LCB File No. R136-23

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1-7, 10, 12-15 and 17, NRS 281A.290; §§ 8 and 9, NRS 281A.290 and 281A.675; § 11, NRS 291A.290, 281A.710 and 281A.715; § 16, NRS 281A.290 and 281A.745.

A REGULATION relating to ethics in government; revising provisions governing the functions and duties of the Chair, Vice Chair and Executive Director of the Commission on Ethics and the Commission Counsel; revising provisions governing advisory opinions and ethics complaints; revising provisions governing administration of the Nevada Ethics in Government Law and practice before the Commission; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Under the Nevada Ethics in Government Law (Ethics Law), the Commission on Ethics administers and enforces the Ethics Law and is authorized to issue opinions interpreting the statutory ethical standards established by the Ethics Law and applying those standards to a given set of facts and circumstances. (Chapter 281A of NRS) The Commission issues: (1) advisory opinions requested by a public officer or employee who is seeking guidance on matters which directly relate to the propriety of his or her own past, present or future conduct under the statutory ethical standards or who is requesting relief from certain provisions of the Ethics Law that allow the Commission to grant such relief; and (2) opinions issued in response to an ethics complaint which has been filed with the Commission or initiated by the Commission on its own motion regarding the propriety of the conduct of a public officer or employee under the statutory ethical standards. (NRS 281A.675, 281A.710) The Ethics Law also establishes various procedures that the Commission and its staff must follow when processing, handling, investigating, reviewing, evaluating and adjudicating requests for advisory opinions and ethics complaints. (NRS 281A.670-281A.790) Under the Ethics Law, the Commission is required to adopt any necessary procedural regulations to carry out its duties, including regulations: (1) for the filing or withdrawal of an ethics complaint or a request for an advisory opinion with the Commission; (2) to facilitate the prompt rendition of opinions by the Commission; and (3) related to proceedings concerning an ethics complaint, to facilitate written discovery requests and the disclosure of evidence. (NRS 281A.290)

Existing regulations define the term “presiding officer” to mean either the Chair of the Commission or a member of the Commission appointed by the Chair to preside over a hearing, review panel or meeting of the Commission. (NAC 281A.065) Section 1 of this regulation clarifies that the Vice Chair of the Commission may take the place of the Chair if the Chair is not participating due to abstention, recusal, disqualification or absence. Section 6 of this regulation clarifies that the presiding officer or a court reporter may administer oaths.

Section 3 of this regulation clarifies the circumstances under which the Chair is required to fill vacancies that occur on a review panel.

Existing regulations require the Executive Director of the Commission to make an annual report to the Commission, not later than the second meeting of the Commission of each new fiscal year, regarding its state of affairs for the prior fiscal year and its goals for the new fiscal year. (NAC 281A.180) Section 4 of this regulation changes the deadline to make the annual report due not later than October 31 of each year.

Existing regulations require each written communication or document that is filed with the Commission to be: (1) on a form provided by the Commission or in a format authorized or directed by an order issued by the Commission, a review panel, the Chair, the Executive Director or the Commission Counsel; and (2) submitted in the manner prescribed on the form or in such an order. (NAC 281A.255) Section 5 of this regulation removes the requirements as to a specific form and the format of communication and documents. Section 12 of this regulation makes a conforming change by removing a requirement for the Commission to include specific forms with certain notifications that the Commission is required to provide. Section 17 of this regulation makes a related change by repealing a requirement that a specific form prescribed by the Commission be made available at the office of the Commission and on the Internet website of the Commission. (NAC 281A.615) Section 17 also repeals a requirement that the Executive Director and Commission Counsel provide certain information to the Commission at least 1 week before a meeting of the Commission.

Existing law provides ethical standards that, in general, prohibit public officers and employees from engaging in certain conduct that might affect a person related to the public officer or employee within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity. (NRS 281A.065, 281A.400, 281A.420) Section 7 of this regulation replaces a chart used to assist in determining consanguinity or affinity with a table that contains the same information and which does not change the methodology used to determine consanguinity or affinity.

Existing regulations require the Executive Director and the Commission Counsel to review each request for an advisory opinion that has been filed with the Commission by a public officer or employee and determine whether: (1) the Commission has jurisdiction in the matter; and (2) the request was properly filed with the necessary information for the Commission to render an advisory opinion. (NAC 281A.350) Section 8 of this regulation provides that, for the purpose of determining jurisdiction, a person may be considered a public officer or employee if he or she has been elected to public office or accepted an appointment to public office or public employment but has not yet begun to serve in that role. Section 2 of this regulation makes a conforming change by revising the definition of a “subject” with respect to whom an ethics complaint has been filed or who files a request for an advisory opinion.

