ANNUAL REPORT TO THE COMMISSION ON ETHICS REGARDING FISCAL YEAR 2019

Pursuant to Nevada Administrative Code 281A.180(2), the Executive Director provides this Annual Report to the Commission on Ethics (“Commission”) regarding the fiscal, legislative, regulatory and other business undertaken by and on behalf of the Commission in the past fiscal year and the goals for new fiscal year. This report recognizes the Commission's activities and accomplishments between July 1, 2018 and June 30, 2019 (FY19) and its objectives for the coming year.

The information presented is based upon public records of the Commission. Additionally, the Commission maintains a public website at ethics.nv.gov at which the public may search the Commission's database of opinions, review meeting minutes and agendas, instructions and forms for filing Ethics Complaints, Requests for Advisory Opinions, and access other public information. The Commission also posts its meeting agendas on the Nevada Public Notice statewide website at notice.nv.gov.

Dear Commissioners:

The following Annual Report is provided to you as a summary of the Commission's accomplishments and challenges from Fiscal Year 2019 (FY19) and goals for the next fiscal year. FY19 marked the significant efforts of the Commission during the 2019 Legislative Session combined with staffing and resource demands resulting from more than double the case load from the prior fiscal year. These challenges, along with the continued priorities for outreach and education, signified the Commission's focus in FY19.

To reflect on the Commission's recent journey, the passage of Senate Bill 84 during FY17 triggered the Commission's response in FY18 to reform all of its systems and documents related to advisory requests and complaint cases, including the development of new forms, templates and documents, staff recommendations, orders, pre-hearing requirements and hearing procedures. The laborious task of converting, testing and reviewing all internal documents and systems culminated in the drafting of an entirely revised Chapter 281A of the Nevada Administrative Code, the Commission's administrative/procedural regulations. As anticipated, those regulations were adopted and implemented in FY19. Notably, the efficacy of the regulations became apparent as the Commission processed the increased case load.

FY19 also introduced the Commission to Social Media! The Commission established a Twitter account to post news of its meetings, trainings and case/opinion determinations. Ethics commissions throughout the Country share data on Twitter and it has become a welcome resource to reflect on the issues and decisions made by similar bodies. Furthermore, many state and local government agencies follow the Commission, so Twitter has created the bonus of additional outreach and education. Of course, the Commission continued with its traditional training and education programs throughout Nevada to provide education to public officers and employees.

The Commission's legislative efforts this fiscal year were focused on the passage of Senate Bill 129. The Commission spent several years and countless hours and resources to hold multiple public meetings and engage feedback from state and local agency stakeholders on the Commission's proposed robust legislative measure considered by the Nevada Legislature. The legislation was intended to increase transparency and due process with regard to advisory requests and ethics complaints, provide public agencies with additional access to the Commission for advice, streamline and clarify the procedural requirements of the Commission, explain and expand the standards of ethical conduct attributable to public officers and employees and address various loopholes identified while implementing the 2017 Legislation (SB 84) during the last 2 years. Unfortunately, the efforts of the Commission to pass this worthwhile legislation were unsuccessful before the Legislature and the Commission will reassess these priorities during the next legislative session.

During FY19, the Commission experienced some setbacks with respect to its budgetary needs. The Commission pursued various enhancements to its budget, including, without limitation, additional staff, digital training resources, additional travel funds to accommodate statewide investigations and outreach, information technology support, additional training and increased salaries for certain staff. Despite the pursuit and justification of these enhancements, the Commission was granted only the enhanced information technology resources. The Commission will continue to assess its resource requirements and budgetary demands during the next fiscal year, including the fiscal impacts of its increased case load, for future enhancement requests.

The Commission's ongoing implementation of the many procedural amendments resulting from the 2017 Legislative Session (SB 84), its 2019 legislative pursuits as well as its response to the 100 percent increase in cases were administered under the continued leadership of Chair Cheryl Lau, Esq. and Vice-Chair Keith Weaver, Esq. The Chair and Vice-Chair collectively represent years of experience from both of their private and public legal careers as well as their respective tenures serving the Commission exceeding 7 years. They have garnered the support and respect of their colleagues to continue serving in these leadership roles during FY19. Together with Commissioners Brian Duffrin, Barbara Gruenewald, Esq., Teresa Lowry, Esq., P.K. O'Neill, Kim Wallin, CPA, and Amanda Yen, Esq., the Commission engaged in yet another year of developing precedent-setting opinions and responding to constitutional, legal and fiscal challenges before the Legislature and the Courts.

