5 matter of law. Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 729, 121 P.3d 1026, 1029 (2005)
6 (citing NRCP 56(c)). Where, as in this case, a motion is submitted with stipulated 7 facts, there is no material issue of fact and the case can be determined on a question
8 of law. See Sly v. Barnett, 97 Nev. 587, 588, 637 P.2d 527, 527 (1981).

9 Because the parties have stipulated to the operative facts in this case, it is 10 appropriate for the Commission to rule on this motion and resolve the RFO in its 11 entirety. There are no factual disputes for the Commission to resolve. Accordingly, the 12 relevant legal inquiry for the Commission is whether the undisputed facts of this case 13 demonstrate that Antinoro violated NRS 281A.400(7). If the Commission concludes as 14 a matter of law that a violation occurred, the Executive Director's summary judgment
15 motion can be granted.

16 B. Standard of Proof

17 The standard of proof in an administrative proceeding before the Commission 18 is a preponderance-of-the-evidence standard. NRS 281A.480(9). A preponderance of 19 the evidence refers to "the greater weight of the evidence." McClanahan v. Raley's,
20 Inc., 117 Nev. 921, 925-26, 34 P.3d 573, 576 (2001) (quoting Black's Law Dictionary 21 1201 (7th ed. 1999)). Thus, the factual findings of an administrative decision will only 22 be overturned if they are not supported by substantial evidence, which is evidence 23 that a reasonable mind could accept as adequate to support a conclusion. Nassiri v.
24 Chiropractic Physicians' Bd., 130 Nev., Adv. Op. 27, 327 P.3d 487, 489 (2014); NRS
25 233B.135(4).

26 ///

27 ///

1 The Executive Director respectfully submits that she is entitled to summary
2 judgment because the relevant facts of this case are not disputed and the 3 preponderance of evidence shows that Antinoro violated NRS 281A.400(7) because 4 his use of public property, the Storey County Sheriff's Office letterhead, for personal 5 purposes created the appearance of impropriety.

6 C. Nevada's Ethics in Government Law

7 NRS 281A.400(7): Use of Government Resources for Private Benefit

9 7. Except for State Legislators who are subject to the restrictions set 10 forth in subsection 8, a public officer or employee shall not use
11 governmental time, property, equipment or other facility to benefit a 12 significant personal or pecuniary interest of the public officer or employee.
13 This subsection does not prohibit:

14 (a) A limited use of governmental property, equipment or other facility 15 for personal purposes if:

16 (1) The public officer or employee who is responsible for and has 17 authority to authorize the use of such property, equipment or other facility
18 has established a policy allowing the use or the use is necessary as a 19 result of emergency circumstances;

20 (2) The use does not interfere with the performance of the public
21 officer's or employee's public duties;

22 (3) The cost or value related to the use is nominal; and

23 (4) The use does not create the appearance of impropriety;

24 (b) The use of mailing lists, computer data or other information lawfully 25 obtained from a governmental agency which is available to members of 26 the general public for nongovernmental purposes; or

27 (c) The use of telephones or other means of communication if there is 28 not a special charge for that use.

If a governmental agency incurs a cost as a result of a use that is authorized pursuant to this subsection or would ordinarily charge a member of the general public for the use, the public officer or employee shall promptly reimburse the cost or pay the charge to the governmental agency.

IV. LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Ethics Law seeks to secure the public trust by promoting the appropriate separation between private interests and a public officer's public duties. To promote integrity in public service, the Ethics Law is concerned with situations involving public

1 officers that create the appearance of impropriety as well as actual impropriety and 2 conflicts of interests. See In re Wilson, Comm'n Op. No. 13-81C (2014). As a public
3 officer, Antinoro must commit himself to avoid both actual and perceived conflicts
4 between his private interests and those of the public he serves, including a duty to 5 avoid using his public office or position for personal benefit. NRS 281A.020(1).

6 Generally, NRS 281A.400(7) creates a strict prohibition against the use by a 7 public officer of "governmental time, property, equipment or other facility to benefit a 8 significant personal or financial interest." Accordingly, the Commission must first 9 determine if Antinoro used governmental time, property, equipment or other facility to 10 benefit his personal or pecuniary interest. If this question is answered in the 11 affirmative, the Commission must next consider whether the "limited use" exception
12 contained in NRS 281A.400(7)(a) applies to Antinoro's use of government property.
13 Antinoro's conduct is not permissible under the "limited use" exception unless each of 14 the following factors is satisfied:

- 15 (1) There is a policy authorizing Antinoro's use of the Storey 16 County Sheriff's Office letterhead for a letter of endorsement for 17 a political candidate;
- 18 (2) Use of the letterhead did not interfere in any way with the 19 performance of Antinoro's public duties;
- 20 (3) The cost or value related to the use was nominal; and
- 21 (4) The use did not create the appearance of impropriety.

22 A. Antinoro Used Governmental Property

23 The first question for the Commission to consider is whether Antinoro used any 24 governmental resources when he produced the endorsement letter for Fiore. When 25 the letter of endorsement was produced, Antinoro avoided using governmental time or 26 equipment to work on his private endeavor. He typed the letter during his lunch hour
27 at his home on his personal computer, then used his private email address to transmit
28 an electronic copy of the letter to Fiore. Under these circumstances, had Antinoro

1 typed the letter on a blank piece of paper or on his personal letterhead or stationary,
2 his conduct would not conflict with the requirements of NRS 281A.400(7) because 3 there would be no use of governmental property. However, it is undisputed that 4 Antinoro's letter of endorsement was typed on the Storey County Sheriff's Office
5 letterhead. Thus, the governmental property at issue here is the official letterhead of 6 the Storey County Sheriff's Office.

7 In prior Commission cases involving the use of official letterhead by public
8 officials, the Commission has viewed the letterhead and stationary of public offices as 9 governmental property. Thus, in In re Hammargren, Comm'n Op. No. 95-35A (1996),
10 the Commission held that Lieutenant Governor Hammargren violated NRS 281.481(7)
11 (the predecessor statute to NRS 281A.400(7)) when he prepared a letter to Nevada
12 physicians on the official state letterhead of the Lieutenant Governor's Office, 13 requesting support of a bill that would benefit Hammargren's private medical practice.
14 See also In re Tiffany, Comm'n Op. No. 15-21C (2007) (concluding that Senator
15 Tiffany's use of her Nevada State Senate letterhead stationary to promote her private 16 business was improper use of government property and violated NRS 281.481(8)<sup>3</sup>; In 17 re Hettrick, Comm'n Op. No. 01-10A (2001) (concluding that Assemblyman Hettrick's
18 Nevada State Assembly letterhead was government property that could not be used 19 for a political fundraising letter).

20 The public officers in Hammargren, Tiffany and Hettrick were entitled to use the 21 official letterhead of their public office only for official business. Therefore, it logically
22 follows that the official letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff's Office is also a 23 government resource subject to the restrictions set forth in NRS 281A.400(7).
24 Furthermore, the only reason Antinoro is entitled to use the letterhead is because of

26
27 <sup>3</sup>NRS 281.481(8), the predecessor statute to NRS 281A.400(8), prohibited members of the State
28 Legislature from using "governmental time, property, equipment or other facility for a non-governmental purpose or for the private benefit of himself or any other person."

1 his public office. This is a privilege unavailable to individuals who are not the sheriff of 2 Storey County.

3 B. Antinoro’s Use of Governmental Property Benefited His Personal Interest
4 in Supporting a Political Candidate

5 It is not necessary to show that Antinoro realized any pecuniary benefit by 6 using the Storey County Sheriff’s Office letterhead for the letter of endorsement. The 7 legislature intended NRS 281A.400(7) to reach beyond financial interests by referring 8 also to “personal” interests. See In re Bowles, Comm’n Op. No. 96-49 (1996)
9 (discussing application of former NRS 281.481(7) to a public officer’s personal use of 10 public money when he “borrowed” $100 from a DMV cash drawer to pay for food at a 11 Democratic Party picnic). The Commission has therefore acknowledged that the 12 appropriate inquiry is “whether the public officer used the public’s resources to benefit 13 himself in any way.” Id. (emphasis in original).

14 Quite simply, NRS 281A.400(7) draws a “clear and bright line”: public property
15 belongs to the public and cannot be used for personal benefit or gain. See id. Thus, 16 under the previous version of NRS 281A.400(7), the Commission has declared that 17 the prohibition in NRS 281A.400(7) prohibits the use of governmental property for 18 personal political or campaign purposes. See In re Kirkland, Comm’n Op. No. 98-41
19 (1999) (citing In re Bob Nolen, Comm’n Op. No. 96-39 (1996) and In re Lonnie 20 Hammargren, Comm’n Op. No. 95-35 (1995)). Accordingly, the Commission should 21 find that Antinoro’s use of the letterhead for a political endorsement letter benefited his 22 private interest in supporting Fiore in her Congressional campaign.

23 C. Sheriff Antinoro’s Use of Official Government Letterhead Does Not 24 Satisfy All Elements of the Limited Use Exception in NRS 281A.400(7)(a)

25 In 1997, the Nevada Legislature passed Senate Bill 214 to add a limited use
26 exception to the general prohibition contained in NRS 281A.400(7). The legislative 27 history of SB 214 indicates that the exception was added in recognition that there are 28 situations in which the “necessary use” of government property would be justified. See

1 Hearing on S.B. 214 Before Senate Comm. on Gov't Affairs, 69th Leg. (Nev., May 7, 2 1997).

3 Antinoro's use of the Storey County Sheriff's Office letterhead for a letter of
4 endorsement of a political candidate violated NRS 281A.400(7) unless all four of the 5 factors enumerated in NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(1) through (4) apply:

6 (1) The public officer or employee who is responsible for and
7 has authority to authorize the use of such property, equipment
8 or other facility has established a policy allowing the use or the 9 use is necessary as a result of emergency circumstances;

10 (2) The use does not interfere with the performance of the 11 public officer's or employee's public duties;

12 (3) The cost or value related to the use is nominal; and

13 (4) The use does not create the appearance of impropriety.

14 The Executive Director concedes that the factors set forth in NRS
15 281A.400(7)(a)(2) and (3) have been met. First, Antinoro's use of the letterhead to 16 produce the endorsement letter on May 27, 2016 did not "interfere with the 17 performance of [his] public duties." Antinoro typed the letter on his personal computer 18 at his home during his lunch hour. He subsequently emailed the letter to Fiore from his 19 personal computer and email account. Second, the "cost or value related to the use 20 was nominal." Antinoro prepared an electronic copy of the letter on the official 21 letterhead on his personal computer. The letter was not printed or reproduced in hard 22 copy, but was transmitted electronically to Fiore then embedded by Fiore in her 23 YouTube video and posted to her Twitter account and Facebook page.

24 The decisive inquiry therefore focuses on whether the person who has authority 25 to authorize use of the letterhead "has established a policy allowing the use" and 26 whether Antinoro's use created "the appearance of impropriety." NRS
27 281A.400(7)(a)(1) and (4).

28 ///

1           1.       Use of the Letterhead Was Prohibited by the Storey County Policies

2           The Commission must determine whether Antinoro’s use of the Storey County
3 Sheriff’s Office letterhead for the endorsement letter was allowed pursuant to a policy
4 established by the appropriate “authority to authorize the use of such property.” Storey 5 County Policy Number 213 (“Policy 213”) relates to political activity by County
6 employees and states that “[e]mployees<sup>4</sup> are expressly forbidden to use any employer 7 resources . . . to engage in any political activity outside the approved scope of the 8 employees’ official duties.” See Exhibit 6, Stipulated Facts ¶12 (emphasis added).
9 Policy 213 applies to Antinoro and expressly prohibits the use of any County
10 resources for political purposes. Thus, Antinoro’s use of the Storey County Sheriff’s 11 Office letterhead for the endorsement letter constituted an unauthorized use of 12 government resources pursuant to County policy.

13           As the Storey County Sheriff, it could be argued that Antinoro is the public
14 officer who “is responsible for and has authority to authorize the use of” the letterhead
15 of the sheriff’s office. Accordingly, Antinoro had the ability to and presumably did 16 authorize his own use of the official letterhead for his private political interests.
17 However, the Executive Director notes the inherent potential for abuse when the 18 public officer is himself responsible for or has authority to approve his own use of 19 government property. In any event, Antinoro did not actually establish any formal 20 policy allowing the use of the sheriff’s office letterhead for personal purposes
21 unrelated to official business of the sheriff’s office.

22           In the absence of any established policy that authorizes the use of official
23 letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff’s Office for a letter of endorsement for a 24 political candidate, the requirements of the limited use exception cannot be met and 25 the Commission must find that Antinoro violated NRS 281A.400(7).

27 <sup>4</sup> Antinoro is an “employee,” as that term is defined by the Storey County Policies, for purposes of the 28 Storey County Policy regarding political activity by county employees. The term employee excludes elected officials only for sections of the Storey County Policies that are related to discipline, layoff and dispute resolution. See Exhibit 6, Stipulated Facts ¶13.

1           2.     Antinoro’s Use of the Letterhead Created the Appearance of Impropriety

2           Antinoro’s use of an official letterhead for political purposes also creates the 3 appearance of impropriety under NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(4). In an advisory opinion
4 involving a state legislator’s proposed use of his Nevada Assembly letterhead for a 5 political fundraising letter, the Commission opined that such use would create an 6 appearance of impropriety under NRS 281.481(8) (statute prohibiting use of 7 government property by State Legislators) because there is a risk of creating the 8 impression that the State Assembly and/or State Legislature endorses the content of 9 the letter. Hettrick, Comm’n Op. No. 01-10 (2001). In reaching its decision in Hettrick,
10 the Commission relied upon its “appearance of impropriety” analysis in In re Kirkland, 11 Comm’n Op. No. 98-41 (1999) (“Kirkland”).

12           In Kirkland, which involved the endorsement of a district judge by the Washoe
13 County Sheriff, the Commission found that the sheriff’s use of his uniform and badge 14 created an improper appearance that his endorsement was an official endorsement by 15 Washoe County or the Washoe County Sheriff’s Office. Id. Accordingly, Sheriff
16 Kirkland was advised that use of his uniform, badge, employees or other “physical 17 accouterments” of his office to endorse a person’s candidacy would create an 18 appearance of impropriety under NRS 281.481(7)(a)(4) (the predecessor statute of 19 NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(4)). Id. Likewise, in In re Kuzanek, Comm’n Op. No. 14-61A
20 (2015), the Commission held:

21           The use of the Washoe County Sheriff Deputy uniform and 22 undersheriff badge act as a visual endorsement,
23 affirmation, and sanction of Kuzanek’s campaign for 24 sheriff, and provide an unfair advantage to Kuzanek at 25 government cost. This is the type of harm to the public
26 that the Ethics Law is designed to prohibit. A public officer
27 and/or employee cannot engage in any activity that 28 involves the use of the public agency’s time, facilities, equipment and supplies or the use of state or political subdivision badge or uniform to give that person an advantage, and it creates the appearance of impropriety.

1 The Commission should find that the Storey County Sherriff's Office letterhead
2 is similar to the physical accouterments of office discussed in Kirkland that should not
3 be used for the personal purposes of endorsing a political candidate. The Commission
4 cautioned in Kirkland that "it would never be proper for a governmental agency to 5 endorse a political candidate." Kirkland, Comm'n Op. No. 98-41 (1999). Then, in 6 Hettrick, the Commission acknowledged that use of an official letterhead for political 7 purposes creates an appearance of impropriety and the impression of government
8 approval of the contents of letter. See Hettrick, Comm'n Op. No. 01-10 (2001).
9 Antinoro's endorsement letter printed on the official letterhead of the Storey County
10 Sheriff's Office created the improper appearance that the sheriff's office or Storey 11 County also endorses Fiore. This is precisely the type of impropriety the Ethics Law
12 seeks to avoid through NRS 281A.400(7).<sup>5</sup>

13 Using the Storey County Sheriff's Office letterhead for a letter of endorsement
14 creates the appearance of impropriety as it is tied to the authority of the sheriff's office.
15 The letterhead, like any government letterhead, indicates that the person signing the 16 letter is exercising authority that is not granted to private citizens. The letterhead
17 represents the Storey County Sheriff's Office, not Antinoro as a private citizen. While 18 Antinoro has earned the right to be sheriff through a vote of the citizens of Storey 19 County, that right does not allow him to use the prestige or influence of his public
20 office for his private or political interests. The letterhead belongs to the Storey County
21 Sheriff's Office and should be used only for official business of the office.

22 D. The Constitutional Protection of Political Speech Does Not Excuse Sheriff 23 Antinoro's Conduct

24 The Commission recognizes that individuals enjoy a constitutional right to 25 speak out on political concerns. See In re Hettrick, Comm'n Op. No. 01-10 (2001).

---

26 <sup>5</sup> Similarly, NRS 281A.520 attempts to ensure public independence from government interference or 27 influence during an election. The Commission has decided that public officers have an obligation to 28 ensure that public resources remain neutral during the course of an election so that any question placed upon the ballot would not be supported at public expense. See, e.g., In re Edwards, Comm'n
Op. No. 13-24C (2013).

1 However, a public officer's or public employee's right to participate in political activities
2 is not absolute. See U.S. Civ. Serv. Comm'n v. Nat'l Ass'n of Letter Carriers, 413 U.S.
3 548, 567 (1973) (citations omitted). Because the free speech of public officers and 4 employees is not absolute, states may enact reasonable regulations limiting the 5 political activities of public officers and employees without violating the First 6 Amendment. Clements v. Fashing, 457 U.S. 957, 971-73 (1982). Accordingly,
7 Nevada's Ethics Law appropriately prohibits an elected public officer from speaking 8 out on political concerns in a way that establishes a conflict and/or creates the 9 appearance of impropriety or the impression that the government sanctions the 10 activity. See Hettrick, Comm'n Op. No. 01-10 (2001) (citing In re Kirkland, Comm'n 11 Op. No. 98-41 (1998)).

12 In any event, resolution of this RFO does not require the Commission to 13 determine whether Antinoro's decision to endorse a political candidate, in and of itself, 14 was prohibited by the Ethics Law. The Commission need only address the manner in 15 which Sheriff Antinoro engaged in his political activity through the use of government
16 property. Specifically, this RFO focuses on whether Antinoro's use of government 17 property for his political activity violated NRS 281A.400(7). Similarly, in Kirkland, the 18 Commission appropriately examined the manner in which a political endorsement is 19 provided by a public officer.

20 E. Antinoro's Conduct Constitutes One Willful Violation of the Ethics Law

21 Even if Antinoro did not actually intend to violate the Ethics Law, his use of the 22 Storey County Sheriff's Office letterhead was willful, as defined in NRS 281A.170,
23 because he acted intentionally and knowingly. For an act to be intentional, NRS
24 281A.105 requires that Antinoro acted voluntarily or deliberately. The definition further 25 states that proof of bad faith, ill will, evil or malice is not required. It is enough that 26 Antinoro did not accidentally or inadvertently use the letterhead for personal purposes.

27 ///

28 ///

1 NRS 281A.115 defines “knowingly” as “import[ing] a knowledge that the facts exist
2 which constitute the act or omission.” NRS 281A does not require that Antinoro had 3 actual knowledge that his conduct violated NRS 281A, but it does impose constructive
4 knowledge when other facts are present that should put an ordinarily prudent person
5 upon inquiry. See In re Stark, Comm’n Op. No. 10-48C (2010). In light of the Storey 6 County Policy regarding political activity by County employees, Antinoro should have 7 known that it was not appropriate for him to place Fiore’s letter of endorsement on the 8 Storey County Sheriff’s Office letterhead.

9 Antinoro’s actions in this matter were willful pursuant to NRS 281A.170 and 10 there are no mitigating factors to justify a non-willful violation. In fact, this is Antinoro’s
11 second Ethics violation. A prior RFO alleging that Antinoro used governmental time 12 and resources to further his own campaign interests was resolved by stipulation,
13 resulting in one non-willful violation implicating NRS 281A.020 and NRS 281A.400(2)
14 and (9). In re Antinoro, Comm’n Op. No. 14-59C (2015).

15 Based on the undisputed facts and preponderance of evidence establishing 16 Antinoro’s use of government property to benefit his personal interest as a matter of 17 law, the Executive Director respectfully requests summary judgment for one willful
18 violation of the Ethics in Government Law. For Antinoro’s first willful violation, the 19 Commission may impose a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000 pursuant to NRS 20 281A.480(1)(a).

1 V. CONCLUSION

2 Summary judgment should be granted and the Commission should find that
3 Antinoro willfully violated NRS 281A.400(7). The Commission should also impose a 4 civil penalty against Antinoro in an amount not to exceed $5,000.

The attached letter from Storey County Sheriff Gerald Antinoro endorsed a candidate for U.S. Congress. He prepared this letter endorsing the candidate on his official Sheriff's letterhead which includes a logo of his badge and a letterhead stating "STOREY COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE.....Gerald Antinoro Sheriff."

This letter was transmitted to the endorsed candidate and published on her campaign twitter webpage.

Pursuant to the Opinion by the Ethics Commission in 1999 re Richard Kirkland, government officials cannot "create the impression of government sanction." By issuing this endorsement on Sheriff's Office letterhead he communicates government sanction.

The Kirkland opinion creates a strict rule that an "appearance of impropriety" is created if in the course of endorsing a person's candidacy, a law enforcement official used the physical accoutrements of his office or position to bolster the endorsement. The physical accoutrements of office include uniforms and badges. The badge is prominent on the letterhead and in the endorsement.

I am proud to endorse Michele Fiore for Congress. Michele Fiore sponsored and supported any legislation our law enforcement community needed in both of her terms in Carson City. Michele Fiore supports law enforcement, and peace officers across the state support and endorse her.

I have gotten to know Assemblywoman Fiore through her work in Carson City and I have nothing but respect for her. I know she does not advocate armed conflict with peace officers and that she has always been very supportive of law enforcement in our state. I also know from personal experience that NAPSOC, who recently came out against Michele Fiore, do not always present factual information and do not speak for their entire membership, but in the interest of their leaders.

Nevada needs Michele Fiore in Congress. I know she is not afraid to take the fight to Washington D.C. I have watched her ask the tough questions in Carson City and fight for what is right for the people of Nevada. I have no doubt that she will continue to do so in Congress. I know she will continue to support all our first responders in Washington D.C. Michele's record of fighting for our second amendment rights and our law enforcement speaks for itself. I encourage everyone in Congress District 3 to vote for Michele Fiore!

STORREY COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Michelle Flores
Sheriff

Michelle Flores, Sheriff of Storrey County, is pleased to announce that she will be stepping down from her position as Sheriff on Saturday, June 11, 2016. She will be replaced by Sheriff [Name] on that date. Michelle has served the community for over 10 years and has been a dedicated public servant throughout her career. She has a deep love for Storrey County and its residents and will continue to support the community in her new role. Michelle is grateful for the support and encouragement she has received from her colleagues and the community. She is looking forward to the future and the challenges that lie ahead. Michelle is a proud member of the Sheriff's Association and is committed to the highest standards of integrity and service. She is a mother, a wife, and a friend, and she is proud to be a part of the Storrey County community. Michelle is a true leader and a role model for all of us. We will miss her presence and leadership, but we are confident that the Sheriff's Office will continue to thrive under the leadership of Sheriff [Name]. Michelle is a true professional and a true leader. We will miss her, but we are confident that she will continue to make a difference in the community. Michelle is a true professional and a true leader. We will miss her, but we are confident that she will continue to make a difference in the community.

Re: Request for Opinion No. 16-54C

Dear Ms. Nevarez-Goodson:

As you are aware, this office was retained to represent the interests of Storey County Sheriff Gerald Antinoro in connection with the above-entitled matter. Please allow the following to constitute our client's response to the Third Party Request for Opinion submitted by Kris Thompson.

Mr. Thompson contends that Sheriff Antinoro has violated several provisions of NRS 281A.400 by virtue of his actions in endorsing Assemblywoman Michele Fiori in her campaign for Congress. Specifically, Mr. Thompson asserts that Sheriff Antinoro's actions are in violation of NRS 281A.400(2) and NRS 281A.400(7). My client and I respectfully disagree.

As for the facts underlying this matter, on May 27, 2016, Michele Fiori, an Assemblywoman from District 4 in Clark County, asked Sheriff Antinoro to endorse her for Congress. In response, Sheriff Antinoro drafted the three paragraph statement attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and sent it to Ms. Fiori by email from his private email account. The statement was drafted by Sheriff Antinoro from his home and during his lunch hour.

Storey County has not formally adopted a “little Hatch Act.” However, Storey County Administrative Policies and Procedures §213 addresses employee’ political activity.<sup>1</sup> See, Exhibit 2.2 Policy and Procedure §213 prohibits employees from engaging in political activity during working hours and prohibits an employee from attempting to coerce, command or require a person holding or applying for any position, to aid, promote or defeat any political committee or candidate. The policy further regulates certain off duty conduct, including participation in political activity while in uniform and forbids the use of employer resources to engage in any political activity.

“A public officer or employee shall not use the public officer’s or employee’s position in government to secure or grant unwarranted privileges, preferences, exemptions or advantages for the public officer or employee, any business entity in which the public officer or employee has a significant pecuniary interest, or any person to whom the public officer or employee has a commitment in a private capacity to the interests of that person.”

NRS 281A.400(7) provides that, “a public officer or employee shall not use governmental time, property, equipment or other facility to benefit the public officer’s or employee’s personal or financial interests.” However, the statute does not prohibit a limited use of government property, equipment or other facility for personal purposes if: (1) the public officer who is responsible for and has authority to authorize the use of such property, equipment or other facility has established a policy allowing the use or the use is necessary as a result of emergency services; (2) the use does not interfere with the performance of the public officer’s or employee’s public duties; (3) the cost or value related to the use is nominal; and (4) the use does not create the appearance of impropriety. Id.

The First Amendment of the United States Constitution protects political speech. The Hatch Act (5 U.S.C. §1501-1508 and §7324 et seq.) prohibits all federal employees and some state and municipal employees from using their official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with or affecting the result of an election. See, 5 U.S.C. §1502(a)(1) and 5 U.S.C. §7324(a)(1).

Many states, counties and municipalities have adopted what are often described as “little Hatch Acts.” As noted above, Storey County has not adopted a version of the Hatch Act. However, the subject is addressed in Storey County Policy and Procedure §213. The question under consideration in this matter is whether Sheriff Antinoro’s actions in sending the endorsement at issue to Ms. Fiori on Storey County Sheriff’s Office letterhead and bearing a logo in the shape of a badge is in violation of NRS 281A.400.

In February of 2012, the U.S. Office of Special Counsel reevaluated its position on whether the use by an elected official of his or her official title while participating in political activity violates the Hatch Act. See, Exhibit 4, February 29, 2012, advisory opinion from U.S. Office of Special Counsel. In its advisory opinion, the OSC specifically addressed whether a sheriff may use his title in political correspondence and whether a sheriff may wear his uniform to political events such as rallies and fundraising activities. Id. In addition, the OSC was asked for its opinion as to whether it makes a difference whether the sheriff engaged in such activities while running for reelection or while campaigning for another candidate altogether. Id.

The OSC concluded that an incumbent sheriff would not violate the Hatch Act by wearing their uniforms or using their titles while campaigning for reelection. Id. The OSC further concluded that its reasoning should properly be extended to an elected official's other political activities; i.e. those not in furtherance of their own reelection. In so concluding, the OSC stated as follows:

“If these elected officials are permitted to use their official titles in their own partisan campaigns, OSC can identify no unique harm that would result if they do the same when endorsing other partisan candidates. Arguably, an elected official's use of his title when campaigning for himself and other partisan candidates is a natural and foreseeable incident of the elected official being permitted to run for partisan office. Therefore, it does not appear that an elected official's use of his title when endorsing a partisan candidate would violate the Hatch Act. In the case of a sheriff, wearing his uniform while campaigning for another candidate would also be permissible. Id.”

This Commission addressed similar issues in In Re: Kirkland, Opinion No. 98-41. In that case, the Commission addressed questions regarding the involvement of then Washoe County Sheriff Richard Kirkland in his political endorsement of Judge James Hardesty, including his appearance in a televised political advertisement in uniform. In analyzing the issue of whether such conduct violated NRS 281.481(2), the Commission determined that Mr. Kirkland's endorsement of Judge Hardesty while in uniform resulted in an “advantage” to another person. However, the Commission further determined that Mr. Kirkland's actions were not “unwarranted” within the meaning of NRS 281A.400(2). While noting that the term “unwarranted” is not defined in the Ethics in Government Law, the Commission concluded that, if Mr. Kirkland's actions were in violation of the Hatch Act (or the Washoe County Code provision also at issue), his conduct would be tantamount to the conferral of an unwarranted advantage.

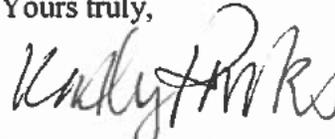

Clearly, the actions of Sheriff Antinoro in sending the three paragraph communication at issue, which he prepared at home over the lunch hour, on his own computer and which he transmitted to Ms. Fiori via his private email, fall far short of the type of conduct at issue in In re: Kirkland which was found not to have violated NRS 281A.400(2). Further, based upon the February, 2012 advisory opinion of the OSC, Sheriff Antinoro's conduct was not at all in violation of the Hatch Act.

With respect to the suggestion that Sheriff Antinoro's conduct constituted a violation of NRS 281A.481(7), such is simply not the case. Sheriff Antinoro drafted the communication at issue at his home, over the lunch hour, on his own computer. He then sent the communication to

Ms. Fiori using his private email. Thus, there was no use of governmental time, property, equipment or other facility by Sheriff Antinoro. Even if there were such a use, the exceptions set forth at NRS 281A.481(7)(a)(1)-(4) would apply. Nothing about the communication at issue can be interpreted as having created the appearance of impropriety and Sheriff Antinoro is permitted to use his name and official title in a political advertisement. While public officials must temper their constitutional right to speak out on matters of political concern, Sheriff Antinoro's actions did not constitute a violation of NRS 281A.400(2) or NRS 281A.400(7).

My client and I thank you for your consideration.

Yours truly,

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

NUMBER 213
EFFECTIVE DATE: 06/17/08
REVISED:
AUTHORITY: BOC
COUNTY MANAGER: PAW

SUBJECT: Political Activity

I POLICY:

Employees shall not engage in political activity of any kind during working hours. This includes, but is not limited to: soliciting money, influence, service, or any other valuable thing to aid, promote, or defeat any political committee or the nomination or election of any person to public office. Wearing or displaying of apparel, buttons, insignia, or other items which advocate for or against a political candidate or a political cause is also an example of prohibited political activity during work hours. Furthermore, no person shall attempt to coerce, command, or require a person holding or applying for any position, office, or employment, including a citizen requesting service supplied by employer, to influence or to give money, service, or other valuable thing to aid, promote, or defeat any political committee, or to aid, promote, or defeat the nomination or election of any person to public office.

Employees may not participate in any of the above-mentioned activities off duty while wearing a uniform, name tag, or any other item identifying them as a representative of the employer.

Employees are expressly forbidden to use any employer resources, including but not limited to: interoffice mail, email, telephone, fax machines, the Internet, or copy machines to engage in any political activity outside the approved scope of the employees' official duties.

II Running for, or Holding, Political Office

While employees are encouraged to participate in the political process, they must understand the employer also has an obligation to provide service to the public.

Employees who are seeking, or who have been elected or appointed to public office, shall not conduct any business related to these activities while on duty. This includes all the items listed in the previous section, (i.e., political activity.)

If there is a conflict with, or the activities hinder the performance of the duties with employer, the employee will comply with one of the following: (final approval is at the employer's sole discretion)

- The employee will be expected to resign their position;
- The employee may apply and seek approval for use of accrued annual leave time,
or;
- The employee may request unpaid leave.

The maximum duration of paid or unpaid leave time approved will be 30 days. Employers' leave policies addressing continuation of health insurance, retirement benefits, accrual of additional leave time, and job and seniority status will be applied in this situation.

If there is any question regarding this policy, employees should contact their supervisor for clarification.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR REVIEW: The County Personnel Director and/or Administrative Officer will review this policy every 5 years or sooner as necessary.

Exhibit 3

Date of Hire/Hire Date: The actual date an employee first renders paid service in a regular position.

Day: Calendar days unless work days are specified.

Demotion: Involuntary movement of an employee from one job class to another job class having a lower maximum base rate of pay, as a result of disciplinary action.

Department Head/Department Manager: An elected official or appointed official who is directly responsible to the County Manager or to the Board or to a board established by the Board, for overall administration of an office or department of the employer.

Disability-Related Inquiry: A question (or series of questions) that is likely to elicit information about a disability. (See Section 2.6.8. of these policies for a more complete description.)

Discharge: Termination, separation, dismissal, or removal from employment for cause.

Discipline: A suspension (generally without pay), involuntary demotion, reduction in pay, discharge, or written reprimand or verbal warning.

Discrimination: Employment decisions or actions which are inappropriately taken because of the applicant's or employee's race, color, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, ancestry, veteran status, disability, or union activity.

Dispute: Unresolved work-related problems identified by an employee or group of employees pertaining to work-related issues. Disputes may not be related to disciplinary action.

Domestic Partner: Persons who are registered as domestic partners with the state of Nevada per Senate Bill 283 of the 2009 Nevada Legislation.

Drug Test: A urinalysis (urine) test that includes specimen collection and testing by a Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS)-certified laboratory. Both a screening test and a confirmation test must be used to establish a positive test result.

Eligible List: A list of names of persons who have satisfactorily completed an examination for a position and have qualified; also includes Reinstatement List (see below). A list of names of persons who have been laid off and are available for reinstatement.

Employee: A person employed in a budgeted position on a full- or part-time basis. For purposes of those sections of these policies covering discipline, layoff, and dispute resolution, the term employee excludes elected officials, department heads and casual workers.

Regular Full-time Employee: A person who has successfully completed an initial introductory period in a regular budgeted position with a normally scheduled work week of at least forty (40) hours.

Regular Part-Time Employee: A person who has successfully completed an initial introductory period in a regular budgeted position which requires at least twenty (20) hours per week, but less than full-time employment.

Introductory Employee: A person who serves in an at-will status for a specified period of time during which s/he is evaluated by the employer to ensure that s/he has demonstrated fitness for a position by actually performing the duties of the position.

Exempt Employee: An employee who is exempt from the overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. (Such determination is made on the basis of duties and responsibilities performed and the method of pay computation.)

Non-Exempt Employee: An employee who is subject to the overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Employer Premises: All employer property and facilities, the surrounding grounds and parking lots, leased space, employer motor-driven equipment/vehicles, offices, desks, cabinets, closets, etc.

Re: OSC File No. AD-12-XXXX

Dear Xx. XXXXXXX:

This letter responds to your request for an advisory opinion concerning the Hatch Act. The Office of Special Counsel (OSC) is authorized pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 1212(f) to issue opinions interpreting the Act. Specifically, you ask whether an incumbent sheriff may wear his uniform to political events such as rallies, fundraisers, and campaign booths or in printed and/or electronic campaign materials. You also ask whether a sheriff may use his title in political correspondence or in connection with fundraising activities. Finally, you ask if it makes a difference whether the sheriff engages in these activities while running for reelection, running for another elected office, or while campaigning for another candidate altogether. For purposes of this opinion, you ask OSC to assume that the sheriff is subject to the Hatch Act's restrictions. As explained in more detail below, the Act generally would not prohibit any of the activities you enumerate in your request.

State and local employees who are covered by the Hatch Act are prohibited from using their official authority or influence to interfere with or affect the result of an election or a nomination for office.<sup>1</sup> 5 U.S.C. § 1502(a)(1). Federal employees are subject to the same restriction. See 5 U.S.C. § 7323(a)(1). The Hatch Act regulation that applies to federal employees states that an improper use of official authority or influence occurs when employees use their official titles while participating in political activity. 5 C.F.R. § 734.302(b)(1). In determining whether the use of official title by state and local employees violate the Hatch Act, OSC uses the aforementioned regulation for federal employees as guidance. Thus, OSC generally concludes that state and local employees violate the Hatch Act when they use their official titles, or otherwise trade on the influence of their positions by, for example, wearing their official uniforms, while engaged in political activity.

As you know, OSC recently reevaluated this conclusion as it applies to elected officials who are covered by the Hatch Act. Specifically, in recognition of the fact that they hold partisan political office, OSC reasoned that they would not violate the Hatch Act by wearing their uniforms or using their titles while campaigning for reelection. OSC took into account the fact that Congress gave greater latitude to individuals who are covered by the Hatch Act due to their elected positions when it exempted them from the candidacy prohibition to which other state and local employees are subject. See 5 U.S.C. § 1502(c). Moreover, the Hatch Act regulations that apply to federal employees do not contemplate a scenario where an employee would be covered by virtue of his elective office. Cf. 5 U.S.C. § 7322(1) (expressly excluding the President and Vice President from Hatch Act coverage). Thus, those regulations do not translate smoothly to the state and local arena, where many elected officials are covered by the Hatch Act.

We also note that the provision exempting individuals holding elected office from the candidacy prohibition is not limited to reelection bids. Thus, a sheriff who is covered by the Hatch Act would not be prohibited from running for another elected office. Accordingly, the rationale OSC has articulated with respect use of one's official title and uniform during a reelection campaign also applies when the official runs for some other partisan political office.

OSC's reasoning also extends to an elected official's other political activities, i.e., activities not in furtherance of his own reelection. Indeed, in allowing these elected officials to run as representatives of political parties, Congress presumably anticipated that they would endorse other candidates running under their political party's banner. If these elected officials are permitted to use their official titles in their own partisan campaigns, OSC can identify no unique harm that would result if they do the same when endorsing other partisan candidates. Arguably, an elected official's use of his title when campaigning for himself and other partisan candidates is a natural and foreseeable incident of the elected official being permitted to run for partisan office. Therefore, it does not appear that an elected official's use of his title when endorsing a partisan candidate would violate the Hatch Act. In the case of a sheriff, wearing his uniform while campaigning for another candidate also would be permissible.

These principles apply to in-person campaign events, campaign advertisements, and political correspondence. Likewise, a sheriff could attend fundraisers and solicit contributions while wearing his uniform and identifying himself as the sheriff. We note, however, that a sheriff covered by the Hatch Act still is prohibited from coercing or attempting to coerce other employees into making political contributions. See 5 U.S.C. § 1502(a)(2). Asking a subordinate to make a political contribution or volunteer for a political campaign is considered inherently coercive. Special Counsel v. Acconcia, (CB-1216-06-0007-T-1, February 26, 2007 (Initial Decision at 9), rev'd on other grounds, 107 M.S.P.R. 60 (2007), citing Special Counsel v. Purcell, 37 M.S.P.R. 184, 195 (1988), aff'd sub nom. Fela v. Merit Sys. Prot. Bd., 730 F. Supp. 779 (N.D. Ohio 1989). Where the supervisor-subordinate relationship exists, no particular words are required to establish coercion because virtually any language can be threatening. Special Counsel v. Gallagher, 44 M.S.P.R. 57, 76 (1990). Thus, sheriffs should not ask their employees to contribute to political campaigns.

Similarly, while OSC concludes that the use of official authority prohibition would not preclude a sheriff from wearing his uniform and using his official title while campaigning, this provision of the Hatch Act would prohibit him from soliciting the uncompensated volunteer services of a subordinate employee. See 5 C.F.R. § 734.302. Therefore, he must not ask his employees to support his campaign or the campaign of another candidate.

Employee Speech, Expression and Social Networking

1060.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy is intended to address issues associated with employee use of social networking sites and to provide guidelines for the regulation and balancing of employee speech and expression with the needs of the Office.

Nothing in this policy is intended to prohibit or infringe upon any communication, speech or expression that is protected or privileged under law. This includes speech and expression protected under state or federal constitutions as well as labor or other applicable laws. For example, this policy does not limit an employee from speaking as a private citizen, including acting as an authorized member of a recognized bargaining unit or deputy associations, about matters of public concern, such as misconduct or corruption.

Employees are encouraged to consult with their supervisor regarding any questions arising from the application or potential application of this policy.