If the Executive Director and Commission Counsel determine that the Commission does not have jurisdiction in the matter or that the request for an advisory opinion was not properly filed with the necessary information, existing regulations: (1) require the Executive Director or Commission Counsel to provide notice of that fact to the subject who filed the request; (2) if applicable, require the Executive Director and Commission Counsel to provide an opportunity within a specified period set forth in the notice for the subject to submit supplemental information; and (3) require dismissal of the request for an advisory opinion if the subject does not provide supplemental information within the period of time specified by the Executive Director and Commission Counsel. (NAC 281A.351) Section 9 of this regulation: (1) provides that the period specified in the notice for the subject to submit supplemental information must be at least 14 days; and (2) authorizes the Executive Director or Commission Counsel to waive or extend the deadline set forth in the notice.

Existing regulations: (1) require the Commission to direct the Commission Counsel to prepare a written advisory opinion for certain opinions rendered by the Commission; (2) authorize the Commission to direct the Commission Counsel to prepare an abstract if the materials in the matter are confidential; and (3) require the Commission to publish a copy of each written advisory opinion which is not confidential and each abstract on the Internet website of the Commission. (NAC 281A.375) Section 10 of this regulation clarifies that the Commission will publish an abstract on the Internet website of the Commission if the abstract is prepared by the Commission Counsel at the direction of the Commission.

Existing law and regulations prescribe procedural requirements for initiating or filing an ethics complaint, and prohibit the Commission from initiating an ethics complaint based solely on an anonymous complaint. (NRS 281A.710; NAC 281A.405) Existing law and regulations require the Commission to determine, based on the evidence submitted with an ethics complaint, whether it has jurisdiction in the matter and whether an investigation is warranted in the matter. (NRS 281A.715; NAC 281A.405) Existing regulations require the Executive Director and Commission Counsel, upon receipt of an ethics complaint and before the Commission makes such determinations, to make recommendations to the Commission regarding jurisdiction and whether the evidence submitted is sufficient to warrant investigation. (NAC 281A.405) Section 11 of this regulation provides that if an anonymous complaint is filed or an ethics complaint does not name a person as the subject: (1) the Executive Director shall reject the complaint; and (2) the Executive Director and Commission Counsel shall not make any determination regarding the complaint. For the purpose of preparing such recommendations for the Commission, section 11 authorizes the Executive Director or Commission Counsel to obtain additional information not included in the ethics complaint through any method available to the general public.

Existing regulations: (1) authorize a party to file a written motion with the Commission under certain circumstances relating to an ethics complaint; and (2) if oral arguments are authorized on the motion, require the Commission Counsel to prepare and serve on the parties a notice of hearing that identifies the date, time and location of the hearing on the motion. (NAC 281A.442) Section 13 of this regulation requires the notice of hearing to also include the time limit for oral arguments.

Existing regulations: (1) provide that the provisions for civil discovery set forth in the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure do not apply to ethics complaints; and (2) authorize a party to file a motion with the Commission under certain circumstances relating to requests for discovery. (NAC 281A.444) Section 14 of this regulation requires the Commission Counsel to consider and issue an order regarding any such discovery motion in accordance with the procedures set forth in existing regulations for other written motions relating to ethics complaints.

Existing law and regulations authorize the Executive Director or the subject of an ethics complaint to request that a subpoena be issued by the Commission relating to the ethics complaint by filing a written request for a subpoena at the office of the Commission. (NRS 281A.300; NAC 281A.448) Section 15 of this regulation replaces the requirement that the written request be filed at the office of the Commission with a requirement that the written request be filed with the Commission.

If a review panel refers an ethics complaint to the Commission for further proceedings or if the Commission vacates an agreement with the subject of the ethics complaint to defer further proceedings in the matter, existing law requires the Commission to hold an adjudicatory hearing and render an opinion on the ethics complaint within 60 days. Existing law also authorizes the subject of the ethics complaint to waive the 60-day requirement. (NRS 281A.745) Section 16 of this regulation removes duplicative language in existing regulations that is identical to these requirements in existing law.