Commissioners Duffrin and Gruenewald are to be commended for rounding out their first terms with the Commission this fiscal year, emphasizing their respective former public service in administering a public agency and significant legal experience, and supporting the efforts of the Commission to enhance legislative and budgetary reform. Their endeavors held public officers and employees accountable in performing their public duties for the sole benefit of the public. Commissioner O'Neill deserves special recognition for encouraging continued outreach and education with an emphasis on incorporating public education, as well as offering his experiences and perspectives in the investigatory field. Commissioner Yen is credited with her dedication to the goals and demands of the Commission and her expert legal analysis all while holding down a full time career as an attorney in private practice.

This fiscal year showcased the immediate contributions of newly appointed Commissioners Lowry and Wallin. In particular, both Commissioners' prior experience as appointed and elected public officers in Nevada provided the necessary backdrop to hit the ground running on legislative, fiscal and case-related matters. Commissioner Lowry demonstrated her legal expertise by challenging and applying evidence at various stages of complaint proceedings, analyzing legal precedent in advisory and complaint matters and representing the Commission in numerous Ethics Law presentations in Southern Nevada. Commissioner Wallin's experience as a certified public accountant and former State Controller brought a renewed perspective to budget issues and the dynamics of pecuniary interests that create conflicts of interest. Commissioner Wallin is further recognized for dedicating countless volunteer hours to support the Commission's legislative and outreach efforts by engaging in numerous legislative meetings and hearings. The diversity and breadth of experience shared by all members of the Commission along with their extensive volunteer service continues to elevate the Commission.

It has been the continued honor of Executive Director Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson, Esq., in partnership with Commission Counsel Tracy L. Chase, Esq., to lead the Commission's mission and governance before the various State and local agencies and judicial forums. Also to be commended for their continued dedicated service to the Commission during the past fiscal year are the Commission's Associate Counsel, Judy Prutzman, Esq., Senior Legal Researcher, Darci Hayden, PP-SC, and Executive Assistant, Kari Pedroza. New to the staff this fiscal year was the Commission's Investigator Erron Terry who joined the group with immediate investigatory contributions after a distinguished career as an FBI Special Agent.

Just prior to the publication of this Report, the Commission was apprised of a recent nationwide study regarding ethics commissions and agencies throughout the Country, including the strength of their enforcement and sanctioning powers and transparency in the outcomes. Nevada was ranked 8th in the Country. See Enforcement of Ethics Rules by State Ethics Agencies: Unpacking the S.W.A.M.P. Index, Coalition for Integrity, September 12, 2019 (<http://unpacktheswamp.coalitionforintegrity.org/>). Notably, the data relied upon in the study was based primarily upon case statistics from FY18, which reflected the first year the Commission applied the new laws from 2017. However, had the study reflected the FY19 data indicating the significantly increased case load and more robust proceedings, opinions and sanctions, I have no doubt that the Commission would have ranked in the top 5! This study signifies the complete overhaul experienced by the Commission since 2011. In 2011, the Commission defended its laws before the Supreme Court of the United States, which unanimously upheld the constitutionality and historical significance of its conflict of interest laws and drew national attention to the State of Nevada. The Nevada Legislature has supported the Commission's transformation in the 2013, 2015 and 2017 Legislative Sessions to strengthen the Code of Ethical Standards and the Commission's processing of cases and advisory opinions.

Upon reflection of the goals and accomplishments during FY19, I am immensely proud of the Commission's efforts and successes at maintaining its significantly increased case load and outreach and education throughout the entire State. Thank you for the opportunity to continue serving the Commission, its staff and the public for these last 10 years. I look forward to pursuing the Commission's mission in the coming fiscal year.

Sincerely,

/s/ Yvonne M. Nevarez-Goodson

I. About the Nevada Commission on Ethics

Nevada Commission on Ethics - Ethics in Government Law:

The Nevada Commission on Ethics is an independent public body appointed equally by the Governor and Legislative Commission to interpret and enforce the provisions of Nevada's Ethics in Government Law, NRS Chapter 281A ("Ethics Law"). The Ethics Law preserves the public's trust in government and ensures that public officers and employees avoid conflicts between their private interests and the interests of the public in carrying out their public duties. The Ethics Law sets forth various standards of conduct to guide public officers and employees to avoid such conflicts and maintain integrity in public service.

The Commission's primary mission includes providing outreach and education to Nevada's public officers, employees and attorneys regarding conflicts of interest and the provisions of the Ethics Law. Encompassed in its educational efforts, the Commission provides advisory opinions to public officers and employees to guide them in compliance with the Ethics Law ("Requests for an Advisory Opinion"). The Commission also enforces the provisions of the Ethics Law by investigating and adjudicating alleged conduct of public officers and employees in violation of the Ethics Law ("Ethics Complaints").