1060.1.1 APPLICABILITY

This policy applies to all forms of communication including, but not limited to, film, video, print media, public or private speech, use of all Internet services, including the World Wide Web, e-mail, file transfer, remote computer access, news services, social networking, social media, instant messaging, blogs, forums, video and other file-sharing sites.

1060.2 POLICY

Public employees occupy a trusted position in the community, and thus, their statements have the potential to contravene the policies and performance of this office. Due to the nature of the work and influence associated with the law enforcement profession, it is necessary that employees of this office be subject to certain reasonable limitations on their speech and expression. To achieve its mission and efficiently provide service to the public, the Storey County Sheriff's Office will carefully balance the individual employee's rights against the Office's needs and interests when exercising a reasonable degree of control over its employees' speech and expression.

1060.3 SAFETY

Employees should consider carefully the implications of their speech or any other form of expression when using the Internet. Speech and expression that may negatively affect the safety of the Storey County Sheriff's Office employees, such as posting personal information in a public forum, can result in compromising an employee's home address or family ties. Employees should therefore not disseminate or post any information on any forum or medium that could reasonably be anticipated to compromise the safety of any employee, an employee's family or associates. Examples of the type of information that could reasonably be expected to compromise safety include:

- Disclosing a photograph and name or address of a deputy who is working undercover.
- Disclosing the address of a fellow deputy.
- Otherwise disclosing where another deputy can be located off-duty.

1060.4 PROHIBITED SPEECH, EXPRESSION AND CONDUCT

To meet the office's safety, performance and public-trust needs, the following are prohibited unless the speech is otherwise protected (for example, an employee speaking as a private citizen, including acting as an authorized member of a recognized bargaining unit or deputy associations, on a matter of public concern):

- (a) Speech or expression made pursuant to an official duty that tends to compromise or damage the mission, function, reputation or professionalism of the Storey County Sheriff's Office or its employees.
- (b) Speech or expression that, while not made pursuant to an official duty, is significantly linked to, or related to, the Storey County Sheriff's Office and tends to compromise or damage the mission, function, reputation or professionalism of the Storey County Sheriff's Office or its employees. Examples may include:
  1. Statements that indicate disregard for the law or the state or U.S. Constitution.
  2. Expression that demonstrates support for criminal activity.
  3. Participating in sexually explicit photographs or videos for compensation or distribution.
- (c) Speech or expression that could reasonably be foreseen as having a negative impact on the credibility of the employee as a witness. For example, posting statements or expressions to a website that glorify or endorse dishonesty, unlawful discrimination or illegal behavior.
- (d) Speech or expression of any form that could reasonably be foreseen as having a negative impact on the safety of the employees of the Office. For example, a statement on a blog that provides specific details as to how and when prisoner transportations are made could reasonably be foreseen as potentially jeopardizing employees by informing criminals of details that could facilitate an escape or attempted escape.
- (e) Speech or expression that is contrary to the canons of the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics as adopted by the Storey County Sheriff's Office.
- (f) Use or disclosure, through whatever means, of any information, photograph, video or other recording obtained or accessible as a result of employment with the Office for financial or personal gain, or any disclosure of such materials without the express authorization of the Sheriff or the authorized designee (NRS 281A.400(5)).
- (g) Posting, transmitting or disseminating any photographs, video or audio recordings, likenesses or images of office logos, emblems, uniforms, badges, patches, marked vehicles, equipment or other material that specifically identifies the Storey County Sheriff's Office on any personal or social networking or other website or web page, without the express authorization of the Sheriff.

- (h) Accessing websites for non-authorized purposes, or use of any personal communication device, game device or media device, whether personally or office-owned, for personal purposes while on-duty, except in the following circumstances:
1. When brief personal communication may be warranted by the circumstances (e.g., inform family of extended hours).
  2. During authorized breaks; such usage should be limited as much as practicable to areas out of sight and sound of the public and shall not be disruptive to the work environment.

Employees must take reasonable and prompt action to remove any content, including content posted by others, that is in violation of this policy from any web page or website maintained by the employee (e.g., social or personal website).

1060.4.1 UNAUTHORIZED ENDORSEMENTS, ADVERTISEMENTS, AND ACTIVITIES

While employees are not restricted from engaging in the following activities as private citizens or as authorized members of a recognized bargaining unit or deputy associations, employees may not represent the Storey County Sheriff's Office or identify themselves in any way that could be reasonably perceived as representing the Storey County Sheriff's Office in order to do any of the following, unless specifically authorized by the Sheriff:

- (a) Endorse, support, oppose or contradict any political campaign or initiative.
- (b) Endorse, support, oppose or contradict any social issue, cause or religion.
- (c) Endorse, support or oppose any product, service, company or other commercial entity.
- (d) Appear in any commercial, social or nonprofit publication or any motion picture, film, video, public broadcast or on any website.

Additionally, when it can reasonably be construed that an employee, acting in his/her individual capacity or through an outside group or organization (e.g., bargaining group), is affiliated with this office, the employee shall give a specific disclaiming statement that any such speech or expression is not representative of the Storey County Sheriff's Office.

Employees retain their right to vote as they choose, to support candidates of their choice and to express their opinions as private citizens, including as authorized members of a recognized bargaining unit or deputy associations, on political subjects and candidates at all times while off-duty. Employees may not use their official authority or influence to interfere with or affect the result of an election or a nomination for office. Employees are also prohibited from directly or indirectly using their official authority to coerce, command or advise another employee to pay, lend or contribute anything of value to a party, committee, organization, agency or person for political purposes (5 USC § 1502).

Policy Manual

Due to the need to secure discipline, mutual respect, trust, and efficiency among the ranks in the pursuit of the stated mission, any employee filing for candidacy of any local Storey County political office will be immediately placed on an unpaid leave of absence until the election.

If service by a member in any political office is or appears clearly inconsistent, incompatible, or in conflict with that person's duties as a member of the Sheriff's Office, as judged by the Sheriff, that employment must be terminated before the person assumes political office.

1060.5 PRIVACY EXPECTATION

Employees forfeit any expectation of privacy with regard to e-mails, texts or anything published or maintained through file-sharing software or any Internet site (e.g., Facebook, MySpace) that is accessed, transmitted, received or reviewed on any office technology system.

The Office reserves the right to access, audit and disclose for whatever reason any message, including attachments, and any information accessed, transmitted, received or reviewed over any technology that is issued or maintained by the Office, including the office e-mail system, computer network or any information placed into storage on any office system or device.

This includes records of all key strokes or web-browsing history made at any office computer or over any office network. The fact that access to a database, service or website requires a user name or password will not create an expectation of privacy if it is accessed through office computers or networks.

1060.6 CONSIDERATIONS

In determining whether to grant authorization of any speech or conduct that is prohibited under this policy, the factors that the Sheriff or authorized designee should consider include:

- (a) Whether the speech or conduct would negatively affect the efficiency of delivering public services.
- (b) Whether the speech or conduct would be contrary to the good order of the Office or the efficiency or morale of its members.
- (c) Whether the speech or conduct would reflect unfavorably upon the Office.
- (d) Whether the speech or conduct would negatively affect the member's appearance of impartiality in the performance of his/her duties.
- (e) Whether similar speech or conduct has been previously authorized.
- (f) Whether the speech or conduct may be protected and outweighs any interest of the Office.

1060.7 TRAINING

Subject to available resources, the Office should provide training regarding employee speech and the use of social networking to all members of the Office.

Pursuant to NRS 281A.440(2), NAC 281A.410 and NAC 281A.415

In addition to the Notice to Subject provided to Subject Gerald Antinoro on June 17, 2016, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Nevada Commission on Ethics ("Commission") has identified relevant issues and facts beyond those presented in the original Third-Party Request for Opinion ("RFO"). Accordingly, Subject is hereby notified that the Commission's investigation has identified evidence that Subject appeared in a video endorsement for Michele Fiore wearing his Sheriff's uniform, which may implicate conduct contrary to NRS 281A.400(2) and (7) and NRS 281A.520.

Pursuant to NAC 281A.415 and NRS 281A.440(3), Subject may respond to these additional issues and facts in writing to the Commission addressed to 704 W. Nye Lane, Suite 204, Carson City, NV 89704, or via Email to my attention at ynevarez@ethics.nv.gov, not later than 30 days after receipt of this notice. Accordingly, the deadline to submit a written response to the additional allegations is September 7, 2016. A lack of response is not deemed an admission that the allegations are true.

Except as otherwise provided in NRS 281A.440, the Commission will hold its activities in response to this RFO confidential until its investigatory panel determines whether just and sufficient cause exists to hold a hearing and render an opinion. However, the Commission has no authority to require the requester to do so. As a result, information may appear in the media. The Commission will not be the source of any public information until the investigatory panel has completed its review and has rendered its determination. Subject will be provided notice of the Panel Determination.

Re: Request for Opinion No. 16-54C

Dear Ms. Nevarez-Goodson:

Please allow this letter to serve as my client's response to your request for additional information in this matter.

At no time did my client participate in any videotaped endorsement of Michele Fiori. In the event Ms. Fiori used the likeness of Sheriff Antinoro in uniform in some form of video endorsement, it was done without the prior knowledge of my client. As such, there are no additional facts which implicate conduct prohibited by NRS 281A.400(2) and NRS 281A.520.

If you need any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours truly,

Gerald Antinoro, Sheriff, Storey County, State of Nevada,

Request for Opinion No. 16-54C

_____

PANEL DETERMINATION
NRS 281A.440(5); NAC 281A.440

The Nevada Commission on Ethics (“Commission”) received Third-Party Request for Opinion (“RFO”) No. 16-54C regarding the alleged conduct of Storey County Sheriff Gerald Antinoro (“Subject”) in violation of the Ethics in Government Law set forth in NRS Chapter 281A (“Ethics Law”), specifically, alleged violations implicate NRS 281A.400(2) and (7) and NRS 281A.520(1) and (3).<sup>1</sup> The RFO alleges that Subject used his official position and government time and resources to secure unwarranted advantages or preferences when he provided a letter using official letterhead to endorse a political candidate. The endorsement and a related video also appeared on the candidate’s Facebook page with a photo of the Subject in his Sheriff’s uniform.

As the elected Sheriff of Storey County, Subject serves as a public officer as defined in NRS 281A.160. The Commission has jurisdiction over the conduct of public officers and public employees pursuant to NRS 281A.280.

On October 19, 2016, pursuant to NRS 281A.440(5), an Investigatory Panel consisting of Commissioners Magdalena Groover and Barbara Gruenewald, Esq., reviewed the following: 1) RFO; 2) Subject’s Response to the RFO; 3) Notice of Additional Issues and Facts; 4) Subject’s Response to the Additional Issues and Facts; 5) Investigator’s Report to Associate Counsel; and 6) Executive Director’s Recommendation to the Investigatory Panel.

Under NAC 281A.435, the Panel unanimously finds and concludes that the facts establish credible evidence to substantiate just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter regarding the allegations pertaining to NRS 281A.400(7) with regard to Subject’s use of official letterhead to make a political endorsement. Therefore, the Investigatory Panel refers the alleged violation of NRS 281A.400(7) to the Commission to hold a hearing and render an opinion. Under NRS 281A.440, a notice of hearing and a procedural order will follow.

However, under NAC 281A.435, the Panel unanimously finds and concludes that the facts do not establish credible evidence to substantiate just and sufficient cause for the Commission to consider the alleged violations pertaining to NRS 281A.400(2), NRS 281A.400(7) (regarding use of badge and uniform) and NRS 281A.520. The Commission's investigation revealed that Subject did not grant an advantage to himself or have a commitment in a private capacity to the interests of the candidate (NRS 281A.400(2)), or use government resources or cause a governmental entity to incur any expense to support the candidate with respect to the video and the photo of the Subject in uniform, which photo was used without Subject's permission (NRS 281A.400(7) and NRS 281A.520)). Therefore, these allegations are dismissed.

COMMISSION ON ETHICS

In the Matter of the Third-Party Request
for Opinion Concerning the Conduct                      Request for Opinion No. 16-54C of Gerald Antinoro, Sheriff of Storey County, Nevada,

Subject. /

STIPULATED FACTS

The Executive Director, through Associate Counsel Judy A. Prutzman, Esq., and the Subject, through his counsel, Katherine F. Parks, Esq., have stipulated to the following facts in Third-Party Request for Opinion ("RFO") No. 16-54C before the Nevada Commission on Ethics ("Commission") concerning Gerald Antinoro ("Antinoro"), Sheriff of Storey County.

The parties agree to submit as evidence in this matter the following stipulated facts. The facts in this stipulation may be received into evidence in lieu of further proof or testimony.

STIPULATED FACTS

1. Gerald Antinoro ("Antinoro") is the elected Sheriff of Storey County, a public officer as defined in NRS 281A.160.
2. Storey County is a political subdivision as defined in NRS 281A.145.
3. The Storey County Sheriff's Office is a local agency as defined in NRS 281A.119.
4. During the relevant time period, Nevada State Assemblywoman Michelle Fiore ("Fiore") was a United States Congressional candidate for Nevada's Third Congressional District in Clark County.
5. On May 27, 2016, Fiore contacted Sheriff Antinoro by phone to request his endorsement of her candidacy for U.S. Congress.

- 1 6. Sheriff Antinoro prepared a three-paragraph statement endorsing Fiore's
2 candidacy (Exhibit 1), dated May 27, 2016, on his personal computer at his
3 home during his lunch hour.
- 4 7. The statement was typed on the official Storey County Sheriff's Office
5 letterhead and emailed to Fiore from Sheriff Antinoro's personal computer and 6 email account.
- 7 8. On May 27, 2016, Sheriff Antinoro's statement appeared in a YouTube video
8 that was tweeted on Fiore's Twitter account, @VoteFiore.
- 9 9. The YouTube video containing Sheriff Antinoro's statement was also posted
10 on Fiore's Facebook page on May 27, 2016.
- 11 10. Sheriff Antinoro did not produce the YouTube video or supply any of the other
12 images used in the video. Fiore did not contact Sheriff Antinoro to inform him
13 about the endorsement video.
- 14 11. Fiore was defeated in her campaign for U.S. Congress in the primary election
15 held on June 15, 2016.
- 16 12. Policy Number 213 of the Storey County Administrative Policies and 17 Procedures ("Storey County Policies") addresses political activity by 18 employees:

19 213: Political Activity

20 Employees shall not engage in political activity of any kind during 21 working hours. This includes, but is not limited to: soliciting money,
22 influence, service, or any other valuable thing to aid, promote, or 23 defeat any political committee or the nomination or election of any 24 person to public office. Wearing or displaying of apparel, buttons,
25 insignia, or other items which advocate for or against a political
26 candidate or a political cause is also an example of prohibited
27 activity during working hours. Furthermore, no person shall attempt 28 to coerce, commence, or require a person holding or applying for any position, office, or employment, including a citizen requesting service supplied by employer, to influence or to give money, service, or other valuable thing to aid, promote, or defeat any political committee, or to aid, promote, or defeat the nomination or election of any person to public office.

Employees are expressly forbidden to use any employer resources, including but not limited to: interoffice mail, email, telephone, fax machines, the Internet, or copy machines to engage in any political activity outside the approved scope of the employees' official duties.

Employees who are seeking, or who have been elected or appointed to public office, shall not conduct any business related to these activities while on duty. This includes all the items listed in the previous section, (i.e., political activity).

13. The Storey County Policies contain the following definition of "employee:"

Employee: A person employed in a budgeted position on a full- or part-time basis. For purposes of those section of these policies covering discipline, layoff, and dispute resolution, the term employee excludes elected officials, department heads and casual workers.

14. The Storey County Sheriff's Office has a policy regarding Employee Speech, Expression and Social Networking that addresses endorsements:

1060.4.1 UNAUTHORIZED ENDORSEMENTS, ADVERTISEMENTS, AND ACTIVITIES

While employees are not restricted from engaging in the following activities as private citizens or as authorized members of a recognized bargaining unit or deputy associations, employees may not represent the Storey County Sheriff's Office or identify themselves in any way that could be reasonably perceived as representing the Storey County Sheriff's Office in order to do any of the following, unless specifically authorized by the Sheriff:

- (a) Endorse, support, oppose or contradict any political campaign or initiative.

Additionally, when it can reasonably be construed that an employee, acting in his/her individual capacity or through an outside group or organization (e.g., bargaining group), is affiliated with this office, the employee shall give a specific disclaiming statement that any such speech or expression is not representative of the Storey County Sheriff's Office.

1 Employees retain their right to vote as they choose, to support
2 candidates of their choice and to express their opinions as private
3 citizens, including as authorized members of a recognized
4 bargaining unit or deputy associations, on political subjects and
5 candidates at all times while off-duty. Employees may not use their 6 official authority or influence to interfere with or affect the result of 7 an election or a nomination for office. Employees are also
8 prohibited from directly or indirectly using their official authority to 9 coerce, command or advise another employee to pay, lend or
10 contribute anything of value to a party, committee, organization,
11 agency or person for political purposes (5 USC § 1502).

STOREY COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Gerald Antinoro
Sheriff

I am proud to endorse Michele Fiore for Congress. Michele Fiore sponsored and supported any legislation our law enforcement community needed in both of her terms in Carson City. Michele Fiore supports law enforcement, and peace officers across the state support and endorse her.

I have gotten to know Assemblywoman Fiore through her work in Carson City and I have nothing but respect for her. I know she does not advocate armed conflict with peace officers and that she has always been very supportive of law enforcement in our state. I also know from personal experience that NAPS, who recently came out against Michele Fiore, do not always present factual information and do not speak for their entire membership, but in the interest of their leaders.

Nevada needs Michele Fiore in Congress. I know she is not afraid to take the fight to Washington D.C. I have watched her ask the tough questions in Carson City and fight for what is right for the people of Nevada. I have no doubt that she will continue to do so in Congress. I know she will continue to support all our first responders in Washington D.C. Michele's record of fighting for our second amendment rights and our law enforcement speaks for itself. I encourage everyone in Congress District 3 to vote for Michele Fiore!

15 COMES NOW Subject, Gerald Antinoro, by and through his attorneys of record, 16 Thorndal Armstrong Delk Balkenbush & Eisinger, and pursuant to NAC 281A.265, hereby 17 submits his opposition to the Executive Director's Motion for Summary Judgment and Cross-
18 Motion for Summary Judgment.

20 INTRODUCTION

21 As noted by the Executive Director in her Motion for Summary Judgment, this matter
22 comes before the Commission on stipulated facts entered into between the parties on December
23 15, 2016. See, Exhibit "A," stipulated facts. The only issue to be decided by the Commission is 24 whether Sheriff Gerald Antinoro committed a violation of NRS 281A.400(7) when he endorsed 25 Michele Fiore in her candidacy for U.S. Congress on May 27, 2016. Ms. Fiore was, at that time,
26 a candidate for Nevada's Third Congressional District in Clark County, Nevada. Sheriff
27 Antinoro prepared a three paragraph statement in support of Ms. Fiore on his personal computer, 28

1 during his lunch hour. See, Exhibit “B,” written statement. The statement was typed on
2 letterhead bearing a logo of the Storey County Sheriff’s Office and identifies the Subject by his
3 title. Id. Sheriff Antinoro did not print out the statement but, rather, emailed the statement to 4 Ms. Fiore from his personal computer and email account. See, Exhibit “A,” stipulated facts.
5 This conduct is the only basis for the claim that Sheriff Antinoro violated NRS 281A.400(7).

7 The Executive Director filed her Motion for Summary Judgment on March 1, 2017. As 8 the facts in this case are undisputed, the issues which remain for decision by the Commission are 9 questions of law and Sheriff Antinoro submits that the Executive Director’s motion should be 10 denied and that judgment should be entered in his favor pursuant to NAC 281A.265.

13 PROCEDURAL FACTS

14 This case arises out of a third party Request for Opinion filed by Kris Thompson through 15 his attorney on June 2, 2016. See, Executive Director’s Motion for Summary Judgment, Exhibit
16 “1.” In same, the Requestor alleged that Sheriff Antinoro had engaged in conduct which violated
17 several provisions of Chapter 281A, including NRS 281A.400(2), NRS 281A.400(7), and NRS
18 281A.520 in endorsing Michele Fiore for U.S. Congress. Id. Sheriff Antinoro was notified of 19 the alleged violations and the undersigned responded to the RFO on behalf of Sheriff Antinoro
20 on July 26, 2016. See, Executive Director’s Motion for Summary Judgment, Exhibit “2.”

22 Thereafter, on August 2, 2016, Sheriff Antinoro was served with a Notice of Additional 23 Issues and Facts. See, Executive Director’s Motion for Summary Judgment, Exhibit “3.” This 24 notice related to the issue of Ms. Fiore’s use of the above-described statement on YouTube and 25 Twitter and on Ms. Fiore’s use of a YouTube video depicting the Sheriff wearing his uniform.
26 Sheriff Antinoro did not produce the YouTube video or supply any of the other images used in 27
28

1 the video nor did Ms. Fiore contact Sheriff Antinoro to inform him about the endorsement video.
2 See, Exhibit "A," stipulated facts.

3 On October 27, 2016, a Panel Determination was issued on the grounds that just and 4 sufficient cause allegedly exists for the Commission to conduct a public hearing and render an 5 opinion on one claim only; that being whether Sheriff Antinoro violated NRS 281A.400(7) when 6 he authored and emailed the endorsement letter described above to Fiore. The Panel
7 Determination did not find credible evidence to substantiate just and sufficient cause to find, or 8 conduct a hearing on, the alleged violations of NRS 281A.400(2), NRS 281A.400(7)(regarding 9 use of a badge and uniform) and NRSA.520. These allegations were dismissed and one single 10 charge remains for the Commission's consideration.

14 LEGAL ANALYSIS

15 I. Standard of Review

16 Summary judgment is proper under NRCP 56 when, based upon the pleadings,
17 depositions, answers to interrogatories, admissions, and affidavits, if any, that are properly 18 before the court, no genuine issue of material fact exists, and the moving party is entitled to 19 judgment as a matter of law. See, Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724,731, 121 P.3d 1026,
20 1031 (2005). Here, the parties have stipulated to the operative facts in this case and no genuine 21 issues exist as to same.

23 Further, in accordance with NRS 281A.480(9), the standard of proof to be applied to this 24 administrative proceeding is that of a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the 25 evidence means such evidence as, when considered and compared with that opposed to it, has 26 more convincing force and the greater probability of truth. See, Corbin v. State, 111 Nev. 378, 27 380, 892 P.2d 580 (1995).

1 As shall be discussed in detail herein, the preponderance of the evidence in this matter,
2 which is undisputed, compels the denial of the Executive Director's Motion for Summary
3 Judgment and an order of the Commission granting judgment in favor of Gerald Antinoro as a 4 matter of law.

5 II. Sheriff Antinoro's Actions did not Violate NRS 281A.400(7)

6 The only issue which requires the attention of the Commission is whether Sheriff
7 Antinoro violated NRS 281A.400(7) in preparing the three paragraph endorsement statement and 8 emailing the same to Ms. Fiore. The statute at issue provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

10 7. Except for State Legislators who are subject to the restrictions set forth in subsection 11 8, a public officer or employee shall not use governmental time, property, equipment or 12 other facility to benefit a significant personal or pecuniary interest of the public officer or 13 employee. This section does not prohibit:

14 (a) A limited use of governmental property, equipment or other facility for 15 personal purposes if:

- 16 (1) The public officer or employee who is responsible for and has 17 authority to authorize the use of such property, equipment or other facility
18 has established a policy allowing the use or the use is necessary as a result 19 of emergency circumstances;
20 (2) The use does not interfere with the performance of the public officer's
21 or employee's public duties;
22 (3) The cost or value related to the use is nominal; and
23 (4) The use does not create the appearance of impropriety.

24 Nowhere in NRS 281A.400(7), nor anywhere else in Chapter 281A, does the Legislature
25 state that conduct of the type at issue in this case constitutes a violation of any ethical rules.
26 More specifically, nothing in Chapter 281A states that an elected official such as Sheriff
27 Antinoro may not engage in political speech of the type at issue here. The constitutional 28 ramifications of the Commission's decision to read such a prohibition into Chapter 281A will be discussed in greater detail below. Irrespective of First Amendment considerations, Sheriff Antinoro is entitled to judgment in his favor as a matter of law, as the stipulated facts and evidence in this matter does not support a violation of NRS 281A.400.

1 persons who provide emergency obstetrical care and care to indigent persons, provided that any
2 punitive damages awarded to a plaintiff in a medical malpractice case would be paid to the State
3 for the benefit of the medically indigent, and capped the amount of damages recoverable for non-
4 economic losses. Advocates of the bill argued that its passage would have benefit to medical 5 malpractice insurance carriers by setting limits on their liability, thereby providing for decreased
6 malpractice insurance premiums.

8       On May 11th, 1995, Hammargren wrote and mailed a letter to all Nevada licensed
9 physicians on the official state letterhead of the Lieutenant Governor's office with 10 Hammargren's public offices as the lieutenant governor of the state and president of the senate.
11 The letter included his address at both the Capitol Building in Carson City and the Grant Sawyer
12 Building in Las Vegas. The letter was produced by Hammargren's state-employed staff and he 13 signed the letter using his official title as Lieutenant Governor. The letter advocated to its 14 recipients that they "ACT NOW," and urged them to "phone, write and FAX your Assemblyman
15 and your Senator, asking them to vote "yes" on AB 520. Hammargren, supra. at p. 2/5.
16 Hammargren went on to provide additional instructions as to where these particular constituents
17 should send their correspondence in support of the bill and commented that "we" have a good 18 chance to enact tort reform only if Nevada doctors were to "act now." Id. He also asked those in 19 receipt of his letter to copy him on their correspondence on the bill. As noted above, the letter
23

24       Hammargren went on to testify before the Assembly Judiciary Committee on the subject
25 of AB 520. During his testimony, Hammargren declared that he was "emotionally involved"
26 with the issues addressed in AB 520 and commented that he was, "mad as Hell and was not 27 going to take it anymore." He also gave testimony about his own medical insurance premiums.
28

1 At the time of his testimony before the Judiciary Committee, Hammargren was a defendant in a 2 pending medical malpractice lawsuit.

3 The issue presented to the Commission in Hammargren was whether Hammargren
4 violated the Nevada Ethics in Government Law by using state resources, including state
5 stationary, state-paid employees, and the title of Lieutenant Governor, in preparing and sending 6 the May 11th, 1995, letter to all physicians in Nevada. The Commission decided in the 7 affirmative. The Commission made note of the fact that Hammargren wrote the letter on state
8 letterhead and that his title was plainly displayed “and over which he signed his name.” The 9 Commission further found that Hammargren had both a pecuniary and personal interest in the 10 passage of AB 520.

13 The digitally produced statement prepared by Sheriff Antinoro in this matter is in no way
14 comparable to the actions of Hammargren as described above.

15 The statement in question, while bearing the Sheriff’s title and depicting a logo of the 16 Storey County Sheriff’s Office, does not include the address of the Storey County Sheriff’s
17 Office, in contrast to the letter sent to all physicians in Nevada by Hammargren. The statement 18 in question in this case was signed by “Gerald Antinoro,” not by Gerald Antinoro, “Storey 19 County Sheriff.” The statement in this case was digitally produced and emailed using Sheriff
20 Antinoro’s private email address. It was not even reproduced on a piece of paper. The statement
21 in question is simply not akin to that at issue in Opinion No. 95-35 in which Hammargren’s title
22 of Lieutenant Governor was “plainly displayed” and over which he signed his name. Under such 23 circumstances, it cannot be found that Sheriff Antinoro used government property in violation of 24 NRS 281A.400(7).
26

27 Nor is the matter of In re: Kuzanek, RFO 14-61C supportive of the finding of a willful
28 violation in this case. In that matter, Tim Kuzanek, Undersheriff of Washoe County and a

1 candidate for Sheriff, had an official campaign website and a Facebook page which displayed a
2 picture of him in full sheriff's office dress uniform, along with a picture of his badge.<sup>2</sup> The 3 Commission made note of the fact that the Washoe County Sheriff's Office had a policy
4 prohibiting members of the Sheriff's Office from using County property as an endorsement for 5 political activity and County property as defined as including uniforms furnished by the Sheriff's 6 Office. Ultimately, it was determined (in a stipulated agreement), that Kuzanek had used the 7 physical accouterments of his office to bolster his own political campaign by displaying himself
8 in full dress uniform, along with his Undersheriff's badge.

10 As is true with respect to the facts presented by Kirkland, the facts before the 11 Commission in Kuzanek are simply not similar to those at issue in this matter and these decisions 12 demonstrate that Sheriff Antinoro did not violate NRS 281A.400(7) with respect to the 13 endorsement statement at issue.

15 B. Sheriff Antinoro's actions were not undertaken to benefit a "significant 16 personal or pecuniary interest" within the meaning of NRS 281A.400(7).

17 In her motion for summary judgment, the Executive Director argues that Sheriff
18 Antinoro's use of a digital image of the Storey County Sheriff's Office's letterhead compels a 19 finding that the Sheriff used governmental property in violation of NRS 281A.400(7). She then 20 turns to the limited exceptions set forth at NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(1)-(4). She does not address, 21 however, another condition precedent to finding a violation of the statute at issue; namely, that 22 the public officer or employee in question used such government property "to benefit a 23 significant personal or pecuniary interest." The Executive Director concedes that Sheriff 24 Antinoro's actions do not involve any pecuniary interest whatsoever. She does not address the
26
27
28

---

<sup>2</sup>As is discussed herein, based upon recent advisory opinion from the U.S. Office of Special Counsel, Kuzanek's conduct was not in violation of the Hatch Act and was fully permissible under federal law.

1 fact that there is no evidence that the actions at issue were done to further a significant personal
2 interest of Sheriff Antinoro.

3 As with numerous other terms within Chapter 281A, the terms “significant” and 4 “personal” are not defined in the statute rendering them constitutionally deficient as vague. See,
5 Dehne v. Avaino, 219 F. Supp.2d 1096 (D. Nev. 2001). Notwithstanding, there is simply no
6 evidence, let alone a preponderance of the evidence, to suggest that Sheriff Antinoro’s single act
7 of emailing a three paragraph statement to Ms. Fiore, a candidate for Nevada’s Third 8 Congressional District in Clark County (at the other end of the state from Storey County) was 9 done to further a “significant personal interest.” The comparison between the actions of Dr.
10 Hammagren, who used his title and official stationary to advocate for a bill in which he had a 11 stated personal (and pecuniary) interest, is stark. NRS 281A400(7) requires that the actions of 12 the public officer or employee be done in furtherance of a significant personal interest. The 13 Executive Director provides no evidence on this required element, nor is there any such 14 evidence, so as to support a violation of NRS 281A.400(7). Given that the Legislature saw fit to 15 qualify the terms “personal” and “pecuniary” with the term “significant,” one cannot simply 16 presume the existence of such an interest without evidence. Accordingly, summary judgment
17 must be entered in favor of Sheriff Antinoro.

20 21 C. *Sheriff Antinoro’s actions do not create the appearance of impropriety and are 22 not in violation of NRS 281A.400(7) under legal precedent established by the 23 Commission.

24 Rather than support the Executive Director’s position, the Commission’s decision in the 25 Matter of the Request for Opinion Concerning Richard Kirkland, Comm’n Op. No. 95-41, cited
26 by the Executive Director in her motion, actually compels entry of summary judgment in favor
27 of Sheriff Antinoro. Kirkland involved the issue of then-Washoe County Sheriff Richard 28 Kirkland’s endorsement of Justice James Hardesty for district court judge. Sheriff Kirkland’s

1 endorsement included participation in an advertisement which showed him in uniform with his
2 name and title mentioned, as well as other sheriffs' employees working with county jail inmates
3 in their black and white striped jail uniforms while Sheriff Kirkland described programs he and 4 his department had instituted with a brief endorsement of Justice Hardesty at the end of the 5 advertisement. Sheriff Kirkland made two commercials on behalf of Justice Hardesty, one 6 during his lunch hour and one prior to the time Sheriff Kirkland began his shift. The 7 Commission found that Sheriff Kirkland had been very careful in how and when he filmed his 8 portion of the advertisements at issue and that there was no cost to the public for either his 9 participation or the filming of his deputies.

12 The Commission then turned to an analysis of whether the facts supported a violation of 13 NRS 281.481(7), the predecessor of the statute at issue in this case, and whether Sheriff Kirkland 14 used governmental time, property, equipment or other facility to benefit his personal or financial 15 interests. In so doing, and as is the case here, the Commission focused on whether the sheriff's 16 actions created the appearance of impropriety.

18 In addressing this question, the Commission recognized the fundamental principle that 19 the First Amendment of the United States Constitution protects political speech but noted that 20 such First Amendment rights are not absolute when it comes to federal, and some state and 21 municipal employees. In that regard, the Commission cited to the Hatch Act and its prohibition 22 against federal, and some state and municipal, employees from using their official authority or 23 influence for the purpose of interfering with or affecting the result of an election. See, 5 U.S.C.
24 §1502(a)(1); see also, 5 U.S.C. §7324(a)(1). The Hatch Act commonly refers to two laws passed 25 in 1939 and 1940 which restrict the political activities of public employees.<sup>3</sup> See, Bauers v.
26 Cornett, 865 F.2d 1517, 1521 (8th Cir. 1989). "The Hatch Act was passed by Congress to
28

<sup>3</sup>Subsequent statutory changes have narrowed the reach of the Hatch Act as it applies to state and local employees and 1974 amendments to the Act removed the prohibition against allowing state and local employees to take an active part in a campaign. Broderick, supra. at 1523.

1 address particular forms of political party corruption and coercion perpetrated by, and 2 victimizing federal, state and local employees.” Id. at 1520-21.

3 The Commission further noted that Washoe County had adopted its own version of the 4 Hatch Act, as have many states, counties and municipalities. These regulations, often called 5 “little Hatch Acts,” also seek to prohibit or limit the political activities of its employees.
6 Although Storey County has not adopted such a prohibition in the form of an ordinance, the 7 personnel policies of Storey County and the Storey County Sheriff’s Office do address political 8 speech of its covered employees.<sup>4</sup>

10 In Kirkland, the Commission determined that its analysis turned on whether Sheriff
11 Kirkland’s “use of his title, position, uniform, badge, or employees in his endorsement 12 advertisements created the ‘appearance of impropriety.’” Kirkland, supra. at p. 4. The 13 Commission concluded that it was incontrovertible that it would never be proper for a 14 government agency to endorse a candidate and, as such, it followed that its elected officials
15 could not create the impression of government sanction. “It is for this reason that the Hatch Act 16 and the little Hatch Acts . . . prohibit or limit certain political activities for government actors.”
19 Id. The Commission then found as follow:

20 “We find that some aspects of Mr. Kirkland’s endorsement advertisements could create 21 such an appearance of impropriety. In particular, we find that the use of his uniform,
22 badge, and his uniformed deputies creates an improper appearance that his endorsement
23 was an official endorsement by Washoe County or the Washoe County Sheriff’s Office.
24 This is especially problematic where the office for which Mr. Kirkland’s endorsement 25 was district judge.”

25 The Commission went on to state that the use by Sheriff Kirkland of his “uniform and 26 badge” were the “critical difference.” Had Sheriff Kirkland used only his name and official title

28 _____
<sup>4</sup>Storey County’s definition of “employee” excludes elected officials, department heads and causal workers from its definition for purposes of certain sections. Sheriff Antinoro, as an elected official, is responsible for enacting policy at the Sheriff’s Office.

1 in the advertisement he would not, in the opinion of the Commission, have run afoul of NRS
2 281A.400(7) and would not have created the appearance of impropriety. Thus, the Commission
3 cautioned that a public officer should not use “his uniform, badge, employees, private office, or 4 other non-public facilities for the purposes of making an endorsement advertisement.” Id.

6 The actions of Sheriff Antinoro in sending the statement in question do not, under the 7 Commission’s own precedent, constitute actions which create the appearance of impropriety in 8 violation of NRS 281A400(7)(a)(4). To the contrary, Sheriff Antinoro’s conduct falls within that 9 which was held to be permissible by this Commission in that he used his name and official title
10 in his endorsement of Ms. Fiore.

12 Further, while certainly thorough, the Commission’s decision in Kirkland was rendered
13 in 1998. More recent guidance from the U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC), the agency
14 charged with interpreting the Hatch Act, suggests that Sheriff Antinoro acted well within his 15 First Amendment rights in engaging in the conduct at issue and in accordance with the 16 requirements of the Hatch Act. The OSC was formed in 1979 as the investigative and 17 prosecutorial arm of the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB). The OSC, now an 18 independent agency, is the entity authorized to issue advisory opinions and investigate violations
19 of the Hatch Act pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §1216(a)(2).

21 On February 29, 2012, the OSC issued a response to a request for an advisory opinion on
22 the issue of whether an incumbent sheriff may wear his uniform to political events such as
23 rallies, fundraisers, and campaign booths or in printed and/or electronic campaign materials.
24 See, Exhibit “C,” February 29, 2012, advisory opinion. In its opinion, the OSC began by noting 25 that it had recently reevaluated issues associated with participation by elected officials in such 26 conduct as it relates to the Hatch Act. Id. at p. 1. Specifically, the OSC stated that elected 27 officials such as a sitting sheriff would not violate the Hatch Act by wearing their uniforms or 28

1 using their titles while campaigning for reelection. Id. The OSC extended this reasoning to the 2 actions of an elected sheriff while participating in campaign activities on behalf of other
3 candidates running for office. Specifically, the OCS stated that an elected official who used his 4 title when endorsing a partisan candidate and/or wore his or her uniform while campaigning for 5 another candidate would not be in violation of the Hatch Act. Id. at p. 2. The OSC further 6 extended this reasoning to apply to in-person campaign events, campaign advertisements, and 7 political correspondence and concluded that a sheriff could attend fundraisers and solicit 8 contributions while wearing his or her uniform and identifying himself or herself as the sheriff.
9 Id. While noting that a sheriff covered by the Hatch Act is still prohibited from “coercing or 10 attempting to coerce other employees into making political contributions,” the OSC concluded 11 that an elected sheriff could participate in campaign activities of others without running afoul of 12 federal law.

15 As noted above, Storey County has not enacted a “little Hatch Act.” However, to the 16 extent the personnel policies of the County and the Sheriff’s Office resemble little Hatch Acts, as 17 they restrict political activity of County employees, the conduct at issue in this case would not 18 violate them. Given the OSC’s reevaluation of this issue, and its conclusion that a sitting sheriff
19 may actually campaign, in uniform and using his official title, both at in-person campaign events
20 and in campaign advertisements and political correspondence, it simply cannot be found that 21 Sheriff Antinoro acted improperly under the circumstances or in such a manner as would create 22 the appearance of impropriety. As such, Sheriff Antinoro, and not the Executive Director, is 23 entitled to summary judgment in this matter.

26 III. Any Determination that the Conduct at Issue was in Violation of NRS 281A.400(7)
27 would be in Violation of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution.

28 The First Amendment of the United States Constitution provides that Congress “shall make no law . . . abridging the freedom of speech” and this prohibition is applicable to the states

1 by virtue of the Fourteenth Amendment.<sup>5</sup> See, Williams-Yulee v. Fla. Bar, 135 S. Ct. 1656, 1658
2 (2015). The United States Supreme Court has repeatedly held that, “[t]he First Amendment has
3 its fullest and most urgent application to speech uttered during a campaign for political office.”
4 Citizens United v. FEC, 558 U.S. 310, 339-40 (2009). “As we have long recognized, speech
5 about public issues and the qualifications of candidates for elected office commands the highest
6 level of First Amendment protection.” See, Eu v. San Francisco County Democratic Cent.
7 Comm., 489 U.S. 214, 282 (1989). The Courts have cautioned that this principle requires them
8 to “err on the side of protecting political speech rather than suppressing it.” FEC v. Wis. Right to
9 Life, Inc., 551 U.S. 449, 457 (2007). The United States Supreme Court has further held that an
10 “exacting scrutiny” must be applied to laws restricting such speech. Williams-Yulee, supra. at 11 1664. As such, in order for NRS 281A.400(7) to be used in such a way as to prohibit the 12 political speech at issue, it must be shown that the statute is narrowly tailored to serve a
13 compelling government interest. Id. at 1665. While the United States Supreme Court has held
14 that the government has an interest in regulating the conduct and speech of its employees, in this 15 case, that interest is not outweighed by the wholesale infringement on the First Amendment
16 rights of the Subject.

