EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §§1-66, NRS 281A.290.

A REGULATION relating to ethics in government; revising provisions governing the functions and duties of the Chair and the Executive Director of the Commission on Ethics and the Commission Counsel; revising provisions governing advisory opinions and ethics complaints; revising provisions governing administration of the Nevada Ethics in Government Law and practice before the Commission; revising and repealing certain provisions to conform to statutory amendments made to the Ethics Law; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Under the Nevada Ethics in Government Law (Ethics Law), the Commission on Ethics administers and enforces the Ethics Law and is authorized to issue opinions interpreting the statutory ethical standards established by the Ethics Law and applying those standards to a given set of facts and circumstances. (Chapter 281A of NRS) The Commission generally issues the following two types of opinions: (1) advisory opinions requested by a public officer or employee who is seeking guidance on matters which directly relate to the propriety of his or her own past, present or future conduct under the statutory ethical standards or who is requesting relief from certain provisions of the Ethics Law that allow the Commission to grant such relief; and (2) opinions issued in response to an ethics complaint which has been filed with the Commission or initiated by the Commission on its own motion regarding the propriety of the conduct of a public officer or employee under the statutory ethical standards. (NRS 281A.675, 281A.710)

The Ethics Law also establishes various procedures that the Commission and its staff must follow when processing, handling, investigating, reviewing, evaluating and adjudicating requests for advisory opinions and ethics complaints. (NRS 281A.670-281A.790) Under the Ethics Law, the Commission is required to adopt any necessary procedural regulations to carry out its duties, including regulations: (1) for the filing or withdrawal of an ethics complaint or a request for an advisory opinion with the Commission; (2) to facilitate the prompt rendition of opinions by the Commission; and (3) with regard to proceedings concerning an ethics complaint, to facilitate written discovery requests and the disclosure of evidence. (NRS 281A.290)

Senate Bill No. 84 of the 2017 Regular Session made extensive statutory amendments to the Ethics Law, including reorganizational and substantive changes, particularly with respect to ethics complaints. (Chapter 384, Statutes of Nevada 2017, at page 2475) As a result of those statutory amendments, this regulation revises and repeals various provisions of the Commission's existing regulations to conform those regulations to the statutory amendments made by Senate Bill No. 84.

Existing law sets forth the requirements for properly filing a request for an advisory opinion and also provides that after the request is properly filed, the Commission is required to render an advisory opinion. (NRS 281A.675, 281A.680) If the advisory opinion relates to the present or future conduct of the requester, existing law provides that the advisory opinion is binding upon the requester with regard to the future conduct of the requester and a final decision for purposes of judicial review. (NRS 281A.680) Existing law provides confidentiality for certain materials relating to advisory opinions and exempts meetings, hearings and deliberations of the Commission relating to advisory opinions from the Open Meeting Law. (NRS 281A.685, 281A.690)

Sections 13-17 and 45-49 of this regulation make conforming changes regarding requests for and the rendering of advisory opinions. Section 45 of this regulation requires the Executive Director of the Commission and the Commission Counsel to review a request for an advisory opinion that has been filed with the Commission and make a determination whether the Commission has jurisdiction in the matter and whether the request was properly filed with the necessary information for the Commission to render an advisory opinion. If it is determined that the Commission has jurisdiction over a request for an advisory opinion and the request was properly filed, section 13 of this regulation requires the Executive Director or Commission Counsel to issue a notice regarding jurisdiction to the subject who filed the request. Section 13 also requires the Executive Director or Commission Counsel to provide notice to the subject if the Commission will hold an advisory-opinion hearing in the matter and to coordinate a list of proposed findings of fact with the subject. Sections 14 and 15 of this regulation govern motions and subpoenas with respect to requests for an advisory opinion.