Membership:

The Commission consists of 8 members, appointed equally by the Governor and the Nevada Legislative Commission. The Governor and Legislative Commission must each appoint at least two former public officers or employees and one attorney licensed in the State of Nevada, and no members may be actively involved in any political activity or campaign or conduct lobbying activities for compensation on behalf of private parties. Not more than half of the total commissioners may be members of the same political party or residents of the same county in the State. The appointment criteria establishes independence and objectivity in addressing Requests for Advisory Opinions and Ethics Complaints as applicable to all State and local government elected and appointed public officers and employees. The Commission operated with full membership during FY19.

Requests for Advisory Opinions and Ethics Complaints:

The Commission holds the exclusive statutory authority to interpret and enforce the provisions of the Ethics Law and renders its opinion regarding the applicability of the Ethics Law to public officers and employees via Requests for Advisory Opinion and Ethics Complaints. The Commission's primary mission to provide outreach and education to public officers and employees is consistent with its responsiveness to requests for advisory opinion and efforts to prevent ethics complaints. The Commission staff is responsible for reviewing and preparing all matters accordingly, including jurisdictional and legal analysis and preparation and presentation of evidence for hearings and determinations by the Commission.

Requests for Advisory Opinions:

A public officer or employee may request a confidential advisory opinion from the Commission regarding the applicability of the Ethics Law to his/her own past, present or future circumstances. If the request relates to a conflict of interest between a public duty and private interest, the Commission will conduct a closed hearing or consider the written request under submission and render a confidential opinion in the matter advising the public officer or employee whether there is a conflict of interest and whether or how the ethical standards of conduct apply to the circumstances. To assist the Commission in this process, Commission Counsel collects all relevant facts and circumstances related to the request and prepares a proposed findings of fact presenting the resulting materials to the Commission for its review. Once the Commission renders its opinion, it is published as a formal written opinion on its website making it available to the public. The Commission will publish an abstract opinion in the matter if the confidentiality is retained by the public officer or employee. The Commission's advice is binding with respect to future conduct and certain advice related to present or future conduct may be subject to judicial review for errors of law or abuses of discretion.

In its proposed legislation for 2019, the Commission identified various areas where its advisory opinions could become a better tool for outreach and education. Specifically, the Commission proposed providing the ability to seek an advisory opinion to agency legal counsel who are charged with representing public officers and employees regarding the Ethics Law and sought the ability to consult with agency legal counsel regarding issues that affect an agency in the course and scope of providing the advisory opinions. While these proposals were not enacted during the Legislative Session, the Commission will consider whether to propose similar legislation next session.

Ethics Complaints:

Any person may file and the Commission may initiate an ethics complaint against a public officer or employee alleging a violation of the Ethics Law for which the Commission may investigate the allegations, conduct hearings and impose penalties or sanctions. If the Commission has jurisdiction regarding an ethics complaint and it is properly filed with sufficient information to support the allegations, the Executive Director will investigate the matter and make a recommendation to a three-member review panel of the Commission regarding whether the evidence is sufficient to warrant a hearing and written opinion in the matter. If the Panel determines that the matter supports just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion, it may be resolved through the Panel's approval of a deferral agreement between the Executive Director and the subject of the ethics complaint, or it may be referred to the Commission for further proceedings, including an adjudicatory hearing, stipulated agreement or dispositive motions. Many ethics complaints have been concluded via other appropriate resolutions such as letters of caution or instruction.

II. Legislative Matters

During FY19, the Commission proposed a vigorous bill draft request to amend various provisions of the Nevada Ethics in Government Law set forth in NRS Chapter 281A to the 2019 Nevada Legislature. The Governor sponsored the proposal which was presented to the Legislature as Senate Bill 129 (“SB 129”). The bill signified efforts by the Commission over several years of public meetings and stakeholder input to address amendments that would promote and clarify the Ethics in Government Law. In particular, the bill was aimed at increasing and clarifying due process, transparency in the Commission’s processes, additional outreach and education, confidentiality protections, streamlining procedural requirements, and addressing jurisdictional issues. Unfortunately, the bill did not pass during the Legislative Session. The Executive Director intends to reassess the Commission’s priorities and propose recommendations to the Commission throughout the next fiscal year for future legislative reforms. In summary, SB 129 proposed the following amendments to NRS Chapter 281A, the Ethics in Government Law:

1. Requests for Advisory Opinions

Increase accessibility to the Commission for advisory opinions from state and local governmental agencies and cooperation therewith and clarify proceedings and confidentiality with regard to issuance of advisory opinions.