19
20 A. NRS 281A.400(7) is unconstitutionally vague.

21 First, to the extent the Commission decides to impose such an enormous restriction on 22 core First Amendment rights by application of NRS 281A.400(7), that statute is 23 unconstitutionally vague. NRS 281A.480 permits the Commission to assess civil penalties
24 against a subject of up to $5,000.00 for a single willful violation of Chapter 281A. See, NRS
25 281A.480(1)(a). That statute provides further punitive powers to the Commission, including the 26 power to file a complaint in court for the removal of a public officer if he or she is found to have
28

---

1 committed "fewer than three willful violations" of Chapter 281A. See, NRS 281A.480(4)(c)(1).
2 These punitive powers of the Commission are significant yet NRS 281A.400(7) gives no
3 guidance to public officials as to what conduct is prohibited under the statute. While the term
4 "pecuniary interest" is defined in Chapter 281A, the terms "significant" and "personal" are not.
5 See, NRS 281A.139 and Chapter 281A generally. Nor is there guidance in the statute in terms of 6 a definition for "appearance of impropriety." See, NRS 281A.400(7) and Chapter 281A 7 generally.

9       Nowhere in Chapter 281A did the Legislature see fit to include a prohibition against 10 political speech by public officials. Further, the terms set forth in NRS 281A.400(7) discussed
11 above are not defined and are vague as a matter of law. The vagueness doctrine requires 12 legislatures to set reasonably clear guidelines for enforcement officials in order to prevent 13 arbitrary and discriminatory enforcement of the law. See, Smith v. Goguen, 415 U.S. 566, 572-
14 73 (1974). A vague statute is one which operates to hinder free speech through the use of 15 language so vague as to allow the inclusion of protected speech in its prohibition or to leave the 16 individual with no clear guidance as to the nature of the acts which are subject to punishment.
17 "Where First Amendment rights are involved, an even greater degree of specificity is required."
18 Id. at 573.

21       In this case, the Commission seeks to impose a tremendous burden on the Subject's First 22 Amendment rights using statutory language which falls well short of providing fair notice as to 23 the conduct it punishes. As such, NRS 281A.400(7) is unconstitutionally vague.

25       B. NRS 281A.400(7) is unconstitutional as applied to Sheriff Antinoro under the 26 circumstances of this case.

27       Further, the use of NRS 281A.400(7) to punish the conduct at issue in this case is 28 unconstitutional and in violation of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution as applied to Sheriff Antinoro. While the government may regulate speech of public employees to

1 a greater extent than that of citizens at large, in this case, punishment of the core political speech
2 of the subject under the circumstances goes much too far. Sheriff Antinoro's three paragraph
3 endorsement of Michele Fiore is unquestionably core political speech entitled to the highest level
4 of First Amendment protection. See, Eu, supra. at 282. The endorsement goes no further than to
5 identify the Subject as the Sheriff of Storey County, an action which is permissible even under
6 the prior decisions of this Commission. The fact that the endorsement was typed on letterhead
7 bearing the logo of the Storey County Sheriff's Office cannot be used by the Commission as a
8 means of punishing Sheriff Antinoro's core First Amendment right to engage in speech on 9 political issues and matters of public concern. To punish the conduct at issue here would be in 10 gross violation of the First Amendment.

13 C. NRS 481A.400(7) is unconstitutionally overbroad.

14 NRS 281A.400(7) also fails from a constitutional standpoint because it is 15 unconstitutionally overbroad. A statute is overbroad when its language, given its normal
16 meaning, is so sweeping that its sanctions may be applied to constitutionally protected conduct
17 which the state is not permitted to regulate. See, Dehne, supra. at 1102. The danger inherent in 18 overbroad statutes is that such statutes provide the government with practically unbridled
19 administrative and prosecutorial discretion that may result in selective prosecution. Thus,
20 overbroad statutes may undesirably dissuade persons from exercising their rights by chilling 21 protected speech or expression. See, Bates v. State Bar of Arizona, 433 U.S. 350, 380 (1977).
23 As the courts have recognized, the threat to free expression created by overbroad statutes is that,
24 by potentially sweeping in constitutionally protected activity, individuals and groups may self-
25 censor out of fear of vindictive or selective prosecution. Id.
26

27 Use of NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(4)'s prohibition against a public employee engaging in 28 conduct which might "create an appearance of impropriety" simply cannot be used in such a

1 sweeping fashion so as to foreclose Sheriff Antinoro's core political speech. Such a result
2 compels the conclusion that NRS 281A.400(7) is unconstitutionally overbroad. Certainly,
3 application of NRS 281A.400(7) to Sheriff Antinoro under the circumstances at bar acts in such 4 a manner as to dissuade those subject to the Act, including Sheriff Antinoro, from exercising
5 their core First Amendment rights. Such an application is not constitutionally permitted and 6 NRS 281A.400(7) fails under the overbreadth doctrine.

9 CONCLUSION

10 Based on all of the following, Sheriff Antinoro respectfully requests that the Executive 11 Director's motion for summary judgment be denied. Further, Sheriff Antinoro submits that the 12 undisputed facts in this matter, when weighed under the preponderance of the evidence standard,
13 compel the issuance of an order granting judgment in his favor as a matter of law.

In the Matter of the Third-Party Request
for Opinion Concerning the Conduct                      Request for Opinion No. 16-54C
of Gerald Antinoro, Sheriff of Storey County, Nevada,

Subject. /

STIPULATED FACTS

The Executive Director, through Associate Counsel Judy A. Prutzman, Esq., and the Subject, through his counsel, Katherine F. Parks, Esq., have stipulated to the following facts in Third-Party Request for Opinion ("RFO") No. 16-54C before the Nevada Commission on Ethics ("Commission") concerning Gerald Antinoro ("Antinoro"), Sheriff of Storey County.

The parties agree to submit as evidence in this matter the following stipulated facts. The facts in this stipulation may be received into evidence in lieu of further proof or testimony.

STIPULATED FACTS

1. Gerald Antinoro ("Antinoro") is the elected Sheriff of Storey County, a public officer as defined in NRS 281A.160.
2. Storey County is a political subdivision as defined in NRS 281A.145.
3. The Storey County Sheriff's Office is a local agency as defined in NRS 281A.119.
4. During the relevant time period, Nevada State Assemblywoman Michelle Fiore ("Fiore") was a United States Congressional candidate for Nevada's Third Congressional District in Clark County.
5. On May 27, 2016, Fiore contacted Sheriff Antinoro by phone to request his endorsement of her candidacy for U.S. Congress.

- 6. Sheriff Antinoro prepared a three-paragraph statement endorsing Fiore's candidacy (Exhibit 1), dated May 27, 2016, on his personal computer at his home during his lunch hour.
- 7. The statement was typed on the official Storey County Sheriff's Office letterhead and emailed to Fiore from Sheriff Antinoro's personal computer and email account.
- 8. On May 27, 2016, Sheriff Antinoro's statement appeared in a YouTube video that was tweeted on Fiore's Twitter account, @VoteFiore.
- 9. The YouTube video containing Sheriff Antinoro's statement was also posted on Fiore's Facebook page on May 27, 2016.
- 10. Sheriff Antinoro did not produce the YouTube video or supply any of the other images used in the video. Fiore did not contact Sheriff Antinoro to inform him about the endorsement video.
- 11. Fiore was defeated in her campaign for U.S. Congress in the primary election held on June 15, 2016.
- 12. Policy Number 213 of the Storey County Administrative Policies and Procedures ("Storey County Policies") addresses political activity by employees:

213: Political Activity

Employees shall not engage in political activity of any kind during working hours. This includes, but is not limited to: soliciting money, influence, service, or any other valuable thing to aid, promote, or defeat any political committee or the nomination or election of any person to public office. Wearing or displaying of apparel, buttons, insignia, or other items which advocate for or against a political candidate or a political cause is also an example of prohibited activity during working hours. Furthermore, no person shall attempt to coerce, commence, or require a person holding or applying for any position, office, or employment, including a citizen requesting service supplied by employer, to influence or to give money, service, or other valuable thing to aid, promote, or defeat any political committee, or to aid, promote, or defeat the nomination or election of any person to public office.

1 Employees are expressly forbidden to use any employer
2 resources, including but not limited to: Interoffice mail, email,
3 telephone, fax machines, the Internet, or copy machines to engage
4 in any political activity outside the approved scope of the 5 employees' official duties.

6 ****

7 Employees who are seeking, or who have been elected or
8 appointed to public office, shall not conduct any business related
9 to these activities while on duty. This includes all the items listed in 10 the previous section, (i.e., political activity).

11 13. The Storey County Policies contain the following definition of "employee:"

12 Employee: A person employed in a budgeted position on a full- or 13 part-time basis. For purposes of those section of these policies
14 covering discipline, layoff, and dispute resolution, the term
15 employee excludes elected officials, department heads and casual
16 workers.

17 14. The Storey County Sheriff's Office has a policy regarding Employee Speech, 18 Expression and Social Networking that addresses endorsements:

19 1060.4.1 UNAUTHORIZED ENDORSEMENTS,
20 ADVERTISEMENTS, AND ACTIVITIES

21 While employees are not restricted from engaging in the following
22 activities as private citizens or as authorized members of a
23 recognized bargaining unit or deputy associations, employees may 24 not represent the Storey County Sheriff's Office or identify 25 themselves in any way that could be reasonably perceived as
26 representing the Storey County Sheriff's Office in order to do any 27 of the following, unless specifically authorized by the Sheriff:

28 (a) Endorse, support, oppose or contradict any political campaign or initiative.

Additionally, when it can reasonably be construed that an employee, acting in his/her individual capacity or through an outside group or organization (e.g., bargaining group), is affiliated with this office, the employee shall give a specific disclaiming
statement that any such speech or expression is not representative of the Storey County Sheriff's Office.

1 Employees retain their right to vote as they choose, to support
2 candidates of their choice and to express their opinions as private
3 citizens, including as authorized members of a recognized
4 bargaining unit or deputy associations, on political subjects and
5 candidates at all times while off-duty. Employees may not use their 6 official authority or influence to interfere with or affect the result of 7 an election or a nomination for office. Employees are also
8 prohibited from directly or indirectly using their official authority to 9 coerce, command or advise another employee to pay, lend or
10 contribute anything of value to a party, committee, organization,
11 agency or person for political purposes (5 USC § 1502).

STOREY COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Gerald Antinoro
Sheriff

I am proud to endorse Michele Fiore for Congress. Michele Fiore sponsored and supported any legislation our law enforcement community needed in both of her terms in Carson City. Michele Fiore supports law enforcement, and peace officers across the state support and endorse her.

I have gotten to know Assemblywoman Fiore through her work in Carson City and I have nothing but respect for her. I know she does not advocate armed conflict with peace officers and that she has always been very supportive of law enforcement in our state. I also know from personal experience that NAPSU, who recently came out against Michele Fiore, do not always present factual information and do not speak for their entire membership, but in the interest of their leaders.

Nevada needs Michele Fiore in Congress. I know she is not afraid to take the fight to Washington D.C. I have watched her ask the tough questions in Carson City and fight for what is right for the people of Nevada. I have no doubt that she will continue to do so in Congress. I know she will continue to support all our first responders in Washington D.C. Michele's record of fighting for our second amendment rights and our law enforcement speaks for itself. I encourage everyone in Congress District 3 to vote for Michele Fiore!

Re: OSC File No. AD-12-XXXX

Dear Xx. XXXXXXXX:

This letter responds to your request for an advisory opinion concerning the Hatch Act. The Office of Special Counsel (OSC) is authorized pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 1212(f) to issue opinions interpreting the Act. Specifically, you ask whether an incumbent sheriff may wear his uniform to political events such as rallies, fundraisers, and campaign booths or in printed and/or electronic campaign materials. You also ask whether a sheriff may use his title in political correspondence or in connection with fundraising activities. Finally, you ask if it makes a difference whether the sheriff engages in these activities while running for reelection, running for another elected office, or while campaigning for another candidate altogether. For purposes of this opinion, you ask OSC to assume that the sheriff is subject to the Hatch Act's restrictions. As explained in more detail below, the Act generally would not prohibit any of the activities you enumerate in your request.

State and local employees who are covered by the Hatch Act are prohibited from using their official authority or influence to interfere with or affect the result of an election or a nomination for office.<sup>1</sup> 5 U.S.C. § 1502(a)(1). Federal employees are subject to the same restriction. See 5 U.S.C. § 7323(a)(1). The Hatch Act regulation that applies to federal employees states that an improper use of official authority or influence occurs when employees use their official titles while participating in political activity. 5 C.F.R. § 734.302(b)(1). In determining whether the use of official title by state and local employees violate the Hatch Act, OSC uses the aforementioned regulation for federal employees as guidance. Thus, OSC generally concludes that state and local employees violate the Hatch Act when they use their official titles, or otherwise trade on the influence of their positions by, for example, wearing their official uniforms, while engaged in political activity.

As you know, OSC recently reevaluated this conclusion as it applies to elected officials who are covered by the Hatch Act. Specifically, in recognition of the fact that they hold partisan political office, OSC reasoned that they would not violate the Hatch Act by wearing their uniforms or using their titles while campaigning for reelection. OSC took into account the fact that Congress gave greater latitude to individuals who are covered by the Hatch Act due to their elected positions when it exempted them from the candidacy prohibition to which other state and local employees are subject. See 5 U.S.C. § 1502(c). Moreover, the Hatch Act regulations that apply to federal employees do not contemplate a scenario where an employee would be covered by virtue of his elective office. Cf. 5 U.S.C. § 7322(1) (expressly excluding the President and Vice President from Hatch Act coverage). Thus, those regulations do not translate smoothly to the state and local arena, where many elected officials are covered by the Hatch Act.

We also note that the provision exempting individuals holding elected office from the candidacy prohibition is not limited to reelection bids. Thus, a sheriff who is covered by the Hatch Act would not be prohibited from running for another elected office. Accordingly, the rationale OSC has articulated with respect use of one's official title and uniform during a reelection campaign also applies when the official runs for some other partisan political office.

OSC's reasoning also extends to an elected official's other political activities, i.e., activities not in furtherance of his own reelection. Indeed, in allowing these elected officials to run as representatives of political parties, Congress presumably anticipated that they would endorse other candidates running under their political party's banner. If these elected officials are permitted to use their official titles in their own partisan campaigns, OSC can identify no unique harm that would result if they do the same when endorsing other partisan candidates. Arguably, an elected official's use of his title when campaigning for himself and other partisan candidates is a natural and foreseeable incident of the elected official being permitted to run for partisan office. Therefore, it does not appear that an elected official's use of his title when endorsing a partisan candidate would violate the Hatch Act. In the case of a sheriff, wearing his uniform while campaigning for another candidate also would be permissible.

These principles apply to in-person campaign events, campaign advertisements, and political correspondence. Likewise, a sheriff could attend fundraisers and solicit contributions while wearing his uniform and identifying himself as the sheriff. We note, however, that a sheriff covered by the Hatch Act still is prohibited from coercing or attempting to coerce other employees into making political contributions. See 5 U.S.C. § 1502(a)(2). Asking a subordinate to make a political contribution or volunteer for a political campaign is considered inherently coercive. Special Counsel v. Acconcia, (CB-1216-06-0007-T-1, February 26, 2007 (Initial Decision at 9), rev'd on other grounds, 107 M.S.P.R. 60 (2007), citing Special Counsel v. Purnell, 37 M.S.P.R. 184, 195 (1988), aff'd sub nom. Fela v. Merit Sys. Prot. Bd., 730 F. Supp. 779 (N.D. Ohio 1989). Where the supervisor-subordinate relationship exists, no particular words are required to establish coercion because virtually any language can be threatening. Special Counsel v. Gallagher, 44 M.S.P.R. 57, 76 (1990). Thus, sheriffs should not ask their employees to contribute to political campaigns.

Similarly, while OSC concludes that the use of official authority prohibition would not preclude a sheriff from wearing his uniform and using his official title while campaigning, this provision of the Hatch Act would prohibit him from soliciting the uncompensated volunteer services of a subordinate employee. See 5 C.F.R. § 734.302. Therefore, he must not ask his employees to support his campaign or the campaign of another candidate.

17 REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

18 Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson, Esq., Executive Director of the Nevada
19 Commission on Ethics (“Commission”), by and through the Commission’s Associate 20 Counsel, Judy A. Prutzman, Esq., hereby submits her Opposition to Antinoro’s Cross-
21 Motion for Summary Judgment and a Reply in Support of the Motion for Summary
22 Judgment submitted on March 9, 2017.

23 INTRODUCTION

24 Sheriff Antinoro violated the Ethics in Government Law when he produced a 25 letter of endorsement for Michelle Fiore, a candidate for U.S. Congress, on the official
26 letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff’s Office. The letter was electronically 27 transmitted to Fiore, who included the letter in a video that was posted on her social 28 media sites and viewable by more than 7,000 individuals. If the Commission does not conclude that Antinoro’s conduct violated Ethics Law, it will erode the Legislature’s

1 directive for an appropriate separation between the roles of persons who are both
2 public servants and private citizens.

3 This is not a complicated case. This RFO presents clear, undisputed facts and 4 requires the Commission to examine one simple question: “Does a public officer
5 violate NRS 281A.400(7) when he digitally produces a letter of endorsement for a 6 political candidate on the official letterhead of his public office?” In opposing the 7 Executive Director’s Motion for Summary Judgment, Antinoro asks the Commission to 8 determine that he did not use government property because his endorsement letter
9 was digitally produced and not printed on a single piece of paper. Antinoro also asks
10 the Commission to find that his endorsement of Fiore cannot be considered a 11 “significant personal interest” within the meaning of NRS 281A.400(7). Remarkably,
12 Antinoro characterizes his political interests as insignificant, despite his position that 13 his endorsement letter amounts to political speech entitled to the highest level of 14 constitutional protection.

15 If the Commission accepts Antinoro’s position, the official letterheads of all 16 public agencies could be digitally reproduced and widely distributed electronically by 17 any public officer or employee who wishes to use the letterhead for political purposes.
18 This is an absurd result that the Commission should avoid. See City Plan Dev. v.
19 State, Labor Comm’r, 121 Nev. 419, 435, 117 P.3d 182, 192 (2005) (When 20 interpreting a statute, a court should look to the policy and spirit of the law and will 21 seek to avoid an interpretation that leads to an absurd result).

22 Finally, Antinoro asks the Commission to apply non-binding federal law and 23 guidance to Nevada’s Ethics Law to conclude that Nevada’s elected sheriffs may use 24 the official letterhead of their agencies for political endorsements without creating an 25 appearance of impropriety. This result is also absurd and effectively establishes a “law
26 enforcement exception” to NRS 281A.400(7) that does not exist. The Commission
27 should not interpret the Ethics Law in a way that creates a narrow exception for only 28 one class of public officers.

1 The preponderance of evidence, supported by undisputed facts, indicates that 2 Antinoro used government property to benefit his significant personal interest in 3 supporting a candidate in a political campaign. Antinoro's use of a government
4 resource for a political endorsement created an appearance of impropriety because it
5 may indicate to the public that Fiore is endorsed by the entire Storey County Sheriff's 6 Office, not just Antinoro. This is the type of harm to the public that the Ethics Law is 7 designed to prohibit, as it creates confusion about the nature of the political 8 endorsement and blurs the line between Antinoro's personal interests and his public 9 duties. Accordingly, the Commission should grant the Executive Director's Motion for 10 Summary Judgment and deny Antinoro's Cross-Motion to find that Antinoro violated
11 NRS 281A.400(7).

12 LEGAL ANALYSIS

13 I. Antinoro's Use of the Storey County Letterhead for a Political 14 Endorsement Letter Violated NRS 281A.400(7)

15 It is undisputed that Antinoro used the Storey County Sheriff's Office letterhead
16 to produce a letter of endorsement for Fiore. NRS 281A.400(7) creates a strict 17 prohibition against the use by a public officer of "governmental time, property, 18 equipment or other facility to benefit a significant personal or financial interest."
19 Antinoro's limited use of government property for an endorsement of a political 20 candidate violated NRS 281A.400(7) because there was no policy authorizing such 21 use of the letterhead and the use created the appearance of impropriety.

22 In an attempt to avoid the clear application of the Ethics Law to the facts of this
23 case, Antinoro raises inapplicable constitutional challenges and relies upon irrelevant 24 federal guidance related to an elected sheriff's ability to wear the sheriff's uniform and 25 use the sheriff's title while participating in campaign activities. However, these 26 arguments do not avoid the conclusion that Antinoro's conduct violated the Ethics
27 Law. The Commission has acknowledged that the political process and an individual's 28 right to freely participate in political activity are of extreme importance. See In re

1 Barrett, Comm'n Op. No. 01-08A (2002). Nevertheless, public officers are required to 2 appropriately separate their private political interests and activities from their public 3 duties. Id.

4 A. The Letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff's Office is Governmental
5 Property Subject to the Prohibitions of NRS 281A.400(7)

6 In his Cross-Motion, Antinoro maintains that summary judgment must be 7 entered in his favor because the Executive Director did not demonstrate, by a 8 preponderance of evidence, that he used "governmental time, property, equipment or 9 other facility" when he produced a letter of endorsement for Fiore utilizing the official 10 letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff's Office. He attempts to characterize the 11 letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff's Office as non-governmental property 12 because it was reproduced only in electronic form, did not include the address of the 13 Storey County Sheriff's Office and was not signed by Antinoro in his official capacity, 14 using his Sheriff's title. Yet, it remains undisputed that the letterhead utilized by 15 Antinoro was the official letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff's Office.

16 Antinoro asks the Commission to conclude that a digital reproduction of an 17 official letterhead is not the type of governmental property contemplated by NRS
18 281A.400(7). However, this conclusion contradicts the Commission's prior decisions
19 and would lead to absurd results. The Commission has consistently viewed the official 20 letterhead of a government office or agency as governmental property. See In re
21 Hammargren, Comm'n Op. No. 95-35A (1996); In re Tiffany, Comm'n Op. No. 15-21C
22 (2007); In re Hettrick, Comm'n Op. No. 01-10A (2001). The format of Antinoro's 23 endorsement letter (digital versus hard copy) does not diminish or eliminate the 24 governmental character of the property – the letterhead of the Storey County Sheriff's 25 Office. Indeed, Antinoro has not and cannot claim that the endorsement letter for Fiore 26 was produced under his personal letterhead, or some other letterhead that is not 27 utilized for official business of the Storey County Sheriff's Office.
28

1 The fact that Antinoro's letter of endorsement was transmitted electronically
2 and was not produced utilizing any other government resources (paper, time,
3 computer or personnel) does not change the character of the letterhead from 4 government to non-government. These facts merely allow the Commission to review
5 Antinoro's conduct under the limited use exception of NRS 281A.400(7)(a). Antinoro's
6 view of what constitutes "governmental property" would lead to absurd results. If the 7 Commission decides that a digital letterhead utilized to produce an electronic copy of 8 a letter is not "governmental property" within the meaning of NRS 281A.400(7), then a 9 public officer or employee could use a government letterhead for personal purposes
10 without violating the Ethics Law, so long as the letter was only emailed and no other 11 government resources (paper, time or computers) were used to produce the letter.
12 This is not a logical result that supports the clear intent of the Ethics Law.

13 B. Antinoro's Interest in Endorsing a Political Candidate is a Significant 14 Personal Interest Within the Meaning of NRS 281A.400(7)

15 Antinoro accuses the Executive Director of failing to address the "personal 16 interest" requirement of NRS 281A.400(7) because she did not specify how Antinoro's
17 conduct furthered a significant personal interest. In so doing, Antinoro asserts that his 18 interest in endorsing a political candidate cannot be considered a significant personal 19 interest within the meaning of NRS 281A.400(7). However, this view contradicts
20 Antinoro's own position that his endorsement of a political candidate constitutes core 21 political speech that is entitled to constitutional protection. Indeed, as argued by 22 Antinoro in his Opposition and Cross-Motion, the constitution affords the broadest 23 protection to political expression, including speech about candidates for elected office.
24 See Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1, 14, 96 S. Ct. 612, 632 (1976) (per curiam).<sup>1</sup>

25
26
27 <sup>1</sup> Despite Antinoro's arguments of constitutionally protected speech and association, the Executive 28 Director maintains that these arguments lack merit, as described in this Opposition.

1 NRS 281A.400(7) states, in relevant part, that “a public officer or employee
2 shall not use governmental time, property, equipment or other facility to benefit a 3 significant personal or pecuniary interest of the public officer or employee.” The 4 Commission recently examined NRS 281A.400(7) in In re Matson, Comm’n Op. No.
5 14-70C (2016), which involved Shirley Matson, the elected Nye County Assessor. In 6 granting a Motion for Summary Judgment submitted by the Executive Director, the 7 Commission determined that Matson violated NRS 281A.020 and 281A.400(7) and (9)
8 when she ordered a subordinate to reappraise property owned by two Nye County 9 employees under circumstances demonstrating that the reappraisals were not 10 properly conducted in accordance with applicable law. Matson ordered the 11 reappraisals as revenge or retaliation against the two employees. Accordingly, the 12 significant personal interest at issue was Matson’s personal animus against the 13 employees and the Commission found that Matson misused government resources in 14 violation of the Ethics Law.<sup>2</sup>

15 If the Commission found that a public officer’s personal animus towards co-
16 workers is the type of “significant personal interest” contemplated by NRS
17 281A.400(7), the Commission logically must conclude that Antinoro’s endorsement of 18 a political candidate is also a significant personal interest within the meaning of NRS
19 281A.400(7). This conclusion would fit squarely with the Commission’s decisions that 20 an earlier version of NRS 281A.400(7) prohibits the use of governmental property for 21 personal political or campaign purposes. See In re Kirkland, Comm’n Op. No. 98-41
22 (1999) (citing In re Bob Nolen, Comm’n Op. No. 96-39 (1996) and In re Lonnie 23 Hammargren, Comm’n Op. No. 95-35 (1995)).

25 <sup>2</sup> One of the employees had drafted a Nye County Resolution condemning Matson’s racist remarks and 26 signed a petition to recall Matson. The other employee had also signed the recall petition. The 27 Commission concluded that actions of these employees against Matson created the personal animus
28 which constitutes a personal interest implicating NRS 281A.400(7).

1 C. Sheriff Antinoro's Use of Official Government Letterhead Does Not Satisfy
2 All Elements of the Limited Use Exception in NRS 281A.400(7)(a)

3 Antinoro's use of the Storey County Sheriff's Office letterhead for a letter of
4 endorsement of a political candidate violated NRS 281A.400(7), unless all four of the 5 following factors apply:

- 6 (1) The public officer or employee who is responsible for and
7 has authority to authorize the use of such property, equipment
8 or other facility has established a policy allowing the use or the 9 use is necessary as a result of emergency circumstances;
- 10 (2) The use does not interfere with the performance of the 11 public officer's or employee's public duties;
- 12 (3) The cost or value related to the use is nominal; and
- 13 (4) The use does not create the appearance of impropriety.

14 The Executive Director demonstrated in her motion that no established policy
15 allowed Antinoro to use the Storey County Sheriff's Office letterhead for a political 16 endorsement letter. The Executive Director also established that such use creates the 17 appearance of impropriety. In response, Antinoro presents a confusing and irrelevant
18 argument regarding the Commission's application of the Hatch Act in In re Kirkland, 19 Comm'n Op. No. 98-41C (1999). Antinoro also relies upon a recent opinion issued by 20 the U.S. Office of Special Counsel ("OSC") regarding certain campaign activities of an 21 elected sheriff.

22 Antinoro's reliance on the OSC opinion is misplaced. The OSC opinion is not 23 binding upon Nevada or the Commission. Even if the OSC opinion was controlling, it 24 does not address the conduct at issue in this RFO – use of government letterhead for 25 a political endorsement. The OSC opinion specifically addresses whether an 26 incumbent sheriff violates the federal Hatch Act by wearing his uniform to political 27 events or using his title in political correspondence. However, Antinoro's use of his title
28

1 in the endorsement letter is not at issue in this RFO.<sup>3</sup> Antinoro's use of his sheriff's
2 uniform is also not before the Commission.

3 Antinoro's reliance on the Hatch Act and the OSC opinion does not overcome
4 the fact that Antinoro's use of the letterhead for a political endorsement was not
5 authorized by any policy established by Storey County or Antinoro himself. The clear
6 language of the limited use exception requires that such a policy exist. See NRS
7 281A.400(7)(a)(1).<sup>4</sup> Without such a policy, the requirements of the limited use
8 exception cannot be met and the Commission can conclude that Antinoro's use of the 9 letterhead violated NRS 281A.400(7).

10 Antinoro also cannot rely upon the Hatch Act and the OSC opinion to avoid a 11 finding that his use of an official letterhead for political purposes created the 12 appearance of impropriety under NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(4). The Commission's clear
13 precedent, set forth in In re Hettrick, Comm'n Op. No. 01-10 (2001), demonstrates that 14 the use of an official letterhead for political purposes creates an appearance of 15 impropriety and the impression of government approval of the contents of letter.
16 Likewise, Antinoro's endorsement letter printed on the official letterhead of the Storey 17 County Sheriff's Office created the improper appearance that the sheriff's office or 18 Storey County also endorses Fiore.

19 Antinoro's use of government letterhead for a political endorsement is precisely 20 the type of impropriety the Ethics Law seeks to avoid through NRS 281A.400(7).
21 Without a clear line drawn with respect to this conduct, the Commission opens the 22 door to a multitude of other limited uses of government resources for political 23

24
25 <sup>3</sup> Indeed, the Commission decided in Kirkland that a public officer will not create an appearance of 26 impropriety under former NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(4) by endorsing a political candidate if he or she uses his or her official title.

27 <sup>4</sup> Even if such a policy did exist, the Executive Director maintains that a policy which would have 28 singled out Antinoro's conduct separate and distinct from that of other employees may have triggered other concerns under NRS 281A.400, as described in the Executive Director's Motion for Summary Judgment.

1 purposes, particularly uses that involve government email and other electronic
2 medium.

3 II. NRS 281A.400(7) is Neither Unconstitutionally Vague Nor Overboard

4 Antinoro challenges the constitutionality of NRS 281A.400(7), arguing that the 5 statute is both vague and overbroad. The determination of constitutionality is generally
6 an issue for the courts. See Malecon Tobacco, LLC v. State ex rel. Dep't of Taxation,
7 118 Nev. 837, 59 P.3d 474 (2002). Nevertheless, the Executive Director addresses
8 Antinoro's constitutional challenges for the Commission's consideration.

9 Antinoro focuses on the words "significant" and "personal" contained in NRS
10 281A.400(7), complaining that these terms are vague because they are not defined in 11 NRS Chapter 281A and therefore provide no guidance to public officers as to what 12 conduct is prohibited. He also asserts that NRS 281A.400(7) is overbroad because its 13 prohibition of conduct that creates an "appearance of impropriety" deters him and 14 other public officers from engaging in constitutionally protected political speech.

15 When reviewing the constitutionality of a statute, the statute is presumed to be 16 valid and the burden falls on the challenger to demonstrate that a statute is 17 unconstitutional. State v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 129 Nev., Adv. Op. 52, 306 P.3d
18 369, 375 (2013). The burden therefore falls on Antinoro to make a "clear showing of 19 invalidity." Pitmon v. State, 131 Nev., Adv. Op. 16, ___ P.3d ___ (2015) (citing Silvar 20 v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Ct., 122 Nev. 289, 292, 129 P.3d 682, 684 (2006)).

21 The first step in both a vagueness and overbreadth analysis is to construe the 22 challenged statute. See United States v. Williams, 553 U.S. 285, 304 (2008) ("it is 23 impossible to determine whether a statute reaches too far without first knowing what 24 the statute covers"); State v. Castaneda, 126 Nev. 478, 483, 245 P.3d 550, 553-54
25 (2010) ("Enough clarity to defeat a vagueness challenge may be supplied by judicial 26 gloss on an otherwise uncertain statute, by giving a statute's words their well-settled 27 and ordinarily understood meaning, and by looking to the common law definitions of 28 the related term or offense." (citations and quotations omitted)).

1 NRS 281A.400(7) states that a public officer or employee shall not use
2 governmental property to benefit a “significant personal or pecuniary interest” of the 3 public officer or employee. The plain meaning of “significant” is “meaningful” or 4 “important.” The American Heritage College Dictionary 1268 (3rd ed. 1997). The 5 statute, as originally enacted, did not contain the word “significant.” The term was 6 added by the Nevada Legislature in 2013 with the enactment of Senate Bill (“SB”)
7 228. The Commission’s Executive Director at the time testified that “significant” was 8 being added to several subsections of the Ethics Law, including NRS 281A.400(7), to 9 eliminate a de minimis interest from being seen as a true conflict. See Exhibit C
10 submitted at Hearing on SB 228 Before the Assembly Legislative Operations &
11 Elections Comm., 77th Leg. (Nev. May 14, 2013). Thus, NRS 281A.400(7) does not 12 contemplate the use of governmental property that benefits an unimportant, incidental 13 or trivial personal interest.

14 The plain meaning of “personal” is “relating to a particular person” or “private.”
15 The American Heritage College Dictionary 1019 (3rd ed. 1997). In the context of the 16 Ethics Law, the term clearly intends to distinguish personal interests as those related 17 to one’s private life and not related to one’s public life as a public officer or employee.

18 A. NRS 281A.400(7) is Not Unconstitutionally Vague

19 A statute may be challenged as unconstitutional either because it is vague on 20 its face, or because it is vague as applied only to the particular challenger. Pitmon,
21 131 Nev., Adv. Op. 16 at 4 (citation omitted). Antinoro appears to argue both. A 22 statute is unconstitutionally vague if it (1) “fails to provide a person of ordinary 23 intelligence fair notice of what is prohibited” or (2) “is so standardless that it authorizes 24 or encourages seriously discriminatory enforcement.” Carrigan v. Nev. Comm’n on 25 Ethics, 129 Nev., Adv. Op. 95, 5, 313 P.3d 880 (2013) (citation omitted). Civil laws, 26 such as the Ethics Law, are held to a less strict vagueness standard than criminal 27 laws because the consequences are less severe. Id.

1           Considering the plain meanings of terms like “significant” and “personal 2 contained in NRS 281A.400(7), there is nothing vague about the statute. Furthermore,
3 Antinoro’s claim that he did not have fair notice that he might violate NRS 281A.400(7)
4 if he used government letterhead for personal purposes ignores the Ethics Law’s
5 advisory opinion option.<sup>5</sup> See Carrigan, 129 Nev., Adv. Op. 95 at 8 (citation omitted)
6 (“When a statute is accompanied by an administrative system that can flesh out
7 details, the due process clause permits those details to be left to that system”). In fact,
8 the Commission has previously issued an advisory opinion to a public officer seeking 9 advice on whether his use of government letterhead would violate the Ethics Law. See
10 In re Hettrick, Comm’n Op. No. 01-10A (2001). Additionally, the Commission’s
11 advisory opinion in In re Kirkland, Comm’n Op. No. 98-41 (1999) provided guidance
12 on the type of conduct that creates an “appearance of impropriety” under NRS
13 281A.400(7). There are no facts in this matter to indicate that Antinoro did not have 14 any time or opportunity to request an opinion from the Commission before he provided 15 his endorsement letter to Fiore.

16           Analyzed on an as-applied basis, Antinoro’s claim that NRS 281A.400(7) is 17 unconstitutional because it punishes his core political speech also fails. The statute 18 Antinoro challenges does not prohibit public officers from endorsing political 19 candidates; rather, it prohibits public officers and employees from using government
20 resources to do so. Moreover, Antinoro’s use of government letterhead signifies that 21 his political endorsement was offered in his official, representative capacity, and the 22 United States Supreme Court “has rejected the notion that the First Amendment 23 confers a right to use governmental mechanics to convey a message.” Nevada
24 Comm’n on Ethics. v. Carrigan, 131 S.Ct. 2343, 2346 (2011).

25 ///

26
27 <sup>5</sup> NRS 281A.440(1) allows the Commission to issue an advisory opinion within 45 days after receiving 28 a request.

1           B. NRS 281A.400(7) is Not Unconstitutionally Overbroad

2           Antinoro asserts that NRS 281A.400(7) is unconstitutionally overbroad.
3 Specifically, Antinoro claims that “appearance of impropriety” contained in the limited
4 use exception of NRS 281A.400(7)(a) impermissibly reaches constitutionally protected
5 core political speech and therefore deters him and other public officers from exercising
6 their First Amendment rights by chilling political speech. Once again, it is the use of 7 government letterhead that indicates Antinoro engaged in conduct in his 8 representative capacity, to which no First Amendment rights attach. Antinoro’s political 9 endorsement performed in his private capacity may enjoy constitutional protection as 10 protected speech, but his use of official government letterhead divests Antinoro of his 11 constitutional claims.

12           Even accepting, arguendo, that Antinoro’s conduct constituted protected
13 speech or that NRS 281A.400(7) somehow burdens or chills Antinoro’s core political 14 speech, the burden is minimal when compared to Nevada’s compelling state interest 15 in promoting ethical government and ensuring that public officers avoid conflicts of 16 interest. See Carrigan, 129 Nev. Adv. Op. 95 at 10 (citing Clingman v. Beaver, 544 17 U.S. 581, 586-87 (2005) (a reasonable, nondiscriminatory regulation that imposes an 18 incidental burden on First Amendment rights is acceptable when justified by a state's 19 important regulatory concerns). Additionally, the statute is narrowly tailored to further 20 the state’s compelling interest. NRS 281A.400(7) is content-neutral and restricts the 21 use of government property to benefit any significant personal interest, regardless of 22 the nature or character of the interest or content of the message.

22           III. Conclusion

23           This case provides the Commission with an opportunity to restate and clarify 24 the ethical boundaries applicable to the use of a government letterhead for personal 25 purposes.

27           ///

1 The undisputed facts in this matter support a finding that Antinoro willfully
2 violated NRS 281A.400(7) and the Executive Director's Motion for Summary
3 Judgment must therefore be granted. Accordingly, the Executive Director requests the 4 imposition of a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000 pursuant to NRS 281A.480(1)(a).

21 I

22 INTRODUCTION

23 As the Commission is well aware, this matter arises out of one discreet action of Storey 24 County Sheriff Gerald Antinoro that occurred on May 27, 2016. On that date, and in response to 25 her request, Sheriff Antinoro prepared a three paragraph statement in support of Michele Fiori's
26 unsuccessful bid for Clark County's Third Congressional District seat. Under the stipulated facts 27 which govern this case, Ms. Fiori contacted Sheriff Antinoro by phone and requested his 28 endorsement. See, Exhibit "A," to Antinoro's Opposition to Motion for Summary Judgment and Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment. Sheriff Antinoro prepared the three-paragraph statement attached as Exhibit 1 to the Executive Director's Motion for Summary Judgment. Id. The

1 statement was typed on a template of the Storey County Sheriff's Office. Id. Sheriff Antinoro
2 prepared the statement of his personal computer, over the lunch hour, while he was at home, and 3 it was emailed to Ms. Fiori from Sheriff Antinoro's private email account. Id.

4 It is uncontroverted, under the stipulated facts agreed to by the Commission, that Ms.
5 Fiori used Sheriff Antinoro's statement in a YouTube video that was tweeted on Fiori's Twitter
6 account, and that the statement was posted on Fiori's Facebook page on May 27, 2016, without
7 Sheriff Antinoro's knowledge. Id. In fact, issues associated with the use of Sheriff Antinoro's
8 statement by Ms. Fiori on social media were brought to the Executive Director's attention and a
9 Notice of Additional Facts and Issues was prepared and summarily rejected in a Panel Decision
10 dated October 27, 2016. The Panel's decision was unanimous and the Panel specifically held as 11 follows:

14 "The Commission's investigation revealed that the Subject did not grant an advantage to 15 himself or have a commitment in a private capacity to the interests of the candidate (NRS 16 281A.400(2)), or use government resources or cause a governmental entity to incur any 17 expense to support the candidate with respect to the video and the photo of the Subject, in uniform, which photo was used without the Subject's permission (NRS 281A.400(&) and NRS 281A.520)). Therefore, these allegations are dismissed."