Section 46 of this regulation prescribes the circumstances under which the time limit in existing law for the Commission to render an advisory opinion is deemed waived or in which a request is involuntarily withdrawn. Section 47 of this regulation revises the manner in which a subject may voluntarily withdraw a request. Section 48 of this regulation prescribes the procedure if the Executive Director and Commission Counsel determine that the Commission does not have jurisdiction over a request for an advisory opinion or that the request was not properly filed with the necessary information. Section 49 of this regulation revises some of the procedures used to conduct an advisory-opinion hearing. Section 16 of this regulation provides that the Commission may stay, continue or dismiss a request for an advisory opinion if the Commission receives information that litigation or an ethics complaint has been filed related to some or all of the same issues presented in the request for an advisory opinion. Section 16 also addresses the rendering of an oral opinion by the Commission regarding a request for an advisory opinion and the communication of the oral opinion to the subject. Section 17 of this regulation prescribes the circumstances under which the Commission Counsel will be directed by the Commission to prepare and issue a written advisory opinion or abstract in a matter and the required contents and publication of written advisory opinions.

Existing law also sets forth the requirements for properly filing an ethics complaint and provides that after an ethics complaint is properly filed, the Commission must determine, based on the evidence submitted with the ethics complaint, whether it has jurisdiction in the matter and whether an investigation is warranted in the matter. (NRS 281A.710, 281A.715) If the Commission determines that it has jurisdiction and an investigation is warranted, existing law provides for an investigation and review of the ethics complaint to determine whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter. (NRS 281A.720-281A.740)

In conducting the investigation and review, existing law requires the Executive Director to: (1) provide the public officer or employee an opportunity to submit a response; (2) investigate the facts and circumstances; and (3) prepare and submit a recommendation to a review panel, consisting of three members of the eight-member Commission, that must determine whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter. (NRS 281A.720, 281A.725) If the review panel determines that there is not just and sufficient cause, existing law requires the review panel to dismiss the matter, but the review panel may issue a confidential letter of caution or instruction to the public officer or employee as part of the dismissal. (NRS 281A.730)

If the review panel determines that there is just and sufficient cause but reasonably believes that the conduct at issue may be appropriately addressed through additional training or other corrective action, existing law authorizes the review panel to approve a deferral agreement between the Executive Director and the public officer or employee to defer further proceedings in the matter under the terms and conditions of the deferral agreement. (NRS 281A.730, 281A.740) If the public officer or employee complies with the terms and conditions of the deferral agreement, the matter must be dismissed. However, if the public officer or employee fails to comply with the terms and conditions of the deferral agreement, the deferral agreement may be vacated and further proceedings conducted in the matter before the Commission. If the review panel does not believe that a deferral agreement is appropriate or if the public officer or employee declines to enter into such a deferral agreement, existing law requires the review panel to refer the ethics complaint to the Commission for further proceedings in the matter. (NRS 281A.730)

If the review panel refers the ethics complaint to the Commission for further proceedings in the matter or if the Commission vacates a deferral agreement and conducts further proceedings, existing law requires the Commission to hold an adjudicatory hearing and render an opinion in the matter within 60 days after the date on which the review panel referred the ethics complaint to the Commission or the Commission vacates the deferral agreement, as applicable, unless the subject waives this time limit. (NRS 281A.745) With certain exceptions, existing law provides confidentiality to the investigative file and materials in the possession of the Commission, the review panel and their staff related to an ethics complaint and to the identity of certain requesters, as well as an exemption from the Open Meeting Law for proceedings of review panels and certain proceedings of the Commission. (NRS 281A.735, 281A.750, 281A.755, 281A.760)

Sections 18-21, 37-39 and 50-60 of this regulation make conforming changes regarding ethics complaints and the rendering of opinions on those complaints. Section 50 of this regulation requires: (1) the Executive Director and Commission Counsel to make a determination whether to recommend to the Commission that it accept jurisdiction over an ethics complaint that was filed with the Commission and whether the evidence submitted with the ethics complaint is sufficient to warrant an investigation by the Executive Director; and (2) the Executive Director to submit the recommendation to the Commission. Section 18 of this regulation prescribes the circumstances under and method by which the requester of an ethics complaint may withdraw the ethics complaint. Sections 37 and 41 of this regulation govern motions and subpoenas with respect to ethics complaints.