2. Ethics Complaints

Significant clarifications and procedures to enhance transparency and due process for ethics complaints, including jurisdictional determinations, investigations and adjudication.

3. Ethical Standards of Conduct

Clarify scope of ethical standards that apply to public officers and employees, including cooling-off prohibitions, abuse of power/authority, misuse of government resources, disclosure and abstention obligations and prohibited contracts.

4. Open Meeting Law (“OML”) Exemption/Application

Under current law, the Commission is exempt from OML for its proceedings regarding requests for advisory opinion, review panels and for its receipt of information and deliberations regarding ethics complaints. Final actions taken in an ethics complaint must comply with OML. Given the dynamics of the confidential adjudicatory process, this bill would have made the final action exempt from the procedural requirements of OML, which require special notice and public meeting materials. This bill would also have authorized the Commission to delegate litigation decisions to its Chair, Executive Director or both and to allow Commission Counsel to initiate, defend, participate and appeal in legal proceedings with consent or ratification of the Commission or Chair/Executive Director (if so delegated). Such delegation would be exempt from OML during the confidential phase of requests for advisory opinion proceedings or ethics complaints. The Commission would continue to maintain its transparency by publishing all decisions on its website, which is accessible to the public.

5. Jurisdiction of State Legislators

Current law limits the Commission’s jurisdiction over State legislators to when they are performing core legislative functions. Additionally, only a Legislator’s own house can discipline a legislator for conduct that is afforded protection by principles of legislative privilege and immunity. SB 129 would have provided a procedural mechanism for the Commission to confidentially refer appropriate cases to the Legislature for review under its jurisdiction.

2 FY18 Cases Resolved in FY19 By Panel	1		1

The Commission's case statistics are calculated based on the number of cases received during the fiscal year; however, many cases are not resolved during the same fiscal year they are received, in particular those cases that are received toward the end of the fiscal year. Accordingly, the statistics outlined above are intended to denote not only the cases received and processed during the current fiscal year, but also those that were received in prior years and resolved during the current fiscal year.

Notably, the Commission experienced more than twice the amount of advisory and complaint cases during FY19 from the prior fiscal year. The Commission saw a sizeable increase in the number of requests this fiscal year, which are believed to be attributable to the Commission's increased outreach efforts during the year as well as the Commission's ability to be responsive within a short turn-around time for advisory opinions. In accordance with the Commission's newly adopted regulations from FY18, Commission Counsel established a streamlined system of communication and procedures to ensure the efficient review of advisory requests by submission and approval of written opinions. These requests may be considered by submission or in a hearing before the Commission. The majority of requests for advisory opinion received in FY19 were resolved on written submission of requests and draft opinions, rather than formal hearings, which significantly increased the Commission's ability to produce advice in a timely manner. It is anticipated that the Commission will continue to receive more requests for advisory opinion as the State's public officers and employees are better educated regarding the applicability of the Ethics Law and their responsibilities thereunder.

<sup>8</sup> Many complaints received during a fiscal year are not investigated or resolved during the same fiscal year, depending on when the complaint is received. Of the 13 complaints investigated in FY18, the Commission only resolved 7 of those cases during the fiscal year. The remaining 6 complaints from FY18 were resolved in FY19: Complaint Nos. 18-005C – stipulation; 18-011C – panel dismissal; 18-024C – panel dismissal; 18-028C – panel dismissal with letter of caution; 18-031C – stipulation; and 18-039C - stipulation. Furthermore, in FY18, the Commission resolved 5 outstanding complaints from FY17: Complaint Nos: 16-80C – panel dismissal; 16-81C – stipulation; 17-22C – panel dismissal; 17-23C – panel deferral agreement; and 17-24C – panel dismissal with letter of caution, were resolved in FY18 and Complaint No. 17-21C was resolved in FY19.

With regard to ethics complaints, the Commission received and investigated more than twice the amount of complaints this fiscal year than the prior year. The majority of cases received waivers of statutory deadlines by the subjects of the complaints. For those cases wherein the subject did not waive the 70-day deadline, the cases were given investigatory priority. Consequently, older cases have taken longer to investigate. At the end of this fiscal year, the Commission had 15 pending investigations, the oldest from July 2018.