18 Despite the unanimity of the Panel's decision in that regard, the Executive Director, in her 19 opposition/reply, makes the following unfounded and gratuitous statement in the very 20 introductory portion of her brief:
21

22 "Sheriff Antinoro violated the Ethics in Government Law when he produced a letter of 23 endorsement for Michelle Fiori, a candidate for U.S. Congress, on the official letterhead
24 of the Storey County Sheriff's Office. The letter was electronically transmitted to Fiori,
25 who included the letter in a video that was posted on her social media sites and viewable 26 by more than 7,000 individuals."

28 The Executive Director makes this statement despite the fact that there are no facts before the Commission which relate to the number of persons who supposedly had access to Sheriff
Antinoro's statement via Ms. Fiori's social media pages. More to the point, the Executive

1 Director makes this statement despite the fact that it has already been determined that Sheriff
2 Antinoro gave no permission whatsoever for Ms. Fiori to use the statement at issue on social
3 media. The sole question to be determined by the Commission is whether Sheriff Antinoro's use
4 of letterhead in making the statement at issue was in violation of NRS 281A.400(7). The 5 Executive Director's references to social media and the number of persons who supposedly had 6 access to Sheriff Antinoro's statement on same is wholly irrelevant and appears to be an attempt 7 to obfuscate the single issue before the Commission.

9 As if reference to the social media issue was not enough, the Executive Director goes 10 further and suggests that, unless the Commission grants her motion for summary judgment, "the 11 official letterheads of all public agencies could be digitally reproduced and widely distributed 12 electronically by any public officer or employee who wishes to use the letterhead for political 13 purposes." Id. at page 2, lines 14-16 (emphasis added).

15 As shall be discussed in greater detail below, the fact that the Executive Director has 16 asked the Commission to punish the Subject here based upon potential, future abuses by others
17 of Chapter 281A keenly demonstrates how, and why, NRS 281A.400(7) is unconstitutionally
18 overbroad and unconstitutional as-applied to Sheriff Antinoro under the circumstances at issue.
19 Further still, this comment misrepresents the stipulated facts at issue in this case. It is 20 uncontroverted that Sheriff Antinoro sent the statement in question to one person, and one person
21 only, Ms. Fiori. In other words, the Executive Director has stipulated to the fact that the 22 statement in question was not widely distributed by Sheriff Antinoro. This Commission is not at 23 liberty to exercise its significant punitive authority against the Subject based upon the potential
24 abuse of Chapter 281A by some unknown and unnamed public official. To the contrary, this 25 Commission must, in accordance with the stipulated facts, determine whether the actions of 26 Sheriff Antinoro taken on May 27, 2016, constituted the use of governmental time, property, 27
28

1 equipment or other facility to benefit a significant personal or pecuniary interest of the public
2 officer such that it created the appearance of impropriety. See, NRS 281A.400(7).

3 Perhaps recognizing that the facts presented in this matter do not, by a preponderance of 4 the evidence or otherwise, make out such a violation, the Executive Director focuses not on the 5 conduct of Sheriff Antinoro at issue, but on the use by Ms. Fiori of the statement on social media
6 and on the future perceived abuse by others should the Commission not find in her favor.
8 Indeed, the Executive Director warns that a contrary decision “will erode the Legislature’s
9 directive for an appropriate separation between the roles of persons who are both public servants
10 and private citizens.”

12 This Commission is tasked with determining whether the actions of Sheriff Antinoro as 13 set forth in the Stipulated Facts constitute a violation of NRS 281A.400(7) by a preponderance of 14 the evidence. See, NRS 281A.480(9). The Executive Director’s invitation to the Commission
15 that he go well beyond the stipulated facts and concern itself with more egregious facts as related 16 to potential future abuses of Chapter 281A does not comport with the authority given to this 17 Commission by the Legislature and such a result would be grossly unfair to the Subject of this 18 action.

20 II

21 LEGAL ANALYSIS

22 I. The Executive Director misconstrues Sheriff Antinoro’s argument as to why and 23 how there is no violation of NRS 281A.400(7) in this matter.

24 A. The statement does not constitute the use of “governmental time, property, 25 equipment or other facility in violation of NRS 281A.400.

26 In her opposition/reply, the Executive Director suggests that Sheriff Antinoro has asked
27 the Commission to grant summary judgment in his favor merely because the statement at issue
28 here was “digital” and was not reproduced on a physical piece of paper. While the fact that

1 Sheriff Antinoro did not even use governmental resources in the form of a sheet of paper is 2 certainly relevant, he did not ask the Commission to make an exception for any and all digital
3 communications. Again citing In re Hammargren, Comm'n Op. No. 95-35A (1996), as well as 4 several similar opinions, the Executive Director argues that Sheriff Antinoro violated NRS
5 281A.400(7) solely based upon his use of a template for his statement which bears the logo of 6 the Storey County Sheriff's Office.

8 At no point has Sheriff Antinoro argued that the mere fact that his statement was "digital"
9 renders NRS 281A.400(7) inapplicable. Rather, Sheriff Antinoro demonstrated that the conduct 10 at issue in this case is fundamentally different than that involved in the opinions relied upon by 11 the Executive Director.
12

13 In Hammargren, the Commission easily concluded that the then Lieutenant Governor's 14 letter to all Nevada licensed physicians on the official state letterhead of his office on a topic
15 about which Hammargren had expressed a personal (and pecuniary) interest before the Assembly
16 Judiciary Committee violated state ethics laws.<sup>1</sup> Hammargren's letter was written on the official
17 letterhead of his office, bore the address of his offices in both Carson City and Las Vegas,
18 identified him as the Lieutenant Governor and president of the senate and was signed by "LT
19 GOVERNOR LONNIE HAMMARGREN." Hammargren, supra. at p. 2/5.

21 At no point in his opposition and cross-motion did Sheriff Antinoro ever suggest that, had 22 Hammargren's letter been in "digital" form, it would not have violated NRS 281A.400(7).
23 Rather, Sheriff Antinoro demonstrated the significant differences between the circumstances at 24 bar and conduct which has previously been found unlawful by the Commission. The statement
25 in question, while bearing the Sheriff's title and depicting a logo of the Storey County Sheriff's 26 Office, was signed as "Gerald Antinoro," not as Gerald Antinoro, "Storey County Sheriff." The
28

<sup>1</sup>Hammargren was a licensed neurosurgeon and the subject of his letter was his advocacy of Assembly Bill 520 which called for sweeping changes to Nevada's medical malpractice statutes. At the time of the events in that case, Hammargren was actually involved in an ongoing medical malpractice case.

1 statement does not contain the address or telephone number of the Sheriff's Office. The 2 statement in question is simply not akin to that at issue in Hammargren.

3 Nor does the Commission's opinion in In re Tiffany, Comm'n Op. No. 05-21 (2005), also 4 cited by the Executive Director, support her opinion. In that case, a sitting state senator, Sandra 5 Tiffany, had several conversations with an official with the State of Pennsylvania's Bureau of 6 Unclaimed Property in her official capacity during which she promoted her personal business, an 7 online auction service. While the Commission referenced the fact that Tiffany followed up her
8 calls with a letter on her official letterhead, it noted with significance that one of the intended
9 purposes of the letter was to promote Tiffany as the owner of her private business, thereby 10 creating an appearance of impropriety. Such is not the case here.

12
13 Simply put, Sheriff Antinoro has not argued to the Commission that his actions in 14 emailing the statement, rather than printing it out and mailing it to Ms. Fiori, renders his actions
15 lawful under Chapter 281A. Rather, Sheriff Antinoro has demonstrated, based on prior decisions
16 of the Commission, that the statement in question does not violate NRS 281A.400(7).

18 B. Sheriff Antinoro's actions were not undertaken to benefit a "significant personal or 19 pecuniary interest" within the meaning of NRS 281A.400(7).

20 The Executive Director has also misconstrued Sheriff Antinoro's argument which 21 addresses that part of the statute which requires the Executive Director to prove, by a 22 preponderance of the evidence, that his actions were taken to benefit a "significant personal 23 interest" and she does so with reference to the First Amendment. Specifically, the Executive 24 Director suggests that Sheriff Antinoro must have had a significant personal interest in the 25 endorsement letter at issue because he has argued that NRS 281A.400(7) violates core First 26 Amendment rights. This argument completely misstates the issue.

27
28 One of the elements which the Executive Director must prove in this case is that Sheriff
Antinoro's use of governmental time, property, equipment or other facility was done to benefit a

1 significant personal interest. See, NRS 281A.400(7). The Executive Director has provided no
2 evidence on this element but has, instead, asked the Commission to assume that Sheriff Antinoro
3 had some significant personal interest in the election of Ms. Fiori. This evidence does not exist
4 and NRS 281A.400(7) does not permit the Commission to assume it.

6 Reference back to the Commission's decision in Hammargren and Tiffany is illustrative
7 of this point. In Hammargren, the then Lieutenant Governor testified before the Judiciary
8 Committee on the subject of AB 520. During his testimony, Hammargren declared that he was 9 "emotionally involved" with the issues associated with AB 520 and commented that he was,
10 "mad as Hell and was not going to take it anymore." Hammargren, supra. at p. 2/5. He gave 11 further testimony about his own medical malpractice insurance premiums at a time when he was 12 a defendant in a pending malpractice case. Id. In Tiffany, the Subject was found to have used 13 Nevada State Senate letterhead to promote herself as the owner of her own private business. In 14 re Tiffany, supra. at p. 3.

16 While Sheriff Antinoro does not suggest that a public officer's motives must be so 17 blatantly on display as they were in Hammargren, the existence of a significant personal
18 interest simply cannot be glossed over or assumed by the Commission. All the evidence in this 19 case demonstrates is that Ms. Fiori called Sheriff Antinoro and requested his endorsement. The 20 burden of proof rests with the Executive Director on this issue and there is nothing contained 21 within the stipulated facts which even addresses it.

24 As to this issue of "significant personal interest," the Executive Director's citation to, and 25 reliance on, the Commission's opinion in In re: Matson, Comm'n Op. No. 14-70C, is puzzling
26 but exemplifies how and why there is no such evidence in this case. The Matson case involved 27 the actions of then Nye County Assessor Shirley Matson towards numerous individuals in and 28 after January of 2014, when one of her subordinates, Sheree Stringer, informed her that she was

1 going to run against her for County Assessor. Id. at p. 14. Thereafter, “tensions increased”
2 between Matson and Stringer. In March or April of 2014, Stringer admitted that she had placed
3 a hidden camera in Matson’s office. Id. Matson discovered the camera in mid-August of 2014.
4 Id. at p. 4. Later in August, Matson reported the hidden camera to Detective Joseph McGill. Id.
5 Detective McGill’s wife, Tammy, worked part-time in the Assessor’s Office, and Matson was 6 aware of their relationship. Id. at p. 5. At the completion of Detective McGill’s investigation,
7 the Nye County District Attorney’s Office decided against the filing of any criminal charges
8 against Stringer, and Matson was advised of this fact by Detective McGill in September of 2014.
9 Id. As Detective McGill was leaving the Assessor’s office, Matson called Stringer into her
10 office and advised her she was going to be terminated. Id. An hour later, Matson terminated 11 Tammy McGill. Id.

14 In addition to the above, the Commission found that Matson, in violation of applicable
15 regulations, ordered out-of-cycle appraisals on property owned by a number of Nye County
16 officials, including those who had signed a petition to recall Matson in 2010. Id. at p. 6.

18 Ultimately, and not surprisingly, this Commission concluded that Matson had committed 19 several willful violations of Chapter 281A. In so doing, the Commission found ample evidence
20 of documented tensions between Matson and the officials whose property she had ordered be re-
21 appraised in violation of regulations. Id. The Commission further found ample evidence that 22 Matson had used her position to intimidate and harass her subordinates in a personnel context
23 while in the midst of a campaign. Id. The Commission noted that Matson’s conduct implicated
24 the “very underpinnings of the Ethics Law within the context of employment and personnel 25 issues” and found that she had engaged in a series of activities motivated by her bid for re-
26 election and personal retaliation. Id. at p. 10.

1 At page 6 of her opposition/reply, the Executive Director, citing to Matson, states the 2 following: “[i]f the Commission found that a public officer’s personal animus towards co-
3 workers is the type of ‘significant personal interest’ contemplated by NRS 281A.400(7), the 4 Commission logically must conclude that Antinoro’s endorsement of a political candidate is also 5 a significant personal interest within the meaning of NRS 281A.400(7).” See, Opposition/Reply,
6 p. 6, lines 15-19. With all due respect to the Executive Director, this statement, and her reliance
7 on Matson on this point is puzzling as the conduct at issue in that case could not be more
8 diametrically opposed from that set forth in the stipulated facts in the case at bar. Matson
9 terminated her political rival after being informed that the District Attorney’s Office would not 10 prosecute her for placing a camera in her office. She then terminated the wife of the police 11 detective who delivered her the bad news. Not to be outdone, she also ordered re-appraisals to 12 be performed, in violation of regulations, on property owned by public officials who had signed 13 a recall petition against her. Under such circumstances, the Commission had little trouble with 14 the “significant personal interest” requirement of NRS 281A.400(7).
15
17

18 Again, while Sheriff Antinoro does not suggest that conduct must be so blatant to rise to 19 the level of significant personal interest, here, the record is totally devoid of such evidence.<sup>2</sup> As 20 such, the Executive Director’s motion fails and judgment must be entered in favor of Sheriff
21 Antinoro as a matter of law before consideration is even given to the exceptions set forth at NRS 22 281A.400(7)(a)(1) through (4).
23

24 C. Sheriff Antinoro’s actions do not create the appearance of impropriety and are not 25 in violation of NRS 281A.400(7).

26 Although the stipulated facts in this case do not support a conclusion that Sheriff 27 Antinoro used governmental resources to benefit a significant personal interest in violation of 28

<sup>2</sup> At all times during the pendency of RFO 16-54C, Sheriff Antinoro has cooperated with the Commission. He appeared for an interview with Commission counsel and its investigator and answered all questions posed to him.

1 NRS 281A.400(7), application of the exceptions set forth in NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(1) through (4)
2 provides further justification for an order granting summary judgment in his favor.

3 The Executive Director has admitted that Sheriff Antinoro's actions did not interfere with 4 the performance of his public duties and that the cost or value related to the use was nominal.
5 Thus, the requirements of NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(2) and (3) are not at issue.

7 First, as to NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(1), the policy of the Storey County Sheriff's Office does
8 permit exceptions to be made to the general rule that employees are restricted from endorsing a 9 political campaign or initiative. See, Exhibit 5 to Subject's opposition and cross-motion for 10 summary judgment. While the Executive Director is quick to note that the policy authorizes the 11 Sheriff to make such exceptions, the policy in question goes well further and sets forth a list of 12 considerations to be undertaken by the Sheriff, or authorized designee of the Sheriff, in making 13 such exceptions, including: (a) whether the speech or conduct would negatively affect the 14 efficiency of delivering public services; (b) whether the speech or conduct would be contrary to 15 the good order of the Office or the efficiency or morale of its members; (c) whether the speech or 16 conduct would reflect unfavorably upon the office; (d) whether the speech or conduct would 17 negatively affect the member's appearance of impartiality in the performance of his/her duties;
18 (e) whether similar speech or conduct has been previously authorized; and (f) whether the speech
19 or conduct may be protected and outweighs any interest of the Office. Id. at p. 5, Section
20 1060.60, Storey County Sheriff's Office Policy Manual. Based on the uncontroverted evidence, 21 the requirements of NRS 281A.400(7)(a)(1) are met.

24
25 Second, the evidence presented by Sheriff Antinoro demonstrates that there was no
26 appearance of impropriety with respect to the statement at issue. Remarkably, in her opposition 27 and reply, the Executive Director suggests that the Hatch Act, and opinions and decisions which 28 relate to same, are irrelevant to this proceeding. She does so despite the fact that this

1 Commission relied upon the Hatch Act in the Kirkland matter as the very justification for placing 2 limitations on Richard Kirkland's First Amendment rights. Here, although Storey County has 3 not adopted what are routinely referred to as "little Hatch Acts," the Storey County Sheriff's 4 Office policy discussed in the Stipulated Facts is such a policy. While Sheriff Antinoro did not 5 argue that decisions of the U.S. Office of Special Counsel are binding on this Commission, the 6 suggestion that they are irrelevant is misguided.

8 One need look no further than this Commission's decision in Kirkland to apprehend the 9 importance of the Hatch Act and decisions and opinions interpreting same to the analysis of the 10 issues in the matter at bar. At issue in Kirkland were the actions of former Sheriff Kirkland in 11 endorsing Justice James Hardesty during his campaign for the Nevada Supreme Court. The 12 Commission outlined the question in Kirkland as whether Sheriff Kirkland's use of "any or all of 13 his position, title, badge, uniform, facilities, deputies, or other accouterments in political 14 advertisements endorsing the candidates of individuals might violate either NRS 281.481(2) or 15 (7). In re Kirkland, Comm'n Op. No. 98-41 p. 2/5. The Commission further noted that, in order 16 to decide this question, a "careful analysis of the Ethics in Government Law, the federal 17 Constitution, federal statutes, case law, and the WCC" was necessary. Id. The Washoe County
18 Code section at issue was WCC §5.341, also described by the Commission as Washoe County's 19 version of a "little Hatch Act." Id. The language of WCC §5.341 is similar to that set forth in 20 Storey County Sheriff's Office Policy No. 1060.

23
24 At the outset of its analysis of the issues in Kirkland, the Commission recognized the 25 importance of political speech as protected by the First Amendment of the United States
26 Constitution. Id. The Commission then noted, however, that First Amendment limitations on 27 the speech of government employees is permitted under the Hatch Act. Id. Specifically, the 28 Commission noted the following:

1 “Many states, counties, and municipalities have adopted ‘little Hatch Acts’ that similarly
2 seek to prohibit or limit the political activities of their employees. These ‘little Hatch
3 Acts’ have been upheld under a variety of constitutional challenges.”

3 Id.

4 Thus, despite the Executive Director’s suggestion to the contrary, the Hatch Act and 5 opinions interpreting same are far from irrelevant here.

7 The facts at issue in Kirkland were fully discussed in Sheriff Antinoro’s opposition and 8 cross-motion for summary judgment and will not be described at length herein. However, it is 9 indisputable that the scope of Sheriff Kirkland’s conduct in appearing in television
10 advertisements went far beyond the conduct at issue herein. Ultimately, the Commission found 11 that, if government itself cannot endorse candidacies, then its elected officials could not create 12 the impression of government sanction by doing so. Id. at p. 4/5. In so finding, the Commission
13 noted that it was for this reason that the Hatch Act and little Hatch Acts prohibit or limit certain 14 political activities of government actors. Id.

15
16 The Commission would go on to hold that a public officer will not create an appearance
17 of impropriety under the precursor to NRS 281A.400(7) by endorsing a person’s candidacy if he 18 or she uses his or her name and official title in an advertisement but that he or she would do so if,
19 in the course of endorsing a person’s candidacy, he or she uses the physical accouterments of 20 office to bolster the endorsement. Id. “So, for example, a public officer should not use his 21 uniform, badge, employees, private office, or other non-public facilities for the purposes of 22 making an endorsement advertisement.” Id. The Commission described the use by Sheriff
23 Kirkland of his “uniform and badge” as the “critical difference.” Id. Sheriff Antinoro did none 24 of these things with respect to the statement at issue. The Commission decided Kirkland in 25 1999.
26
27
28

1           The U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC) is responsible for interpreting the Hatch Act
2 and is the entity authorized to issue advisory opinions and investigate violations of the Hatch
3 Act. See, 5 U.S.C. §1216(a)(2). While perhaps not binding authority on the Commission, the 4 interpretation of the Hatch Act and its limitations on the speech of elected officials by the agency
5 tasked with interpreting it is certainly not irrelevant.

7           On February 29, 2012, the OSC issued a response to a request for an advisory opinion on
8 the issue of whether an incumbent sheriff may wear his uniform to political events such as
9 rallies, fundraisers, and campaign booths or in printed and/or electronic campaign materials.
10 See, Exhibit "C" to opposition and cross-motion for summary judgment. In its opinion, the OSC
11 began by noting that it had recently reevaluated issues associated with participation by elected
12 officials in such conduct as it relates to the Hatch Act. Id. at p. 1. Specifically, the OSC stated 13 that elected officials such as a sitting sheriff would not violate the Hatch Act by wearing their 14 uniforms or using their titles while campaigning for reelection. Id. The OSC extended this 15 reasoning to the actions of an elected sheriff while participating in campaign activities on behalf
16 of other candidates running for office. Specifically, the OCS stated that an elected official who 17 used his title when endorsing a partisan candidate and/or wore his or her uniform while 18 campaigning for another candidate would not be in violation of the Hatch Act. Id. at p. 2.

20
21           In her opposition /reply, the Executive Director attempts to distinguish the OSC's opinion 22 on a very similar subject by suggesting that it was limited to the question of whether an 23 incumbent sheriff violates the Hatch Act by wearing his uniform to political events. See,
24 Executive Director's opposition and reply, p. 7, lines 23-24. This argument lends a far too
25 narrow reading of that decision and the OSC extended its rationale concerning the rights of 26 incumbent sheriffs' to participate in the political process not only to in-person campaign events,
27 but to campaign advertisements, and political correspondence.
28

1 While the Commission is not bound to follow an advisory opinion of the OSC, when
2 dealing with the issue of core political speech, it would certainly be appropriate to consider
3 changing views of the permissible scope of the Hatch Act and, in turn, “little Hatch Acts”
4 modeled after federal law.

5 Given all of the foregoing and, most notably, this Commission’s prior opinions, the 6 Executive Director simply cannot demonstrate, by a preponderance of the evidence or otherwise,
7 that the actions of Sheriff Antinoro in emailing the three paragraph statement to Ms. Fiori, a 8 candidate running for office in Clark County, created the appearance of impropriety. Certainly,
9 the evidence does not suggest that the statement in question in any way created an appearance
10 that the Storey County Sheriff’s Office or Storey County endorsed Ms. Fiori. In fact, the 11 Executive Director acknowledged as much in her opposition/reply when she argued that Sheriff
12 Antinoro’s “use of a government resource for a political endorsement created an impropriety
13 because it may indicate to the public that Fiore is endorsed by the entire Storey County Sheriff’s 14 Office, not just Antinoro.” See, Executive Director’s opposition and reply, p. 3, lines 3-6.
15
16
17
18 (Emphasis added).

19 That an action may violate NRS 281A.400(7) is insufficient, as a matter of law, and the 20 Commission must grant summary judgment in favor of Sheriff Antinoro in this matter.

21 II. NRS 281A.400(7) is Unconstitutional

22 The First Amendment of the United States Constitution provides that Congress “shall 23 make no law . . . abridging the freedom of speech” and this prohibition is applicable to the states
24 by virtue of the Fourteenth Amendment.<sup>3</sup> See, Williams-Yulee v. Fla. Bar, 135 S. Ct. 1656, 1658
25 (2015). The United States Supreme Court has repeatedly held that, “[t]he First Amendment has 26 its fullest and most urgent application to speech uttered during a campaign for political office.”
27
28

---

1 Citizens United v. FEC, 558 U.S. 310, 339-40 (2009). “As we have long recognized, speech
2 about public issues and the qualifications of candidates for elected office commands the highest
3 level of First Amendment protection.” See, Eu v. San Francisco County Democratic Cent.
4 Comm., 489 U.S. 214, 282 (1989). The Courts have cautioned that this principle requires them
5 to “err on the side of protecting political speech rather than suppressing it.” FEC v. Wis. Right to
6 Life, Inc., 551 U.S. 449, 457 (2007). The United States Supreme Court has further held that an
7 “exacting scrutiny” must be applied to laws restricting such speech. Williams-Yulee, supra. at 8 1664. As such, in order for NRS 281A.400(7) to be used in such a way as to prohibit the
9 political speech at issue, it must be shown that the statute is narrowly tailored to serve a
10 compelling government interest. Id. at 1665. While the United States Supreme Court has held
11 that the government has an interest in regulating the conduct and speech of its employees, in this 12 case, that interest is outweighed by the wholesale infringement on the First Amendment rights of 13 the Subject.

15
16 A. NRS 281A.400(7) is Unconstitutionally Vague

17 Chapter 281A does not contain any language prohibiting a public official from exercising 18 his or her First Amendment right to free speech. Thus, the Executive Director asks the 19 Commission to impose a tremendous burden on core First Amendment rights by application of 20 NRS 281A.400(7). In her opposition/reply, the Executive Director, citing to the Nevada
21 Supreme Court’s decision in Carrigan v. Nev. Comm’n on Ethics, suggests that the Commission
22 need not give much credence to Sheriff Antinoro’s constitutional arguments in this matter
23 because this case involves an ethics law, versus a criminal one. This commentary ignores the 24 tremendous punitive power enjoyed by the Commission when it comes to its oversight of public
25 officials. NRS 281A.480(1)(a) authorizes the Commission to impose on a public officer or 26
27
28

1 employee, or former public officer or employee, civil penalties of up to $5,000.00 for a first
2 willful violation of Chapter 281A.

3 Further, and significantly, NRS 281A.480(4)(c) provides as follows:

4 “One or more willful violations of this chapter have been committed by a public officer
5 other than a public officer described in paragraphs (a) and (b), the willful violations shall 6 be deemed malfeasance in office for the purpose of NRS 283.440 and the Commission:

7 (1) May file a complaint in the appropriate court for removal of the public officer
8 pursuant to NRS 283.440 when the public officer is found in the opinion to have 9 committed fewer than three willful violations of this chapter.

10 (2) Shall file a complaint in the appropriate court for removal of the public officer
11 pursuant to NRS 283.440 when the public officer is found in the opinion to have 12 committed three or more willful violations of this chapter.”

13 (Emphasis added).

14 Thus, while Chapter 281A is “civil” in nature, this Commission wields enormous power 15 over those subject to it, including the power to seek the removal of the public official from 16 office.

17 The vagueness doctrine requires legislatures to set reasonably clear guidelines for 18 enforcement officials in order to prevent arbitrary and discriminatory enforcement of the law.
19 See, Smith v. Goguen, 415 U.S. 566, 572-73 (1974). A vague statute is one which operates to 20 hinder free speech through the use of language so vague as to allow the inclusion of protected
21 speech in its prohibition or to leave the individual with no clear guidance as to the nature of the 22 acts which are subject to punishment. “Where First Amendment rights are involved, an even 23 greater degree of specificity is required.” Id. at 573. As discussed in Sheriff Antinoro’s
24 opposition and cross-motion for summary judgment, nowhere in Chapter 281A are the terms
25 “significant” or “personal” defined, nor is there guidance in the statute in terms of a definition
26 for “appearance of impropriety.” See, NRS 281A.400(7) and Chapter 281A generally.
28

1 In her opposition/reply, the Executive Director cites to the Third Edition of the American
2 Heritage College Dictionary and suggests that its definitions of these terms provides sufficient
3 guidance to those covered by Chapter 281A to resolve any vagueness issue. However,
4 substituting synonyms such as “meaningful” and “important” does nothing to place a Subject
5 such as Sheriff Antinoro on notice that his conduct was unlawful nor do they offer any protection
6 against arbitrary and discriminatory application of NRS 281A.400(7). The same is true of the 7 dictionary definition of “personal” as cited by the Executive Director in her moving papers.

9 The United States District Court has previously found that the terms “false,” “deceptive,” 10 “misleading,” and “bad faith” as set forth within Nevada’s Ethics laws were so vague as to 11 render NRS 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(2) unconstitutional in violation of the First Amendment.
12 See, Dehne v. Avaino, 219 F. Supp.2d 1096, 1102 (D. Nev. 2001). In her Report and 13 Recommendation which was adopted on this issue by Judge David Hagen, United States
14 Magistrate Judge Valerie Cooke pointed out that the terms described above were not clearly 15 drawn and, that, “[i]f the Legislature wishes to trod on First Amendment ground and regulate 16 speech, it must do so with the utmost specificity and clarity.” See, Exhibit “D,” Report and 17 Recommendation of U.S. Magistrate Judge, August 6, 2001. The terms “significant personal 18 interest” and “appearance of impropriety” are equally as vague as those discussed by the Court in 19 Dehne. As such, NRS 281A.400(7) does not pass constitutional muster.
20

22 The Executive Director goes on to suggest that the vagueness problem incumbent in NRS
23 281A.400(7) may be solved by reference to prior opinions of the Commission. Respectfully, the 24 prior opinions of the Commission do not make clear that the conduct of Sheriff Antinoro would 25 be in violation of the statute at issue. In fact, the Executive Director appears to recognize that 26 such is the case when she invites the Commission to “restate and clarify the ethical boundaries
27
28

1 applicable to the use of government letterhead for personal purposes. See, Executive Director's
2 opposition and reply, p. 12, lines 23-25. (Emphasis added).

3 B. NRS 281A.400(7) is unconstitutional as applied.

4 Further, the use of NRS 281A.400(7) to punish the conduct at issue in this case is
5 unconstitutional and in violation of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution as
6 applied to Sheriff Antinoro. While the government may regulate speech of public employees to
7 a greater extent than that of citizens at large, in this case, punishment of the core political speech
8 of the Subject under the circumstances goes much too far. Sheriff Antinoro's three paragraph
9 endorsement of Michele Fiore is unquestionably core political speech entitled to the highest level
10 of First Amendment protection. See, Eu, supra. at 282. The endorsement goes no further than to 11 identify the Subject as the Sheriff of Storey County, an action which is permissible even under 12 the prior decisions of this Commission. The fact that the endorsement was typed on letterhead
13 bearing the logo of the Storey County Sheriff's Office cannot be used by the Commission as a
14 means of punishing Sheriff Antinoro's core First Amendment right to engage in speech on 15 political issues and matters of public concern. To punish the conduct at issue here would be in 16 gross violation of the First Amendment.
17
18
19

20 C. NRS 281A.400(7) is unconstitutionally overbroad.

21 NRS 281A.400(7) is further unconstitutional here under the overbreadth doctrine. A 22 statute is overbroad when its language, given its normal meaning, is so sweeping that its 23 sanctions may be applied to constitutionally protected conduct which the state is not permitted to 24 regulate. See, Dehne v. Avaino, 219 F. Supp.2d 1096, 1102 (D. Nev. 2001). As the courts have 25 recognized, the threat to free expression created by overbroad statutes is that, by potentially 26 sweeping in constitutionally protected activity, individuals and groups may self-censor out of 27
28

1 fear of vindictive or selective protection. See, Bates v. State Bar of Arizona, 433 U.S. 350, 380
2 (1977).

3 That NRS 281A.400(7) is constitutionally overbroad is apparent from even a cursory
4 reading of the Executive Director's opposition and reply. Far from demonstrating that Sheriff
5 Antinoro's conduct in this case was in violation of NRS 281A.400(7), the Executive Director
6 points to the potential evils which would result from a finding in favor of the Subject based upon
7 future conduct of other persons. The Executive Director suggests that, if the Commission does 8 not find in her favor, it would allow the official letterhead of all public officers to be digitally
9 reproduced and widely distributed electronically. See, Executive Director's opposition/reply, p.
10 2, lines 14-16. She further argues that, "[w]ithout a clear line drawn with respect to this conduct,
11 the Commission opens the door to a multitude of other limited uses of government resources for 12 political purposes, particularly uses that involve government email and other electronic 13 medium." Id. a p. 8, lines 19-22 and p. 9, lines 1-2.

14 Thus, the Executive Director asks the Commission not to focus on the conduct of the 15 Subject in this case, but to render a decision to avoid purported future abuses by other public
16 officials. There can be no clearer evidence that NRS 281A.400(7) is unconstitutionally
17 overbroad in that the constitutionally protected activity of Sheriff Antinoro is being swept up in 18 conduct which the Commission may regulate depending upon the circumstances. Such a result is 19 not permissible under the First Amendment of the United States Constitution.
20
22

23 IV

24 CONCLUSION

25 Based upon all of the foregoing, it is clear that (1) Sheriff Antinoro's actions were not in 26 violation of NRS 281A.400(7) and (2) any attempt to apply NRS 281A.400(7) to the conduct at 27 issue would violate the First Amendment of the United States Constitution. Certainly, there is 28

1 insufficient evidence for the Commission to conclude that the actions at issue constitute a willful
2 violation of NRS 281A.400(7). In that regard, there is one, single violation before the 3 Commission in this case, the costs of the investigation are nominal (the only interview of which 4 the undersigned is aware is that of the Subject), the parties agreed to brief the legal issues
5 presented in this matter to the Commission, thereby avoiding any costs associated with a hearing,
6 Sheriff Antinoro has cooperated fully with the investigation, the Executive Director concluded
7 that there was no financial gain associated with the actions at issue, and there are no affected
8 parties to whom restitution would be made. See, NRS 281A.475.

10 Based on all of the following, Sheriff Antinoro respectfully requests that the Executive
11 Director's motion for summary judgment be denied. Further, Sheriff Antinoro submits that the 12 undisputed facts in this matter, when weighed under the preponderance of the evidence standard,
13 compel the issuance of an order granting judgment in his favor as a matter of law.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

SAM DEHNE, et al.,

Plaintiff(s), vs.

SKIP AVANINO, et al.,

Defendant(s).

CV-N-99-0642-DWH (VPC)

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
OF U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE

This Report and Recommendation is made to the Honorable David W. Hagen, United States District Judge. The action was referred to the undersigned Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and the Local Rules of Practice, LR IB 1-4. Before the court is defendants' motion for judgment on the pleadings or, in the alternative, motion for summary judgment (#36) ("defendants' motion for summary judgment"). Plaintiffs filed papers in opposition (#38) and filed a counter-motion for partial summary judgment (#39) ("plaintiffs' cross-motion for summary judgment").<sup>1</sup> Defendants replied in support of their motion (#40) and filed an opposition to plaintiffs' cross-motion for partial summary judgment (#41). Plaintiffs replied in support of their cross-motion for partial summary judgment (#44). The court reviewed the submissions and held oral argument on May 23, 2001. For the reasons stated below, the undersigned magistrate judge recommends that the District Court rule that plaintiffs are entitled to summary judgment, and that the defendants are not entitled to summary judgment or judgment on the pleadings.

<sup>1</sup>Although the title of plaintiffs' motion is styled as one for partial summary judgment, the text of the motion and reply states that plaintiffs seek summary judgment, not partial summary judgment. Therefore, the court construes plaintiffs' motion (#39) as one for full summary judgment.

1 Nevada Revised Statutes § 281.551(2)(a) states:

2 2. In addition to other penalties provided by law, the commission may 3 impose a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000 and assess an amount equal 4 to the amount of attorney's fees and costs actually and reasonably incurred by the person about whom an opinion was requested pursuant to NRS 281.511, against a person who:

5 (a) Submits to the commission, in bad faith or with a 6 vexatious purpose, an accusation or information that is false; . . .

7 Plaintiffs' complaint (#1) originally consisted of five counts; however, on August 29, 2000, the 8 District Court entered an order (#25) granting in part the Commission's motion to dismiss counts three 9 through five. The Court denied defendants' motion as to counts one and two to the extent they requested
10 declaratory and prospective injunctive relief, since the Commission may apply N.R.S. §§ 281.511 and 11 281.525 in the future.<sup>2</sup>

12 In their first claim for relief, plaintiffs seek an order from the court declaring N.R.S. §§ 281.525(2)
13 and 281.551(2)(a) unconstitutional and for injunctive relief because they violate the First Amendment
14 of the United States Constitution. Plaintiffs challenge these statutes as facially unconstitutional and 15 overbroad in that they prohibit speech on matters of public concern, namely the alleged misconduct of 16 public officials. In the second claim for relief, plaintiffs contend that these statutes are facially
17 unconstitutional and infringe on fundamental Fourteenth Amendment rights because they provide no
18 notice or opportunity to be heard before the Commission may impose a fine of up to $5,000.00 against 19 citizens who are found in violation of N.R.S. § 281.525(1), as the Commission did against plaintiff Dehne.
20 Plaintiffs seek an order declaring N.R.S. §§ 281.525(1) and 281.551(2) unconstitutional and for 21 permanent injunctive relief.

22 II. Analysis

23 A. Summary Judgment Standard

24 Summary judgment "shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to 25 interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine 26

27 <sup>2</sup> The Court granted the Commission's motion in part as to counts one and two only to the extent 28 plaintiffs sought an order from the Court striking the fine imposed against plaintiff by the Commission.

1 issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Fed.
2 R. Civ. P. 56(c). The burden of demonstrating the absence of a genuine issue of material fact lies with
3 the moving party. See Zoslaw v. MCA Distr. Corp., 693 F.2d 870, 883 (9th Cir. 1982), cert. denied, 460
4 U.S. 1085 (1983). For this purpose, the material lodged by the moving party must be viewed in the light
5 most favorable to the nonmoving party. See Adickes v. S.H. Kress and Co., 398 U.S. 144, 157 (1970);
6 Baker v. Centennial Ins. Co., 970 F.2d 660, 662 (9th Cir. 1992). A material issue of fact is one that affects 7 the outcome of the litigation and requires a trial to resolve the differing versions of the truth. See S.E.C.
8 v. Seaboard Corp., 667 F.2d 1301, 1306 (9th Cir. 1982).

9 Once the moving party presents evidence that would call for judgment as a matter of law at trial
10 if left uncontroverted, the respondent must show by specific facts the existence of a genuine issue for trial.
11 See Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 250 (1986).

12 [T]here is no genuine issue of fact for trial unless there is sufficient 13 evidence favoring the nonmoving party for a jury to return a verdict for 14 the party. If the evidence is merely colorable, or is not significantly 15 probative, summary judgment may be granted.

16 Id. at 249-50 (citations omitted). "A mere scintilla of evidence will not do, for a jury is permitted to draw 17 only those inferences of which the evidence is reasonably susceptible; it may not resort to speculation."
18 British Airways Board v. Boeing Co., 585 F.2d 946, 952 (9th Cir. 1978), cert. denied, 440 U.S. 981 (1979).
19 Moreover, if the factual context makes the nonmoving party's claim implausible, that party must come
20 forward with more persuasive evidence than otherwise would be necessary to show there is a genuine issue
21 for trial. See Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co., Ltd. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 587 (1986); California
22 Architectural Bldg. Products v. Franciscan Ceramics, Inc., 818 F.2d 1466, 1468 (9th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 23 484 U.S. 1006 (1988).

24 The parties agree that the only issues for the court's consideration are whether N.R.S. §§
25 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(a) facially violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments. See Plaintiffs' cross-26 motion for summary judgment at p. 4 (#39); defendants' opposition to plaintiff's cross-motion for 27 summary judgment at p. 2 (#41). Therefore, any issue of fact as to the nature of plaintiffs' particular 28

1 activities is immaterial and is not an obstacle to the granting of summary judgment. See, e.g., Village of
2 Schaumburg v. Citizens for a Better Environment, 444 U.S. 620, 627 (1980).

3 B. Facial Challenge

4 Plaintiffs raise a facial challenge to these statutes, which regulate statements made to the 5 Commission about a public official for alleged ethical violations and which authorize the Commission
6 to impose monetary penalties against citizens who violate the statutes. "Although facial challenges to 7 legislation are generally disfavored, they have been permitted in the First Amendment context where 8 the licensing scheme vests unbridled discretion in the decisionmaker and where the regulation is 9 challenged as overbroad." FW/PBS, Inc. v. City of Dallas, 493 U.S. 215, 223 (1990) (citing City Council
10 of Los Angeles v. Taxpayers for Vincent, 466 U.S. 789, 798 and n. 15 (1984)). Litigants also have standing
11 in First Amendment overbreadth cases to "challenge a statute by showing that it substantially abridges 12 the First Amendment rights of other parties not before the court." Village of Schaumburg v. Citizens for 13 a Better Environment, 444 U.S. 620, 634 (1980), accord, Perry v. Los Angeles Police Dept., 121 F.3d 1365, 14 1368 (9th Cir. 1997), cert. denied, 523 U.S. 1047 (1998). This occurs "because of the possibility that 15 protected speech or associative activities may be inhibited by the overly broad reach of the statute."
16 Village of Schaumburg, 444 U.S. at 634. The court finds that plaintiffs' claims are grounded on the First
17 Amendment, and they may argue the impact of the statutes on their own expressive activities, as well 18 as those of others. Schad v. Borough of Mount Ephraim, 452 U.S. 61, 66 (1981). Thus, plaintiffs have 19 standing to bring a facial challenge to these statutes.