Section 50 of this regulation revises the procedure when the Commission initiates an ethics complaint on its own motion. Section 51 of this regulation revises the procedure when the Commission receives an ethics complaint from a third party. Section 51: (1) requires the Executive Director and Commission Counsel to make a recommendation to the Commission regarding its jurisdiction over an ethics complaint and whether the evidence submitted with the ethics complaint is sufficient to warrant an investigation; and (2) sets forth the actions of the Commission upon receipt of that recommendation. Section 52 of this regulation revises the duties of the Executive Director regarding notification of the subject of an investigation and presentation of a written recommendation to a review panel regarding the ethics complaint.

Section 38 of this regulation prescribes the requirements for discovery relating to an ethics complaint and requires the Executive Director, upon the completion of discovery, to disclose to the subject any evidence obtained during the course of an investigation or during discovery that the Executive Director will present to the Commission at the adjudicatory hearing and to disclose any exculpatory evidence as soon as is reasonably practicable before the adjudicatory hearing. Section 39 of this regulation prescribes the procedure for the presentation and consideration of proposed stipulations of fact or other stipulated agreements relating to an ethics complaint. Section 53 of this regulation makes changes regarding the procedure when the Executive Director investigates issues and facts beyond those presented in an ethics complaint and intends to include those issues and facts in the recommendations submitted to a review panel.

Section 54 of this regulation clarifies that the proceedings of a review panel relating to a deferral agreement are within the confidentiality granted to the proceedings of a review panel under existing law. Sections 55 and 56 of this regulation prescribe the actions to be taken by a review panel relating to an ethics complaint.

Section 57 of this regulation revises the procedure for providing notice when the Commission holds certain hearings concerning an ethics complaint and requires the Commission Counsel to issue and serve such notice. Section 19 of this regulation also requires the Commission Counsel to issue and serve notice and a scheduling order when the Commission holds an adjudicatory hearing concerning an ethics complaint. Section 19 additionally authorizes the subject of an ethics complaint to request a stay or continuance of an adjudicatory hearing under certain circumstances. Sections 58-60 of this regulation revise some of the procedures used to conduct an adjudicatory hearing or other hearing relating to an ethics complaint.

Sections 20 and 21 of this regulation provide that the Commission will: (1) render an oral opinion regarding an ethics complaint within the statutory time limit, unless the time limit is waived by the subject; and (2) after the oral opinion is rendered, direct the Commission Counsel to prepare and issue a written opinion that must include findings of fact, conclusions of law and certain other required components. Section 21 also provides that the written opinion must be reviewed and approved by the Commission before it is issued and then posted on the Commission's Internet website after it is issued.

Sections 12, 32-36, 39, 40, 42, 43, 61 and 62 of this regulation revise various administrative and general procedural requirements. Sections 12 and 33 of this regulation: (1) direct the Chair of the Commission to appoint a member of a review panel to serve as its presiding officer; (2) require the Chair to fill vacancies on a review panel under certain circumstances; and (3) provide for the Executive Director to make recommendations to the Chair regarding the appointment of members of a review panel and the appointment of its presiding officer. Section 33 also adjusts the deadline for the Executive Director's annual report to the Commission regarding its state of affairs for the prior fiscal year and its goals for the new fiscal year by moving the deadline from the Commission's first meeting of each new fiscal year to its second meeting.

Section 32 of this regulation requires the Chair of the Commission to monitor and direct litigation, with certain exceptions, unless otherwise directed by the Commission; and (2) authorizes the Chair to delegate his or her duties to other members of the Commission, with certain exceptions.

