PRESS RELEASE

Ethics Commission Releases 2023 Annual Report

CARSON CITY, NEVADA (September 13, 2023) The Nevada Commission on Ethics has released its annual report for fiscal year 2023. The review of Ethics Commission activity from July 2022 to June 2023 includes details about a record number of resolved ethics cases and legislative approval of a modernized approach to ethics training.

“The modernization plan for outreach and education along with the efforts to develop a brand for the Commission this year together will assist in expanding the Commission’s reach to state and local governments and other partners as we work together to enhance the public’s faith and confidence in government” said Commission Chair Kim Wallin.

Some highlights from the report:

- 41 Advisory Opinions requested
- 102 Complaint Cases filed
- 120 Complaint Case resolved
- Over 1,400 public officers and employees trained
- Over $23,000 in penalties collected

Executive Director Ross Armstrong noted: “We resolved a record number of complaint cases and trained a record number of public officials in 2023. These efforts to increase the productivity and effectiveness of the Commission’s team will continue into 2024.”