20 C. Level of Scrutiny

21 "The First Amendment generally prevents the government from proscribing speech . . . because 22 of disapproval of the ideas expressed." R.A.V. v. City of St. Paul, Minnesota, 505 U.S. 377, 382 (1992)
23 (citations omitted). Content-based laws are presumptively invalid. Id. (citing Simon & Schuster, Inc. v.
24 Members of N.Y. State Crime Victims Bd., 502 U.S. 105, 115 (1991)). Therefore, the initial inquiry must 25 be whether the statute regulating the speech is content-neutral; that is, whether the state can justify it
26 without reference either to the content of the speech it restricts or to the direct effect of that speech on 27

1 listeners. Ward v. Rock Against Racism, 491 U.S. 781, 791-92 (1989); see also Lind v. Grimmer, 30 F.3d
2 1115 (9th Cir. 1994), cert. denied, Wang v. Lind, 513 U.S. 1111 (1995).

3 The Commission is generally charged with oversight of the ethical conduct of public officials in 4 the State of Nevada. N.R.S. § 281.471. This includes reviewing and investigating requests for opinions
5 made by citizens to the Commission regarding allegations that a public official has breached the code of 6 ethical standards established by N.R.S. § 281.481. See generally N.R.S. §§ 281.465 and 281.511. The 7 purposes of N.R.S. §§ 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(a) are to "regulate against false statements of fact"
8 and to "prohibit [the making of] false statements in the context of petitioning the commission for redress
9 against a public official." Defendants' motion for summary judgment at p. 7, lines 14-15 (#36);
10 defendants' reply in support of motion for summary judgment at p. 5, lines 23-24 (#s 40-41).

11 In Lind v. Grimmer, 30 F.3d 1115 (9th Cir. 1994), cert. denied, Wang v. Lind, 513 U.S. 1111 (1995), 12 the court considered the content-neutrality of a Hawaii statute regulating speech concerning alleged 13 campaign spending violations in light of the purposes of the statute, which included preventing candidates 14 and their supporters from being "unduly tarred by a vindictive complaint," and "to prevent the 15 Commission's credibility from being invoked to support 'scandalous charges.'" Id. at 1117-18. The court 16 said:

17 Because these concerns all stem from the direct communicative impact 18 of speech, we conclude that section 11-216(d) regulates speech on the 19 basis of its content. Moreover, the speech it restricts, speech about 20 political processes and governmental investigations of wrongdoing by 21 public officials, falls near to the core of the First Amendment. See New 22 York Times v. Sullivan, 376 U.S. 254, 270-71, 84 S. Ct. 710, 720-21, 11
23 L.Ed.2d 686 (1964). Therefore, the statute is presumptively
24 unconstitutional. See R.A.V. v. City of St. Paul, 505 U.S. 377, ---, 112 S.Ct.
25 2538, 2542, 120 L.Ed.2d 305 (1992). It will survive scrutiny only if it is 26 narrowly drawn and is necessary to serve a compelling state interest, Boos
27 v. Barry, 485 U.S. 312, 321, 108 S.Ct. 1157, 1164, 99 L.Ed.2d 333 (1988), 28 or if the speech it regulates otherwise is undeserving of full protection, see, e.g., R.A.V., 505 U.S. at ---, 112 S.Ct. at 2543 (listing categories); Seattle
Times Co. v. Rhinehart, 467 U.S. 20, 104 S.Ct. 2199, 81 L.Ed.2d 17
(1984) (devaluing information acquired through civil discovery).

1 Id. at 1118. This court finds Lind v. Grimmer compelling. As with the Hawaii statute, the Nevada
2 statutes seek to regulate speech that is not content-neutral because the asserted purposes for these statutes
3 stem from the "direct communicative impact of speech." Id. These statutes are designed to prohibit
4 speech based upon its content and its effect upon listeners. Like the Hawaii statute, the Nevada statutes
5 regulate speech about allegations of wrongdoing of public officials, which, indeed, "falls near to the core
6 of the First Amendment." The court must now decide whether N.R.S. §§ 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(a)
7 are narrowly drawn and necessary to serve a compelling state interest, or whether the speech being 8 regulated is unprotected speech.

9 1. Whether the speech proscribed by N.R.S. §§ 281.525(1) and 10 281.551(2)(a) is protected under the First Amendment

11 The Commission contends that the speech these statutes regulate is not protected speech because 12 N.R.S. § 281.525(1) prohibits the making of false, deceptive, or misleading statements to induce the 13 Commission to take action against a public official, and N.R.S. § 281.551(2)(a) prohibits citizens from 14 submitting to the Commission "in bad faith or with a vexatious purpose, an accusation or information
15 that is false." Unlike truthful statements, false statements of fact do not enjoy First Amendment
16 protection, since "there is no constitutional value in false statements of fact." Gertz v. Robert Welsh, Inc., 17 418 U.S. 323, 340 (1974). However, although false statements may be deemed unprotected speech in 18 some instances, this general constitutional maxim does not apply to statements made about the conduct
19 of public officials. New York Times Co. v. Sullivan, 376 U.S. 254 (1964). In New York Times, the United 20 States Supreme Court held that even false statements made about public officials are protected unless 21 it can be shown that the statements were made "with 'actual malice' - that is, with knowledge that it was 22 false or with reckless disregard that it was false or not." Id. at 279-80.

23 The New York Times standard for criticism of public officials stems from "a profound national 24 commitment to the principle that debate on public issues should be uninhibited, robust, and wide-open,
25 and that it may well include vehement, caustic, and sometimes unpleasantly sharp attacks on government
26 and public officials." Id. at 270-71 (citations omitted). The Court analogized the conditional privilege 27 of criticism of official conduct with the protection afforded a public official when he or she is sued for 28

1 libel by a private citizen and noted that in Barr v. Mateo, 360 U.S. 564, 575 (1959), the Court held
2 statements of federal officials to be absolutely privileged if made within the scope of his or her duties.

3           The reason for the official privilege is said to be that the threat of damage
4 suits would otherwise 'inhibit the fearless, vigorous, and effective
5 administration of the policies of government' and 'dampen the ardor of all
6 but the most resolute, or the most irresponsible, in the unflinching
7 discharge of their duties.' Barr v. Mateo, supra, 360 U.S. at 571, 79 S.Ct.,
8 at 1339, 3 L.Ed.2d 1434. Analogous considerations support the privilege
9 for the citizen-critic of government. It is as much his duty to criticize as 10 it is the official's duty to administer....It would give public servants an 11 unjustified preference over the public they serve, if critics of official 12 conduct did not have a fair equivalent of the immunity granted to the 13 officials themselves. We conclude that such a privilege is required by the 14 First and Fourteenth Amendments.

15 New York Times Co. v. Sullivan, 376 U.S. 254 at 282-83 (citations omitted).

16           This court rejects the Commission's arguments that the New York Times standard does not apply
17 to these statutes, which plainly regulate citizens' speech about public officials. The Commission maintains 18 that the New York Times standard is limited only to cases in which a public official brings suit for 19 defamatory statements published by the media but offers no citation to authority in support of that 20 proposition. The Supreme Court has considered the application of the New York Times standard in a 21 variety of contexts, most particularly in Garrison v. Louisiana, 379 U.S. 64 (1964). In that case, the 22 question was whether Louisiana's criminal defamation statute unconstitutionally abridged the district
23 attorney's right to criticize state court judges at a press conference. Id. In finding the Louisiana statute
24 unconstitutional, the Court held that "only those false statements made with the high degree of awareness
25 of their probable falsity demanded by New York Times may be the subject of either civil or criminal 26 sanctions." Id. at 74.

27           In light of the Court's extension of the New York Times standard in Garrison v. Louisiana to 28 legislatively-created standards that restrict criticism of public officials, this court rejects the notion that the New York Times standard is limited solely to private defamation suits brought by a public official made or published in the media.

          This court also rejects the Commission's contention that McDonald v. Smith, 472 U.S. 479 (1985), and not New York Times Co. v. Sullivan, is the controlling authority in plaintiffs' challenge of these

1 statutes. The issue in McDonald v. Smith was whether the Petition Clause provides absolute immunity
2 to a defendant charged with expressing libelous and damaging falsehoods in petitions to government
3 officials. 472 U.S. 479 (1985). In holding that the Petition Clause does not provide such absolute
4 immunity, the Court said that "there is no sound basis for granting greater constitutional protection to 5 statements made in a petition to the President than other First Amendment expressions." Id. at 485.
6 Plaintiffs' challenge here does not rest on a claim that plaintiff Dehne, or any other citizen who lodges
7 a complaint with the Commission in the future, has absolute immunity to make false statements about 8 public officials pursuant to the Petition Clause; therefore, McDonald v. Smith does not control.

9 The Commission's argument that N.R.S. §§ 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(a) do not proscribe
10 protected speech is based upon a misconception of the effect of these statutes. A statute that regulates 11 speech critical of public officials and which implicitly requires the critic to guarantee the truth of every 12 factual assertion made to the Commission on pain of statutorily imposed civil liability (and potential 13 criminal liability) results in self-censorship and discourages public debate. These statutes are not content-
14 neutral laws of general applicability, but are, like the campaign spending statutes in Lind v. Grimmer, 15 "intended to impose direct and significant restrictions on speech." 30 F.3d 1115 at 1118. The underlying 16 principle of the New York Times standard is the protection of open public debate critical of official 17 conduct, and it applies with equal force when the legislative branch attempts to regulate citizens'
18 comments through a legislatively-created commission. This court finds that N.R.S. §§ 281.525(1) and 19 281.551(2)(a) regulate protected speech, and that the New York Times standard governs consideration
20 of the constitutionality of the statutes.

21 2. Whether N.R.S. §§ 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(a)
22 serve a compelling state interest

23 The Commission is charged with investigating and taking appropriate action against alleged 24 violations of Nevada's ethics in government laws by public officers or employees. Nevada's statutory 25 scheme creates a public forum for the investigation and review of ethics complaints, but also attempts
26 to protect public officials from complaints based upon false statements or those motivated by bad faith 27
28

1 or ill will. The statutes endeavor to strike a balance between these competing, legitimate interests, and
2 the court finds that the statutes serve a compelling state interest.

3 3. Whether N.R.S. §§ 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(a) are narrowly
4 drawn and comport with the New York Times standard

5 "Broad prophylactic rules in the area of free expression are suspect. Precision of regulation must 6 be the touchstone. . . ." Village of Schaumburg v. Citizens for a Better Environment, 444 U.S. 620, 637
7 (1980) (quoting NAACP v. Button, 371 U.S. 415, 438 (1963)). A statute may be deemed constitutionally 8 overbroad if a law is written so broadly that it inhibits protected speech. City Council of Los Angeles v.
9 Taxpayers for Vincent, 406 U.S. 789, 796 (1984). Moreover, because these statutes regulate speech
10 critical of public officials, the New York Times standard requires that the speech regulated by the statutes
11 must be made with "actual malice" – that is, with ... reckless disregard of whether it was false or not."
12 New York Times Co. v. Sullivan, 376 U.S. 254 at 279. This court finds that these statutes do not satisfy 13 these standards.

14 a. The New York Times Standard

15 Nevada Revised Statutes § 281.525(1) makes statements unlawful which are "known or through 16 the exercise of reasonable care should be known to be false, deceptive or misleading," and N.R.S. §
17 281.551(2)(a) punishes not only false statements, but also those found to be vexatious or made in bad
18 faith. This language falls short of the New York Times standard because N.R.S. § 281.525(1) employs 19 a "reasonable care" standard as opposed to the higher "reckless disregard" standard required by New York
20 Times Co. v. Sullivan. 376 U.S. 254 at 279. Nevada Revised Statutes § 281.551(2)(a) employs no 21 standard at all. "[R]eckless conduct is not measured by whether a reasonably prudent man would have 22 published, or would have investigated before publishing. There must be sufficient evidence to permit
23 the conclusion that the defendant in fact entertained serious doubts as to the truth of his publication.
24 Publishing with such doubts shows reckless disregard for truth or falsity and demonstrates actual malice."
25 St. Amant v. Thompson, 390 U.S. 727, 731 (1968). If the legislature wishes to regulate speech critical
26 of public officials, such statutes must incorporate the "actual malice" standard. Id.; New York Times, 376
27 U.S. 254 at 279. Nevada Revised Statutes § 281.551(2)(a) is also defective because it has no standard

1 at all by which the Commission may evaluate statements it may deem untrue, vexatious, or made in bad
2 faith.

3 b. Vagueness

4 To enable citizens to steer between lawful and unlawful conduct, "we insist that laws give the 5 person of ordinary intelligence a reasonable opportunity to know what is prohibited, so that he [or she]
6 may act accordingly." Grayned v. City of Rockford, 408 U.S. 104, 108 (1972). Vague laws that may be 7 a trap for the unwary are disfavored, particularly when the statute at issue "abut(s) upon sensitive areas
8 of basic First Amendment freedoms" and it may "inhibit the exercise of (those) freedoms." Id. at 109
9 (citations omitted). The question then is whether the boundaries of N.R.S. §§ 281.525(1) and 10 281.551(2)(a) are clearly drawn. It is this court's view that they are not. The terms "false," "deceptive," 11 "misleading," and "bad faith" are not defined, which is of great importance because the statutes seek 12 to regulate speech critical of public officials. If the legislature wishes to tread on First Amendment ground
13 and regulate such speech, it must do so with the utmost specificity and clarity. There lies in the plain 14 meaning of these statutes the potential to punish protected expression about the conduct of public
15 officials, along with the equally troubling prospect of subjective or discriminatory enforcement. "A vague
16 law impermissibly delegates basic policy matters to policemen, judges, and juries for resolution on an ad
17 hoc and subjective basis, with the attendant dangers of arbitrary and discriminatory application." Id. at 18 108-09.

19 c. Overbreadth

20 Plaintiffs also challenge N.R.S. §§ 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(a) as overbroad because they are 21 content-based laws which proscribe more speech than is necessary to fulfill a compelling state interest.
22 Village of Schaumburg v. Citizens for a Better Environment, 444 U.S. 620, 637 (1980). To find that a statute
23 is overbroad, "there must be a realistic danger that the statute itself will significantly compromise
24 recognized First Amendment protections of parties not before the Court . . ." City Council of Los Angeles
25 v. Taxpayers for Vincent, 466 U.S. 789, 801 (1984) (citations omitted). These statutes may have the 26 general effect of chilling citizens' willingness to lodge complaints about possible ethical violations by public
27 officials. The obvious intent of the statutes is to discourage citizens from filing false allegations of ethical

1 misconduct about public officials with the motive to harass public officials and damage their reputations.
2 However, the statutes go beyond that compelling state interest. For example, a citizen may file a
3 complaint about an official's alleged ethical misconduct that he or she believes is true. Even if the 4 allegations are deemed true, the Commission may decide they are in some way deceptive or misleading;
5 hence, the citizen may be subject to criminal and civil penalties. Nevada Revised Statutes §
6 281.551(2)(a) authorizes the Commission to adjudge whether a citizen is motivated by bad faith or is 7 acting with a vexatious purpose in filing an ethics complaint. Even if the allegations of the complaint
8 are true, a citizen may nevertheless be charged with a misdemeanor or a fine of up to $5,000.00 because 9 the Commission finds the complaint was lodged in bad faith or for a vexatious purpose. The Commission
10 is entitled to serve legitimate state interests, "but it must do so by narrowly drawn [statutes] designed 11 to serve those interests without unnecessarily interfering with First Amendment freedoms." Village of 12 Schaumburg, 444 U.S. 620 at 637 (citations omitted). This court finds these statutes overbroad because 13 they proscribe more speech than is necessary and there is a realistic potential that they will discourage 14 protected speech.

15 D. Procedural Due Process

16 Apart from plaintiffs' challenge to the constitutionality of the statutes pursuant on First 17 Amendment grounds, they also contend that the statutes violate the Fourteenth Amendment because 18 the statutory framework offers no procedural due process by which a citizen is given notice of a violation
19 of the statutes, and citizens are afforded no hearing prior to imposition of a fine or referral to the district
20 attorney or attorney general. N.R.S. 281.525(3). Plaintiffs are correct.

21 In Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 335 (1976) (citation omitted), the Supreme Court identified
22 three factors to determine whether a procedural due process violation has occurred:

23 First, the private interest that will be affected by the official action;
24 second, the risk of an erroneous deprivation of such interest through the 25 procedures used, and the probable value, if any, of additional or substitute
26 procedural safeguards; and finally, the Government's interest, including 27 the function involved and the fiscal and administrative burdens that the 28 additional or substitute procedural requirement would entail.

1 The private interest at issue here is the loss of the First Amendment right of free expression, the loss of 2 which has been held to constitute irreparable harm. Elrod v. Burns, 427 U.S. 347, 373 (1976); Jacobsen
3 v. United States Postal Service, 812 F.2d 1151, 1154 (9th Cir. 1987). In addition, N.R.S. § 281.525(2)
4 characterizes a violation of N.R.S. § 281.525(1) as a misdemeanor. Not only does a citizen stand to lose
5 his or her First Amendment rights, but also faces a misdemeanor criminal penalty and a fine of up to 6 $5,000.00.

7 As to the second factor, the statutes provide neither notice of the Commission's intention to 8 impose the sanctions allowed, nor do they provide for a hearing. The value of additional procedural 9 safeguards is obvious. Notice of the Commission's finding that a citizen has violated N.R.S. 281.525(1), 10 a procedure for filing a response to the notice, the opportunity for a hearing, and providing a citizen the 11 opportunity to secure counsel are additional safeguards that should be implemented before depriving a 12 person of the property interests described above.

13 The third factor concerns the government's interest, fiscal and otherwise, that will result if 14 additional procedural safeguards are implemented. The Commission offered no evidence that providing 15 notice and a hearing before imposing a penalty would unduly burden the Commission, and the court does 16 not view such a procedure as unduly expensive or burdensome.

17 The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that "some form of hearing is required before an 18 individual is finally deprived of a property interest," and that a basic tenet of due process "is the 19 opportunity to be heard 'at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner.'" Mathews v. Eldridge, 424
20 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) (citations omitted). The importance of such safeguards is particularly important
21 here, where the legislature seeks to regulate speech critical of public officials. In St. Amant v. Thompson,
22 390 U.S. 727, 730-31 (1968), the Court held that under the New York Times malice standard, the finder
23 of fact must establish by sufficient evidence that the statement was either a deliberate falsification, or 24 there was evidence of reckless publication "despite the publisher's awareness of probable falsity. . . ."
25 Here, the importance of a hearing is especially compelling because "reckless conduct is not measured 26 by whether a reasonably prudent man would have published, or would have investigated before publishing.
27 There must be sufficient evidence to permit the conclusion that the defendant in fact entertained serious

1 doubt as to the truth of his publication." Id. at 731. Because the statutes provide for no notice or an
2 evidentiary hearing, the Commission cannot determine actual malice and must instead rely on its 3 members' own perceptions of the citizen's intent in filing an ethics complaint. The court finds that 4 process violates the Fourteenth Amendment and is unconstitutional.

5 E. Conclusion

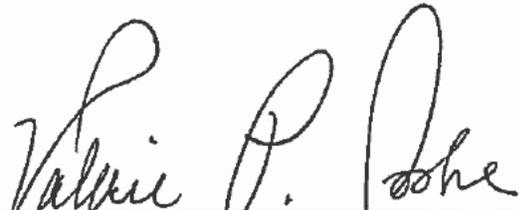

6 Nevada Revised Statutes §§ 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(a) are unconstitutional both on their 7 face and as applied to plaintiff Dehne. These statutes are also unconstitutionally overbroad, and they 8 violate the Due Process provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment. Plaintiffs' cross-motion for summary
9 judgment (#39) is granted, and it is recommended that judgment be entered declaring N.R.S. §§
10 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(a) violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States
11 Constitution, and that permanent injunction issue enjoining enforcement of these statutes. It is 12 recommended that defendants' motion for summary judgment (#36) be denied.

13 RECOMMENDATION

14 IT IS THEREFORE RECOMMENDED that the District Court enter an order GRANTING 15 plaintiffs' cross-motion for summary judgment (#39) and that judgment be entered declaring N.R.S. §§
16 281.525(1) and 281.551(2)(a) violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States
17 Constitution, and that permanent injunction issue enjoining enforcement of these statutes.

18 IT IS FURTHER RECOMMENDED that defendants' motion for summary judgment (#36)
19 be DENIED.

20 DATED: August 6, 2001.

Section B1: Summary by GL

Budget Account: 1343 COMMISSION ON ETHICS

The Nevada Commission on Ethics is an eight member body appointed by the Governor and Legislative Commission to interpret and enforce the provisions of the Ethics in Government Law set forth in NRS Chapter 281A ("Ethics Law"). The Ethics Law establishes the public policy and standards of conduct necessary to ensure the integrity and impartiality of government, free from conflicts of interest between public duties and private interests of state, local public officers and employees. The commission and its staff focus on four main functions: 1) interpreting and enforcing the provisions of the Ethics Law; 2) investigating and adjudicating public complaints alleging ethics violations by public officers and employees; 3) providing outreach and education to public officers and employees to enhance their awareness and understanding of ethics requirements and prohibitions under Nevada law; and 4) accepting and monitoring various filings required of certain public officers.

6. NEW CONTRACT

The maximum amount of the contract for the term of the contract is: $23,250.00

II. JUSTIFICATION

7. What conditions require that this work be done?

An electronic case management/database system will ensure compliance with state law as established in Assembly Bill 60 (2015) and Assembly Bill 236 (2013), including efficiencies in Request for Opinion (RFO) management, providing an online searchable database of published Commission opinions that is accessible through the Commission's website, and providing an online application for electronic forms and submission via the Commission's website

8. Explain why State employees in your agency or other State agencies are not able to do this work:

The NCOE has limited internal IT staff and utilizes a state contracted vendor (CTS) for desktop/server support only. Several requests were made to EITS to inquire about paid programmers to assist the NCOE with the project, but EITS declined stating they had a backlog and were understaffed.

9. Were quotes or proposals solicited? Yes

Was the solicitation (RFP) done by the Purchasing Division? No

a. List the names of vendors that were solicited to submit proposals (include at least three):

Precision Document Imaging
OnBase
Michael Matters, Inc.
WingSwept

b. Solicitation Waiver: Not Applicable

c. Why was this contractor chosen in preference to other?

Lowest bidder

d. Last bid date: Anticipated re-bid date:

10. Does the contract contain any IT components? No

III. OTHER INFORMATION

11. a. Is the contractor a current employee of the State of Nevada or will the contracted services be performed by a current employee of the State of Nevada?

No

b. Was the contractor formerly employed by the State of Nevada within the last 24 months or will the contracted services be performed by someone formerly employed by the State of Nevada within the last 24 months?

No

c. Is the contractor employed by any of Nevada's political subdivisions or by any other government?

No If "Yes", please explain

Not Applicable

12. Has the contractor ever been engaged under contract by any State agency?

No If "Yes", specify when and for which agency and indicate if the quality of service provided to the identified agency has been verified as satisfactory:

Not Applicable

13. Is the contractor currently involved in litigation with the State of Nevada?

No If "Yes", please provide details of the litigation and facts supporting approval of the contract:

Not Applicable

14. The contractor is registered with the Nevada Secretary of State's Office as a:
Nevada Corporation

15. a. Is the Contractor Name the same as the legal Entity Name?

No b. If "No", please explain:

Precision Document Imaging is an alternate name.

16. a. Does the contractor have a current Nevada State Business License (SBL)?

Yes

17. a. Is the legal entity active and in good standing with the Nevada Secretary of State's Office?

WHEREAS, NRS 333.700 authorizes officers, departments, institutions, boards, commissions, and other agencies in the Executive Branch of the State Government which derive their support from public money in whole or in part to engage services of persons as independent contractors; and

WHEREAS, it is deemed that the service of Contractor is both necessary and in the best interests of the State of Nevada.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the aforesaid premises, the parties mutually agree as follows:

- CONTRACT TERM. This Contract shall be effective as noted below, unless sooner terminated by either party as specified in Section 7, Contract Termination. Contracts requiring approval of the Nevada Board of Examiners or the Clerk of the Board are not effective until such approval has occurred, however, after such approval, the effective date will be the date noted below.

Effective from:	April 17, 2017	To:	April 30, 2018
-----------------	----------------	-----	----------------

- NOTICE. All communications, including notices, required or permitted to be given under this Contract shall be in writing and directed to the parties at the addresses stated above. Notices may be given: (i) by delivery in person; (ii) by a nationally recognized next day courier service, return receipt requested; or (iii) by certified mail, return receipt requested. If specifically requested by the party to be notified, valid notice may be given by facsimile transmission or electronic mail to the address(es) such party has specified in writing.

3. SCOPE OF WORK. The scope of work is described below, which is incorporated herein by reference:

DESCRIPTION OF SCOPE OF WORK:  See Attachment AA
--

An Attachment must be limited to the scope of work to be performed by Contractor. Any provision, term or condition of an Attachment that contradicts the terms of this Contract, or that would change the obligations of the State under this Contract, shall be void and unenforceable.

4. CONSIDERATION. The parties agree that Contractor will provide the services specified in Section 3, Scope of Work at a cost as noted below:

$17,250.00	per	Fiscal Year 2017
$6,000.00	per	Fiscal Year 2018

Total Contract or installments payable at:	Upon completion of project/deliverables and upon approved invoice
--	---

Total Contract Not to Exceed:	$23,250

The State does not agree to reimburse Contractor for expenses unless otherwise specified in the Scope of Work or incorporated attachments (if any). Any intervening end to a biennial appropriation period shall be deemed an automatic renewal (not changing the overall Contract term) or a termination as the result of legislative appropriation may require.

5. BILLING SUBMISSION: TIMELINESS. The parties agree that timeliness of billing is of the essence to the Contract and recognize that the State is on a Fiscal Year. All billings for dates of service prior to July 1 must be submitted to the State no later than the first Friday in August of the same calendar year. A billing submitted after the first Friday in August, which forces the State to process the billing as a stale claim pursuant to NRS 353.097, will subject Contractor to an administrative fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00). The parties hereby agree this is a reasonable estimate of the additional costs to the State of processing the billing as a stale claim and that this amount will be deducted from the stale claim payment due to Contractor.

6. INSPECTION & AUDIT. Contractor agrees to keep and maintain under generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) and as required by State and federal law, complete and accurate records as are necessary to fully disclose to the State or United States Government, sufficient information to determine compliance with all State and federal regulations and statutes, and compliance with the terms of this contract, and agrees that such documents will be made available for inspection upon reasonable notice from authorized representatives of the State or Federal Government.

7. CONTRACT TERMINATION.

A. Termination Without Cause. Regardless of any terms to the contrary, this Contract may be terminated upon written notice by mutual consent of both parties. The State unilaterally may terminate this contract without cause by giving not less than thirty (30) days' notice in the manner specified in Section 2, Notice. If this Contract is unilaterally terminated by the State, Contractor shall use its best efforts to minimize cost to the State and Contractor will not be paid for any cost that Contractor could have avoided.

B. State Termination for Non-Appropriation. The continuation of this Contract beyond the current biennium is subject to and contingent upon sufficient funds being appropriated, budgeted, and otherwise made available by the State Legislature and/or federal sources. The State may terminate this Contract, and Contractor waives any and all claims(s) for damages, effective immediately upon receipt of written notice (or any date specified therein) if for any reason the Contracting Agency's funding from State and/or federal sources is not appropriated or is withdrawn, limited, or impaired.

C. Termination with Cause for Breach. A breach may be declared with or without termination. A notice of breach and termination shall specify the date of termination of the Contract, which shall not be sooner than the expiration of the Time to Correct, if applicable, allowed under subsection 7D. This Contract may be terminated by either party upon written notice of breach to the other party on the following grounds:

- 1) If Contractor fails to provide or satisfactorily perform any of the conditions, work, deliverables, goods, or services called for by this Contract within the time requirements specified in this Contract or within any granted extension of those time requirements; or
- 2) If any state, county, city, or federal license, authorization, waiver, permit, qualification or certification required by statute, ordinance, law, or regulation to be held by Contractor to provide the goods or services required by this Contract is for any reason denied, revoked, debarred, excluded, terminated, suspended, lapsed, or not renewed; or
- 3) If Contractor becomes insolvent, subject to receivership, or becomes voluntarily or involuntarily subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court; or
- 4) If the State materially breaches any material duty under this Contract and any such breach impairs Contractor's ability to perform; or
- 5) If it is found by the State that any quid pro quo or gratuities in the form of money, services, entertainment, gifts, or otherwise were offered or given by Contractor, or any agent or representative of Contractor, to any officer or employee of the State of Nevada with a view toward securing a contract or securing favorable treatment with respect to awarding, extending, amending, or making any determination with respect to the performing of such contract; or
- 6) If it is found by the State that Contractor has failed to disclose any material conflict of interest relative to the performance of this Contract.

D. Time to Correct. Unless the breach is not curable, or unless circumstances do not permit an opportunity to cure, termination upon declared breach may be exercised only after service of formal written notice as specified in Section 2, Notice, and the subsequent failure of the breaching party within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of that notice to provide evidence, satisfactory to the aggrieved party, showing that the declared breach has been corrected. Upon a notice of breach, the time to correct and the time for termination of the contract upon breach under subsection 7C, above, shall run concurrently, unless the notice expressly states otherwise.

8. REMEDIES. Except as otherwise provided for by law or this Contract, the rights and remedies of the parties shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law or equity, including, without limitation, actual damages, and to a prevailing party reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. For purposes of an award of attorneys' fees to either party, the parties stipulate and agree that a reasonable hourly rate of attorneys' fees shall be one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) per hour. The State may set off consideration against any unpaid obligation of Contractor to any State agency in accordance with NRS 353C.190. In the event that Contractor voluntarily or involuntarily becomes subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court, the State may set off consideration against any unpaid obligation of Contractor to the State or its agencies, to the extent allowed by bankruptcy law, without regard to whether the procedures of NRS 353C.190 have been utilized.
9. LIMITED LIABILITY. The State will not waive and intends to assert available NRS Chapter 41 liability limitations in all cases. Contract liability of both parties shall not be subject to punitive damages. Damages for any State breach shall never exceed the amount of funds appropriated for payment under this Contract, but not yet paid to Contractor, for the Fiscal Year budget in existence at the time of the breach. Contractor's tort liability shall not be limited.
10. INDEMNIFICATION AND DEFENSE. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Contractor shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend, not excluding the State's right to participate, the State from and against all liability, claims, actions, damages, losses, and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, arising out of any breach of the obligations of Contractor under this Contract, or any alleged negligent or willful acts or omissions of Contractor, its officers, employees and agents. Contractor's obligation to indemnify the State shall apply in all cases except for claims arising solely from the State’s own negligence or willful misconduct. Contractor waives any rights of subrogation against the State. Contractor’s duty to defend begins when the State requests defense of any claim arising from this Contract.

11. REPRESENTATIONS REGARDING INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR STATUS. Contractor represents that it is an independent contractor, as defined in NRS 333.700(2) and 616A.255, warrants that it will perform all work under this contract as an independent contractor, and warrants that the State of Nevada will not incur any employment liability by reason of this Contract or the work to be performed under this Contract. To the extent the State incurs any employment liability for the work under this Contract; Contractor will reimburse the State for that liability.

12. INSURANCE SCHEDULE. Unless expressly waived in writing by the Contracting Agency, Contractor must procure, maintain and keep in force for the duration of the Contract insurance conforming to the minimum requirements specified below. Each insurance policy shall provide for a waiver of subrogation against the State of Nevada, its officers, employees and immune contractors as defined in NRS 41.0307, for losses arising from work/materials/equipment performed or provided by or on behalf of Contractor. By endorsement to Contractor’s automobile and general liability policies, the State of Nevada shall be named as an additional insured with respect to liability arising out of the activities performed by, or on behalf of Contractor. Contractor shall not commence work before Contractor has provided evidence of the required insurance in the form of a certificate of insurance and endorsement to the Contracting Agency of the State.
  - A. Workers’ Compensation and Employer’s Liability Insurance.
    - 1) Contractor shall provide proof of worker’s compensation insurance as required per Nevada Revised Statutes Chapters 616A through 616D inclusive.
    - 2) If Contractor qualifies as a sole proprietor as defined in NRS Chapter 616A.310, and has elected to not purchase industrial insurance for himself/herself, the sole proprietor must submit to the contracting State agency a fully executed “Affidavit of Rejection of Coverage” form under NRS 616B.627 and NRS 617.210.

  - B. Commercial General Liability – Occurrence Form. The Policy shall include bodily injury, property damage and broad form contractual liability coverage.

1) General Aggregate	$2,000,000
2) Products – Completed Operations Aggregate	$1,000,000
3) Personal and Advertising Injury	$1,000,000
4) Each Occurrence	$1,000,000

13. WAIVER OF BREACH. Failure to declare a breach or the actual waiver of any particular breach of the Contract or its material or nonmaterial terms by either party shall not operate as a waiver by such party of any of its rights or remedies as to any other breach.

14. SEVERABILITY. If any provision contained in this Contract is held to be unenforceable by a court of law or equity, this Contract shall be construed as if such provision did not exist and the non-enforceability of such provision shall not be held to render any other provision or provisions of this Contract unenforceable.

15. STATE OWNERSHIP OF PROPRIETARY INFORMATION. Any data or information provided by the State to Contractor and any documents or materials provided by the State to Contractor in the course of this Contract (“State Materials”) shall be and remain the exclusive property of the State and all such State Materials shall be delivered into State possession by Contractor upon completion, termination, or cancellation of this Contract.

16. PUBLIC RECORDS. Pursuant to NRS 239.010, information or documents received from Contractor may be open to public inspection and copying. The State may have the duty to disclose unless a particular record is made confidential by law or a common law balance of interests.

17. GENERAL WARRANTY. Contractor warrants that all services, deliverables, and/or work products under this Contract shall be completed in a workmanlike manner consistent with standards in the trade, profession, or industry; shall conform to or exceed the specifications set forth in the incorporated attachments; and shall be fit for ordinary use, of good quality, with no material defects.

18. DISCLOSURES REGARDING CURRENT OR FORMER STATE EMPLOYEES. For the purpose of State compliance with NRS 333.705, Contractor represents and warrants that if Contractor, or any employee of Contractor who will be performing services under this Contract, is a current employee of the State or was employed by the State within the preceding 24 months, Contractor has disclosed the identity of such persons, and the services that each such person will perform, to the Contracting Agency.

19. GOVERNING LAW: JURISDICTION. This Contract and the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall be governed by, and construed according to, the laws of the State of Nevada, without giving effect to any principle of conflict-of-law that would require the application of the law of any other jurisdiction. The parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of and venue in the First Judicial District Court, Carson City, Nevada for enforcement of this Contract, and consent to personal jurisdiction in such court for any action or proceeding arising out of this Contract.

20. ENTIRE CONTRACT AND MODIFICATION. This Contract and its scope of work constitute the entire agreement of the parties and as such are intended to be the complete and exclusive statement of the promises, representations, negotiations, discussions, and other agreements that may have been made in connection with the subject matter hereof. Unless otherwise expressly authorized by the terms of this Contract, no modification or amendment to this Contract shall be binding upon the parties unless the same is in writing and signed by the respective parties hereto and approved by the Office of the Attorney General and the State Board of Examiners, as required. This form of Contract, including any amendments to the Contract, is not authorized for use if the "not to exceed" value Section 4, Consideration exceeds $49,999. This Contract, and any amendments, may be executed in counterparts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Contract to be signed and intend to be legally bound thereby.

Precision Document Imaging – SCOPE OF WORK

Contract Deliverables/Goals:

1. Provide the Nevada Commission on Ethics (NCOE) with a hosted Opinion Database, with internal user interface (web application).
2. Provide the NCOE with a hosted Electronic Forms Database, with internal user interface.
3. Provide Public Access solutions which will provide the public with the following resources through the NCOE website:
  - a. Searchable database to view and research published Commission Opinions.
  - b. Electronic forms that allow customers to fill out, attach documentation (if required), and submit all NCOE forms online.
    - i. Electronic Forms include:
      - Third-Party Request for Opinion (Ethics Complaint)
      - First-Party Request for Opinion (Advisory Request)
      - Nevada Acknowledgement of Ethical Standards for Public Officers
      - Agency Representation Disclosure
      - Public Records Requests.
4. Provide the NCOE with a hosted document management system that will allow for the storage and retrieval of RFO/Case Documents.
5. Provide the NCOE a limited case management system that will have the following capabilities:
  - a. Create new case records that will allow for the creation and management of case notes, case and party contact information and documents.
  - b. Automated deadline tracking for RFO/case related to statutory timeframes/deadlines.
  - c. Case Reports
    - i. Case Status
    - ii. Pleadings (Document Index Based on Date)

6. Provide technical support for all systems described herein, including customer support regarding user interface and operations. Technical support does not include enhancements to the products after initial customization and rollout.

Cost:

1. Cost to build/customize the Opinions/Forms Database and Case Management System:
  - One time Set-up Cost: $1,500
  - $150/hour, not to exceed 80 hours ($12,000)
2. Cost to provide professional training to the NCOE regarding the user interface:
  - $150/hour, not to exceed 25 hours ($3,500)
3. Hosting of the Opinions/Forms Database and NCOE case files (500GB of storage), including unlimited technical support for user interface:
  - $600/month = $7,200/year
4. Any additional functionality enhancements or system changes once the system is rolled out will be billed at $150/hour.
5. Time will be billed in 30 minute increments.

Time-frame on Deliverables: System build/customization and training to be completed on or before June 30, 2017. Monthly billing of $600/month will begin after the system is customized and fully functional.

SENATE BILL NO. 84—COMMITTEE ON LEGISLATIVE OPERATIONS AND ELECTIONS

(ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSION ON ETHICS)

PREFILED NOVEMBER 17, 2016

Referred to Committee on Legislative Operations and Elections

SUMMARY—Makes various changes relating to ethics in government. (BDR 23-250)

FISCAL NOTE: Effect on Local Government: No.
Effect on the State: Yes.

EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted

AN ACT relating to ethics in government; revising certain procedures of the Commission on Ethics and the remedial authority of the Commission; designating certain persons as public officers and employees for the purposes of the Nevada Ethics in Government Law; revising the code of ethical standards applicable to public officers and employees; revising provisions governing the disclosure of certain information and the filing of certain disclosure statements by public officers and employees; providing for the execution and filing by a public officer of a single acknowledgment of statutory ethical standards for all public offices held concurrently by the officer; revising provisions relating to the employment of former public officers and employees; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Under the Nevada Ethics in Government Law (Ethics Law), the Commission
2 on Ethics is authorized to issue opinions interpreting the statutory ethical standards
3 established by the Ethics Law and applying those standards to a given set of facts
4 and circumstances. (Chapter 281A of NRS) The Commission generally issues the 5 following types of opinions: (1) advisory opinions requested by a public officer or 6 employee who is seeking guidance on matters which directly relate to the propriety 7 of his or her own past, present or future conduct under the statutory ethical 8 standards; (2) advisory opinions requested by a public officer or employee who is

* S B 8 4 R 1 *

9 requesting relief from certain provisions of the Ethics Law that allow the 10 Commission to grant such relief; and (3) opinions issued in response to an ethics
11 complaint which has been filed with the Commission or initiated by the 12 Commission on its own motion regarding the propriety of the conduct of a public 13 officer or employee under the statutory ethical standards. (NRS 281A.410, 14 281A.430, 281A.440, 281A.550)

15 The Ethics Law also establishes various procedures that the Commission and its 16 staff must follow when processing, handling, investigating, reviewing, evaluating 17 and adjudicating requests for advisory opinions and ethics complaints. (NRS 18 281A.440-281A.480) Most of those procedures are contained in a single section of 19 the Nevada Revised Statutes, NRS 281A.440, which embraces numerous and 20 extensive procedural provisions governing: (1) the filing of requests for advisory 21 opinions and ethics complaints; (2) the initial review and evaluation of such 22 requests and complaints; (3) the requirements for responding to such requests and 23 complaints; and (4) the procedures and standards for conducting investigations, 24 making discovery requests, disclosing information, holding hearings and other 25 proceedings and determining issues of confidentiality with regard to such 26 information, hearings and proceedings. Because NRS 281A.440 includes so many 27 extensive procedural provisions, it has become a particularly lengthy and complex 28 statute.

