

Ethics Checklist for Newly Elected Officials

Nevada Commission on Ethics
1,205 followers

November 12, 2024

Congratulations! You've won your race.

Welcome to your new role as a public officer. Follow this guide to set yourself up for success in ethical compliance throughout your public service.

Check these items off your to-do list:

5 Steps to Start Governing with Ethics

1. Submit Your Acknowledgment Form by January 15th

Review the Ethics Laws in NRS 281A prior to submitting your form.

2. Complete Ethics Training through Nevada Ethics Online

Ensure you're equipped with foundational knowledge of ethical standards.

3. Stay Informed

Follow us on X \(formerly Twitter\), LinkedIn, and subscribe to our quarterly newsletter for updates and resources.

4. Bookmark Key Resources at ethics.nv.gov

Quick access to the Ethics Manual, Opinions Database, and Resources Page will keep you informed on best practices.

5. Attend Our Briefing for Newly Elected Officers Monday, January 13th, 2025 at 12:15pm –

Gain insights directly from our team on ethical compliance expectations. Register here

If you're facing an ethical question related to your own conduct, the Nevada Commission on Ethics is here to help. You can submit a request for an advisory opinion, which provides personalized ethics guidance. This ensures that you're acting within the ethical framework outlined in our ethics laws.

Prior to the recent regulatory changes, elected officials new to public service had to wait until taking office to request advisory opinions from the Commission. No need to wait any longer; reach out as soon as you are elected to request an advisory opinion.

For more information, or to stay informed on ethics resources, connect with us on social media or email us at ncoe@ethics.nv.gov. Remember, we're here to support you in maintaining high ethical standards!

Mark your calendar!

Jan. 13th – Attend 45 min Ethics Briefing - Register

Jan. 15th – File Acknowledgment Form

Jan. 24th – Attend Newly Elected Local Officials Day of Training - Register