Section 34 of this regulation clarifies that any communication between the Executive Director and the Commission Counsel regarding the schedule of the Commission does not constitute an ex parte communication. Section 35 of this regulation provides that any written communication or document filed with the Commission must be in a form or format authorized or directed by any applicable order.

Section 36 of this regulation authorizes two or more matters of the same type to be consolidated. Section 40 of this regulation allows for the administration of oaths by additional persons, including the presiding officer of a review panel. Section 42 of this regulation authorizes, under certain circumstances, the testimony of a witness to be admitted into evidence through an affidavit or deposition. Section 43 of this regulation clarifies that the subject of a request for an advisory opinion or an ethics complaint may be represented by legal counsel.

Section 61 of this regulation revises the duties of the Executive Director and Commission Counsel with respect to providing the Commission with certain information and materials before each meeting. Section 62 of this regulation authorizes the Executive Director, in addition to the subject of the proceeding, to submit a motion to disqualify a member of the Commission from participating in the matter for good cause.

Sections 2-11 and 23-31 of this regulation revise various definitions to conform with existing law. Sections 35, 37 and 63-65 of this regulation delete references to the “principal” office of the Commission because there is only one staffed office of the Commission.

Existing law provides for statutory ethical standards that generally prohibit public officers and employees from engaging in certain unethical conduct which benefits their own private interests or which benefits the interests of other persons to whom the public officer or employee has a commitment in a private capacity. (NRS 281A.400) Existing law defines those other persons to include: (1) the spouse or domestic partner of the public officer or employee; and (2) any other person who is related to the public officer or employee, or to the spouse or domestic partner of the public officer or employee, by blood, adoption, marriage or domestic partnership within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity. (NRS 281A.065) Section 44 of this regulation clarifies that if a person who is related to the public officer or employee within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity has a spouse or domestic partner, that spouse or domestic partner will be deemed to be within the same degree of relationship for the purposes of the statutory ethical standards.

Section 65 of this regulation makes revisions as a result of changes to existing law that eliminated the requirement for certain public officers to file annual disclosure statements regarding representation or counseling of private persons before public agencies. (NRS 281A.410) Section 66 of this regulation repeals procedures and requirements that are obsolete as a result of changes to existing law.

(a) Render an oral opinion regarding the request for an advisory opinion; and

(b) Direct the Executive Director or Commission Counsel to communicate the oral opinion rendered by the Commission to the subject who filed the request for an advisory opinion.

(a) The information submitted by the subject with the request for an advisory opinion;

(b) Any information submitted by the subject after the Commission received the request for an advisory opinion;

(c) Any publicly available information obtained by the Executive Director or Commission Counsel relating to the request for an advisory opinion; and

(b) May be issued as a written advisory opinion pursuant to section 17 of this regulation.

Sec. 17. 1. The Commission:

(a) Will direct the Commission Counsel to prepare a written advisory opinion for an oral opinion rendered by the Commission pursuant to section 16 of this regulation in a matter that constitutes a contested case under chapter 233B of NRS or for which the Commission deems a written advisory opinion is necessary or appropriate. A written advisory opinion prepared and issued in a matter that constitutes a contested case under chapter 233B of NRS is a final decision for the purposes of judicial review.

(b) May direct the Commission Counsel to prepare a written advisory opinion for an oral opinion rendered by the Commission pursuant to section 16 of this regulation upon the written request of the subject who filed the request for an advisory opinion.

(c) May direct the Commission Counsel to prepare an abstract if the materials in the matter are confidential pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 281A.685.

2. A written advisory opinion or abstract prepared pursuant to this section must:

(b) Include a reference to any published opinions issued by the Commission, including, without limitation, any published abstract, that the Commission deems relevant to the request for an advisory opinion; and

(c) Include findings of fact, conclusions of law and specific guidance provided by the Commission to the subject who filed the request for an advisory opinion concerning the

3. The Commission will review any written advisory opinion prepared by the Commission Counsel pursuant to this section and, upon its approval of the written advisory opinion, direct the Commission Counsel to issue the written advisory opinion to the subject who filed the request for an advisory opinion.