29 Section 30 of this bill repeals NRS 281A.440, and sections 1.3-11 and 14 of 30 this bill generally reorganize and reenact the existing provisions of NRS 281A.440, 31 with certain modifications, to effectuate the orderly and logical arrangement of the 32 statutes, improve readability and clarity and reduce repetitious or lengthy words or 33 phrases. For example, sections 1.3-2.7 define several terms, including "advisory 34 opinion" and "ethics complaint," that replace repetitious or lengthy words or 35 phrases throughout the Ethics Law and thereby improve readability and clarity.

36 Because proceedings concerning advisory opinions are functionally different 37 from proceedings concerning ethics complaints, sections 3.1-3.5 contain 38 procedures that apply only to advisory opinions. However, these procedures do not 39 differ materially from the existing procedures that apply to advisory opinions in 40 NRS 281A.440.

41 Sections 3.6-11 contain procedures that apply only to ethics complaints.
42 Section 3.7 sets forth the requirements for properly filing an ethics complaint, and 43 section 3.8 provides that after the ethics complaint is properly filed, the 44 Commission must determine, based on the evidence submitted with the ethics 45 complaint, whether it has jurisdiction in the matter and whether an investigation is 46 warranted in the matter. If the Commission determines that it has jurisdiction and 47 an investigation is warranted, sections 3.9-5 provide for an investigation and 48 review of the ethics complaint to determine whether there is just and sufficient
49 cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter.

50 In conducting the investigation and review, sections 3.9-5 require the 51 Executive Director of the Commission to: (1) provide the public officer or 52 employee an opportunity to submit a response; (2) investigate the facts and 53 circumstances; and (3) prepare and submit a recommendation to a review panel,
54 consisting of three members of the eight-member Commission, that must determine
55 whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion
56 in the matter. If the review panel determines that there is not just and sufficient 57 cause, section 5 requires the review panel to dismiss the matter, but the review 58 panel may issue a confidential letter of caution or instruction to the public officer or 59 employee as part of the dismissal.

60 If the review panel determines that there is just and sufficient cause but 61 reasonably believes that the conduct at issue may be appropriately addressed 62 through additional training or other corrective action, sections 5 and 6 authorize 63 the review panel to approve a deferral agreement between the Executive Director

64 and the public officer or employee to defer further proceedings in the matter under 65 the terms and conditions of the deferral agreement. If the public officer or 66 employee complies with the terms and conditions of the deferral agreement, the 67 matter must be dismissed. However, if the public officer or employee fails to 68 comply with the terms and conditions of the deferral agreement, the deferral
69 agreement may be vacated and further proceedings conducted in the matter before 70 the Commission.

71 If the review panel does not believe that a deferral agreement is appropriate or 72 if the public officer or employee declines to enter into such a deferral agreement,
73 section 5 requires the review panel to refer the ethics complaint to the Commission
74 for further proceedings in the matter. If further proceedings are conducted in the 75 matter, section 16.6 of this bill provides that the three members of the review panel 76 cannot participate in the proceedings before the remaining five members of the 77 Commission.

78 Sections 6.5-11 reorganize and reenact the existing provisions of NRS
79 281A.440 governing the procedures and standards for making discovery requests, 80 disclosing information, holding hearings and other proceedings and determining 81 issues of confidentiality with regard to such information, hearings and proceedings.
82 In addition, section 8 revises the procedures for protecting the identity of requesters 83 of ethics complaints who ask for confidential status because their complaints are 84 akin to whistleblower complaints that allege unethical conduct within their own 85 public agencies or because they offer sufficient facts and circumstances showing 86 that they will face a bona fide threat of physical force or violence from filing their 87 complaints. Under section 8, if the Executive Director intends to present the 88 testimony of such a confidential requester during the ethics proceedings, the name 89 of the confidential requester must be disclosed but only as a proposed witness and 90 not as the requester of the ethics complaint.

91 Sections 12, 12.5 and 13 of this bill provide the Commission with additional 92 remedial options in proceedings concerning ethics complaints which allow the 93 Commission to utilize different types of remedies that progress in scope and 94 severity depending upon the scope and severity of the unethical conduct. Currently, 95 the Ethics Law grants the Commission certain remedial options, including civil 96 monetary penalties, if it finds a violation of the statutory ethical standards. The 97 Ethics Law also authorizes the Commission to resolve matters before it by 98 stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order or default. (NRS 233B.121, 281A.135, 99 281A.480) Sections 12, 12.5 and 13 expand the remedies available to the 100 Commission to include: (1) a requirement that a public officer or employee
101 complete a period of compliance, receive additional training or issue a public 102 apology; and (2) the issuance of a confidential letter of caution or instruction or a 103 public admonition, reprimand or censure.

104 The Ethics Law generally defines a person as a public officer if the person 105 holds a position that: (1) involves the exercise of a public power, trust or duty; and 106 (2) is established by the Nevada Constitution or any provision of statute, charter or 107 ordinance. (NRS 281A.160) Certain additional persons are designated as public 108 officers notwithstanding the fact that their positions are not so established. (NRS 109 281A.182) In addition, the Ethics Law defines a person as a public employee if the 110 person performs public duties under the direction and control of a public officer and 111 is paid compensation with public money. (NRS 281A.150) Sections 15.7 and 16 of 112 this bill provide that certain additional persons are designated as public officers and 113 employees solely and exclusively for the purposes of the Ethics Law if such 114 persons enter into contracts with public agencies, are paid compensation with 115 public money and serve in certain positions which ordinarily would be held or filled
116 by public officers and employees. Section 16 also provides that its provisions must 117 be interpreted and applied to ensure that a person does not evade the Ethics Law 118 because a public agency elects to use a contractual relationship instead of an

119 employment relationship for these types of positions which ordinarily would be 120 held or filled by public officers and employees.

121 Section 18 of this bill provides that the Commission does not have jurisdiction 122 regarding alleged discrimination or harassment for which a complaint or 123 employment-related grievance may be filed with an appropriate agency with 124 jurisdiction to redress such alleged discrimination or harassment. (NRS 281A.280)
125 However, section 18 also provides that the Commission has jurisdiction regarding 126 the alleged conduct if such conduct is sanctionable separately or concurrently under 127 the Ethics Law, irrespective of the alleged discrimination or harassment.

128 In performing their functions under the Ethics Law, the Commission and its 129 presiding officers may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and 130 the production of books and papers. (NRS 281A.300) Section 19 of this bill
131 clarifies that such subpoenas may be issued during the course of any investigation
132 under the Ethics Law to compel the participation of potential witnesses and the 133 production of books and papers.

134 Section 20 of this bill revises the existing statutory ethical standards which 135 generally prohibit public officers and employees from engaging in certain unethical
136 conduct that benefits their own private interests. (NRS 281A.400) Section 20
137 expands these existing prohibitions so that a public officer or employee cannot 138 engage in certain unethical conduct when it benefits any other person to whom the 139 public officer or employee has a commitment in a private capacity. The Ethics Law 140 defines such other persons to include: (1) the spouse or domestic partner of the 141 public officer or employee, a member of his or her household or a relative within 142 the third degree of consanguinity or affinity; (2) a person who employs the public
143 officer or employee, his or her spouse or domestic partner or a member of his or her 144 household; (3) a person with whom the public officer or employee has a substantial 145 and continuing business relationship; or (4) a person with whom the public officer
146 or employee has any other commitment, interest or relationship that is substantially
147 similar to the foregoing commitments, interests or relationships. (NRS 281A.065)

148 The Ethics Law permits certain public officers and employees to represent or 149 counsel private persons before certain public agencies in which the public officers 150 or employees do not serve and also requires certain public officers to file annual 151 disclosure statements regarding such representation or counseling with the 152 Commission. (NRS 281A.410) The Ethics Law also requires certain public officers
153 and employees to disclose publicly certain personal or private interests which may 154 create potential conflicts of interests at the time the public officers and employees
155 consider or act upon a matter affecting those interests. (NRS 281A.420) Section
156 20.3 of this bill eliminates the requirement for certain public officers to file annual 157 disclosure statements regarding representation or counseling of private persons
158 before public agencies. Instead, section 20.5 of this bill requires certain public 159 officers and employees to disclose publicly certain information regarding 160 representation or counseling of private persons before public agencies at the time
161 the public officers and employees consider or act upon a matter which is reasonably 162 related to the nature of such representation or counseling.

163 The Ethics Law requires each elected and appointed public officer to execute
164 and file with the Commission a written acknowledgment of the officer's 165 understanding of the statutory ethical standards applicable to him or her, and the 166 officer's obligation to become familiar with any amendments to those standards. A 167 public officer is required to execute and file the acknowledgment for each office,
168 including each appointive office, held by the officer. (NRS 281A.500) Section 25
169 of this bill provides that a public officer who executes and files the 170 acknowledgment for one office as required by law thereby satisfies the execution
171 and filing requirements for any other office held concurrently by him or her.

172 Under existing law, various public officers and employees are subject to a 173 "cooling-off" period after the termination of their public service or employment,

174 during which they are precluded from soliciting or accepting certain kinds of 175 employment. A similar “cooling-off period” exists for a former public officer’s or 176 employee’s representation or counseling of a private person on any issue which was 177 under consideration by the agency in which the officer or employee served. The 178 Commission is authorized to grant relief from the application of these provisions in 179 specified circumstances. (NRS 281A.410, 281A.550) Section 27 of this bill: (1) 180 clarifies that a grant of relief from the application of the cooling-off provisions as 181 they relate to employment does not affect the ban on representation or counseling;
182 and (2) provides that the ban on employment extends to circumstances in which any 183 oral or written agreement for personal services is sought, negotiated or exists during 184 the cooling-off period, even if such an agreement does not or will not become 185 effective until after the cooling-off period.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Chapter 281A of NRS is hereby amended by 2 adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 1.3 to 14,
3 inclusive, of this act.

4 Sec. 1.3. “Adjudicatory hearing” means a hearing held by 5 the Commission pursuant to section 6.5 of this act to receive
6 evidence concerning an ethics complaint and render an opinion in 7 the matter.

8 Sec. 1.5. “Advisory opinion” means an advisory opinion
9 rendered by the Commission pursuant to sections 3.1 to 3.5,
10 inclusive, of this act.

11 Sec. 2. “Deferral agreement” means an agreement entered
12 into between the Executive Director and the subject of an ethics
13 complaint pursuant to section 6 of this act.

14 Sec. 2.2. “Ethics complaint” means a request for an opinion
15 which is filed with the Commission or initiated by the Commission 16 on its own motion pursuant to section 3.7 of this act regarding the 17 propriety of the conduct of a public officer or employee under the 18 statutory ethical standards set forth in this chapter.

19 Sec. 2.5. “Request for an advisory opinion” means a request
20 for an advisory opinion which is filed with the Commission
21 pursuant to section 3.2 of this act by a public officer or employee 22 who is:

23 1. Seeking guidance on matters which directly relate to the 24 propriety of his or her own past, present or future conduct as a
25 public officer or employee under the statutory ethical standards set
26 forth in this chapter; or

27 2. Requesting relief pursuant to NRS 281A.410, 281A.430
28 or 281A.550.

29 Sec. 2.7. “Review panel” means a review panel appointed
30 pursuant to NRS 281A.220.

1       Sec. 3. (Deleted by amendment.)

2       Sec. 3.1. The provisions of sections 3.1 to 3.5, inclusive, of
3 this act apply to proceedings concerning a request for an advisory 4 opinion.

5       Sec. 3.2. 1. A public officer or employee may file with the 6 Commission a request for an advisory opinion to:

7       (a) Seek guidance on matters which directly relate to the 8 propriety of his or her own past, present or future conduct as a
9 public officer or employee under the statutory ethical standards set
10 forth in this chapter; or

11       (b) Request relief pursuant to NRS 281A.410, 281A.430
12 or 281A.550.

13       2. The request for an advisory opinion must be:

14       (a) Filed on a form prescribed by the Commission; and

15       (b) Submitted with all necessary information for the 16 Commission to render an advisory opinion in the matter.

17       3. The Commission may decline to render an advisory 18 opinion if the public officer or employee does not:

19       (a) Submit all necessary information for the Commission to 20 render an advisory opinion in the matter; or

21       (b) Declare by oath or affirmation that he or she will testify 22 truthfully regarding the matter.

23       Sec. 3.3. 1. If a public officer or employee properly files a 24 request for an advisory opinion, the Commission shall render an 25 advisory opinion that interprets the statutory ethical standards and 26 applies those standards to the given set of facts and circumstances.
27 The Commission shall render the advisory opinion within 45 days
28 after receiving the request, unless the requester waives this time 29 limit.

30       2. If the advisory opinion rendered by the Commission relates 31 to the propriety of the present or future conduct of the requester, 32 the advisory opinion is:

33       (a) Binding upon the requester with regard to the future
34 conduct of the requester; and

35       (b) A final decision that is subject to judicial review pursuant 36 to NRS 233B.130.

37       3. If the requester seeks judicial review pursuant to NRS
38 233B.130, any proceedings concerning such judicial review must 39 be confidential and held in closed court without admittance of 40 persons other than those necessary to the proceedings, unless the 41 requester waives this right to confidential proceedings.

42       Sec. 3.4. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the 43 following materials are confidential and are not public records
44 pursuant to chapter 239 of NRS:

45       (a) A request for an advisory opinion;

1 (b) The advisory opinion rendered by the Commission in
2 response to the request; and

3 (c) Any information, communications, records, documents or 4 other materials in the possession of the Commission or its staff
5 that are related to the request.

6 2. The provisions of subsection 1 do not apply if the current 7 or former public officer or employee who files the request for an 8 advisory opinion:

9 (a) Acts in contravention of the advisory opinion, in which 10 case the Commission may disclose the request, the advisory 11 opinion and any information, communications, records,
12 documents or other materials in the possession of the Commission
13 or its staff that are related to the request;

14 (b) Authorizes the Commission, in writing, to make the 15 request, the advisory opinion or any information,
16 communications, records, documents or other materials in the 17 possession of the Commission or its staff that are related to the 18 request publicly available; or

19 (c) Voluntarily discloses, in any manner, the request, the 20 advisory opinion or any information, communications, records,
21 documents or other materials in the possession of the Commission
22 or its staff that are related to the request, except to:

23 (1) The public body, agency or employer of the public
24 officer or employee or the legal counsel of the public officer or 25 employee;

26 (2) Any person to whom the Commission authorizes the 27 public officer or employee to make such a disclosure; or

28 (3) Any person to whom the public officer or employee
29 makes such a disclosure for the purposes of judicial review
30 pursuant to section 3.3 of this act.

31 Sec. 3.5. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the 32 provisions of chapter 241 of NRS do not apply to:

33 (a) Any meeting or hearing held by the Commission to receive 34 information or evidence concerning a request for an advisory 35 opinion; and

36 (b) Any deliberations or actions of the Commission on such 37 information or evidence.

38 2. The public officer or employee who files the request for an 39 advisory opinion may also file a request with the Commission to 40 hold a public meeting or hearing regarding the request for an 41 advisory opinion.

42 Sec. 3.6. The provisions of sections 3.6 to 13, inclusive, of 43 this act and NRS 281A.450, 281A.465, 281A.475 and 281A.480
44 apply to proceedings concerning an ethics complaint.

1       Sec. 3.7. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and
2 NRS 281A.280, the Commission may render an opinion that
3 interprets the statutory ethical standards and applies those 4 standards to a given set of facts and circumstances regarding the 5 propriety of the conduct of a public officer or employee if an ethics
6 complaint is:

7       (a) Filed by a specialized or local ethics committee established
8 pursuant to NRS 281A.350.

9       (b) Filed by any person, except a person who is incarcerated in 10 a correctional facility in this State or any other jurisdiction.

11       (c) Initiated by the Commission on its own motion, except the 12 Commission shall not initiate such an ethics complaint based 13 solely upon an anonymous complaint.

14       2. An ethics complaint filed by a person must be:

15       (a) Verified under oath and filed on a form prescribed by the 16 Commission; and

17       (b) Submitted with sufficient evidence to support the 18 allegations in order for the Commission to make a determination 19 of whether it has jurisdiction in the matter and whether an 20 investigation is warranted in the matter pursuant to sections 3.8
21 and 3.9 of this act.

22       3. The Commission may decline to render an opinion if the 23 person who files the ethics complaint does not submit all necessary
24 evidence in the matter.

25       Sec. 3.8. 1. Based on the evidence submitted with an ethics
26 complaint filed with the Commission pursuant to section 3.7 of 27 this act, the Commission shall determine whether it has 28 jurisdiction in the matter and whether an investigation is 29 warranted in the matter. The Commission shall make its 30 determination within 45 days after receiving the ethics complaint, 31 unless the public officer or employee who is the subject of the 32 ethics complaint waives this time limit.

33       2. If the Commission determines that it does not have 34 jurisdiction in the matter, the Commission shall dismiss the 35 matter.

36       3. If the Commission determines that it has jurisdiction in the 37 matter but the evidence submitted with the ethics complaint is not 38 sufficient to warrant an investigation in the matter, the 39 Commission shall dismiss the matter, with or without issuing a
40 letter of caution or instruction to the public officer or employee
41 pursuant to section 12.5 of this act.

42       4. If the Commission determines that it has jurisdiction in the 43 matter and the evidence submitted with the ethics complaint is 44 sufficient to warrant an investigation in the matter, the

1 Commission may direct the Executive Director to investigate the 2 ethics complaint pursuant to section 3.9 of this act.

3 Sec. 3.9. 1. If the Commission directs the Executive
4 Director to investigate an ethics complaint pursuant to section 3.8
5 of this act or if the Commission initiates an ethics complaint on its 6 own motion pursuant to section 3.7 of this act, the Executive
7 Director shall investigate the facts and circumstances relating to 8 the ethics complaint to determine whether there is just and 9 sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the 10 matter.

11 2. The Executive Director shall notify the public officer or 12 employee who is the subject of the ethics complaint and provide 13 the public officer or employee an opportunity to submit to the 14 Executive Director a response to the allegations against the public
15 officer or employee in the ethics complaint. The response must be 16 submitted within 30 days after the date on which the public officer 17 or employee received the notice of the ethics complaint, unless the 18 Executive Director grants an extension.

19 3. The purpose of the response submitted pursuant to this 20 section is to provide the Executive Director and the review panel
21 with any information relevant to the ethics complaint which the 22 public officer or employee believes may assist:

23 (a) The Executive Director in performing his or her
24 investigation and other functions pursuant to this section and 25 section 4 of this act; and

26 (b) The review panel in performing its review and other
27 functions pursuant to section 5 of this act.

28 4. The public officer or employee is not required in the 29 response submitted pursuant to this section or in any proceedings
30 before the review panel to assert, claim or raise any objection or 31 defense, in law or fact, to the allegations against the public officer
32 or employee, and no objection or defense, in law or fact, is waived, 33 abandoned or barred by the failure to assert, claim or raise it in 34 the response or in any proceedings before the review panel.

35 Sec. 4. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection,
36 the Executive Director shall complete the investigation required by 37 section 3.9 of this act and present a written recommendation to 38 the review panel within 70 days after the Commission directs the 39 Executive Director to investigate the ethics complaint or after the 40 Commission initiates the ethics complaint on its own motion, as 41 applicable. The public officer or employee who is the subject of the 42 ethics complaint may waive this time limit.

43 2. The recommendation must:

44 (a) Set forth the factual and legal basis for the 45 recommendation;

1       (b) State whether the Executive Director believes that there is
2 just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion
3 in the matter; and

4       (c) If the Executive Director believes that a disposition of the 5 matter without an adjudicatory hearing is appropriate under the 6 facts and circumstances, state any suggested disposition that is 7 consistent with the provisions of this chapter, including, without 8 limitation, whether the Executive Director believes that the 9 conduct at issue may be appropriately addressed through 10 additional training or other corrective action under the terms and 11 conditions of a deferral agreement.

12       Sec. 5. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the 13 review panel shall determine whether there is just and sufficient
14 cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter
15 within 15 days after the Executive Director provides the review
16 panel with the recommendation required by section 4 of this act.
17 The public officer or employee who is the subject of the ethics
18 complaint may waive this time limit.

19       2. The review panel shall cause a record of its proceedings to 20 be kept.

21       3. The review panel shall not determine that there is just and 22 sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the 23 matter unless the Executive Director has provided the public
24 officer or employee an opportunity to respond to the allegations as 25 required by section 3.9 of this act.

26       4. If the review panel determines that there is not just and 27 sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the 28 matter, it shall dismiss the matter, with or without prejudice, and 29 with or without issuing a letter of caution or instruction to the 30 public officer or employee pursuant to section 12.5 of this act.

31       5. If the review panel determines that there is just and 32 sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the 33 matter but reasonably believes that the conduct at issue may be 34 appropriately addressed through additional training or other
35 corrective action under the terms and conditions of a deferral
36 agreement, the review panel may:

37       (a) Approve a deferral agreement proposed by the Executive 38 Director and the public officer or employee instead of referring 39 the ethics complaint to the Commission for further proceedings in 40 the matter; or

41       (b) Authorize the Executive Director and the public officer or 42 employee to develop such a deferral agreement and may thereafter
43 approve such a deferral agreement instead of referring the ethics
44 complaint to the Commission for further proceedings in the 45 matter.

1       6. If the review panel does not approve a deferral agreement
2 pursuant to subsection 5 or if the public officer or employee
3 declines to enter into such a deferral agreement, the review panel
4 shall refer the ethics complaint to the Commission for further
5 proceedings in the matter.

6       7. If the review panel determines that there is just and
7 sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the 8 matter and reasonably believes that the conduct at issue may not 9 be appropriately addressed through additional training or other
10 corrective action under the terms and conditions of a deferral
11 agreement, the review panel shall refer the ethics complaint to the 12 Commission for further proceedings in the matter.

13       Sec. 5.5. The provisions of chapter 241 of NRS do not apply
14 to:

15       1. Any meeting or hearing held by the review panel to receive 16 information or evidence concerning an ethics complaint; and

17       2. Any deliberations or actions of the review panel on such 18 information or evidence.

19       Sec. 6. 1. In proceedings concerning an ethics complaint, 20 the Executive Director and the public officer or employee who is 21 the subject of the ethics complaint may develop a deferral
22 agreement to defer further proceedings in the matter under the 23 terms and conditions of the deferral agreement.

24       2. A deferral agreement does not become effective unless 25 approved by the review panel pursuant to section 5 of this act. If 26 the review panel approves a deferral agreement, the Commission
27 shall enforce the terms and conditions of the deferral agreement.

28       3. A deferral agreement must:

29       (a) Specify the training or other corrective action to be 30 completed by or imposed upon the public officer or employee;

31       (b) Specify any other terms and conditions, consistent with the 32 provisions of this chapter, to be imposed upon the public officer or 33 employee; and

34       (c) Provide that the Commission may vacate the deferral
35 agreement and conduct further proceedings in the matter if the 36 Commission finds that the public officer or employee has failed to 37 comply with any terms and conditions of the deferral agreement.

38       4. The imposition of training or other corrective action and 39 the imposition of any other terms and conditions in a deferral
40 agreement is without prejudice to any other disposition of the 41 matter, consistent with this chapter, that may be ordered by the 42 Commission if it vacates the deferral agreement and conducts
43 further proceedings in the matter and finds that the public officer
44 or employee has violated any provision of this chapter.

1       5. The Executive Director shall monitor the compliance of 2 the public officer or employee who is the subject of a deferral
3 agreement and may require the public officer or employee to 4 document his or her compliance with the deferral agreement.

5       6. The Executive Director shall:

6       (a) Inform the Commission of any alleged failure of the public
7 officer or employee to comply with the deferral agreement;

8       (b) Give the public officer or employee written notice of any 9 alleged failure to comply with the deferral agreement; and

10       (c) Allow the public officer or employee not less than 15 days
11 to respond to such a notice.

12       7. Within 60 days after the date on which the public officer or 13 employee responds or was entitled to respond to the written notice 14 of any alleged failure to comply with the deferral agreement, the 15 Commission shall determine whether the public officer or 16 employee failed to comply with the deferral agreement, unless the 17 public officer or employee waives this time limit.

18       8. If the Commission determines that the public officer or 19 employee failed to comply with the deferral agreement, the 20 Commission may take any action it deems appropriate, consistent 21 with the terms and conditions of the deferral agreement and the 22 provisions of this chapter, including, without limitation, vacating 23 the deferral agreement and conducting further proceedings in the 24 matter.

25       9. If the public officer or employee who is the subject of the 26 deferral agreement complies in a satisfactory manner with the 27 deferral agreement, the Commission shall dismiss the matter.

28       Sec. 6.5. 1. If the review panel refers an ethics complaint to 29 the Commission for further proceedings in the matter pursuant to 30 section 5 of this act or if the Commission vacates a deferral
31 agreement and conducts further proceedings in the matter
32 pursuant to section 6 of this act, the Commission shall hold an 33 adjudicatory hearing and render an opinion in the matter within 34 60 days after the date on which the review panel refers the ethics
35 complaint to the Commission or the Commission vacates the 36 deferral agreement, as appropriate, unless the public officer or 37 employee who is the subject of the ethics complaint waives this 38 time limit.

39       2. If the Commission holds an adjudicatory hearing to receive 40 evidence concerning an ethics complaint, the Commission shall:

41       (a) Notify the public officer or employee who is the subject of 42 the ethics complaint of the date, time and place of the hearing;

43       (b) Allow the public officer or employee to be represented by 44 legal counsel; and

1 (c) Allow the public officer or employee to hear the evidence
2 presented to the Commission and to respond and present evidence
3 on his or her own behalf.

4 3. Unless the public officer or employee agrees to a shorter
5 time, an adjudicatory hearing may not be held less than 10 days
6 after the date on which the notice of the hearing is given to the 7 public officer or employee.

8 4. For good cause shown, the Commission may take 9 testimony from a person by telephone or video conference at an 10 adjudicatory hearing or at any other proceedings concerning the 11 ethics complaint.

12 Sec. 7. (Deleted by amendment.)

13 Sec. 8. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and 14 section 9 of this act, all information, communications, records,
15 documents or other materials in the possession of the Commission,
16 the review panel or their staff that are related to an ethics
17 complaint are confidential and are not public records pursuant to 18 chapter 239 of NRS until:

19 (a) The review panel determines whether there is just and 20 sufficient cause to render an opinion in the matter and serves 21 written notice of its determination on the public officer or 22 employee who is the subject of the ethics complaint; or

23 (b) The public officer or employee who is the subject of the 24 ethics complaint authorizes the Commission, in writing, to make 25 the information, communications, records, documents or other
26 materials that are related to the ethics complaint publicly 27 available,

28 ↪ whichever occurs first.

29 2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, if a person
30 who files an ethics complaint asks that his or her identity as the 31 requester be kept confidential, the Commission:

32 (a) Shall keep the identity of the requester confidential if he or 33 she is a public officer or employee who works for the same public 34 body, agency or employer as the public officer or employee who is 35 the subject of the ethics complaint.

36 (b) May keep the identity of the requester confidential if he or 37 she offers sufficient facts and circumstances showing a reasonable 38 likelihood that disclosure of his or her identity will subject the 39 requester or a member of his or her household to a bona fide
40 threat of physical force or violence.

41 3. If the Commission keeps the identity of the requester
42 confidential, the Commission shall not render an opinion in the 43 matter unless there is sufficient evidence without the testimony of 44 the requester to consider the propriety of the conduct of the public
45 officer or employee who is the subject of the ethics complaint. If

1 the Executive Director intends to present the testimony of the 2 requester as evidence for consideration by the Commission at the 3 adjudicatory hearing or in rendering an opinion in the matter and
4 the public officer or employee who is the subject of the ethics
5 complaint submits a written discovery request to the Commission
6 pursuant to section 9 of this act, the Commission shall disclose the 7 name of the requester only as a proposed witness within a
8 reasonable time before the adjudicatory hearing on the matter.

9 Sec. 9. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the 10 investigative file related to an ethics complaint is confidential and 11 is not a public record pursuant to chapter 239 of NRS.

12 2. At any time after being served with written notice of the 13 determination of the review panel regarding the existence of just 14 and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in 15 the matter, the public officer or employee who is the subject of the 16 ethics complaint may submit a written discovery request to the 17 Commission for a list of proposed witnesses and a copy of any 18 portion of the investigative file that the Executive Director intends 19 to present as evidence for consideration by the Commission at the 20 adjudicatory hearing or in rendering an opinion in the matter.

21 3. Any portion of the investigative file which the Executive
22 Director presents as evidence for consideration by the Commission
23 at the adjudicatory hearing or in rendering an opinion in the 24 matter becomes a public record and must be open for inspection
25 pursuant to chapter 239 of NRS.

26 4. For the purposes of this section:

27 (a) The investigative file includes, without limitation:

28 (1) Any response concerning the ethics complaint prepared
29 by the public officer or employee pursuant to section 3.9 of this act
30 and submitted to the Executive Director and the review panel
31 during the course of the investigation and any proceedings before
32 the review panel;

33 (2) Any recommendation concerning the ethics complaint
34 prepared by the Executive Director pursuant to section 4 of this 35 act and submitted to the review panel during the course of the 36 investigation and any proceedings before the review panel; and

37 (3) Any other information provided to or obtained by or on 38 behalf of the Executive Director through any form of 39 communication during the course of the investigation and any 40 proceedings before the review panel and any records, documents
41 or other materials created or maintained during the course of the 42 investigation and any proceedings before the review panel which 43 relate to the public officer or employee who is the subject of the 44 ethics complaint, including, without limitation, a transcript,

1 regardless of whether such information, records, documents or 2 other materials are obtained pursuant to a subpoena.

3 (b) The investigative file does not include any deferral
4 agreement.

5 Sec. 10. (Deleted by amendment.)

6 Sec. 11. The provisions of chapter 241 of NRS do not apply
7 to:

8 1. Any meeting or hearing held by the Commission to receive
9 information or evidence concerning an ethics complaint; and

10 2. Any deliberations of the Commission on such information
11 or evidence.

12 Sec. 12. 1. If the Commission renders an opinion in 13 proceedings concerning an ethics complaint, the opinion must 14 include findings of fact and conclusions of law.

15 2. If, in proceedings concerning an ethics complaint, the 16 Commission determines that a violation of this chapter:

17 (a) Has not been proven, the Commission shall dismiss the 18 matter, with or without prejudice, and with or without issuing a
19 letter of caution or instruction to the public officer or employee
20 pursuant to section 12.5 of this act.

21 (b) Has been proven, the Commission may take any action
22 authorized by this chapter.

23 Sec. 12.5. 1. In proceedings concerning an ethics
24 complaint, the Commission or the review panel, as appropriate,
25 may issue a letter of caution or instruction to the public officer or 26 employee who is the subject of the ethics complaint to caution or 27 instruct the public officer or employee regarding the propriety of 28 his or her conduct under the statutory ethical standards set forth 29 in this chapter.

30 2. If the Commission or the review panel issues a letter of 31 caution or instruction to the public officer or employee, the letter:

32 (a) Is confidential and is not a public record pursuant to 33 chapter 239 of NRS.

34 (b) May be considered in deciding the appropriate action to be 35 taken on any subsequent ethics complaint involving the public
36 officer or employee, unless the letter is not relevant to the issues
37 presented by the subsequent ethics complaint.

38 Sec. 13. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, in 39 proceedings concerning an ethics complaint, the Commission,
40 based on a finding that a violation of this chapter has been 41 proven, or the review panel, as part of the terms and conditions of 42 a deferral agreement, may, in addition to any other penalty
43 provided by law and in accordance with the provisions of
44 NRS 281A.475:

1 (a) Require the public officer or employee who is the subject of 2 the ethics complaint to:

3 (1) Comply in all respects with the provisions of this
4 chapter for a specified period without being the subject of another
5 ethics complaint arising from an alleged violation of this chapter 6 by the public officer or employee which occurs during the 7 specified period and for which the review panel determines that 8 there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an 9 opinion in the matter.

10 (2) Attend and complete training.

11 (3) Follow a remedial course of action.

12 (4) Issue a public apology.

13 (5) Comply with conditions or limitations on future
14 conduct.

15 (b) Publicly admonish, reprimand or censure the public officer
16 or employee.

17 (c) Take any combination of such actions or any other 18 reasonable action that the Commission or the review panel, as 19 appropriate, determines will remedy the violation or alleged 20 violation or deter similar violations or conduct.

21 2. In carrying out the provisions of subsection 1, the 22 Commission, based on a finding that a violation of this chapter
23 has been proven, or the review panel, as part of the terms and 24 conditions of a deferral agreement, may publicly:

25 (a) Admonish a public officer or employee if it is determined
26 that the public officer or employee has violated any provision of 27 this chapter, but the violation is not willful, or if such an 28 admonishment is imposed as part of the terms and conditions of a 29 deferral agreement. An admonishment is a written expression of 30 disapproval of the conduct of the public officer or employee.

31 (b) Reprimand a public officer or employee if it is determined
32 that the public officer or employee has willfully violated any 33 provision of this chapter, but there is no evidence that the willful 34 violation involved bad faith, malicious intent or knowing or 35 reckless disregard of the law, or if such a reprimand is imposed as 36 part of the terms and conditions of a deferral agreement. A 37 reprimand is a severe written reproof for the conduct of the public
38 officer or employee.

39 (c) Censure a public officer or employee if it is determined that 40 the public officer or employee has willfully violated any provision 41 of this chapter and there is evidence that the willful violation
42 involved bad faith, malicious intent or knowing or reckless 43 disregard of the law or there are no substantial mitigating factors
44 pursuant to NRS 281A.475 for the willful violation, or if such a 45 censure is imposed as part of the terms and conditions of a

1 deferral agreement. A censure is a formal written condemnation
2 of the conduct of the public officer or employee.

3 3. Any action taken by the Commission pursuant to this
4 section is a final decision for the purposes of judicial review
5 pursuant to NRS 233B.130. Any action taken by the review panel
6 pursuant to this chapter, including, without limitation, any action
7 relating to a deferral agreement, is not a final decision for the 8 purposes of judicial review pursuant to NRS 233B.130.

9 Sec. 14. For the purposes of NRS 41.032, the members of the 10 Commission and employees of the Commission shall be deemed to 11 be exercising or performing a discretionary function or duty in 12 taking any action pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

13 Sec. 15. NRS 281A.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:
14 281A.030 As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise
15 requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 281A.035 to 16 281A.170, inclusive, and sections 1.3 to 2.7, inclusive, of this act
17 have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

18 Sec. 15.5. NRS 281A.135 is hereby amended to read as
19 follows:

20 281A.135 1. "Opinion" means an opinion rendered by the 21 Commission in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

22 2. The term includes, without limitation, the disposition of ~~the~~ 23 ~~request for an opinion~~ an ethics complaint by stipulation, agreed 24 settlement, consent order or default as authorized by 25 NRS 233B.121.

26 Sec. 15.7. NRS 281A.150 is hereby amended to read as
27 follows:

28 281A.150 "Public employee" means any person who 29 ~~performs~~

30 1. Performs public duties under the direction and control of a
31 public officer for compensation paid by the State or any county, city
32 or other political subdivision ~~H~~ ; or

33 2. Is designated as a public employee for the purposes of this 34 chapter pursuant to NRS 281A.182.

35 Sec. 16. NRS 281A.182 is hereby amended to read as follows:
36 281A.182 1. Any person who serves in one of the following
37 positions is designated as a public officer solely and exclusively for 38 the purposes of this chapter:

39 (a) A president of a university, state college or community
40 college within the Nevada System of Higher Education.

41 (b) A superintendent of a county school district.

42 (c) A county manager or a city manager.

43 2. ~~This section applies~~ The provisions of subsection 1 apply
44 to such a person regardless of whether the person serves in the 45 position:

- 1 (a) By appointment, contract or employment;
- 2 (b) With or without compensation; or
- 3 (c) On a temporary, interim or acting basis.

4 3. A person who is not otherwise a public officer is designated
5 as a public officer solely and exclusively for the purposes of this 6 chapter if the person:

- 7 (a) Enters into a contract with any state or local agency;
- 8 (b) Is paid compensation with public money; and
- 9 (c) Serves in a position which involves the exercise of a public
10 power, trust or duty and which ordinarily would be held or filled
11 by a public officer.

12 4. A person who is not otherwise a public employee is 13 designated as a public employee solely and exclusively for the 14 purposes of this chapter if:

- 15 (a) The person enters into a contract with any state or local 16 agency;
- 17 (b) The person is paid compensation with public money;
- 18 (c) The person serves in a position which involves the 19 performance of public duties under the substantial and continuing 20 direction and control of a public officer or supervisory public
21 employee;
- 22 (d) The position ordinarily would be held or filled by a public 23 employee and would require the public employee to hold a valid
24 professional or occupational license or similar type of 25 authorization issued by a state or local agency to perform the 26 public duties of the position, other than a general business license
27 or similar type of authorization;
- 28 (e) The position is entrusted with public duties of a substantial 29 and continuing nature which ordinarily would require a public
30 employee to avoid conflicts between the private interests of the 31 public employee and those of the general public whom the public
32 employee serves; and

33 (f) The person occupies the position on a full-time basis or its 34 equivalent for a substantial and continuing period of time.

35 5. The provisions of subsections 3 and 4 must be interpreted 36 and applied to ensure that a person does not evade the provisions
37 of this chapter because a state or local agency elects to use a 38 contractual relationship instead of an employment relationship for 39 a position which ordinarily would be held or filled by a public
40 officer or employee.

41 6. If, pursuant to this section, any person is designated as a 42 public officer or employee for the purposes of this chapter, that 43 designation:

- 44 (a) Does not make the person a public officer or employee for 45 the purposes of any other law or for any other purposes; and

1       (b) Must not be used, interpreted or applied in any manner to 2 establish, suggest or prove that the person is a public officer or 3 employee for the purposes of any other law or for any other
4 purposes.

5       Sec. 16.5. NRS 281A.210 is hereby amended to read as
6 follows:

7       281A.210 1. The Commission shall:

8       (a) At its first meeting and annually thereafter elect a Chair and 9 Vice Chair from among its members.

10       (b) Meet regularly at least once in each calendar quarter, unless 11 there are no ethics complaints or requests ~~made for an opinion~~ for 12 advisory opinions pursuant to ~~NRS 281A.440,~~ this chapter, and at 13 other times upon the call of the Chair.

14       2. Members of the Commission are entitled to receive a salary
15 of not more than $80 per day, as fixed by the Commission, while 16 engaged in the business of the Commission.

17       3. While engaged in the business of the Commission, each 18 member and employee of the Commission is entitled to receive the 19 per diem allowance and travel expenses provided for state officers
20 and employees generally.

21       4. The Commission may, within the limits of legislative 22 appropriation, maintain such facilities as are required to carry out its 23 functions.

24       Sec. 16.6. NRS 281A.220 is hereby amended to read as
25 follows:

26       281A.220 1. The Chair shall appoint one or more 27 ~~investigatory~~ review panels of ~~two~~ three members of the 28 Commission on a rotating basis to perform the functions assigned 29 to such review ~~the determinations of just and sufficient cause made~~
30 ~~by the Executive Director~~ panels pursuant to ~~NRS 281A.440 and~~ 31 ~~make a final determination regarding whether there is just and~~ 32 ~~sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in a~~
33 ~~matter.~~ this chapter.

34       2. The Chair and Vice Chair of the Commission may not serve 35 together on ~~an investigatory~~ a review panel.

36       3. ~~The~~ Not more than two members of ~~an investigatory~~ a 37 review panel may ~~not~~ be members of the same political party.

