PRESS RELEASE

Ethics Commission Accepts Stipulated Agreement for Former Southern Nevada Health District Employee

CARSON CITY, NEVADA (April 25, 2022) – On April 20, the Nevada Commission on Ethics held a public meeting which included the Commission accepting a stipulated agreement in the case: In re Hagan (Case No. 20-060C), Former Human Resources Director, Southern Nevada Health District. The stipulated agreement included finding a violation of NRS 281A.400(5) which prohibits public employees from using nonpublic information for personal advantage or gain. All other allegations were dismissed. The violation was deemed not to have been a willful violation. Hagan agreed to attend ethics training and was formally admonished by the Commission.

In addition to the public meeting, a three-person Commission Review Panel issued a Review Panel determination for the following complaint:

In re Desalvio (Case No. 22-004C), Planning Commissioner, City of Las Vegas
Determination: Dismissal

The Commission's Legislative Subcommittee also met on April 20 to review possible proposed changes to Nevada's Ethics Law for the 2023 Legislative Session.

The next meeting of Nevada's Commission on Ethics is May 18.