4. Each written advisory opinion and abstract must be:

(a) Numbered and dated; and

6. As used in this section, “abstract” means a version of a confidential written advisory opinion that has been redacted or amended to keep the identity of the subject who filed the request for an advisory opinion confidential.

Sec. 18. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, a requester of an ethics complaint may submit a written request to the Commission to withdraw the ethics complaint:

(a) Without the consent of the Executive Director, at any time before the Commission has determined that it has jurisdiction in the matter pursuant to NAC 281A.405; or

(b) With the consent of the Commission, at any time after the Commission has determined that it has jurisdiction in the matter pursuant to NAC 281A.405 and until the presentation of the written recommendation of the Executive Director to the review panel pursuant to NAC 281A.410.

2. A request to withdraw an ethics complaint pursuant to subsection 1 must set forth the specific reasons for requesting the withdrawal of the ethics complaint.

3. If a requester of an ethics complaint asks the Commission to keep his or her identity confidential pursuant to NRS 281A.750 but the Commission denies the request for confidentiality, the requester may submit a written request to the Commission to withdraw the ethics complaint.

Sec. 19. 1. Unless the subject of an ethics complaint waives the time limit set forth in NRS 281A.745, if a review panel refers the ethics complaint to the Commission pursuant to NRS 281A.730 or the Commission vacates a deferral agreement pursuant to NRS 281A.740, the Commission Counsel, on behalf of the Commission, shall issue and serve on the parties:

(a) A written notice of an adjudicatory hearing in the matter which must be held not less than 60 days after the date on which the review panel refers the ethics complaint to the Commission pursuant to NRS 281A.730 or the Commission vacates the deferral agreement pursuant to NRS 281A.740, as applicable. The written notice must meet the requirements of NRS 281A.745. Service of the notice on the subject will be deemed complete upon delivery to the last known address of the subject in any manner in which receipt by the subject can be confirmed by the Commission Counsel.

(b) A scheduling order regarding the time limits and requirements for the submission and service of documents related to the adjudicatory hearing.

2. If the subject waives the time limit set forth in NRS 281A.745:

(a) Not later than 10 business days before the adjudicatory hearing, unless leave is otherwise granted, a party may submit a written request to the Commission Counsel to stay or continue the adjudicatory hearing in the matter for good cause shown, including, without limitation, to accommodate a scheduling conflict or otherwise provide additional time for the parties to engage in discovery, file a motion or negotiate and present a proposed stipulation of fact or stipulated agreement to the Commission regarding the ethics complaint.

(b) Not later than 5 business days after a party submits a request to the Commission Counsel pursuant to paragraph (a), unless leave is otherwise granted, any other party may submit:

(1) A written consent to the Commission Counsel for a stay or continuance of the adjudicatory hearing; or

(2) A written response to the Commission Counsel opposing the request for a stay or continuance of the adjudicatory hearing if the party can show that the stay or continuance is sought merely for delay or by reason of inexcusable neglect by the Executive Director or the subject, as applicable, creates an unjust or undue delay in the final resolution of the ethics complaint or otherwise unfairly prejudices the interests of the party before the Commission.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, if the Commission Counsel receives a request from a party to stay or continue an adjudicatory hearing or any response to such a request pursuant to subsection 2, the Commission Counsel may, after consulting with the parties regarding scheduling, issue a stay or continuance of the adjudicatory hearing and a revised notice of hearing or scheduling order, as appropriate.

4. The Commission Counsel shall deny a request pursuant to subsection 2 if the Commission Counsel determines that the stay or continuance is being requested merely for delay or by reason of inexcusable neglect by the Executive Director or the subject, as applicable, creates an unjust or undue delay in the final resolution of an ethics complaint or otherwise unfairly prejudices the interests of the party before the Commission.

Sec. 20. 1.