Requests for Advisory Opinions:

The Commission received approximately twice the amount of requests for its advice from the prior fiscal year. Significant staff resources were expended to evaluate all requests, including those that were withdrawn (10 requests), and to conduct research and legal analysis and prepare proposed findings of fact with the requesters. The Commission Counsel then prepares legal memoranda in each case and drafts proposed recommendations based on the Commission's precedential opinions. Finally, the Commission Counsel prepares a written opinion of the Commission's decision for its approval, and a separate abstract opinion for those matters which remain confidential.

Ethics Complaints:

The Commission and its staff reviewed and vetted for jurisdiction and whether an investigation was warranted in every ethics complaint case that was filed, which included formal written staff recommendations and legal analysis, Commission deliberations and determinations, and the issuance of orders and letters, as applicable. Notably, despite the increased case load, the Commission satisfied its 45-day statutory deadline to issue jurisdictional orders in every case. In years prior to FY18, the review and determination for jurisdiction and investigation of an ethics complaint was undertaken solely by staff unless there was an appeal to the Commission. The purpose for reviewing each complaint case is to assure the public that each complaint has been reviewed and considered by the Commission and to otherwise streamline the processing of cases and eliminate the need for appeals. Even when a case is dismissed by the Commission before an investigation, the Commission issues a formal order in the case explaining its decision. In those cases that did not warrant a full investigation, but nevertheless supported additional outreach by the Commission, a letter of caution or instruction was issued.

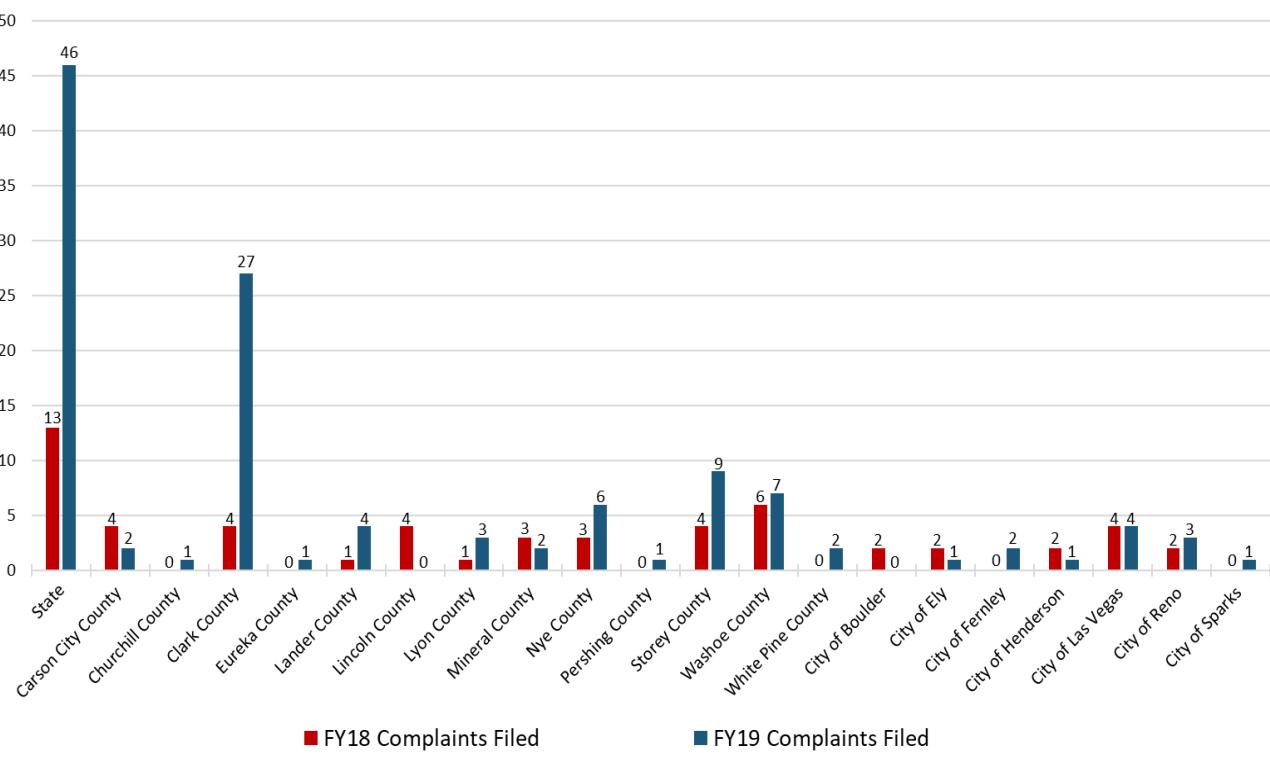

Final dispositions of an ethics complaint, including deferral agreements and stipulations, reflect significant negotiation and legal procedure between the Executive Director and Associate Counsel with the subject of a complaint, often after a full investigation has been conducted. The staff time required to review each ethics complaint, conduct investigations, prepare legal motions or negotiations and compile and present evidence for hearing or settlement is not adequately reflected in the final statistics. For example, the Commission held an adjudicatory hearing this year that encompassed a full day of testimony, presentation of evidence and deliberations of the Commission, which occurred after months of hearing preparation by the Associate Counsel and Executive Director.