38       4. If ~~an investigatory~~ a review panel determines that there is 39 just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in 40 a matter, the members of the ~~investigatory~~ review panel shall not 41 participate in any further proceedings of the Commission relating to 42 that matter.

43       Sec. 17. NRS 281A.240 is hereby amended to read as follows:

44       281A.240 1. In addition to any other duties imposed upon the 45 Executive Director, the Executive Director shall:

1 (a) Maintain complete and accurate records of all transactions
2 and proceedings of the Commission.

3 (b) Receive ethics complaints and requests for advisory
4 opinions pursuant to ~~NRS 281A.440.~~ this chapter.

5 (c) Gather information and conduct investigations regarding 6 ethics complaints and requests for advisory opinions ~~{received by~~ 7 ~~the Commission and submit}~~ pursuant to this chapter.

8 (d) Submit recommendations to the ~~{investigatory panel~~
9 ~~appointed pursuant to NRS 281A.220}~~ review panel regarding 10 whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to 11 render an opinion in ~~{response to a particular request.~~

12 ~~—(d)}~~ a matter.

13 (e) Recommend to the Commission any regulations or 14 legislation that the Executive Director considers desirable or 15 necessary to improve the operation of the Commission and maintain 16 high standards of ethical conduct in government.

17 ~~{(e)}~~ (f) Upon the request of any public officer or the employer
18 of a public employee, conduct training on the requirements of this 19 chapter, the rules and regulations adopted by the Commission and 20 previous opinions of the Commission. In any such training, the 21 Executive Director shall emphasize that the Executive Director is 22 not a member of the Commission and that only the Commission
23 may issue opinions concerning the application of the statutory 24 ethical standards to any given set of facts and circumstances. The 25 Commission may charge a reasonable fee to cover the costs of 26 training provided by the Executive Director pursuant to this 27 subsection.

28 ~~{(f)}~~ (g) Perform such other duties, not inconsistent with law, as 29 may be required by the Commission.

30 2. The Executive Director shall, within the limits of legislative 31 appropriation, employ such persons as are necessary to carry out any 32 of the Executive Director's duties relating to:

33 (a) The administration of the affairs of the Commission; and

34 (b) The investigation of matters under the jurisdiction of the 35 Commission.

36 3. If the Executive Director is prohibited from acting on a 37 particular matter or is otherwise unable to act on a particular matter, 38 the Chair of the Commission shall designate a qualified person to 39 perform the duties of the Executive Director with regard to that 40 particular matter.

41 Sec. 18. NRS 281A.280 is hereby amended to read as follows:

42 281A.280 1. ~~{The}~~ Except as otherwise provided in this 43 section, the Commission has jurisdiction to investigate and take 44 appropriate action regarding an alleged violation of this chapter by a

1 public officer or employee or former public officer or employee in 2 any proceeding commenced by ~~†~~

3 ~~—(a) The filing of a request for an opinion†~~ an ethics complaint,
4 which is filed with the Commission ~~†; or~~

5 ~~—(b) The†~~ or initiated by the Commission on its own motion,
6 ~~††~~ within 2 years after the alleged violation or reasonable
7 discovery of the alleged violation.

8 2. The Commission does not have jurisdiction regarding 9 alleged conduct by a public officer or employee or former public
10 officer or employee for which:

11 (a) A complaint may be filed or, if the applicable limitations
12 period has expired, could have been filed with the United States
13 Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or the Nevada Equal 14 Rights Commission; or

15 (b) A complaint or employment-related grievance may be filed
16 or, if the applicable limitations period has expired, could have 17 been filed with another appropriate agency with jurisdiction to 18 redress alleged discrimination or harassment, including, without 19 limitation, a state or local employee-management relations board
20 or similar state or local agency,

21 ↳ but any bar on the Commission's jurisdiction imposed by this 22 subsection applies only to the extent that it pertains to the alleged 23 discrimination or harassment, and this subsection does not deprive 24 the Commission of jurisdiction regarding the alleged conduct if 25 such conduct is sanctionable separately or concurrently under the 26 provisions of this chapter, irrespective of the alleged 27 discrimination or harassment.

28 3. For the purposes of this section, a proceeding is commenced:

29 (a) On the date on which ~~†a request for an opinion†~~ an ethics
30 complaint is filed in the proper form with the Commission in 31 accordance with the regulations of the Commission; or

32 (b) If the ~~†proceeding is commenced†~~ ethics complaint is 33 initiated by the Commission on its own motion, on the date on 34 which the Commission serves the public officer or employee or 35 former public officer or employee with notice of the ~~†proceeding†~~ 36 ethics complaint in accordance with the regulations of the 37 Commission.

38 Sec. 18.5. NRS 281A.290 is hereby amended to read as
39 follows:

40 281A.290 The Commission shall:

41 1. Adopt procedural regulations that are necessary and proper 42 to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including, without 43 limitation:

44 (a) To facilitate the receipt of inquiries by the Commission;

1 (b) For the filing of an ethics complaint or a request for an
2 advisory opinion with the Commission;

3 (c) For the withdrawal of an ethics complaint or a request for an 4 advisory opinion by the person who filed the ethics complaint or 5 request; and

6 (d) To facilitate the prompt rendition of opinions by the 7 Commission.

8 2. Prescribe, by regulation, forms and procedures for the 9 submission of statements of acknowledgment filed by public
10 officers pursuant to NRS 281A.500, maintain files of such 11 statements and make the statements available for public inspection.

12 3. Cause the making of such investigations as are reasonable
13 and necessary for the rendition of its opinions pursuant to this 14 chapter.

15 4. Inform the Attorney General or district attorney of all cases
16 of noncompliance with the requirements of this chapter.

17 5. Recommend to the Legislature such further legislation as the 18 Commission considers desirable or necessary to promote and 19 maintain high standards of ethical conduct in government.

20 6. Publish a manual for the use of public officers and 21 employees that explains the requirements of this chapter.

22 ➔ The Legislative Counsel shall prepare annotations to this chapter
23 for inclusion in the Nevada Revised Statutes based on the published
24 opinions of the Commission.

25 Sec. 19. NRS 281A.300 is hereby amended to read as follows:

26 281A.300 1. The Chair and Vice Chair of the Commission
27 may administer oaths.

28 2. The Commission, upon majority vote, may issue a subpoena
29 to compel the attendance of a witness and the production of any 30 books and papers H for any hearing before the Commission.

31 3. Upon the request of the Executive Director, the Chair or,
32 in the Chair's absence, the Vice Chair, may issue a subpoena to 33 compel the participation of a potential witness and the production
34 of any books and papers during the course of any investigation.

35 4. Upon the request of the Executive Director or the public
36 officer or employee who is the subject of ~~fa request for an opinion,~~
37 an ethics complaint, the Chair or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice 38 Chair, may issue a subpoena to compel the attendance of a witness
39 and the production of any books and papers H for any hearing
40 before the Commission. A public officer or employee who requests
41 the issuance of a subpoena pursuant to this subsection must serve 42 the subpoena in the manner provided in the Nevada Rules of Civil 43 Procedure for service of subpoenas in a civil action and must pay
44 the costs of such service.

1 ~~{3}~~ 5. Before issuing a subpoena to a public officer or 2 employee who is the subject of ~~{a request for an opinion}~~ an ethics
3 complaint to compel his or her participation in any investigation,
4 his or her attendance as a witness or his or her production of any
5 books ~~{or}~~ and papers, the Executive Director shall submit a written 6 request to the public officer or employee requesting:

7 (a) The ~~{appearance}~~ voluntary participation of the public
8 officer or employee in the investigation;

9 (b) The voluntary attendance of the public officer or employee
10 as a witness; or

11 ~~{(b)}~~ (c) The voluntary production by the public officer or 12 employee of any books and papers relating to the ~~{request for an~~ 13 ~~opinion.~~

14 ~~—4.~~ ethics complaint.

15 6. Each written request submitted by the Executive Director 16 pursuant to subsection ~~{3}~~ 5 must specify the time and place for the 17 voluntary participation of the public officer or employee in the 18 investigation, attendance of the public officer or employee as a 19 witness or ~~{the}~~ production of any books and papers, and designate 20 with certainty the books and papers requested, if any.

21 7. If the public officer or employee fails or refuses to respond
22 to the Executive Director's written request pursuant to subsection
23 5 to voluntarily participate or attend at the time and place specified
24 or produce the books and papers requested by the Executive 25 Director within 5 business days after receipt of the written request, 26 the Chair or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice Chair, may issue the 27 subpoena. Failure of the public officer or employee to comply with 28 the written request of the Executive Director shall be deemed a 29 waiver by the public officer or employee of the time limits set forth
30 in ~~{subsections 4, 5 and 6 of NRS 281A.440.}~~ NRS 281A.450,
31 281A.465, 281A.475 and 281A.480 and sections 3.6 to 13,
32 inclusive, of this act that apply to proceedings concerning the 33 ethics complaint.

34 8. If any witness fails or refuses to participate, attend, testify 35 or produce any books and papers as required by the subpoena, the 36 Chair ~~{of the Commission}~~ or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice 37 Chair, may report to the district court by petition, setting forth that:

38 (a) Due notice has been given of the time and place of the 39 participation or attendance of the witness or the production of the 40 books and papers;

41 (b) The witness has been subpoenaed ~~{by the Commission}~~
42 pursuant to this section; and

43 (c) The witness has failed or refused to participate, attend ,
44 testify or produce the books and papers as required by the subpoena

1 , ~~before the Commission,~~ or has failed or refused to answer
2 questions propounded to the witness,
3 ~~and~~ and asking for an order of the court compelling the witness to 4 participate, attend , ~~and~~ testify or produce the books and papers
5 ~~before the Commission.~~

6 ~~—6—~~ as required by the subpoena.

7 9. Upon such a petition, the court shall enter an order directing 8 the witness to appear before the court at a time and place to be fixed 9 by the court in its order, the time to be not more than 10 days after 10 the date of the order, and then and there show cause why the witness 11 has not participated, attended, testified or produced the books or 12 papers ~~before the Commission,~~ as required by the subpoena. A 13 certified copy of the order must be served upon the witness.

14 ~~7—~~ 10. If it appears to the court that the subpoena was 15 regularly issued ~~by the Commission,~~ pursuant to this section, the 16 court shall enter an order that the witness ~~appear before the~~ 17 ~~Commission,~~ comply with the subpoena, at the time and place 18 fixed in the order, and participate, attend, testify or produce the 19 required books and papers. Upon failure to obey the order, the 20 witness must be dealt with as for contempt of court.

21 Sec. 20. NRS 281A.400 is hereby amended to read as follows:

22 281A.400 A code of ethical standards is hereby established to 23 govern the conduct of public officers and employees:

24 1. A public officer or employee shall not seek or accept any 25 gift, service, favor, employment, engagement, emolument or 26 economic opportunity , for the public officer or employee or any 27 person to whom the public officer or employee has a commitment
28 in a private capacity, which would tend improperly to influence a 29 reasonable person in the public officer's or employee's position to 30 depart from the faithful and impartial discharge of the public
31 officer's or employee's public duties.

32 2. A public officer or employee shall not use the public
33 officer's or employee's position in government to secure or grant 34 unwarranted privileges, preferences, exemptions or advantages for 35 the public officer or employee, any business entity in which the 36 public officer or employee has a significant pecuniary interest ~~;~~ or 37 any person to whom the public officer or employee has a
38 commitment in a private capacity . ~~to the interests of that person.~~
39 As used in this subsection, "unwarranted" means without 40 justification or adequate reason.

41 3. A public officer or employee shall not participate as an agent
42 of government in the negotiation or execution of a contract between 43 the government and the public officer or employee, any business
44 entity in which the public officer or employee has a significant

1 pecuniary interest † or any person to whom the public officer or 2 employee has a commitment in a private capacity.

3 4. A public officer or employee shall not accept any salary,
4 retainer, augmentation, expense allowance or other compensation
5 from any private source , for the public officer or employee or any
6 person to whom the public officer or employee has a commitment
7 in a private capacity, for the performance of the public officer's or 8 employee's duties as a public officer or employee.

9 5. If a public officer or employee acquires, through the public
10 officer's or employee's public duties or relationships, any 11 information which by law or practice is not at the time available to 12 people generally, the public officer or employee shall not use the 13 information to further a significant pecuniary interest of the public
14 officer or employee or any other person or business entity.

15 6. A public officer or employee shall not suppress any 16 governmental report or other official document because it might 17 tend to affect unfavorably a significant pecuniary interest of the 18 public officer or employee † or any person to whom the public
19 officer or employee has a commitment in a private capacity.

20 7. Except for State Legislators who are subject to the 21 restrictions set forth in subsection 8, a public officer or employee
22 shall not use governmental time, property, equipment or other 23 facility to benefit a significant personal or pecuniary interest of the 24 public officer or employee † or any person to whom the public
25 officer or employee has a commitment in a private capacity. This 26 subsection does not prohibit:

27 (a) A limited use of governmental property, equipment or other 28 facility for personal purposes if:

29 (1) The public officer or employee who is responsible for 30 and has authority to authorize the use of such property, equipment
31 or other facility has established a policy allowing the use or the use
32 is necessary as a result of emergency circumstances;

33 (2) The use does not interfere with the performance of the 34 public officer's or employee's public duties;

35 (3) The cost or value related to the use is nominal; and

36 (4) The use does not create the appearance of impropriety;

37 (b) The use of mailing lists, computer data or other information 38 lawfully obtained from a governmental agency which is available to 39 members of the general public for nongovernmental purposes; or 40 (c) The use of telephones or other means of communication if 41 there is not a special charge for that use.

42 ➤ If a governmental agency incurs a cost as a result of a use that is
43 authorized pursuant to this subsection or would ordinarily charge a 44 member of the general public for the use, the public officer or

* S B 8 4 R 1 *

1 employee shall promptly reimburse the cost or pay the charge to the 2 governmental agency.

3 8. A State Legislator shall not:

4 (a) Use governmental time, property, equipment or other facility
5 for a nongovernmental purpose or for the private benefit of the State
6 Legislator or any other person. This paragraph does not prohibit:

7 (1) A limited use of state property and resources for personal 8 purposes if:

9 (I) The use does not interfere with the performance of the 10 State Legislator's public duties;

11 (II) The cost or value related to the use is nominal; and 12 (III) The use does not create the appearance of 13 impropriety;

14 (2) The use of mailing lists, computer data or other 15 information lawfully obtained from a governmental agency which is 16 available to members of the general public for nongovernmental
17 purposes; or

18 (3) The use of telephones or other means of communication
19 if there is not a special charge for that use.

20 (b) Require or authorize a legislative employee, while on duty, 21 to perform personal services or assist in a private activity, except:

22 (1) In unusual and infrequent situations where the 23 employee's service is reasonably necessary to permit the State
24 Legislator or legislative employee to perform that person's official 25 duties; or

26 (2) Where such service has otherwise been established as 27 legislative policy.

28 9. A public officer or employee shall not attempt to benefit a 29 significant personal or pecuniary interest of the public officer or 30 employee *or any person to whom the public officer or employee
31 has a commitment in a private capacity* through the influence of a 32 subordinate.

33 10. A public officer or employee shall not seek other 34 employment or contracts *for the public officer or employee or any 35 person to whom the public officer or employee has a commitment
36 in a private capacity* through the use of the public officer's or 37 employee's official position.

38 Sec. 20.3. NRS 281A.410 is hereby amended to read as
39 follows:

40 281A.410 In addition to the requirements of the code of ethical 41 standards and the other provisions of this chapter:

42 1. If a public officer or employee serves in a state agency of the 43 Executive Department or an agency of any county, city or other
44 political subdivision, the public officer or employee:

1 (a) Shall not accept compensation from any private person to 2 represent or counsel the private person on any issue pending before
3 the agency in which that public officer or employee serves, if the 4 agency makes decisions; and

5 (b) If the public officer or employee leaves the service of the 6 agency, shall not, for 1 year after leaving the service of the agency,
7 represent or counsel for compensation a private person upon any 8 issue which was under consideration by the agency during the 9 public officer's or employee's service. As used in this paragraph,
10 "issue" includes a case, proceeding, application, contract or 11 determination, but does not include the proposal or consideration of 12 legislative measures or administrative regulations.

13 2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, a State
14 Legislator or a member of a local legislative body, or a public 15 officer or employee whose public service requires less than half of 16 his or her time, may represent or counsel a private person before an 17 agency in which he or she does not serve.

18 3. A member of a local legislative body shall not represent or 19 counsel a private person for compensation before another local 20 agency if the territorial jurisdiction of the other local agency
21 includes any part of the county in which the member serves. The 22 Commission may relieve the member from the strict application of 23 the provisions of this subsection if:

24 (a) The member ~~requests~~ files a request for an advisory
25 opinion from the Commission pursuant to ~~subsection 1 of NRS~~
26 ~~281A.440;~~ section 3.2 of this act; and

27 (b) The Commission determines that such relief is not contrary
28 to:

29 (1) The best interests of the public;

30 (2) The continued ethical integrity of each local agency
31 affected by the matter; and

32 (3) The provisions of this chapter.

33 4. For the purposes of subsection 3, the request for an
34 advisory opinion, the advisory opinion and all meetings, hearings
35 and proceedings of the Commission in such a matter are governed
36 by the provisions of sections 3.1 to 3.5, inclusive, of this act.

37 5. Unless permitted by this section, a public officer or 38 employee shall not represent or counsel a private person for 39 compensation before any state agency of the Executive or 40 Legislative Department.

41 ~~5. Not later than January 15 of each year, if any State~~
42 ~~Legislator, member of a local legislative body or other public officer~~
43 ~~permitted by this section has, within the preceding year, represented~~
44 ~~or counseled a private person for compensation before a state~~
45 ~~agency of the Executive Department, he or she shall disclose for~~

1 ~~each such representation or counseling during the previous calendar~~
2 ~~year:~~

3 ~~—(a) The name of the client;~~

4 ~~—(b) The nature of the representation; and~~

5 ~~—(c) The name of the state agency.~~

6 ~~—6. The disclosure required by subsection 5 must be made in~~ 7 ~~writing and filed with the Commission on a form prescribed by the~~ 8 ~~Commission. For the purposes of this subsection, the disclosure is~~ 9 ~~timely filed if, on or before the last day for filing, the disclosure is~~ 10 ~~filed in one of the following ways:~~

11 ~~—(a) Delivered in person to the principal office of the~~ 12 ~~Commission in Carson City.~~

13 ~~—(b) Mailed to the Commission by first class mail, or other class~~
14 ~~of mail that is at least as expeditious, postage prepaid. Filing by mail~~
15 ~~is complete upon timely depositing the disclosure with the United~~ 16 ~~States Postal Service.~~

17 ~~—(c) Dispatched to a third party commercial carrier for delivery to~~
18 ~~the Commission within 3 calendar days. Filing by third party~~
19 ~~commercial carrier is complete upon timely depositing the~~
20 ~~disclosure with the third party commercial carrier.~~

21 ~~—(d) Transmitted to the Commission by facsimile machine or~~
22 ~~other electronic means authorized by the Commission. Filing by~~ 23 ~~facsimile machine or other electronic means is complete upon~~
24 ~~receipt of the transmission by the Commission.~~

25 ~~—7. The Commission shall retain a disclosure filed pursuant to~~ 26 ~~this section for 6 years after the date on which the disclosure was~~ 27 ~~filed.†~~

28 Sec. 20.5. NRS 281A.420 is hereby amended to read as
29 follows:

30 281A.420 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a
31 public officer or employee shall not approve, disapprove, vote,
32 abstain from voting or otherwise act upon a matter:

33 (a) Regarding which the public officer or employee has accepted
34 a gift or loan;

35 (b) In which the public officer or employee has a significant 36 pecuniary interest; ~~†or†~~

37 (c) Which would reasonably be affected by the public officer's 38 or employee's commitment in a private capacity to the interests of 39 another person ~~††~~; or

40 (d) Which would reasonably be related to the nature of any
41 representation or counseling that the public officer or employee
42 provided to a private person for compensation before another
43 agency within the immediately preceding year, provided such 44 representation or counseling is permitted by NRS 281A.410,

1   ↳ without disclosing information concerning the gift or loan, the 2 significant pecuniary interest ~~for~~, the commitment in a private 3 capacity to the interests of the other person or the nature of the 4 representation or counseling of the private person that is sufficient
5 to inform the public of the potential effect of the action or abstention
6 upon the person who provided the gift or loan, upon the public
7 officer's or employee's significant pecuniary interest, ~~for~~ upon the 8 person to whom the public officer or employee has a commitment in 9 a private capacity ~~for~~ or upon the private person who was 10 represented or counseled by the public officer or employee. Such a 11 disclosure must be made at the time the matter is considered. If the 12 public officer or employee is a member of a body which makes 13 decisions, the public officer or employee shall make the disclosure
14 in public to the chair and other members of the body. If the public 15 officer or employee is not a member of such a body and holds an 16 appointive office, the public officer or employee shall make the 17 disclosure to the supervisory head of the public officer's or 18 employee's organization or, if the public officer holds an elective
19 office, to the general public in the area from which the public officer 20 is elected.

21   2. The provisions of subsection 1 do not require a public
22 officer to disclose:

23   (a) Any campaign contributions that the public officer reported
24 in a timely manner pursuant to NRS 294A.120 or 294A.125; or

25   (b) Any contributions to a legal defense fund that the public
26 officer reported in a timely manner pursuant to NRS 294A.286.

27   3. Except as otherwise provided in this section, in addition to 28 the requirements of subsection 1, a public officer shall not vote upon 29 or advocate the passage or failure of, but may otherwise participate 30 in the consideration of, a matter with respect to which the 31 independence of judgment of a reasonable person in the public
32 officer's situation would be materially affected by:

33   (a) The public officer's acceptance of a gift or loan;

34   (b) The public officer's significant pecuniary interest; or

35   (c) The public officer's commitment in a private capacity to the 36 interests of another person.

37   4. In interpreting and applying the provisions of subsection 3:

38   (a) It must be presumed that the independence of judgment of a 39 reasonable person in the public officer's situation would not be 40 materially affected by the public officer's acceptance of a gift or 41 loan, significant pecuniary interest or commitment in a private 42 capacity to the interests of another person where the resulting 43 benefit or detriment accruing to the public officer, or if the public 44 officer has a commitment in a private capacity to the interests of 45 another person, accruing to the other person, is not greater than that

1 accruing to any other member of any general business, profession,
2 occupation or group that is affected by the matter. The presumption
3 set forth in this paragraph does not affect the applicability of the 4 requirements set forth in subsection 1 relating to the duty of the 5 public officer to make a proper disclosure ~~of the acceptance of a~~
6 ~~gift or loan, significant pecuniary interest or commitment in a~~ 7 ~~private capacity to the interests of another person.~~ at the time the 8 matter is considered and in the manner required by subsection 1.

9 (b) The Commission must give appropriate weight and proper
10 deference to the public policy of this State which favors the right of 11 a public officer to perform the duties for which the public officer
12 was elected or appointed and to vote or otherwise act upon a matter,
13 provided the public officer ~~has properly disclosed the public~~
14 ~~officer's acceptance of a gift or loan, significant pecuniary interest~~
15 ~~or commitment in a private capacity to the interests of another~~ 16 ~~person~~ makes a proper disclosure at the time the matter is 17 considered and in the manner required by subsection 1. Because 18 abstention by a public officer disrupts the normal course of 19 representative government and deprives the public and the public 20 officer's constituents of a voice in governmental affairs, the 21 provisions of this section are intended to require abstention only in 22 clear cases where the independence of judgment of a reasonable
23 person in the public officer's situation would be materially affected 24 by the public officer's acceptance of a gift or loan, significant 25 pecuniary interest or commitment in a private capacity to the 26 interests of another person.

27 5. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 241.0355, if a public
28 officer declares to the body or committee in which the vote is to be 29 taken that the public officer will abstain from voting because of the 30 requirements of this section, the necessary quorum to act upon and 31 the number of votes necessary to act upon the matter, as fixed by 32 any statute, ordinance or rule, is reduced as though the member
33 abstaining were not a member of the body or committee.

34 6. The provisions of this section do not, under any 35 circumstances:

36 (a) Prohibit a member of a local legislative body from 37 requesting or introducing a legislative measure; or

38 (b) Require a member of a local legislative body to take any 39 particular action before or while requesting or introducing a 40 legislative measure.

41 7. The provisions of this section do not, under any 42 circumstances, apply to State Legislators or allow the Commission 43 to exercise jurisdiction or authority over State Legislators. The 44 responsibility of a State Legislator to make disclosures concerning 45 gifts, loans, interests or commitments and the responsibility of a

1 State Legislator to abstain from voting upon or advocating the 2 passage or failure of a matter are governed by the Standing Rules of 3 the Legislative Department of State Government which are adopted, 4 administered and enforced exclusively by the appropriate bodies of 5 the Legislative Department of State Government pursuant to Section
6 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution.

7 8. As used in this section, “public officer” and “public
8 employee” do not include a State Legislator.

9 Sec. 20.7. NRS 281A.430 is hereby amended to read as
10 follows:

11 281A.430 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and 12 NRS 218A.970 and 332.800, a public officer or employee shall not 13 bid on or enter into a contract between an agency and any business
14 entity in which the public officer or employee has a significant 15 pecuniary interest.

16 2. A member of any board, commission or similar body who is 17 engaged in the profession, occupation or business regulated by such 18 board, commission or body may, in the ordinary course of his or her 19 business, bid on or enter into a contract with an agency, except the 20 board, commission or body on which he or she is a member, if the 21 member has not taken part in developing the contract plans or 22 specifications and the member will not be personally involved in 23 opening, considering or accepting offers.

24 3. A full- or part-time faculty member or employee of the 25 Nevada System of Higher Education may bid on or enter into a
26 contract with an agency, or may benefit financially or otherwise 27 from a contract between an agency and a private entity, if the 28 contract complies with the policies established by the Board of 29 Regents of the University of Nevada pursuant to NRS 396.255.

30 4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, 3 or 5, a 31 public officer or employee may bid on or enter into a contract with 32 an agency if:

33 (a) The contracting process is controlled by the rules of open
34 competitive bidding or the rules of open competitive bidding are not 35 employed as a result of the applicability of NRS 332.112
36 or 332.148;

37 (b) The sources of supply are limited;

38 (c) The public officer or employee has not taken part in 39 developing the contract plans or specifications; and

40 (d) The public officer or employee will not be personally
41 involved in opening, considering or accepting offers.

42 ➤ If a public officer who is authorized to bid on or enter into a 43 contract with an agency pursuant to this subsection is a member of 44 the governing body of the agency, the public officer, pursuant to the 45 requirements of NRS 281A.420, shall disclose the public officer’s

1 interest in the contract and shall not vote on or advocate the 2 approval of the contract.

3 5. A member of a local legislative body shall not, either
4 individually or through any business entity in which the member has 5 a significant pecuniary interest, sell goods or services to the local 6 agency governed by his or her local legislative body unless:

7 (a) The member, or the business entity in which the member has 8 a significant pecuniary interest, offers the sole source of supply of 9 the goods or services within the territorial jurisdiction of the local 10 agency governed by his or her local legislative body;

11 (b) The local legislative body includes in the public notice and 12 agenda for the meeting at which it will consider the purchase of 13 such goods or services a clear and conspicuous statement that it is 14 considering purchasing such goods or services from one of its 15 members, or from a business entity in which the member has a 16 significant pecuniary interest;

17 (c) At the meeting, the member discloses his or her significant 18 pecuniary interest in the purchase of such goods or services and 19 does not vote upon or advocate the approval of the matter pursuant 20 to the requirements of NRS 281A.420; and

21 (d) The local legislative body approves the purchase of such 22 goods or services in accordance with all other applicable provisions 23 of law.

24 6. The Commission may relieve a public officer or employee
25 from the strict application of the provisions of this section if:

26 (a) The public officer or employee ~~requests~~ files a request for 27 an advisory opinion from the Commission pursuant to ~~subsection 1~~ 28 ~~of NRS 281A.440;~~ section 3.2 of this act; and

29 (b) The Commission determines that such relief is not contrary
30 to:

31 (1) The best interests of the public;

32 (2) The continued ethical integrity of each agency affected
33 by the matter; and

34 (3) The provisions of this chapter.

35 7. For the purposes of subsection 6, the request for an
36 advisory opinion, the advisory opinion and all meetings, hearings
37 and proceedings of the Commission in such a matter are governed
38 by the provisions of sections 3.1 to 3.5, inclusive, of this act.

39 Sec. 21. (Deleted by amendment.)

40 Sec. 21.5. NRS 281A.450 is hereby amended to read as
41 follows:

42 281A.450 1. If ~~fa request for an opinion is submitted to~~ an 43 ethics complaint is filed with or initiated by the Commission 44 concerning a present or former state officer or employee, unless the 45 state officer or employee retains his or her legal counsel or the

1 Attorney General tenders the defense of the state officer or 2 employee to an insurer who, pursuant to a contract of insurance, is 3 authorized to defend the state officer or employee, the Attorney
4 General shall defend the state officer or employee or employ special
5 counsel to defend the state officer or employee in any proceeding
6 relating to the ~~request for the opinion~~ ethics complaint if:

7 (a) The state officer or employee submits a written request for 8 defense in the manner provided in NRS 41.0339; and

9 (b) Based on the facts and allegations known to the Attorney
10 General, the Attorney General determines that the act or omission
11 on which the alleged violation is based:

12 (1) Appears to be within the course and scope of public duty
13 or employment of the state officer or employee; and 14 (2) Appears to have been performed or omitted in good faith.

15 2. The Attorney General shall create a written record setting
16 forth the basis for the Attorney General's determination of whether 17 to defend the state officer or employee pursuant to paragraph (b) of 18 subsection 1. The written record is not admissible in evidence at 19 trial or in any other judicial or administrative proceeding in which 20 the state officer or employee is a party, except in connection with an 21 application to withdraw as the attorney of record.

22 Sec. 22. NRS 281A.465 is hereby amended to read as follows:

23 281A.465 In any matter in which the Commission disposes of 24 ~~a request for an opinion~~ an ethics complaint by stipulation, agreed 25 settlement or consent order ~~that~~ or in which the review panel
26 approves a deferral agreement, the Commission or the review
27 panel, as appropriate, shall treat comparable situations in a 28 comparable manner and shall ensure that the disposition of the 29 matter bears a reasonable relationship to the severity of the violation 30 or alleged violation.

31 Sec. 23. NRS 281A.475 is hereby amended to read as follows:

32 281A.475 1. ~~That~~ The Commission, in determining whether a 33 violation of this chapter is a willful violation and, if so, the ~~amount~~ 34 ~~of any civil~~ penalty to be imposed on a public officer or employee
35 or former public officer or employee pursuant to NRS 281A.480 ~~that~~ 36 or section 13 of this act, or the ~~Commission~~ review panel, in 37 determining whether to approve a deferral agreement regarding 38 an alleged violation, shall consider, without limitation:

39 (a) The seriousness of the violation or alleged violation,
40 including, without limitation, the nature, circumstances, extent and 41 gravity of the violation or alleged violation;

42 (b) The number and history of previous warnings ~~issued to~~ ,
43 letters of caution or instruction, deferral agreements or violations 44 or alleged violations of the provisions of this chapter ~~by~~ relating 45 to the public officer or employee;

1 (c) The cost to ~~{the Commission to}~~ conduct the investigation
2 and any ~~{hearing}~~ meetings, hearings or other proceedings relating 3 to the violation or alleged violation;

4 (d) Any mitigating factors, including, without limitation, any 5 self-reporting, prompt correction of the violation or alleged
6 violation, any attempts to rectify the violation or alleged violation 7 before any ethics complaint is filed and any cooperation by the 8 public officer or employee in resolving the ethics complaint;

9 (e) Any restitution or reimbursement paid to parties affected by 10 the violation or alleged violation;

11 (f) The extent of any financial gain resulting from the violation
12 or alleged violation; and

13 (g) Any other matter justice may require.

14 2. The factors set forth in this section are not exclusive or 15 exhaustive, and the Commission or the review panel, as 16 appropriate, may consider other factors in the disposition of the 17 matter if they bear a reasonable relationship to the ~~{Commission's}~~ 18 determination of the severity of the violation or alleged violation.

19 3. In applying the factors set forth in this section, the 20 Commission or the review panel, as appropriate, shall treat
21 comparable situations in a comparable manner and shall ensure that 22 the disposition of the matter bears a reasonable relationship to the 23 severity of the violation or alleged violation.

24 Sec. 24. NRS 281A.480 is hereby amended to read as follows:

25 281A.480 1. In addition to any other penalties provided by 26 law and in accordance with the provisions of NRS 281A.475, the 27 Commission may impose on a public officer or employee or former 28 public officer or employee civil penalties:

29 (a) Not to exceed $5,000 for a first willful violation of this 30 chapter;

31 (b) Not to exceed $10,000 for a separate act or event that
32 constitutes a second willful violation of this chapter; and

33 (c) Not to exceed $25,000 for a separate act or event that
34 constitutes a third willful violation of this chapter.

35 2. In addition to any other penalties provided by law, if any 36 person prevents, interferes with or attempts to prevent or interfere 37 with any investigation or proceedings pursuant to this chapter or 38 the discovery of a violation of this chapter, the Commission may,
39 upon its own motion or upon the motion of the ~~{person about whom~~ 40 ~~an opinion was requested pursuant to NRS 281A.440, impose a}~~ 41 current or former public officer or employee who is the subject of 42 the investigation or proceedings:

43 (a) Impose on the person committing such an act a civil 44 penalty not to exceed $5,000 ; and

1       (b) If appropriate under the facts and circumstances, assess 2 against the person committing such an act an amount equal to the 3 amount of attorney's fees and costs actually and reasonably incurred
4 by the ~~person about whom an opinion was requested pursuant to~~ 5 ~~NRS 281A.440 against a person who prevents, interferes with or~~
6 ~~attempts to prevent or interfere with the discovery or investigation~~ 7 ~~of a violation of this chapter.~~ current or former public officer or 8 employee as a result of the act.

9       3. If the Commission finds that a violation of a provision of 10 this chapter by a public officer or employee or former public officer 11 or employee has resulted in the realization of a financial benefit by 12 the current or former public officer or employee or another person, 13 the Commission may, in addition to any other penalties provided by 14 law, require the current or former public officer or employee to pay
15 a civil penalty of not more than twice the amount so realized.

16       4. In addition to any other penalties provided by law, if a
17 proceeding results in an opinion that:

18       (a) One or more willful violations of this chapter have been 19 committed by a State Legislator removable from office only through 20 expulsion by the State Legislator's own House pursuant to Section 6
21 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution, the Commission shall:

22       (1) If the State Legislator is a member of the Senate, submit 23 the opinion to the Majority Leader of the Senate or, if the Majority 24 Leader of the Senate is the subject of the opinion or the person who 25 requested the opinion, to the President Pro Tempore of the Senate;
26 or

27       (2) If the State Legislator is a member of the Assembly,
28 submit the opinion to the Speaker of the Assembly or, if the Speaker
29 of the Assembly is the subject of the opinion or the person who 30 requested the opinion, to the Speaker Pro Tempore of the Assembly.

31       (b) One or more willful violations of this chapter have been 32 committed by a state officer removable from office only through 33 impeachment pursuant to Article 7 of the Nevada Constitution, the 34 Commission shall submit the opinion to the Speaker of the 35 Assembly and the Majority Leader of the Senate or, if the Speaker
36 of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate is the person
37 who requested the opinion, to the Speaker Pro Tempore of the 38 Assembly or the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, as 39 appropriate.

40       (c) One or more willful violations of this chapter have been 41 committed by a public officer other than a public officer described 42 in paragraphs (a) and (b), the willful violations shall be deemed to 43 be malfeasance in office for the purposes of NRS 283.440 and the 44 Commission:

1 (1) May file a complaint in the appropriate court for removal
2 of the public officer pursuant to NRS 283.440 when the public
3 officer is found in the opinion to have committed fewer than three
4 willful violations of this chapter.

5 (2) Shall file a complaint in the appropriate court for removal
6 of the public officer pursuant to NRS 283.440 when the public
7 officer is found in the opinion to have committed three or more
8 willful violations of this chapter.

9 ➔ This paragraph grants an exclusive right to the Commission, and 10 no other person may file a complaint against the public officer
11 pursuant to NRS 283.440 based on any violation found in the 12 opinion.

13 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any act
14 or failure to act by a public officer or employee or former public
15 officer or employee relating to this chapter is not a willful violation 16 of this chapter if the public officer or employee establishes by 17 sufficient evidence that:

18 (a) The public officer or employee relied in good faith upon the 19 advice of the legal counsel retained by his or her public body, 20 agency or employer; and

21 (b) The advice of the legal counsel was:

22 (1) Provided to the public officer or employee before the 23 public officer or employee acted or failed to act; and

24 (2) Based on a reasonable legal determination by the legal 25 counsel under the circumstances when the advice was given that the 26 act or failure to act by the public officer or employee would not be 27 contrary to ~~any prior published opinion issued by the Commission~~
28 ~~which was publicly available on the Internet website of the~~ 29 ~~Commission.~~ the provisions of this chapter as interpreted by the 30 Commission.

31 6. In addition to any other penalties provided by law, if a 32 public employee ~~who~~ commits a willful violation of this chapter or 33 fails to complete a period of compliance imposed by the 34 Commission pursuant to section 13 of this act or by the review
35 panel as part of the terms and conditions of a deferral agreement, 36 the public employee is subject to disciplinary proceedings by the 37 employer of the public employee and must be referred for action in 38 accordance to the applicable provisions governing the employment
39 of the public employee.

40 7. The provisions of this chapter do not abrogate or decrease
41 the effect of the provisions of the Nevada Revised Statutes which 42 define crimes or prescribe punishments with respect to the conduct
43 of public officers or employees. If the Commission finds that a 44 public officer or employee has committed a willful violation of this 45 chapter which it believes may also constitute a criminal offense, the

1 Commission shall refer the matter to the Attorney General or the 2 district attorney, as appropriate, for a determination of whether a
3 crime has been committed that warrants prosecution.

4 8. The imposition of a civil penalty pursuant to subsection 1, 2
5 or 3 is a final decision for the purposes of judicial review pursuant
6 to NRS 233B.130.

7 9. A finding by the Commission that a public officer or 8 employee has violated any provision of this chapter must be 9 supported by a preponderance of the evidence unless a greater 10 burden is otherwise prescribed by law.

11 Sec. 25. NRS 281A.500 is hereby amended to read as follows:

12 281A.500 1. On or before the date on which a public officer
13 swears or affirms the oath of office, the public officer must be 14 informed of the statutory ethical standards and the duty to file an 15 acknowledgment of the statutory ethical standards in accordance 16 with this section by:

17 (a) For an appointed public officer, the appointing authority of 18 the public officer; and

19 (b) For an elected public officer of:

20 (1) The county and other political subdivisions within the 21 county except cities, the county clerk;

22 (2) The city, the city clerk;

23 (3) The Legislative Department of the State Government, the 24 Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau; and

25 (4) The Executive Department of the State Government, the 26 Director of the Department of Administration, or his or her 27 designee.

28 2. Within 30 days after a public employee begins employment:

29 (a) The Director of the Department of Administration, or his or 30 her designee, shall provide each new public employee of a state
31 agency with the information prepared by the Commission
32 concerning the statutory ethical standards; and

33 (b) The manager of each local agency, or his or her designee, 34 shall provide each new public employee of the local agency with the 35 information prepared by the Commission concerning the statutory 36 ethical standards.

37 3. Each public officer shall acknowledge that the public
38 officer:

39 (a) Has received, read and understands the statutory ethical 40 standards; and

41 (b) Has a responsibility to inform himself or herself of any 42 amendments to the statutory ethical standards as soon as reasonably
43 practicable after each session of the Legislature.

44 4. The acknowledgment must be executed on a form prescribed
45 by the Commission and must be filed with the Commission:

1 (a) If the public officer is elected to office at the general
2 election, on or before January 15 of the year following the public
3 officer's election.

4 (b) If the public officer is elected to office at an election other 5 than the general election or is appointed to office, on or before the 6 30th day following the date on which the public officer swears or 7 affirms the oath of office.

