PRESS RELEASE

Ethics Commission Honors Outgoing Commissioners Oscarson, Gruenewald, and Duffrin

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA (October 19, 2023) At its October Commission meeting the Nevada Commission on Ethics honored three outgoing Commissioners; Commissioner James Oscarson of Nye County, Commissioner Barbara Gruenewald and Commissioner Brian Duffrin, both of Washoe County all have expiring terms in 2023. Each outgoing Commissioner was presented a proclamation and thanked for their years of service.

In addition, the Commission reviewed the Nevada administrative rulemaking process and set November 8 as the date for a workshop to discuss and draft potential changes to regulations that govern procedures for the Ethics Commission. The workshop will take place at the Commission's rural meeting in Tonopah and will be accessible by zoom. The Commission's regulations are found in Chapter 281A of the Nevada Administrative Code. Individuals may submit comments or thoughts about Nevada's ethics regulations to ncoe@ethics.nv.gov.

A review panel of the Commission also met on October 18 and made the following final determination:

In re Guzman, Case No. 23-053C (Clark County School District)
Determination: Dismissed.

The Commission's next meeting will be November 8, 2023 in Tonopah.