The Commission does not control the number of ethics complaints that may be filed in any particular year; however, the Commission's outreach and education, and accessibility of complaint forms through the Commission's website and the statutory protection of the identity of certain requesters may be attributable to the increased number of complaints. If requested, the Commission is required to protect the identity of a requester who works for the same agency as the subject of the complaint.

Penalties/ Sanctions Imposed:

In FY19, the Commission imposed $41,734.28 in civil penalties for willful violations of the Ethics Law. Pursuant to State law, the Commission collects and deposits all funds received from the imposition of sanctions into the State General Fund. Subjects who do not pay the civil sanction debt are turned over to the State Controller for collection. Notably, many of the resolutions which imposed these sanctions authorized the payment of these penalties over 1 or 2 years.

Documents Filed:

Pursuant to NRS 281A.500, public officers filed 695 Acknowledgment of Ethical Standards Forms (“Acknowledgment Forms”) with the Commission for calendar year 2018. This is a significant decrease from the prior calendar year of over 1,000 Acknowledgment Forms that were filed. Public officers are required to file an Acknowledgment Form within 30 days of any appointment and reappointment to a public office or special election, and on or after January 15 following a general election for each term of office. The number of Acknowledgment Forms filed generally increases following educational outreach by the Commission as the awareness of this requirement is implemented throughout the State and local jurisdictions. The Commission acknowledged its limitations in enforcing the filing of Acknowledgment Forms in its legislation (SB 129) by seeking to impose a requirement for all State and local agencies to provide a master list of public officers throughout the state and impose administrative penalties for failure to file. The ability to enforce the required filing of Acknowledgment Forms is an important goal to assure public officers understand the Ethics Law and will be pursued again in the future.

The Commission's website allows for submission of Acknowledgment Forms directly through the website and the Commission anticipates it will make the filed forms publicly available in searchable format on the Commission's website during the next fiscal year.

IV. Litigation & Appellate Review:

During FY19, the Commission defended several of its decisions that were the subject of petitions for judicial review and other litigation initiated in State courts.

Commission Case No.15-74A (Confidential Subject) – Nevada Supreme Court Case No. 73105 and Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada Case No. CV16-0211

In response to this confidential request for an advisory opinion filed by Confidential Subject, the Commission issued an opinion regarding the application of the disclosure and abstention provisions of the Ethics Law to the Confidential Subject's private circumstances. Confidential Subject filed a Petition for Judicial Review in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada in and for the County of Washoe, Case No. CV16-02118, asserting that the Commission committed various errors of law, including constitutional errors. The District Court upheld the Commission's determination regarding disclosure and concluded that the Commission's opinion did not violate any constitutional protections. However, the Court overturned the Commission's determination regarding abstention.

The Commission filed a Notice of Appeal with the Nevada Supreme Court asserting that the District Court lacked jurisdiction to consider Subject's Petition for Judicial Review and had committed error in its reversal of the Commission's abstention analysis. The Confidential Subject filed a cross-appeal asserting the District Court committed error in its affirmation of the Commission's opinion related to disclosure and its dismissal of the constitutional claims. All pleadings were filed under seal with the Nevada Supreme Court, Case No. 73105, to maintain the statutory confidentiality of the Commission's opinion. The Nevada Supreme Court considered the briefs of the parties and issued a unanimous en banc order in favor of the Commission on July 18, 2018. The order vacated the District Court's judgment and remanded the case to the District Court to enter an order dismissing the petition for lack of jurisdiction. Dismissal was duly entered by the District Court on July 26, 2018. Thereafter, the Commission proceeded to publish an abstract of its original opinion.