8 5. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a public
9 officer shall execute and file the acknowledgment once for each 10 term of office. If the public officer serves at the pleasure of 11 the appointing authority and does not have a definite term of office, 12 the public officer, in addition to executing and filing the 13 acknowledgment after the public officer swears or affirms the oath 14 of office in accordance with subsection 4, shall execute and file the 15 acknowledgment on or before January 15 of each even-numbered 16 year while the public officer holds that office.

17 6. For the purposes of this section, the acknowledgment is 18 timely filed if, on or before the last day for filing, the 19 acknowledgment is filed in one of the following ways:

20 (a) Delivered in person to the principal office of the 21 Commission in Carson City.

22 (b) Mailed to the Commission by first-class mail, or other class
23 of mail that is at least as expeditious, postage prepaid. Filing by mail 24 is complete upon timely depositing the acknowledgment with the 25 United States Postal Service.

26 (c) Dispatched to a third-party commercial carrier for delivery to 27 the Commission within 3 calendar days. Filing by third-party
28 commercial carrier is complete upon timely depositing the 29 acknowledgment with the third-party commercial carrier.

30 (d) Transmitted to the Commission by facsimile machine or 31 other electronic means authorized by the Commission. Filing by 32 facsimile machine or other electronic means is complete upon
33 receipt of the transmission by the Commission.

34 7. If a public officer is serving in a public office and executes
35 and files the acknowledgment for that office as required by the 36 applicable provisions of this section, the public officer shall be 37 deemed to have satisfied the requirements of this section for any 38 other office held concurrently by him or her.

39 8. The form for making the acknowledgment must contain:

40 (a) The address of the Internet website of the Commission where 41 a public officer may view the statutory ethical standards and print a 42 copy of the standards; and

43 (b) The telephone number and mailing address of the 44 Commission where a public officer may make a request to obtain a 45 printed copy of the statutory ethical standards from the Commission.

1 ~~18.1~~ 9. Whenever the Commission, or any public officer or 2 employee as part of the public officer's or employee's official
3 duties, provides a public officer with a printed copy of the form for 4 making the acknowledgment, a printed copy of the statutory ethical 5 standards must be included with the form.

6 ~~19.1~~ 10. The Commission shall retain each acknowledgment
7 filed pursuant to this section for 6 years after the date on which the 8 acknowledgment was filed.

9 ~~10.1~~ 11. Willful refusal to execute and file the 10 acknowledgment required by this section shall be deemed to be:

11 (a) A willful violation of this chapter for the purposes of NRS
12 281A.480 ~~11.1~~ and section 13 of this act; and

13 (b) Nonfeasance in office for the purposes of NRS 283.440 and,
14 if the public officer is removable from office pursuant to NRS
15 283.440, the Commission may file a complaint in the appropriate
16 court for removal of the public officer pursuant to that section. This 17 paragraph grants an exclusive right to the Commission, and no other 18 person may file a complaint against the public officer pursuant to 19 NRS 283.440 based on any violation of this section.

20 ~~11.1~~ 12. As used in this section, "general election" has the 21 meaning ascribed to it in NRS 293.060.

22 Sec. 26. NRS 281A.510 is hereby amended to read as follows:

23 281A.510 1. A public officer or public employee shall not 24 accept or receive an honorarium.

25 2. An honorarium paid on behalf of a public officer or public 26 employee to a charitable organization from which the officer or 27 employee does not derive any financial benefit is deemed not to be 28 accepted or received by the officer or employee for the purposes of 29 this section.

30 3. This section does not prohibit:

31 (a) The receipt of payment for work performed outside the 32 normal course of a person's public office or employment if the 33 performance of that work is consistent with the applicable policies
34 of the person's public employer regarding supplemental 35 employment.

36 (b) The receipt of an honorarium by the spouse of a public
37 officer or public employee if it is related to the spouse's profession
38 or occupation.

39 4. As used in this section, "honorarium" means the payment of 40 money or anything of value for an appearance or speech by the 41 public officer or public employee in the officer's or employee's 42 capacity as a public officer or public employee. The term does not 43 include the payment of:

44 (a) The actual and necessary costs incurred by the public officer
45 or public employee, the officer's or employee's spouse or the

1 officer's or employee's aid for transportation and for lodging and 2 meals while the public officer or public employee is away from the 3 officer's or employee's residence.

4 (b) Compensation which would otherwise have been earned by 5 the public officer or public employee in the normal course of the 6 officer's or employee's public office or employment.

7 (c) A fee for a speech related to the officer's or employee's
8 profession or occupation outside of the officer's or employee's 9 public office or employment if:

10 (1) Other members of the profession or occupation are 11 ordinarily compensated for such a speech; and

12 (2) The fee paid to the public officer or public employee is 13 approximately the same as the fee that would be paid to a member 14 of the private sector whose qualifications are similar to those of the 15 officer or employee for a comparable speech.

16 (d) A fee for a speech delivered to an organization of 17 legislatures, legislators or other elected officers.

18 5. In addition to any other ~~penalty imposed pursuant to NRS~~
19 ~~281A.480,~~ penalties provided by law, a public officer or public 20 employee who violates the provisions of this section shall forfeit the 21 amount of the honorarium.

22 Sec. 27. NRS 281A.550 is hereby amended to read as follows:

23 281A.550 1. A former member of the Public Utilities
24 Commission of Nevada shall not:

25 (a) Be employed by a public utility or parent organization or 26 subsidiary of a public utility; or

27 (b) Appear before the Public Utilities Commission of Nevada to 28 testify on behalf of a public utility or parent organization or 29 subsidiary of a public utility,

30 ➔ for 1 year after the termination of the member's service on the 31 Public Utilities Commission of Nevada.

32 2. A former member of the Nevada Gaming Control Board or 33 the Nevada Gaming Commission shall not:

34 (a) Appear before the Nevada Gaming Control Board or the 35 Nevada Gaming Commission on behalf of a person who holds a 36 license issued pursuant to chapter 463 or 464 of NRS or who is 37 required to register with the Nevada Gaming Commission pursuant 38 to chapter 463 of NRS; or

39 (b) Be employed by such a person,
40 ➔ for 1 year after the termination of the member's service on the 41 Nevada Gaming Control Board or the Nevada Gaming Commission.

42 3. In addition to the prohibitions set forth in subsections 1 and 43 2, and except as otherwise provided in subsections 4 and 6, a former 44 public officer or employee of a board, commission, department,
45 division or other agency of the Executive Department of State

1 Government, except a clerical employee, shall not solicit or accept 2 employment from a business or industry whose activities are 3 governed by regulations adopted by the board, commission,
4 department, division or other agency for 1 year after the termination
5 of the former public officer's or employee's service or period of 6 employment if:

7 (a) The former public officer's or employee's principal duties
8 included the formulation of policy contained in the regulations
9 governing the business or industry;

10 (b) During the immediately preceding year, the former public
11 officer or employee directly performed activities, or controlled or 12 influenced an audit, decision, investigation or other action, which 13 significantly affected the business or industry which might, but for 14 this section, employ the former public officer or employee; or 15 (c) As a result of the former public officer's or employee's 16 governmental service or employment, the former public officer or 17 employee possesses knowledge of the trade secrets of a direct 18 business competitor.

19 4. The provisions of subsection 3 do not apply to a former 20 public officer who was a member of a board, commission or similar 21 body of the State if:

22 (a) The former public officer is engaged in the profession,
23 occupation or business regulated by the board, commission or 24 similar body;

25 (b) The former public officer holds a license issued by the 26 board, commission or similar body; and

27 (c) Holding a license issued by the board, commission or similar 28 body is a requirement for membership on the board, commission or 29 similar body.

30 5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, a former 31 public officer or employee of the State or a political subdivision,
32 except a clerical employee, shall not solicit or accept employment
33 from a person to whom a contract for supplies, materials, equipment
34 or services was awarded by the State or political subdivision, as 35 applicable, for 1 year after the termination of the officer's or 36 employee's service or period of employment, if:

37 (a) The amount of the contract exceeded $25,000;

38 (b) The contract was awarded within the 12-month period
39 immediately preceding the termination of the officer's or 40 employee's service or period of employment; and

41 (c) The position held by the former public officer or employee at 42 the time the contract was awarded allowed the former public officer
43 or employee to affect or influence the awarding of the contract.

44 6. A current or former public officer or employee may file a
45 request ~~{that the Commission apply}~~ for an advisory opinion

1 pursuant to section 3.2 of this act concerning the application of 2 the relevant facts in that person's case to the provisions of 3 subsection 3 or 5, as applicable, and determine whether relief from 4 the strict application of those provisions is proper. If the 5 Commission determines that relief from the strict application of the 6 provisions of subsection 3 or 5, as applicable, is not contrary to:

7 (a) The best interests of the public;

8 (b) The continued ethical integrity of the State Government or 9 political subdivision, as applicable; and

10 (c) The provisions of this chapter,

11 ➔ it may issue an advisory opinion to that effect and grant such 12 relief. ~~{The}~~

3 record of a hearing related thereto.~~

~~4 8. A meeting or hearing that the Commission or an
5 investigatory panel holds to receive information or evidence
6 concerning the propriety of the conduct of a current or former public 7 officer or employee pursuant to this section and the deliberations of 8 the Commission and the investigatory panel on such information or 9 evidence are not subject to the provisions of chapter 241 of NRS.]~~

10 9. For the purposes of this section:

11 (a) *A former member of the Public Utilities Commission of 12 Nevada, the Nevada Gaming Control Board or the Nevada
13 Gaming Commission; or*

14 (b) Any other former public officer or employee governed by 15 this section,

16 ↳ is employed by or is soliciting or accepting employment from a 17 business, industry or other person described in this section if any 18 oral or written agreement is sought, negotiated or exists during 19 the restricted period pursuant to which the personal services of the 20 public officer or employee are provided or will be provided to the 21 business, industry or other person, even if such an agreement does 22 not or will not become effective until after the restricted period.

23 10. As used in this section, "regulation" has the meaning
24 ascribed to it in NRS 233B.038 and also includes regulations
25 adopted by a board, commission, department, division or other 26 agency of the Executive Department of State Government that is 27 exempted from the requirements of chapter 233B of NRS.

5 710.159, 711.600, and sections 3.3, 3.4, 8, 9 and 12.5 of this act,
6 sections 35, 38 and 41 of chapter 478, Statutes of Nevada 2011 and 7 section 2 of chapter 391, Statutes of Nevada 2013 and unless 8 otherwise declared by law to be confidential, all public books and 9 public records of a governmental entity must be open at all times
10 during office hours to inspection by any person, and may be fully 11 copied or an abstract or memorandum may be prepared from those 12 public books and public records. Any such copies, abstracts or 13 memoranda may be used to supply the general public with copies,
14 abstracts or memoranda of the records or may be used in any other 15 way to the advantage of the governmental entity or of the general
16 public. This section does not supersede or in any manner affect the 17 federal laws governing copyrights or enlarge, diminish or affect in 18 any other manner the rights of a person in any written book or 19 record which is copyrighted pursuant to federal law.

20 2. A governmental entity may not reject a book or record
21 which is copyrighted solely because it is copyrighted.

22 3. A governmental entity that has legal custody or control of a 23 public book or record shall not deny a request made pursuant to 24 subsection 1 to inspect or copy or receive a copy of a public book or 25 record on the basis that the requested public book or record contains 26 information that is confidential if the governmental entity can 27 redact, delete, conceal or separate the confidential information from 28 the information included in the public book or record that is not 29 otherwise confidential.

30 4. A person may request a copy of a public record in any 31 medium in which the public record is readily available. An officer,
32 employee or agent of a governmental entity who has legal custody
33 or control of a public record:

34 (a) Shall not refuse to provide a copy of that public record in a 35 readily available medium because the officer, employee or agent has 36 already prepared or would prefer to provide the copy in a different
37 medium.

38 (b) Except as otherwise provided in NRS 239.030, shall, upon 39 request, prepare the copy of the public record and shall not require 40 the person who has requested the copy to prepare the copy himself
41 or herself.

42 Sec. 29. NRS 241.016 is hereby amended to read as follows:

43 241.016 1. The meetings of a public body that are quasi-
44 judicial in nature are subject to the provisions of this chapter.

1 2. The following are exempt from the requirements of this
2 chapter:

3 (a) The Legislature of the State of Nevada.

4 (b) Judicial proceedings, including, without limitation,
5 proceedings before the Commission on Judicial Selection and,
6 except as otherwise provided in NRS 1.4687, the Commission on 7 Judicial Discipline.

8 (c) Meetings of the State Board of Parole Commissioners when 9 acting to grant, deny, continue or revoke the parole of a prisoner or 10 to establish or modify the terms of the parole of a prisoner.

11 3. Any provision of law, including, without limitation, NRS

17 and 706.1725, and sections 3.5, 5.5 and 11 of this act which:

18 (a) Provides that any meeting, hearing or other proceeding is not 19 subject to the provisions of this chapter; or

20 (b) Otherwise authorizes or requires a closed meeting, hearing
21 or proceeding,

22 ➔ prevails over the general provisions of this chapter.

23 4. The exceptions provided to this chapter, and electronic 24 communication, must not be used to circumvent the spirit or letter of 25 this chapter to deliberate or act, outside of an open and public
26 meeting, upon a matter over which the public body has supervision,
27 control, jurisdiction or advisory powers.

28 Sec. 29.5. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section,
29 the Commission on Ethics:

30 (a) Shall apply the amendatory provisions of this act which 31 govern the procedures applicable to administrative proceedings
32 arising under chapter 281A of NRS to any such proceedings that are 33 within the jurisdiction of the Commission and are commenced on or 34 after July 1, 2017, whether or not the conduct at issue in such 35 proceedings occurred before July 1, 2017.

36 (b) May apply the amendatory provisions of this act which 37 govern the procedures applicable to administrative proceedings
38 arising under chapter 281A of NRS to any such proceedings that 39 were commenced before July 1, 2017, and are still within the 40 jurisdiction of the Commission and pending before the Commission 41 on July 1, 2017, unless the Commission determines that such an 42 application would be impracticable, unreasonable or 43 unconstitutional under the circumstances, in which case the 44 Commission shall apply the procedures in effect before July 1, 45 2017.

- 1        2. The amendatory provisions of sections 15.7, 16, 20, 20.3, 2 20.5 and 27 of this act do not apply to any conduct occurring before
3 July 1, 2017.
4        Sec. 30. NRS 281A.108 and 281A.440 are hereby repealed.
5        Sec. 31. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2017.

281A.108 “Investigatory panel” or “panel” defined.
“Investigatory panel” or “panel” means an investigatory panel appointed by the Commission pursuant to NRS 281A.220.

281A.440 Rendering of opinions by Commission: Requests; determination of jurisdiction; investigations; determination of just and sufficient cause; notice and hearings; confidentiality.

1. The Commission shall render an opinion interpreting the statutory ethical standards and apply the standards to a given set of facts and circumstances within 45 days after receiving a request, on a form prescribed by the Commission, from a public officer or employee who is seeking guidance on questions which directly relate to the propriety of the requester’s own past, present or future conduct as a public officer or employee, unless the public officer or employee waives the time limit. The public officer or employee may also request the Commission to hold a public hearing regarding the requested opinion. If a requested opinion relates to the propriety of the requester’s own present or future conduct, the opinion of the Commission is:

(a) Binding upon the requester as to the requester’s future conduct; and

(b) Final and subject to judicial review pursuant to NRS 233B.130, except that a proceeding regarding this review must be held in closed court without admittance of persons other than those necessary to the proceeding, unless this right to confidential proceedings is waived by the requester.

2. The Commission may render an opinion interpreting the statutory ethical standards and apply the standards to a given set of facts and circumstances:

(a) Upon request from a specialized or local ethics committee.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, upon request from a person, if the requester submits:

(1) The request on a form prescribed by the Commission;
and

(2) All related evidence deemed necessary by the Executive Director and the investigatory panel to make a determination of whether there is just and sufficient cause to render an opinion in the matter.

(c) Upon the Commission's own motion regarding the propriety of conduct by a public officer or employee. The Commission shall not initiate proceedings pursuant to this paragraph based solely upon an anonymous complaint.

↳ The Commission shall not render an opinion interpreting the statutory ethical standards or apply those standards to a given set of facts and circumstances if the request is submitted by a person who is incarcerated in a correctional facility in this State.

3. Within 45 days after receiving a request for an opinion pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 2, the Commission shall determine whether it has jurisdiction concerning the request, unless the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request waives this time limit. Upon a determination by the Commission that it has jurisdiction concerning a request for an opinion pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 2, or upon the motion of the Commission initiating a request for an opinion pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection 2, as applicable, the Executive Director shall investigate the facts and circumstances relating to the request to determine whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter. The Executive Director shall notify the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request and provide the public officer or employee an opportunity to submit to the Executive Director a response to the allegations against the public officer or employee within 30 days after the date on which the public officer or employee received the notice of the request. The purpose of the response is to provide the Executive Director with any information relevant to the request which the public officer or employee believes may assist the Executive Director and the investigatory panel in conducting the investigation. The public officer or employee is not required in the response or in any proceeding before the investigatory panel to assert, claim or raise any objection or defense, in law or fact, to the allegations against the public officer or employee and no objection or defense, in law or fact, is waived, abandoned or barred by the failure to assert, claim or raise it in the response or in any proceeding before the investigatory panel.

4. The Executive Director shall complete the investigation and present a written recommendation relating to just and sufficient cause, including, without limitation, the specific evidence or reasons that support the recommendation, to the investigatory panel within 70 days after the determination by the Commission that it has jurisdiction concerning the request or after the motion of the Commission initiating the request, as applicable, unless the public officer or employee waives this time limit.

5. Within 15 days after the Executive Director has provided the written recommendation in the matter to the investigatory panel pursuant to subsection 4, the investigatory panel shall conclude the investigation and make a final determination regarding whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter, unless the public officer or employee waives this time limit. The investigatory panel shall not determine that there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter unless the Executive Director has provided the public officer or employee an opportunity to respond to the allegations against the public officer or employee as required by subsection 3. The investigatory panel shall cause a record of its proceedings in each matter to be kept.

6. If the investigatory panel determines that there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter, the Commission shall hold a hearing and render an opinion in the matter within 60 days after the determination of just and sufficient cause by the investigatory panel, unless the public officer or employee waives this time limit.

7. Each request for an opinion that a public officer or employee submits to the Commission pursuant to subsection 1, each opinion rendered by the Commission in response to such a request and any motion, determination, evidence or record of a hearing relating to such a request are confidential unless the public officer or employee who requested the opinion:

(a) Acts in contravention of the opinion, in which case the Commission may disclose the request for the opinion, the contents of the opinion and any motion, evidence or record of a hearing related thereto;

(b) Discloses the request for the opinion, the contents of the opinion, or any motion, evidence or record of a hearing related thereto in any manner except to:

(1) The public body, agency or employer of the public officer or employee; or

(2) A person to whom the Commission authorizes the current or former public officer or employee to make such a disclosure; or

(c) Requests the Commission to disclose the request for the opinion, the contents of the opinion, or any motion, evidence or record of a hearing related thereto.

8. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 9 and 10, all information, communications, records, documents or other material in the possession of the Commission or its staff that is related to a request for an opinion regarding a public officer or employee submitted to or initiated by the Commission pursuant to subsection 2, including, without limitation, the record of the proceedings of the investigatory panel made pursuant to subsection 5, are confidential and not public records pursuant to chapter 239 of NRS until:

(a) The investigatory panel determines whether there is just and sufficient cause to render an opinion in the matter and serves written notice of such a determination on the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request for an opinion submitted or initiated pursuant to subsection 2; or

(b) The public officer or employee who is the subject of a request for an opinion submitted or initiated pursuant to subsection 2 authorizes the Commission in writing to make its information, communications, records, documents or other material which are related to the request publicly available,

↳ whichever occurs first.

9. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if a person who submits a request for an opinion pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 2 asks for the person's name to be kept confidential, the Commission:

(a) Shall keep the person's name confidential if the person is a public officer or employee who works for the same public body, agency or employer as the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request.

(b) May keep the person's name confidential if the person offers sufficient facts and circumstances showing a reasonable likelihood that disclosure of the person's name will subject the person or a member of the person's household to a bona fide threat of physical force or violence.

↳ If the Commission keeps the person's name confidential, the Commission shall not render an opinion in the matter unless there is sufficient evidence without the person's testimony to consider the propriety of the conduct of the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request. If the Commission intends to present the person's testimony for consideration as evidence in rendering an opinion in the matter, the Commission shall disclose the person's name within a reasonable time before the Commission's hearing on the matter.

10. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the investigative file related to a request for an opinion regarding a public officer or employee, as described in subsection 17, is confidential. At any time after being served with written notice of the determination of the investigatory panel regarding the existence of just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter, the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request for an opinion may submit a written discovery request to the Commission for a copy of any portion of the investigative file that the Commission intends to present for consideration as evidence in rendering an opinion in the matter and a list of proposed witnesses. Any portion of the investigative file which the Commission presents as evidence in rendering an opinion in the matter becomes a public record as provided in chapter 239 of NRS.

11. Whenever the Commission holds a hearing pursuant to this section, the Commission shall:

(a) Notify the person about whom the opinion was requested of the place and time of the Commission's hearing on the matter;

(b) Allow the person to be represented by counsel; and

(c) Allow the person to hear the evidence presented to the Commission and to respond and present evidence on the person's own behalf.

↳ The Commission's hearing may be held no sooner than 10 days after the notice is given unless the person agrees to a shorter time.

12. If a person who is not a party to a hearing before the Commission, including, without limitation, a person who has requested an opinion pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 2, wishes to ask a question of a witness at the hearing, the person must submit the question to the Executive Director in writing. The Executive Director may submit the question to the Commission if the Executive Director deems the question relevant and appropriate. This subsection does not require the Commission to ask any question submitted by a person who is not a party to the proceeding.

13. If a person who requests an opinion pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 does not:

(a) Submit all necessary information to the Commission; and

(b) Declare by oath or affirmation that the person will testify truthfully,

↳ the Commission may decline to render an opinion.

14. For good cause shown, the Commission may take testimony from a person by telephone or video conference.

15. For the purposes of NRS 41.032, the members of the Commission and its employees shall be deemed to be exercising or performing a discretionary function or duty when taking an action related to the rendering of an opinion pursuant to this section.

16. A meeting or hearing that the Commission or the investigatory panel holds to receive information or evidence concerning the propriety of the conduct of a public officer or employee pursuant to this section and the deliberations of the Commission and the investigatory panel on such information or evidence are not subject to the provisions of chapter 241 of NRS.

17. For the purposes of this section, the investigative file which relates to a request for an opinion regarding a public officer or employee includes, without limitation, any information provided to or obtained by the Commission, its staff or an investigatory panel through any form of communication during the course of an investigation and any records, documents or other material created or maintained during the course of an investigation which relate to the public officer or employee who is the subject of the request for an opinion, including, without limitation, a transcript, regardless of whether such information, records, documents or other material are obtained by a subpoena.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 6—
COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

MARCH 27, 2017

Referred to Committee on Legislative Operations and Elections

SUMMARY—Directs the Legislative Commission to conduct an interim study concerning salaries for certain positions in the unclassified and nonclassified service of the State. (BDR R-998)

EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION—Directing the Legislative Commission to appoint a committee to conduct an interim study concerning salaries for certain positions in the unclassified and nonclassified service of the State.

1 WHEREAS, The Commission to Review the Compensation of 2 Constitutional Officers, Legislators, Supreme Court Justices, Judges
3 of the Court of Appeals, District Judges and Elected County
4 Officers created by NRS 281.1571 makes its recommendations
5 concerning the appropriate salaries to be paid to elected officers
6 after comparing the current salaries of persons with similar 7 qualifications who are employed by the State of Nevada and in the 8 public sector and determining the minimum salary required to attract 9 and retain experienced and competent persons; and

10 WHEREAS, The Administrator of the Division of Human 11 Resource Management of the Department of Administration is 12 authorized pursuant to NRS 284.175 to make recommendations to 13 the Legislature concerning the appropriate salaries to be paid to 14 employees in the classified service of the State after considering 15 factors such as surveys of salaries of comparable jobs in government
16 and private industry within the State of Nevada and western states,
17 where appropriate, changes in the cost of living, the rate of turnover 18 and difficulty of recruitment for particular positions and maintaining 19 an equitable relationship among classifications; and

1 WHEREAS, There is no comparable mechanism for considering
2 the appropriate salaries to be paid to state officers and employees
3 who occupy positions in the unclassified and nonclassified service
4 of the State; now, therefore, be it

5 RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE 6 ASSEMBLY CONCURRING, That the Legislative Commission is 7 hereby directed to appoint a committee to conduct an interim study,
8 as described herein, which is composed of:

9 1. Three members of the Senate, two of whom are appointed
10 by the Majority Leader of the Senate and one of whom is appointed 11 by the Minority Leader of the Senate;

12 2. Three members of the Assembly, two of whom are 13 appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and one of whom is 14 appointed by the Minority Leader of the Assembly; and 15 3. The Administrator of the Division of Human Resource 16 Management of the Department of Administration, who shall serve

17 as a nonvoting member of the committee; and be it further

18 RESOLVED, That the Legislative Commission shall designate
19 one of the members appointed to the committee to serve as the Chair
20 of the committee; and be it further

21 RESOLVED, That, the committee shall conduct an interim study
22 concerning the appropriate salaries for certain positions in the 23 unclassified and nonclassified service of the State, which must,
24 without limitation:

25 1. Include a review of any position within the Judicial 26 Department of the State Government, the Commission on Ethics, the 27 Nevada Gaming Control Board, the Public Utilities Commission of 28 Nevada and any other department, commission or agency of the 29 State of Nevada as determined by the committee;

30 2. Include selection of the positions in the unclassified and 31 nonclassified service of the State in each department, commission or 32 agency of the State of Nevada which are to be included in the 33 interim study;

34 3. Include a review of the salary paid to the state officer or 35 employee in each position selected for review by the committee; and

36 4. Provide for a market salary analysis for each position
37 selected for review by the committee to be performed in a manner
38 determined by the committee; and be it further,

39 RESOLVED, That, in conducting the interim study, the committee
40 may consider whether any position that is currently designated as 41 within the classified, unclassified or nonclassified service of the 42 State should be redesignated; and be it further

43 RESOLVED, That any recommended legislation proposed by the 44 committee must be approved by a majority of the members of the

1 Senate and a majority of the members of the Assembly appointed to 2 the committee; and be it further

3 RESOLVED, That the Legislative Commission shall submit a 4 report of the results of the study and any recommendations for 5 legislation to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau for 6 transmittal to the 80th Session of the Nevada Legislature; and be it
7 further

8 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate prepare and 9 transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor, the Administrator
10 of the Division of Human Resource Management of the Department
11 of Administration and the Director of the Administrative Office of 12 the Courts.

Senate Committee on Legislative Operations and Elections
Nevada Legislature
79th Legislative Session (2017)

RE: Senate Concurrent Resolution 6 (Salary Study)

Dear Chair Cannizzaro and Members of the Committee:

The Nevada Commission on Ethics is responsible for advising and educating State and local government public officers and employees regarding the provisions of the Nevada Ethics in Government Law (NRS 281A). The Commission also serves as a quasi-judicial body responsible for interpreting and enforcing the Ethics Law, adjudicating complaints and defending its administrative decisions in various judicial forums.

The Commission's mission is accomplished through its staff, consisting of six (6) unclassified employees. The salaries and titles of the Commission's staff are currently set by the Unclassified Pay Bill during each Legislative Session. Pursuant to NRS 281A.270, the Commission's overall budget is funded through a proportionate split between the State General Fund and Counties and Cities with certain threshold populations, currently 21% State, 79% Local Government – and if the current budget is approved as proposed, the State's portion will become 28% and the Local Government's share will be 72%. Accordingly, the requested compensation and title adjustments will have a limited direct impact on the State General Fund.

The Commission has unwaveringly supported efforts during the last two Legislative Sessions and now the current Session to increase the salaries and correct the titles of certain staff to establish parity with its sister agency in the Judicial Branch, the Judicial Discipline Commission, as well as many other comparable agencies in the State. Specifically, the Commission seeks compensation and title adjustments for the Commission's Executive Director, Commission Counsel, Associate Counsel, Executive Assistant and Senior Legal Researcher, all of which currently fall far short of the salaries and titles of their respective counterparts in other agencies with similar duties and responsibilities. (See Exhibit A)

Despite the Commission's efforts for more than 6 years, the Commission has felt powerless to effect any meaningful change to ensure and support its statutory mandate. The Commission is wholly reliant upon a qualified staff to achieve its mission, and respectfully requests your support of its efforts.

The salary disparities and title/position discrepancies of Commission staff should not continue. During the last 6 years, these pay and title disparities have resulted in increased turnover, extended vacancies and significant shortage of qualified candidates for an already limited number of staff. Notably, the Commission has suffered multiple vacancies at the hands of the Judicial Discipline Commission, which has already recruited two Commission employees at significantly enhanced titles and higher salaries for similar positions, duties and responsibilities. The Commission requests consideration of its reasonable and responsible requests for parity in staff salaries in connection with the State's goals to ensure the public's trust in government, promote efficient and responsive State Government, secure the retention of top-performing employees and stimulate professional development.

This request is not presented in a vacuum. The Commission stands dedicated to produce actual and meaningful reforms in the processing of matters before the Commission and production of quality and consistent opinions. The Commission has recently revamped its performance measures, streamlined its internal processes and case management and has submitted a bill with the Governor's sponsorship to further achieve these reforms. The Commission has achieved success in overcoming its backlogs of Commission opinions and maintains a current caseload. With the Legislature's approval of the Commission's pending BDR concepts, certain statutory amendments are expected to eliminate or streamline cumbersome processes and reduce operational costs in the Commission's budget. With these amendments, the Commission staff will be expected to meet additional challenges and achieve the revised performance measures.

The functions and staff duties and responsibilities of Nevada's Judicial Discipline Commission mirror those of the Commission, yet the salaries and titles for equivalent positions are excessively disparate. In fact, the Commission has jurisdiction of approximately 135,000 public officers and employees to warrant a more considered view of its staff responsibilities.

The Commission has routinely faced the consequences of these salary and title inequalities, including its loss of 2 employees to the Judicial Discipline Commission for similar duties and responsibilities at significantly increased pay and more respectable titles. Though the Commission is presently staffed with qualified, dedicated employees, the tenure of these employees is at risk. The Commission will be unable to recruit and compete for the same quality staff needed to achieve its mission at current salary levels, especially given its small 6-member staff. Further, retention of quality staff is critical to produce consistent work product in an efficient and professional manner, including qualified responses to important legal and judicial matters. Institutional knowledge in a unique agency such as the Commission on Ethics is invaluable. Appropriate salaries will limit excessive turnover, low quality of applicants for vacant positions, and comparison of private sector and local government pay.

The Commission requests salary increases for the Executive Director, Commission Counsel and Senior Legal Researcher, and title and salary changes for the Associate Counsel and Executive Assistant. Each request is detailed below.

Executive Director and Commission Counsel:

The Commission's Executive Director and Commission Counsel are currently paid at the lowest end of the unclassified pay scale for agency directors and attorneys in the State. The Executive Director is statutorily appointed by the Commission and charged with administering the agency; appointing and supervising the staff; preparing, directing and approving all budgetary matters; training and educating public officers and employees; investigating complaints, presenting evidentiary and legal hearings, proposing and presenting regulations and legislation; serving as the agency's public information officer; and serving as back-up legal support for the Commission Counsel. The Commission Counsel is also statutorily appointed by the Commission and is responsible for serving as the Commission's legal advisor in all matters. Commission Counsel is responsible for providing legal advice and interpretation in all matters before the Commission, including hearings, both advisory and adjudicatory, writing all final orders and opinions of the Commission and defending the Commission in any litigation.

Both positions operate with significant autonomy to a part-time Commission, and each offers the Commission licensed, legal professionals who also provide continuing legal education to the State and local Bars. However, both positions are paid at the level of a deputy attorney general in the State, which is typically a supervised attorney without independent authority. Indeed, in the recent past, the Executive Director and Commission Counsel successfully spearheaded a case through the Supreme Court of the United States, at entry level salaries.

For comparison, the Commission relies heavily on the salaries and titles of the Judicial Discipline Commission, as it is the only agency of government that operates in the same fashion as the Commission and imposes the same duties and responsibilities on staff. The salaries in that agency far exceed the salaries of the Commission's Executive Director and Commission Counsel. In addition to its higher salaries, the Judicial Branch also funds separate outside investigators and attorneys to handle much of the process that is handled in house by the Commission's Executive Director and Commission Counsel.

Associate Counsel:

In 2013, the Commission acquired its Associate Counsel Position, under the direction of the Executive Director and indirect report to Commission Counsel, and is subordinate to both positions. This position was a critical addition to the staff to ensure proper due process of third-party complaints between the roles of the Executive Director related to investigations and the Commission Counsel in its advisory capacity, and also to ensure that the Commission expedited and finalized its cases and resolved its backlog of written opinions.

Unfortunately, the Legislature included this position within the 2013 Unclassified Pay Bill as a second "Commission Counsel," instead of "Associate Counsel," as presented and approved in the Governor's Recommended Budget. Statutorily, the Commission may appoint only one Commission Counsel as the legal advisor to the agency (NRS 281A.250), and it is not appropriate that the Associate Counsel earns the same salary as the Executive Director and Commission Counsel.

The original request for the Associate Counsel position sought the entry attorney level salary, and the Commission expected the compensation of the Executive Director and Commission Counsel would be adjusted upward accordingly. Unfortunately, during both the 2013 and 2015 Legislative Sessions, these salaries were not adjusted in the respective Unclassified Pay Bills. The Commission has endeavored to overcome these salary disparities and title discrepancies for two legislative sessions. Accordingly, the Commission requests a title change from a second "Commission Counsel" to "Associate Counsel." Given the demands of the position since 2013 and to again draw parity to the Judicial Discipline Commission, the Commission further seeks a salary enhancement for this position.

As further evidence of the disparity, in 2015, the Judicial Discipline Commission sought and received approval for an Associate Counsel position at nearly $12,000 more per year than the Commission's Executive Director, Commission Counsel and Associate Counsel.

Executive Assistant:

The Executive Assistant's duties are, and should be, more in line with those of a Management Analyst. The Executive Assistant's duties certainly include administrative responsibilities, but more importantly, they include substantive analysis and research and overall office management responsibilities. The Executive Assistant partners with the Executive Director to prepare, monitor and maintain the Commission's biennial budget, including projecting future costs and needs of the agency, researching options and preparing feasibility reports to accommodate the Commission's needs. The Executive Assistant is also responsible for personnel-related and human resource issues, tracking and collecting data related to the agency's Performance Measures and compiling the statistical data for reports to the Executive Director/Commission, Governor's Office of Finance and the Legislature, and utilizing that data to suggest improved work flow, budget demands and service to the Commission's customers.

The Executive Assistant also maintains the agency's forms and filings, suggesting edits and revisions as appropriate, and assists the Executive Director in updating internal policies in conformance with the State's policies.

A requirement for the Management Analyst series includes a Bachelor's degree and management experience, which will ultimately improve the level of qualifications in future applicants for this position. If the Commission were to lose the current staff member holding the position, a certified public manager, it is unlikely that the current title as an Executive Assistant and related pay scale will produce candidates capable of the skills, duties and responsibilities described above. The position warrants a change in title to a Management Analyst III.

Again, the equivalent position in the Judicial Discipline Commission operates as a Management Analyst IV, with the same educational requirements and duties assigned. The distinction between the Management Analyst III and IV relates to supervisory roles. The Commission currently does not have sufficient staff to present supervisory responsibilities in our agency and therefore the level III with related salary is requested for this agency.

Senior Legal Researcher:

The Commission's Senior Legal Researcher provides a unique position within the Unclassified Pay Bill. The Senior Legal Researcher serves as the Commission's para-professional legal support staff, including substantive legal research, paralegal responsibilities, legal secretarial duties and case management of all legal matters for the Commission's three attorneys.

The salary for this position has an unfortunate history. The position was originally created as the only classified position in the agency to accommodate a particular person. When that person left in 2010, the Commission moved this position to the unclassified service in 2011, and an unfortunate discrepancies occurred in the approved salary in the Unclassified Pay Bill. A senior level position was transferred to the lowest paid position within the agency, at a salary less than the Commission's Executive Assistant and less than a non-senior level legal researcher in other agencies represented in the Unclassified Pay Bill. The Commission has attempted to correct this issue in each Session since 2011.

Notably, in 2015, the Nevada Legislature approved a compensation adjustment throughout the Unclassified Pay Bill for "Legal Researchers," but the salary of the Commission's Senior Legal Researcher was not likewise adjusted. The consequence was higher salaries for non-senior legal researchers than the Commission's Senior Legal Researcher. At a very minimum this salary should be adjusted appropriately to reflect a proper salary for a senior level researcher distinct from the legal researchers in other agencies.

Moreover, the responsibilities of this single position within the agency warrant a closer look at comparable positions in State Government. The Commission's Senior Legal Researcher is responsible for supporting 3 lawyers within the agency, substantive research and coordination, and case management. The equivalent position in the Judicial Discipline Commission is a Management Analyst.

The Executive Assistant and Senior Legal Researcher provide unique and distinct duties, but are equally tasked with substantive and significant responsibilities and should be equivalent in salary. Due to our small staff, both positions are also cross-trained to fill in for one another in the event of absences and vacancies. Accordingly, the Commission seeks a salary adjustment commensurate with that of the Executive Assistant. See attached chart.

Total Cost Summary:

The Commission seeks the following salary and title adjustments:

Position (New Title)	Current Salary (Maximum)	Requested Salary (Maximum)
Executive Director	$97,901	$125,340
Commission Counsel	$95,650	$125,340
Commission Counsel (2): (Associate Counsel)	$95,650	$108,179
Executive Assistant: (Management Analyst III)	$56,265	$74,813
Senior Legal Researcher	$54,332	$74,813

If the Salaries are funded as requested, the State's total share per fiscal year would be $30,432 (28%) and the local government share would be $78,255 (72%), split proportionately between the local governments according to respective populations. (See Exhibit B) The Commission has provided back-up materials to evidence the discrepancies in staff salaries and titles and encourages a frank discussion with the Legislature to address these issues during this Legislative Session. (See Exhibit A)

Please feel free to contact the Commission with any questions. Thank you for your time and consideration regarding this matter.

Re: Nevada Acknowledgement of Ethical Standards for Public Officers

Dear [REDACTED],

Pursuant to NRS 281A.500(1)(b)(1), you are required, as the County Clerk, to inform all elected public officers<sup>1</sup> within the county and its political subdivisions, not including city officials, of the statutory ethical standards applicable to public officers as set forth in the Nevada Ethics in Government Law (NRS Chapter 281A). You must also inform these elected public officers of the duty to file a Nevada Acknowledgement of Ethical Standards for Public Officers ("Acknowledgement Form") for each term of office.

The Legislature has mandated that county clerks provide this information to each elected public officer of the county and its political subdivisions on or before the date on which the public officer swears or affirms the oath of office. For a public officer who is elected to office at the general election, the Acknowledgement Form must be filed on or before January 15th of the year following the election. For a public officer who is elected to office at an election other than the general election, the Acknowledgement Form must be filed on or before the 30th day following the date on which the public officer swears or affirms the oath of office.

Please Note:

Public Officers subject to these requirements under NRS Chapter 281 DO NOT include, as applicable:

1. Any justice, judge or other officer of the court system.
2. Any member of a public body whose function is advisory

---

<sup>1</sup> Public Officers are those persons serving in a position designated by NRS 281A.160 or NRS 281A.182.

March 2, 2017

3. A member of a special district whose official duties do not include the formulation of a budget for the district or the authorization of the expenditure of the district's money.

Enclosed herein, I have provided a copy of the Acknowledgement Form, which was updated on January 19, 2017. The Acknowledgement Form, as well as a link to NRS Chapter 281A and other relevant informational guides for public officers, are available on the Commission's website, www.ethics.nv.gov.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me. I am also available to provide training on the requirements of the Ethics Law to all public officers and employees upon request.

Sincerely,

/s/ Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson
Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson, Esq.