Commission Case No. 16-54C (Antinoro) – Nevada Supreme Court Case No. 74206 and
First Judicial District Court Case No. 17 OC 00138

The Commission issued a final opinion finding that Subject Antinoro committed a willful violation of the Ethics Law by using government letterhead as a mechanism to endorse a political candidate and the Commission imposed a $1,000 sanction. Subject Antinoro filed a Petition for Judicial Review of the Commission's decision in the First Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada in and for Carson City, Case No. 17 OC 00138, asserting that the Commission committed legal error and asserting a constitutional challenge to NRS 281A.400(7). The Commission filed a motion to dismiss asserting the Court lacked jurisdiction to consider the petition due to noncompliance with the mandatory requirements of Nevada's Administrative Procedures Act set forth in NRS Chapter 233B, including failing to name all parties of record in the administrative proceedings and failing to exhaust administrative remedies. The District Court granted the motion to dismiss in favor of the Commission. Subject Antinoro filed a Notice of Appeal with the Nevada Supreme Court, Case No. 74206. The issues presented on appeal were briefed by the parties and the appeal was directed by the Nevada Supreme Court to the Nevada Court of Appeals for consideration.

On May 24, 2019, the Nevada Court of Appeals issued an Order of Reversal and Remand indicating, in part, that at the time the District Court dismissed the petition, it did not have the benefit of the Nevada Supreme Court's opinion in Prevost v. State, Dep't of Admin., 134 Nev Adv. Op. No. 42, ___, 418 P. 3d 675, 676 (2018), which clarified prior case precedent and determined that the failure to identify a party in the caption of the petition for judicial review is not a fatal jurisdictional defect when the petitioner attached a copy of the underlying administrative decision that identified the parties. The Court of Appeals also determined that exhaustion of remedies was not required by application of NRS Chapter 281A and NAC Chapter 281A. Upon remand, the District Court issued an Order for Briefing Schedule and the parties are in the process of preparing their respective briefs on the merits.

Commission Case No. 17-21C (Antinoro) – First Judicial District Court Case No. 19 OC 00073 1B

The Commission issued a final opinion finding that Subject Antinoro committed a willful violation of the Ethics Law by using government property in furtherance of his significant personal interest in supervising a child visitation matter for members of his family at the Sheriff's office, and the Commission imposed a $2,500 sanction. Subject Antinoro filed a Petition for Judicial Review of the Commission's decision in the First Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada in and for Carson City, Case No. 19 OC 00073 1B, asserting that the Commission committed an abuse of discretion because its opinion was not supported by substantial evidence and not in compliance with the requirements of NRS 281A.400 (7). On May 13, 2019, Subject Antinoro concluded the litigation by voluntarily dismissing the case with prejudice. The Commission's final opinion stands as issued.

Shull v. Roseman University, Desert Springs Hospital, Nevada Commission on Ethics, et al. - Eighth Judicial District Court Case No. A-18-783874-C

On November 2, 2018, Frederick H. Shull, Jr. pro se, filed a complaint naming a number of defendants, including the Commission. The complaint sought declaratory relief under the Nevada Uniform Judgment Act against all defendants. The claims applicable to the Commission were associated with Plaintiff's request for the District Court to declare that co-defendants Accreditation Counsel for Pharmacy Education ("ACPE"), a nonprofit organization located in Chicago, Illinois, and its Executive Director, Peter Vlasses had violated Nevada's Ethics in Government Law and breached their duty of reasonable care associated with ACPE's compliance standards pertaining to pharmacy educational curriculums. While the Commission was waiting service of process on the complaint, two other defendants pursued a motion to dismiss and other filings. Plaintiff Shull responded to the motion to dismiss, which response included the filing of a First-Amended Complaint. The First-Amended Complaint removed claims and defendants from the case, including the Commission. The litigation is proceeding against the remaining named defendants and is concluded with respect to the Commission.

V. Fiscal Matters

Commission Budget:

The Commission derives its funding based upon a proportionate split between the State General Fund and certain of Nevada's local governments (cities and counties). The portion attributable to the local governments is based on a proportionate split relative to the respective populations of the cities and counties.

The Commission's funding split between the State General Fund and local governments for each biennium is based upon the jurisdictional split between the number of public officers and employees who serve the State versus local governments. Accordingly, the Commission relied upon and the Legislature-approved objective labor data reported by the Nevada Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation showing a split of Nevada's public officers and employees between State and local governments at approximately 28 percent State and 72 percent local governments.

FY19 wrapped up the second year of the Commission's biennial budget. The Commission expended nearly the entirety of its legislatively approved budget for the fiscal year, which reflects the projected operating costs requested and approved for the fiscal year. The Commission's legislatively approved budget for FY19 was $892,661 including personnel (salaries/benefits), travel, operating expenses, court reporting, information technology equipment and services and other State-related cost allocations and assessments. Other than personnel and operating costs, the Commission's primary efforts to provide outreach and education regarding the Ethics in Government Law and respond to advisory requests and ethics complaints establish the largest fiscal impacts on the Commission's budget.

Given the legislative priorities and demands on Commissioners and staff during FY19 to respond to its increased case load and ongoing outreach efforts, the Commission held fewer in person meetings, which enabled Commission staff to utilize the Commission's travel budget for investigations and training efforts throughout the state.

The Commission's budget objectives in FY19 included direction to the Executive Director to seek numerous enhancements from the Legislature, including additional staff, digital training resources, information technology resources, additional travel to accommodate investigations and outreach/education, and appropriate salary enhancements for certain staff positions within the agency to establish parity with similar positions in other State agencies, in particular, the Commission's counterpart in the Judicial Branch, the Nevada Judicial Discipline Commission. The Nevada Legislature approved the Commission's request for information technology resources.

Recognizing the Commission's continuous requests for salary parity, the 2017 Legislature adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution ("SCR") 6, which required an Interim Salary Study of the Unclassified and Nonclassified positions in State Government to better inform the Legislature how salaries are analyzed and whether the salaries are competitive with private sector positions and similar positions within State Government. SCR 6 specifically named the Ethics Commission as one of the entities to be studied. The Commission participated in this Interim Study during FY18, which consisted of a report regarding how positions and salaries are tiered within the Unclassified Pay system and a salary survey of similar agencies in the private sector and other State and local governments.

The results of the salary survey confirmed a significant disparity in pay for the Commission's Executive Director, Commission Counsel and Associate Counsel from similarly situated positions within the private sector and the related governmental entities. The Salary Study Committee issued a report to the 2019 Legislature and the Governor, but none of the agency salaries were adjusted.

Going forward, the Executive Director will work with the Commission to determine its priorities for additional positions and salary projections. In continuing to achieve the Commission's mission of education and outreach and as the case load increases and demands on staff become greater to process those cases, it will be necessary to consider increasing staff with appropriate positions and to continue to streamlining case and opinion management; and modernizing the Commission's tools and resources for outreach and educational programs.

VI. Outreach & Education Program

In FY19, the Commission continued its program of outreach and education to Nevada's public officers and employees and public attorneys. This fiscal year included the period encompassing the 2019 Legislative Session, which typically leads to a decrease in the number of presentations by the Executive Director. However, even under the demands of the Session, the Executive Director was able to continue outreach at nearly the same pace as the prior fiscal year. The Executive Director travelled to a significant number of rural communities in the State as well as maintained outreach to the jurisdictions that request training on an annual basis. This year, the Commission offered increased representation in the northern rural communities by both the Executive Director and Commission Counsel. The outreach included an emphasis on conflicts of interest and understanding the prohibitions under the Code of Ethical Standards.

The Commission has expressed its intention to increase the number and type of outreach in the future to promote its primary mission of education, including modernizing public and media outreach. Given the staffing limitations, the Commission will continue to seek a budget enhancement during the next biennium to acquire resources for digital outreach and training as well as a plan to increase general outreach to the public at large.

Ethics Trainings - FY19

Trainings Provided to:	Number of Ethics in Government Law Trainings Presented:
State Government Entities	15
Local Government Entities	17
Other	1
Total	33

In addition to the Commission's training program, the Commission engages in other outreach efforts via staff communications and correspondence with the public. The Commission staff provides regular, often daily, feedback for the public, public officers and employees and attorneys regarding the applicability of NRS Chapter 281A and Commission's opinion precedent.

VI. Closing Remarks

FY19 can be best summarized as a year of tremendous growth. Not only did the Commission experience political growth in navigating various legislative and budgetary reforms, but it experienced a significant increase of its overall case load. Whether it is a symptom of the types of cases and nature of alleged conduct, or the pursuit by the Commission for more accountability in government service, FY19 demonstrated a number of cases involving incredible examples of abuse of power and/or mismanagement of government resources resulting in the imposition of significantly higher sanctions than the Commission has imposed in prior years. The Commission and its staff have been remarkably responsive to the public and increased case load during FY19, and have complied with all statutory deadlines for preliminary and final resolutions of its cases. These successes are to be celebrated all while the Commission embraces future efforts to revisit issues left unresolved in FY19, including further streamlining of advisory and complaint processes and modernizing outreach and educational programs.

The members of the Commission and its staff remain dedicated to the mission of the agency to ensure the public's trust in those holding public office, which is held for the sole benefit of the people.
